“Rent Stabilization Meeting”

At a recent tenant-landlord forum at Roxbury Park, which unfortunately I was unable to attend, one of our members reported that activists representing a tenants' rights group were handing out flyers and soliciting signatures for a proposed ballot initiative that would repeal the Costa-Hawkins Rental Housing Act of 1995.

This activity was apparently brought to [Community Development Director] Susan Heeley Keene's attention and nothing was done to stop it. I think this type of political activity during a City sponsored community meeting is inappropriate and it should not be permitted.

I hope that [the City Council] will consider setting a policy of proper decorum at any such future meetings.

Correction [Issue #967]

In “Gluck to Manage Bond Campaign,” the article should have clarified that Jon Gluck is in charge of overseeing the campaign's marketing. Also, Gluck is contracted to be paid $10,000, with an additional $5,000 contingent on the campaign fundraising over $50,000.

1111 Maytor Place Granted View Restoration Permit

The Planning Commission unanimously approved on Thursday a request for a View Restoration Permit by 1111 Maytor Place for the removal of six trees at the neighboring property 1100 Maytor Place.

The applicant and foliage owner have been in talks for over two years without reaching an agreement. The failure to reach consensus almost went so far as to reach the City.

Had the hedge at 1100 Maytor Place not been abated by the end of the February 22 Planning Commission meeting, the case would have been referred to the City Prosecutor's office as a misdemeanor complaint.

It was found that additional time was needed for the code enforcement case to adequately evaluate the subject foliage.

Community Preservation Division issued the 1100 Maytor Place property owner an order requiring compliance with the City's hedge height regulations by November 16, 2017. The foliage owner's attorney subsequently requested an extension to the compliance order and the City granted an extension through January 16.

Community Preservation Division staff completed a field visit on December 13, 2017 after the foliage owner's attorney communicated to the City that trimming of the hedge to remedy the code violation had occurred.

“The code enforcement case regarding the non-conforming hedge at 1100 has not been resolved,” said Associate Planner Cynthia de la Torre at the last meeting.

“An administrative citation was issued after a field visit [in] December confirming that the hedge was still in violation.”

At the meeting, Planning Commission Chair Lori Greene Gordon said she would like to call this ordinance the “Good Neighbor” ordinance, stating that if the foliage owner had agreed at some point in the process to at least engage in mediation, they might have reached an agreement favorable to both parties.

Before a View Owner can seek remedies through a View Restoration Permit, a pre-application procedure must be followed. In this case, the applicant first sent a letter to the neighbor at 1100 Maytor Place on October 20, 2016 with no response.

The applicant then sent a letter on November 21, 2016, to be met with no response once again.

Gordon said that “every opportunity” has been given to the foliage owner to comply and respond, to the point where now there is “virtually no choice but to agree with the view owner.”

“Some of these issues [the foliage owner] is complaining about at this point would have been discussed, brought up, and hopefully resolved,” said Gordon. “To wait nearly two years or however many months this has been going on a long time is an extraordinary thing. Neighbors can and should work together to resolve these issues.”

The commission's approval is appealing to the City Council for the next 14 days.

Weller-Schreiber Building Could Become Landmark

The Cultural Heritage Commission voted unanimously to adopt a resolution recommending that the City Council designate the “Weller-Schreiber Apartment Building” as a Landmark and place it onto the Beverly Hills Register of Historic Properties.

Located at 157 South Crescent Drive, the property is designed in the French Revival—Eclectic Architectural Style. It features characteristics like a mansard roof, quoin details, articulated doors and windows, brick chimneys and entry stoops, and a small garden enclosed by a perimeter wall and hedge at the entry along South Crescent Drive.

According to the staff report, “minimal changes” have occurred to the exterior appearance of the property allowing it to retain “substantial integrity” from its period of significance, 1935.

“I love the fact that we will now have such a variegated collection of multi-family units from various periods of significance in the history of the City of Beverly Hills,” said Commissioner Maralee Beck at the meeting. “This fills a wonderful gap, gives us a French construction, the fact that it is so intact is a wonderful thing to see.”

Commissioner Lisa Greer encouraged the owner Richard E. Schreiber to encourage his neighbors with “beautiful properties” to come forward as well.

The Commission first considered the project at its January 10 regular meeting, where they agreed to initiate the landmark proceedings on the property and conducted a Preliminary Hearing finding that the property appeared to be eligible as a landmark.

Afterwards, the City's historic consultant, Jan Osatashay of Osatashay & Associates Consulting, completed a landmark assessment and evaluation report.

The City Council will review the property at a future date.

Meet the New PTA Presidents

MONIQUE MAAS GIBBONS

Beverly High

Monique Maas Gibbons graduated from Horace Mann School and Beverly High, Class of 1983. She obtained degrees from Wellesley College in Massachusetts (BA in Near Eastern Archaeology) and has a M.Phil. in Islamic Art and Architecture from the University of Oxford, UK. Gibbons worked for many years as a Museum Registrar, both in museums and as a consultant. She and her husband Bradley have two children, Barry, a 2017 Beverly High graduate, and Emilie, a junior at Beverly High.

Monique Maas Gibbons

Gibbons began her involvement in the schools as a room parent at Horace Mann when her kids were in kindergarten, eventually becoming Horace Mann PTA President. She also served as the PTA Council President, and is the immediate past president of BHEF.

“My goals as PTSA President for BHHS [are] to maintain and grow the good working relationship PTSA has with the high school administration and faculty, and to try and get as many parents as possible as supporters of the PTSA,” said Gibbons. “I want all interested parties to realize that the PTSA is there to benefit all students at the high school and to work with us to ensure our kids have the best possible experience during their years at the high school.”

Gibbons worked for many years as a Museum Registrar, both in museums and as a consultant. She and her husband Bradley have two children, Barry, a 2017 Beverly High graduate, and Emilie, a junior at Beverly High.

APRIL JERGENS

Beverly High

April Jergens is a CPR instructor and stepmom of a Beverly High senior and an incoming freshman. Her partner Don Rosen, a 1982 Beverly High graduate, serves on the Citizen’s Oversight Committee.

April Jergens

Jergens says her main goal for the Beverly High PTSA is to devote themselves to making students’ high school experience “the best it can be.” “It’s filled with positive, hard-working parents, teachers, and administrators,” said Jergens. “I’m excited to continue those relationships next year.”

MARVIN WINANS JR.

Beverly Vista

Marvin Winans Jr, who previously served on the Future Focused Schools Team (FFST), first moved to Beverly Hills last August just in time for his son Marvin Winans Jr. III to begin first grade. Winans is a singer and performer, whose album “Image of a Man” is available on iTunes.

As a new parent in the area, Winans said that upon coming here he was very wide-eyed to the whole K-8 experience, but eager to learn about the city and schools. His goals as president include encouraging other parents to get involved as well.

“I just didn’t really know what to expect,” said Winans. “I just want to make people aware of what’s happening, how they can be engaged and excited about the opportunities that exist.”

NATHAN KRUGER

Beverly Vista

Nathan Kruger met his wife Jackie Remesnitsky Kruger, a 1997 Beverly High graduate, during college at UC Berkeley.

Nathan Kruger

A real estate developer, Kruger quickly found himself organizing at Beverly Vista. He even helped to start the Beverly Hills science fair around three years ago.

Now that he’s Co-President, Kruger hopes to reestablish trust and transparency between the parent community and the Beverly Vista PTA—something that he says has been a challenge during leadership transition periods.

“[We want to say,] ‘Hey, this is an organization that can make positive change. There’s no in-fighting and we’re all one happy team,’” said Kruger. “I think that will encourage more parents to give so they can see where their money is going.”

Kruger also pointed out that even though they’re breaking the traditional stereotypes of what most consider the PTA, he and Winans offer a unique perspective that both are excited to flesh out.

“It’s nice to have a little bit of diversity on the Board,” said Kruger. “The hope is that we can encourage more dads, who are notoriously absent from most PTA functions. We bring a completely different mindset and approach.”

MOLLY COREY

El Rodeo

Molly Corey, who attended El Rodeo and is a 1990 Beverly High graduate, now has an first and eighth grader of her own at El Rodeo.

Corey was the co-president this year with Emily Wolf and will be working with Robin Strug next year. She has been involved with PTA for eight years.

“Next year I plan on continuing El Rodeo’s legacy of funding as many fun and innovative programs as possible,” said Corey. “Our PTA is made up of a dedicated group of parents who try super hard to make our kids school a great place. We work as a team to make it all happen.”

Molly Corey

ROBIN STRUG

El Rodeo

An involved El Rodeo parent since 2012, Robin Strug has a 3rd grade daughter, Lilly and 5th grade son, Benjamin. Both have been at El Rodeo since kindergarten.

Strug has served on the PTA, Site Council and Executive Board. One of her main goals is to work closely with Co-President Molly Corey, the rest of the PTA and the El Rodeo staff to “continue improving El Rodeo’s academic and social excellence.”

Robin Strug

“I believe that increasing parent involvement in school and classroom activities and increasing the support we, as a community, provide to teachers and staff will lead to better educational experiences for our children,” said Strug.

JILL SCHWARTZ EGERMAN

Horace Mann

Originally hailing from Long Beach and Palos Verdes, Jill Schwartz Egerman graduated from UC Berkeley and Loyola Law School. She then worked as an environmental lawyer for several years.

Jill Schwartz Egerman

Egerman and her husband Lee, a 1989 Beverly High graduate, have three children, Evan, Aidan and Sydney—all of whom attend Horace Mann.

“I feel lucky that I can spend my time and energy helping at the school, and getting to know the students, teachers and staff that shape my kids’ lives,” said Egerman. “My husband and I both feel that it is important to give back to the community and to be a positive example for our kids.”

Egerman’s main goal for this upcoming year is to strengthen the connections between the PTA and the community.

MARIA BENNETT

Hawthorne

Maria Bennett was born and raised in northern Massachusetts and received her Bachelor of Music degree from Manhattanville College in New York. Bennett worked as a musician in New York for seven years, playing woodwinds, flute, and recorder in an early music ensemble as well as bass in a band.

Maria Bennett

Bennett and her husband have three children, the two oldest of whom graduated from Hawthorne and Beverly High. One is a college senior studying screenwriting, one works in carpentry and construction, and one is in seventh grade at Hawthorne.

One of Bennett’s goals includes adding a PTA paid one-day team building trip to WOLF camp in conjunction with WEB, the middle school transitional program.

“[The goal is] to address unique middle school problems and provide support to sixth grade students struggling to make the transition,” said Bennett.

Bennett is also working on assembling a PTA funding proposal for a middle school intramural program and researching a possible middle school debate team.

MISTY JOHNSON

Horace Mann

This fall will mark Misty Johnson’s eighth year at Horace Mann. Johnson and her husband Rick will have their three children enrolled in kindergarten, third, and seventh grade.

Though she’s originally from Redondo Beach, Johnson has lived all over the country and the world. When she lived in New York, Johnson worked as a senior program manager for a leading branding firm.

Johnson says that she and Co-President Jill Schwartz Egerman are “excited” to work closely together this upcoming year.

“Horace Mann is a diverse and passionate community,” said Johnson. “This year our focus is to serve that community through support from our teachers and to strengthen our core values.”

250 years ago, in 1768, the Stratford England town elders called on David Garrick, the greatest actor of his day, to organize a "jubilee" celebrating its most famous citizen, William Shakespeare. For one night only, some of London and Hollywood's greatest names revive the festivities with excerpts from some of Shakespeare's greatest hits.

"Shakespeare is every actor's first love," says Shakespeare scholar Louis Fantasia, "And this jubilee on April 28th will show why, as we honor the Bard's understanding of human nature and celebrate the jubilee organized by David Garrick in 1768, that honored Stratford's famous citizen. And what better way to do this than introducing Britain's greatest playwright to Beverly Hills' most beautiful theater."

Single tickets for A Shakespeare Jubilee – The Making of Shakespeare are now available for $45 - $125.

Theatre 40 to Present "Mr. Pim Passes By"

"Mr. Pim Passes By" will premiere at Theatre 40 on May 17 in the Reuben Cordova Theatre.

Written by A.A. Milne, the comedy tells of what happens when Mr. Pim, who has much trouble with names, drops in one day.

Mr. Pim announces that the former husband of the lady of the house, thought to be deceased, is alive. Since the lady is married now, she is a bigamist. Her present husband is upset no end.

Then Mr. Pim passes by again, confessing that he was confused and it is safe to assume that the lady's first husband is dead, as they originally believed. Without telling her husband, the lady uses the knowledge to get what she wants and to force her husband to permit his niece to marry the young artist who loves her.

Director Jules Aaron is the recipient of over 30 awards for his work directing over 250 stage and television productions. His recent directing credits for Theatre 40 include Sherlock Holmes and the Case of the Jersey Lily, Separate Tables, A Shred of Evidence, Rod Serling's Patterns and the West Coast Premiere of The Consul, the Tramp and America's Sweetheart.

Aaron's cast for Mr. Pim Passes By includes Roslyn Cohn, John Wallace Combs, Casey Jones, Jacob Osborne, Nathalie Rudolph, Laura Lee Walsh, Troy Whitaker and Jeffrey Winner.

Milne is perhaps best known for creating Winnie-the-Pooh, but also wrote numerous plays and screenplays, books of poetry, and seven novels. His autobiography, It's Too Late Now, was published in 1939. He fought in World War One and was a captain in the British Home Guard in World War Two.

The show, which runs until June 17, starts at 8:00 p.m. Thursday-Friday and 2:00 p.m. on Sunday. Admission is $30. For tickets, visit www.theatre40.org.

AN APPLE FOR THE TEACHER

A look at this year's Apple Award recipients

By Olivia Anderson

LINDA OMANSKY
El Rodeo Instructional Assistant

Linda Omansky has lived in Beverly Hills since 1976, where her children Helene and Neil attended Horace Mann. Neil, a 1990 Beverly High graduate, started kindergarten with then-teacher Steve Kessler, and Helene started fourth grade with Geri Ziskind.

Omansky began volunteering when a friend suggested she apply for a permanent position as a teacher's assistant. She was hired in 1979, transferred to El Rodeo in 1987, and has been there ever since.

"I have had the pleasure of working with several wonderful teachers during my 39 years, including at least seven Apple Award recipients. I love what I do. Each day is a new day of learning for me and my children," said Omansky. "The educational program I provide is crucial in closing the gap for low performing students as well as adding enrichment to the curriculum. I make the instructional time with students fun and rewarding. When you see the 'light go on' in them, the light also goes on in me."

JORY LINDSAY
Hawthorne Kindergarten Teacher

Born and raised in New York City, Jory Lindsay moved to Los Angeles after completing her B.F.A. in theatre at Adelphi University.

After working in a talent agency for three years, Lindsay knew she wanted to be an elementary school teacher. She earned her teaching credential at Pepperdine University, and ended up teaching kindergarten at Hawthorne in 1997.

"Having taught in the District for 20 years, I've congratulated dozens of my Apple Award colleagues. I am honored to join their ranks. The recognition from my administrators is greatly appreciated. The best part has been the congratulatory emails from so many, across the entire Beverly Hills community. I feel validated -- and loved."

JOCELYN BRESNICK
El Rodeo Kindergarten Teacher

Jocelyn Bresnick, a 2006 Beverly High graduate, attended Hawthorne from third through eighth grade. Later, she graduated from the University of Arizona with a B.A. in journalism.

While working for online journalism publications, she tutored students with learning disabilities on the side. Bresnick said this experience ignited her passion for teaching.

After earning her Master of Arts in teaching from USC, Bresnick found herself back home teaching in the BHUSD—something she had always planned to do.

"I am extremely honored to receive the Apple Award this year. I am so grateful for the recognition I have received for my work in the BHUSD. I was a student at Horace Mann and at BHHS, and it's pretty amazing to be able represent my District with this award."

EMMANUELLE ROUSSEAU
K-8 French Teacher

When Emmanuelle Rousseaux learned that she would be receiving the Apple Award, she said she felt "surprised" but "honored."

Rousseaux—who grew up in Orléans, France—came to the BHUSD in 2007, and was originally hired to teach at Horace Mann and Beverly Vista. But in 2008, budget issues expanded her scope to all four K-8's.

"I am very happy that the district continues to offer our students the possibility to learn French or Spanish in middle school," said Rousseaux. "As we say: the younger, the better. It is a great experience for them, and in this global world, it is particularly important to have an international perspective."

Rousseaux says she has a "great team" in the Foreign Language Department. Traveling between the four schools gave her a chance to connect more deeply with "lots of amazing colleagues," said Rousseaux.

"I feel really honored to have been selected for the Apple Award this year," said Rousseaux. "I am very thankful to my administrators (former and present) at the four K-8 schools and to my colleagues for their support and love throughout the years."

JOSH GLASS
Beverly High Math Teacher

Josh Glass grew up in the San Francisco Bay Area and graduated from UC Davis. After graduate school, Glass moved to Los Angeles and has been teaching at Beverly High for 12 years.

"I am very honored to receive the Apple Award this year," said Glass. "I consider it an acknowledgement and meaningful recognition of the hard work myself and the entire math department at BHHS has done in recent years."

ALISON NORMAN-FRANKS
Beverly High Intervention Specialist

Alison Norman-Franks' school counseling career began in San Diego. Then, in 2004, she accepted a position with the BHUSD as a guidance counselor for Beverly High.

Although she was reluctant at first, Norman-Franks said that "life's challenges often turn into blessings." She met her husband Ryan Franks at Beverly High twelve years ago, and the two now have twin girls in second grade at Horace Mann.

Norman-Franks considers the Apple Award a "true honor," noting that her position was at one point vulnerable to budget cuts.

"I am grateful that our school district and community prioritizes students' social and emotional health and values the programs and services provided by the NormanAid as an integral part of our BHHS," said Norman-Franks.

"The success and growth of the NormanAid Center would not be possible without the Maple Counseling Center and counseling interns. I feel blessed to be surrounded by a professional counseling team that is passionate about helping teens. Together we have the pleasure of counseling students and families during the most difficult of circumstances and we witness the benefits of mental health intervention."

BELINDA MAISTERRA
Horace Mann First Grade Teacher

Belinda Maisterra first caught the "teaching bug" as a camp counselor during her college years, when she was studying illustration at Cal State Northridge.

After realizing this passion Maisterra went on to work as a teacher's aide at two schools in the LAUSD, and later, as a substitute in the BHUSD while working on her teaching credential.

"At that point, I was hired on at Horace Mann and have never left," said Maisterra.

Maisterra says that she constantly feels as though she's "reliving" her positive early educational experiences as a student, which makes her job all the more fulfilling.

"It is the most amazing feeling to have my administrators, fellow teachers, and students' parents all congratulate me enthusiastically on this accomplishment. I have always felt a strong connection with my students and knew that teaching was a passion of mine, one in which I try to use my creativity to enhance on a daily basis," said Maisterra. "Were it not for the amazing teachers I work with at Horace Mann, whose friendship and encouragement inspire me daily, I would not be here today receiving this honor. I will continue to do my very best to be an inspiration to my students and enjoy the extremely satisfying work that I do as a teacher."

KATINA VALLENS
Beverly Vista Instrumental Music Teacher

Katina Vallens' first ever teaching job was with the BHUSD, which she landed after earning her undergraduate degree in Music Education at the University of the Pacific.

"I was so grateful that they were willing to take a chance on a brand new teacher," said Vallens.

Vallens said she is "truly honored" to be an Apple Award recipient.

"I feel that this award is a reflection of the many outstanding teachers throughout Beverly Hills Unified. Bringing out a love of music in my students each day is an absolute joy!"

BHUSD Director of Security Chris Hertz did not respond to a request for comment. The annual Apple Awards event will be held on April 25 at 5:00 p.m. at the Beverly High Science and Tech Center Courtyard. For more information, visit www.bhef.org.

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF:
MARTIN NORMAN GELFAND
AKA MARTY GELFAND

CASE NO. 18STPB03185

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of MARTIN NORMAN GELFAND AKA MARTY GELFAND.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by SUET CHUI in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that SUET CHUI be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests the decedent's WILL and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The WILL and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act with limited authority. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority. A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 05/04/18 at 8:30AM in Dept. 29 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

The form of the notice shall be in the form outlined in Government Code section 66452.9 and shall inform the tenants of all rights provided under this code and state law.
	2. Notice Of Public Report: In accordance with the provisions of California Government Code section 66427.1(a) or any successor statute, the subdivider shall provide each tenant 10 days' advance written notice that an application for a public report will be or has been submitted to the state department of real estate, and that said report will be available for review in the department of community development once the report is released by the department of real estate. The written notices to tenants required by this section shall be deemed satisfied if such notices comply with the legal requirements for service by mail.
	3. 	4. Additional Notice To Terminate Tenancy: In accordance with the provisions of California Government Code section 66427.1(c) or any successor statute, the subdivider shall provide to each tenant written notice of the intent to convert at least 180 days prior to the termination of tenancy due to the proposed conversion. The written notices to tenants required by this section shall be deemed satisfied if such notices comply with the legal requirements for service by mail.
	5. Notice Of Public Hearing On Tentative Map: In addition to any other notice required by law, at least 20 days prior to the public hearing before the planning commission on the tentative map, the subdivider shall provide each tenant written notice of the public hearing. Said notice shall be in the form prescribed by the director of community development or his or her designee and shall contain, as a minimum, the following information: a. An estimate as to the length of time before the conversion, if approved, would result in the tenant's eviction; b. An explanation of the tenant's rights and benefits if the conversion is approved; and c. The grounds upon which the planning commission can deny the request for conversion.
	6. Affidavit Required: In connection with an application for a tentative map to convert an existing multi-family residential apartment building or a common interest development previously created prior to January 1, 2006, to a common interest development, the subdivider shall submit an affidavit in a form prescribed by the director of community development attesting to compliance with the noticing requirements prescribed by subsection A of this section. Said affidavit shall be signed by the subdivider under penalty of perjury and shall include copies of the proof of service on each tenant in the building to be converted.

Written notice of a hearing to consider the application shall be mailed 20 calendar days prior to the meeting to the applicant and adjacent property owners.

Public Hearing Notice: Notice of any hearing held pursuant to this section shall be mailed at least 30 days prior to such hearing by United States mail, postage paid, to the applicant and to all owners who are identified as foliage owners in the view restoration permit application, as shown on the latest equalized assessment roll, as well as residential occupants of the foliage owners' properties. 2. Notice Of Decision: Within 5 days after the issuance of a decision by the reviewing authority, the director of community development shall cause a copy of the decision to be mailed through the United States mail, postage prepaid, to each of the following persons: a. The view owner, using the mailing address set forth in the application; b. Each foliage owner that is named on the application, as listed on a current tax assessor's roll and to the occupant of the foliage owner's property if the foliage owner's address is different than the property on which the foliage is located.
