“Ted Lieu boycotting Trump’s inauguration” [Issue #903]

I am so proud of my congressional representative, Rep. Ted Lieu, for refusing to participate in the inauguration of an illegitimate president, elected by an overwhelming minority of American voters in an election tainted by FBI director Comey’s comments which violated federal policy and leaks of hacked emails likely provided by Russian hackers to those who disseminated them.

By the time this letter appears, I hope Rep. Lieu and his colleagues have moved to impeach President Trump for clearly violating the emoluments clause of the U.S. Constitution which he is sworn to uphold, the anti-nepotism law passed by Congress in 1967, and likely high treason for subordinating our country’s interests to Russian President Putin’s interests, likely because of either business deals or compromising sex videotapes.

*Daniel Fink, M.D.
Beverly Hills*

Open letter to Congressman Ted Lieu:
It is sad to think that those who presumably represent us will not attend the inauguration of the president-elect of the U.S.

You must be aware that over 50 million persons want him to lead our government after enduring the last eight distressing years of Mr. Obama.

You must also know that Israel will now have several years to relax and make the best deal they can in order to live in peace in their country. It seems that you have your mind in the right place when it comes to Israel. In my opinion there is an anti-Semitic group in Congress, all of whom are democrats, including I believe 13 or so from California.

I think you are wrong in not going and it is at the very least to show respect for the office of the President.

Not since Reagan has a Jew led in prayers at an inauguration, but Trump will have Rabbi Hier officiate tomorrow.

Let’s look back to the presidential election of 1860. While the Republicans were firmly behind their nominee, Abraham Lincoln, the Democrats were hopelessly splintered because he wanted to abolish slavery.

THIS IS ABOUT RESPECT.

Board of Education divided over extending their terms

The Board of Education is divided on whether or not they will extend their terms.

At Tuesday's meeting, the Board began a discussion as to how they intend to comply with a new state law mandating the consolidation of local elections with statewide general elections.

Senate Bill 415, approved on Sept. 1, 2015, requires city councils and school districts to change the election date to either the statewide primary or general election date, if the agency's voter turnout is at least 25 percent lower than its average turnout for the last four general elections.

"No one is meeting that threshold," said attorney Jabari Willis, who gave a presentation about SB415 during the meeting.

Therefore, the Board is required to take action by Jan. 1, 2018. They are tasked with creating a resolution, which will detail how they will change their current election cycle from odd numbered years to even years before November 2022.

Board members Howard Goldstein, Noah Margo and presumably Vice President Lisa Korbatov were in favor of extending all current terms by one year.

"As we're all working toward a district wide deficit reduction program, it is fiscally prudent for us to move to an election cycle in an even year," Goldstein said.

President Mel Spitz and Board member Isabel Hacker suggested a different approach. The two argued that all current terms should remain the same. Instead, they recommended that the board members up for election in 2017 and 2019 run with a commitment to five year terms, ending in 2022 and 2024 respectively.

"This process allows voters to willingly understand the next set of board members would serve for five years and they are actively involved in that process," Hacker said. "[It] is obvious to me there is no compelling compliance need for legal, financial or fiduciary reason for any of us to make this decision now or give ourselves an additional year other than to satisfy a self serving motive."

Although Korbatov declined comment during the discussion item, she later spoke out against Hacker's argument.

"No one is paid to sit up here," Korbatov said. "Nobody gets any perks. They get free water. It's a lot of work, [at times] a lot of aggravation and a lot of wonderful self fulfillment. But by no means do I think there's anything self aggrandizing."

If the Board votes to extend their terms, Korbatov is expected to be the next president in 2018. Normally, her term would have ended in November.

Other districts have already adopted resolutions to comply with SB 415. San Marino Unified and the Las Virgenes Unified School Districts have already voted to approve a one year extension in the current board members' terms.

Jurisdictions such as the West Hollywood City Council voted to move its municipal election date to coincide with state and national elections. The candidates elected to their Council on March 7 will have their terms reduced by four months.

School boards are not permitted to reduce their four year terms, according to Willis.

The resolution is expected to return for a vote at the next board meeting on Feb. 7.

"City finalizes candidates running for City Council on March 7" [Issue #899]

I am so pleased and impressed that Jim Wayne has decided to run for Beverly Hills City Council. I seldom, if ever, get into any politics, but I have known Jim for 24 years, as my family has a shop on South Santa Monica between Camden and Rodeo, two doors from his Jim Wayne Salon and he is an honest, 'say it as he sees it' kind of fellow. And I feel strongly that we desperately need small businesses represented on the council.

If not, Beverly Hills is in danger of becoming one really ultra fancy (for lack of a better word) mall – similar to what happened in Lake Arrowhead when the charming "village" was turned into a modern outlet center. Of course, large businesses are important and draw focus, money, and tourists to our city, but once those tourists are here, they are charmed by the smaller shops – which have a tendency to get lost in the shuffle and their needs are not always considered.

It's important that small businesses have a voice, and I know that Jim will bring a common-sense and hands on approach. Jim and I have both felt that our voices have not really been heard, given credence, and answered by our city officials. He is a Beverly Hills resident, and has a son at El Rodeo. He cares that Beverly Hills retain the heart and character it always has had, and that every business owner and resident is truly heard and treated fairly.

Postal service slow to improve in Beverly Hills

The City Council continued to address concerns by the residents and businesses of Beverly Hills regarding issues with the level of service and delivery from the Beverly Hills post office.

"The Beverly Hills Post Office has lost mail, been late in delivering mail, delivered mail to incorrect addresses, has had long lines and wait times, and other service delivery and customer service related issues," according to the staff report.

This item was originally scheduled for discussion by the Council at the Dec. 20, 2016 study session and was postponed until Jan. 10. The post office had representatives present at the Dec. 20 meeting and have since issued a letter to the Council offering different strategies to help address the City's concerns.

Officer-in-Charge Delisa Jackson began hosting meet and greet opportunities on Jan. 6 in the lobby of the Beverly Hills Main Office, located on North Maple Drive. These are expected to take place every Friday from 10:00 am. until 3:00 p.m. so customers can speak with her directly about their issues with the post office.

"My concern is with these recommendations we need to have follow up," said Councilmember Lili Bosse. "The stories that we're hearing are beyond ridiculous in terms of if people get mail, when they get mail. It's absurd."

Additionally, city staff recommended arranging a meeting, through the City's federal lobbyist, between Congressman Ted Lieu's office, the Postmaster General and the Council.

"It should be coming directly from us at this point because the other avenues haven't worked," said Councilmember Kathy Reims.

Last Wednesday, Jan. 18 the South Beverly Drive post office did not open until 11:30 a.m. when an employee did not show up for work.

Fine Arts Commission considers purchase of multi-million dollar Lichtenstein piece

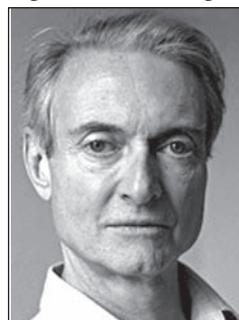

"Coups de Pinceau"

The Fine Arts Commission considered the acquisition of a sculpture from Roy Lichtenstein's "Brushstrokes" collection, at its meeting on Thursday, Jan. 19.

Currently, the piece is located on the campus of the Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts, at the North West corner of Crescent Drive and South Santa Monica Boulevard.

In 2015, the Commission was told that the piece was on a five year loan from the Roy Lichtenstein Foundation; however, the term was actually three years and the loan expired on Oct. 31, 2016, according to the staff report. If a buyer is not found in the near future, the piece will be removed.

Roy Lichtenstein

The staff report also indicated that the Foundation has priced the sculpture at $6.5 million, but there is the ability to offer the piece to the City at a discounted price. The sculpture, "Coups de Pinceau," was created in 1988 by Lichtenstein as one in a series of heroic-scaled sculptures created during the last decade of the artist's life. It was originally brought to the Commission for possible purchase in January 2015; however, at the time the commissioners decided against it.

Architecture Commission approves sign program for 338 North Canon Dr.

338 North Canon Dr. was approved for a sign program, which included business identification signage, at the Architectural Commission meeting on Jan. 18.

The building is home to multiple businesses including Salon 90210, Hologram USA and FilmOn TV. Each tenant occupies an individual floor, according to property owner Albert Ahobim.

"[I've] had problems with the City," Ahobim said during the meeting. "The building needs signs."

All of the businesses currently have signs. According to the staff report, the business and building identification signs were installed without permits.

The Weekly attempted to access more information about applying for business identification on beverlyhills.org; however, content listed under the "Commercial Buildings" section has yet to be posted online.

The Commercial Signage brochure is available online, outlining prohibited conditions such as display of banners, moving signs, unapproved business signs/ graphics and unapproved graphics on awnings or outdoor furniture.

"Right now, by right, you don't get three signs for building identification," said Chair Gidas Peteris.

The total building identification sign area of a building cannot exceed two percent of the vertical surface area of one side, according to the Municipal Code. Five foot business identification signs are permitted on any one side of a building and no more than four signs are permitted per building.

The Commission approved a sign program with an accommodation to allow multiple building identification signs.

The devised physical theater piece that asks audiences to examine the role words play in creating a culture of fear and division, or a culture of empathy and unity, is directed Madeleine Dahm.

Councilmembers honor Reza Pahlavi with key to the City

Reza Pahlavi, son of the late shah of Iran, visited Beverly Hills on Monday, Jan. 23 to receive a key to the City.

Mayor John Mirisch and Councilmember Lili Bosse presented Pahlavi with the distinguished honor. The event was hosted by Nooshin and Yar Meshkaty.

Over 100 guests were invited to the Beverly Hills Municipal Gallery to hear from the Crown Prince of Iran.

"It's always an honor to receive such a warm reception anywhere in the world, in any city," Pahlavi told the Weekly.

"Of course, Beverly Hills is special in the sense of the Iranian community that has lived here for a long time now. California, and [specifically] the Los Angeles area, is one of the largest concentrations of diasporas of Iranians anywhere in the world. As such, it is a very affluent and a very successful community. It is extremely important in having an impact, not just here in the U.S., but even as far as Iran itself."

Pahlavi has lived in exile of Iran since 1978. "I [have] always believed that the Iranian community should be extremely vocal and engaged. I think that the community here in Los Angeles, and particularly Beverly Hills, can make a huge difference. Their words can be heard, they have influence around the world and they should utilize such capabilities in the right direction."

In his speech, Pahlavi addressed his concerns about environmental degradation in Iran. "The water crisis, which is not limited to Iran, could become one of the greatest issues of this century. [It] would add to further displacement of people and migration. A combination of both terrible mismanagement of our resources, and [at the same time] factors that are related to global warming and climate issues have not made the task any easier. I've been trying to communicate the concern to a variety of scientists and specialists. I would like to propose

here tonight, for those of you who are interested or have the necessary contacts, skills or connections, to form a specific committee to be in charge of studying the problem, coming up with practical solutions to try to minimize the damage already done and hopefully reverse the trend before it is too late."

The following day, Pahlavi attended a private meeting with activists and leaders from the Iranian American Jewish Federation at the Museum of Tolerance.

Nooshin Meshkaty currently serves on the Traffic and Parking Commission and her husband, Yar, is the former chair of the Human Relations Commission.

Pahlavi travels the world meeting with heads of state, legislators, policy-makers, interest groups and student groups to speak out against the Islamic regime in Iran. He is an advocate for the establishment of a secular democracy.

He currently lives in Maryland, but is a frequent visitor to Beverly Hills.

BEVERLY HIGH ALUMNI INDUCTED INTO HALL OF FAME

Honorees discuss how Beverly High shaped their lives

By Madelyn Pariser

BUSTER MANN
Class of 1959

Buster Mann went to El Rodeo and graduated from Beverly High, where he played varsity football, basketball and baseball.

He was captain of the varsity basketball team, made All-League his senior year and played guard on the All-Tourney team. Buster was the second highest scorer in the league as a senior.

During his free time, he was a member of the A Cappella Choir and part of the Norman Shield group, which was Letterman interested in the welfare of the school by helping to promote campus clean-up.

Mann played baseball at Valley College where he majored in Physical Education. Unfortunately, his college career ended early due to an elbow injury.

Shortly after Mann married his wife Sharon in 1971, he was involved in a serious accident and was disabled for six years. His high school friends were very supportive at the time which meant a great deal to him.

He had a long career in advertising media with the Yellow Pages and direct mail and retired in 2006. He and his wife moved from West L.A. to Rancho Bernardo in 1981, where they still reside today.

They have been married for 45 years, with three daughters, Candice, Debra and Kristin and five grandchildren ages six to 11 years old.

"I feel grateful and humbled to be honored at the BHAAA dinner," Mann said. "It is very special to be chosen for the BHHS Athletic Hall of Fame when there were so many talented players on our teams. I have many great memories of the guys I played with and who made it possible to have successful teams. The three coaches that inspired me the most were Steve Miletich, my basketball coach during my sophomore and junior years; Chuck Reilly, my basketball as a senior; and I was fortunate to have Hal Sieling as my baseball coach from my sophomore through my senior year."

PETER MICELLI
Class of 1990

Peter Micelli was born in Mount Clemens, Michigan. His family moved to Beverly Hills when he was five years old, where he attended Hawthorne and then Beverly High. He played on the basketball and volleyball teams all four years.

His many high school accomplishments included: First team all Bay League, 1988-1989; LA Times Basketball Player of the Year, 1990 and All CIF in basketball, 1989-1990.

Micelli was the Bay League Basketball MVP in 1989-1990 with an average of 25.3 points per game, 14.8 rebounds and 4.1 blocked shots.

His athletic skills, earned him a basketball scholarship to CSUN. Micelli excelled at both sports so he continued to not only play on the Matador basketball team, but also for the volleyball team.

Upon graduating college, Micelli worked in the mailroom of a Hollywood talent agency. He is now co-head of the television department at CAA where he has been an innovator in the television industry and has been connected to some of the most iconic television series in the last 15 years.

Micelli continues to love sports and has instilled that love in his children. He coaches both his son and daughters in basketball, soccer and baseball.

He and his wife, Jennifer, and their three children, Sheila, Nico and Sofia live in Beverly Hills.

"I credit my wonderful coaching staff Jack Dyck, Jason Newman, [and] Richard Schreiber [for] helping me become the man I am today," Micelli said. "They were some of the best influences on my life and I owe them greatly."

Athletics helps prepare you for life in a very different way than the classroom. I attribute so much of my success to having both influences."

PHILIP SWARTZ
Class of 1967

Captain Philip J. Swartz, United States Navy Reserve Retired, attended Horace Mann and Beverly High. At Beverly High, Swartz excelled at sports, specifically football and wrestling. He started for the varsity team wrestling and played for the football team as a defensive specialist. During his career at Beverly, he earned five varsity letters, four in wrestling and one in football.

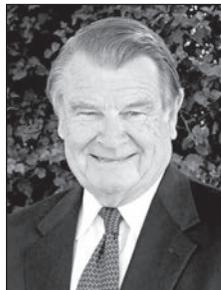

Through encouragement and motivation from his coaches, Dick Keelor and Ben Bushman, Schwartz was the 1967 California Interscholastic Federation wrestling champion, an achievement no other wrestler in the history of Beverly High has ever accomplished.

In 1971 Philip graduated from California State University Northridge with a bachelor's of arts in Communications. He entered the United States Navy and became a Naval Aviator. He continued his education with a Master's degree from Webster College. During his 30 years in the Navy, he accumulated over 250 carrier landings, was Commander of a naval squadron, and flew combat missions in Desert Shield/Desert Storm. He retired as a Captain.

Swartz and his wife Connie have four children and four grandchildren. They reside in San Diego, California.

"It is hard to believe that 50 years has passed since I graduated Beverly High in 1967," Swartz said. "I look back with fond memories of my time there and am very honored to be recognized for my accomplishment as a CIF Champion in wrestling."

I am very fortunate to have had Coaches Dick Keelor, Ben Bushman, Tom Gutman and the rest of the coaching staff that help develop myself and all my teammates to become successful athletes, students and good citizens. I used their guidance as I completed college and had a wonderful career as a Navy and commercial airline pilot. Again, thank you BHAAA for this very special honor."

BOB WARD (posthumous)
Class of 1947

Bob Ward was a tri-athlete at Beverly High, playing football, basketball and baseball. He played second base varsity baseball all four years and was co-captain of the team during his senior year.

He earned a spot on the varsity football team as quarterback during his junior year and played varsity basketball as a junior and senior. He led the Normans as captain of the varsity football team when he was a senior.

He was also student body president and his peers voted him most popular male student.

After graduating from high school, he attended the University of Oregon where he earned a bachelor's of science at the school of business. In 1952, he was drafted into the United States Marine Corps and served for two years during the Korean War.

Ward's involvement at Beverly High did not end after graduation. He went on to succeed Justin McCarthy as co-chairman of the Athletic Supporters Society, aka, the "Jocks".

In 1973 he went to work for W.T. Billard, Inc., where he served as Vice President and General Manager for over 30 years.

Ward passed away on Sept. 25, 2008 while he was living in Dana Point. He is survived by his children and their families, brother Richard Ward and wife Dolores, brother-in-law Robert Strock, sister-in-law Judie Ward, and numerous loving nieces and nephews.

Keith Farrell, Class of 1972, is also being inducted into the Hall of Fame but could not be reached in time for comment.

A basket by freshman point guard Arbri Gillis with less than one minute left cut the Eagles lead to one.

She serves as Chairman Emeritus of the California State Summer School Arts Foundation. Appointed by the Governor as a member of the California Arts Council in 1982, Goldberg spearheaded the passage of legislation which established CSSSA in 1987.

She was also one of the founding co-chairs of the Governor's Awards for the Arts to honor California's distinguished artists, and was presented with a resolution by the state legislature for her contributions.

Wendy serves as an executive vice president of Cedars-Sinai Hospital Women's Guild and received the group's "Evie" award for her outstanding contributions.

She is married to Leonard Goldberg, the legendary producer of television, film and former President and Chief Operating Officer of Twentieth Century Fox Film Corporation. In 2015, the Goldberg's donated $10 million to UCLA, primarily to support multidisciplinary research into migraines.

The couple resides in Los Angeles along with daughter Amanda '92, sons John '81 and Richard '84 Mirisch, and their five grandchildren.

"I don't seek recognition for trying to be a good citizen but every now and then it's nice to get a pat on the back," Golderberg said. "I'm very happy to have been included in the Beverly Hills High School Hall of Fame. In addition, it's a great honor to be inducted with my son, John.

All three of my children and I feel very fortunate to have gone through the Beverly Hills school system as it was a terrific education and laid an important foundation for our adult lives. I hope our community continues to support the schools as they add so much to the lives and well-being of the residents of Beverly Hills, including my grandchildren, its future graduates."

JOHN MIRISCH Class of 1981

Mayor John Mirisch is a fourth-generation Beverly Hills resident. He attended Hawthorne and graduated from Beverly High. His mother, Wendy Goldberg, is an alumna of Horace Mann, Beverly High and a fellow 2017 Hall of Fame inductee.

Mirisch participated on the high school debate team, while working on the Highlights staff, first as a cub reporter then moving up to editor of the paper his senior year. His favorite teachers from Beverly High include Gil Chesterton, his journalism teacher who was also the Highlights advisor and Sal Occhipinti, his European History teacher sophomore year.

Mirisch attended Yale University where he graduated magna cum laude.

He started his career at 20th Century Fox in Germany. He later worked as Managing Director of the Austrian office of United International Pictures, followed by running UIP's Swedish office.

After over 20 years abroad, Mirisch returned to Beverly Hills so that his son, Vincent, could attend BHUSD schools and grow up with the same small-town feeling he did.

In 2009, Mirisch successfully ran for City Council. In 2013, he was reelected and served his first term as Mayor. He is currently in his second term as Mayor and running for reelection to the Council in March.

"I'm so proud to be a Norman," Mirisch said. "Being inducted into the BHHS Hall of Fame is, to use one of my principal Sol Levine's favorite words, 'splendiferous.'

It's not just sentimentality and memories, but I look at my time at the high school as a direct connection to my college experience at Yale and beyond, in an unbroken chain.

I'm particularly honored to be inducted at the same time as my mother, and hope that the multi-generational experience of our City and our school district can continue for many of our district's alumni. Now more than ever, I'm committed to helping our school board continue and re-establish our district's history of excellence. Our schools and in particular Beverly High are part of what make Beverly Hills such a special place, a place we are lucky to call home."

3-point baskets in both the third and fourth quarters, Saghian eight, and Isabel Rund one.

"Defensively we played extremely well," Beverly Hills coach John Braddell said. "We had to fix up our defenses a little bit because they hurt us early on in our zone so we got out of our zone and played some man. We struggled offensively."

The midseason move of senior forward Phoenix Gulzar, the team's leading scorer, to Las Vegas has hurt the Norman offense, Braddell said.

The Normans played without three starters who were sidelined by illness for an L.A. West Coast MLK Showcase game Jan. 14 at West Los Angeles College.

Beverly Hills trailed 15-2 at the end of the first quarter, 24-10 at halftime and 42-15 entering the fourth quarter.

Saghian scored five points, Gillis four, and Taylor Asla, Brown and Amanda Lee two each.

Gillis and Saghian each made one 3-point basket.

Norman goalkeeper Maytal Sarafian made eight saves for her ninth shutout of the season in an Ocean League game at Nickoll Field Jan. 13.

A 25-yard shot by Beverly Hills sophomore midfielder Lauren Stein in the final minute of overtime hit the crossbar, Normans coach Ryan Franks said.

"El Segundo had more of the possession, but I felt like we had the more dangerous scoring opportunities on counter-attacks," Franks said. "We are very pleased with our performance against a quality Division 3 opponent like El Segundo. The Ocean League is tough and we will take points however we can get them.”

Sarafian and Beverly Hills defenders Cami Wolf, Montana Logan, Bianca Castro and Ryan Keneally drew praise from Franks.

“Dani Elitzur was dynamic in midfield and Tess Reinhardt produced scoring chances in and around the box,” Franks said.

The Normans retied the score on an own goal in the 97th minute of an Ocean League game at Nickoll Field Jan. 11.

Beverly Hills opened the scoring in the 15th minute on Jonah Okum’s goal off Finn Kesler’s assist. The Cougars scored later in the first half and during on a free kick during the first 10-minute overtime segment.

Norman coach Rick Minars said he was “disappointed with the tie.”

“Dropping three points at home hurts,” Minars said. “We had a lot of early chances that should have been converted.”

Kesler and Okum “allowed us to have good possession of the ball and offensive threats. Both boys also defended well in the midfield,” Minars said.

El Segundo 3, Beverly Hills 1

Okum scored an unassisted goal in the second half to cut the Eagles lead to 2-1 in an Ocean League game at El Segundo Jan. 13.

El Segundo led 1-0 at halftime.

The Eagles are “a very organized unit,” Minars said.

“They did not let us play out of the back and disrupted our midfield play by applying high pressure in these areas of the field,” Minars said. “It also did not help that we played 100 minutes on Wednesday versus Hawthorne. We looked very tired and lethargic.”

Norman goalkeeper Javier Valle “played very well for us,” Minars said.

“He made several crucial saves to keep us in the game until we had pushed the lines high to tie the game up after Jonah Okum scored,” Minars said.

Valle made eight saves.

BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien.

If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you

ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE
requests that Daniel BenDov be appointed

No. 99 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles,

Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A

In compliance with Public Contract Code Section 3300, the City has determined that the Bidder must possess the following license(s): "A"

The successful Bidder will not receive a Contract award if the successful Bidder is unlicensed, does not have all of the required licenses, or one or more of the licenses are not current and active. If the City discovers after the Contract's award that the Contractor is unlicensed, does not have all of the required licenses, or one or more of the licenses are not current and active, the City may cancel the award, reject the Bid, declare the Bid Bond as forfeited, keep the Bid Bond's proceeds, and exercise any one or more of the remedies in the Contract Documents.
