"La Cienega Park Master Plan"

One thing Mayor John Mirisch has mentioned consistently was to bring all of the ball fields to the east side of the street.

No sustained effort has been made to really explore doing that.

One of the most serious problems with the park proposals other than the mass of the proposed building and the urban destruction caused by the overpass is that it does nothing to bring together all of the disparate pieces in to a cohesive whole.

In fact, it exasperates the problem with the useless sliver of "park" space on the Southwest corner of Gregory Way that will be in the constant shade being on the North side of a seven proposed story building at the sidewalk.

The sliver's uselessness is further established by the fact that it is across La Cienega from the proposed "general park use space" and not relating to the overpass which is 2+ stories above it.

It is not my interest to design this project, however, it is easy to note that the greatest problem is to combine the disparate parts into well functioning complimentary groups.

Putting the ball fields on one side is the first step in doing this as the ball fields are really not dependent on the Community Center.

In regards to producing a cohesive "general park use space" it should noted that the ball field at Olympic and La Cienega combined with the areas in front of the existing buildings on the East side of the street and the addition of the "useless strip would do just that.

The area in front of the existing buildings is actually beautiful park space which is seldom used and if incorporated with the other two parcels would greatly expand the ultimate park space in one location without the need for an 'overpass' and "tunnel maker" that actually takes up real park space to connect it.

In regards to the size of the proposed Community Center, isn't it really too tall and why is it pushed all of the way to the sidewalk?

There are precedents for this kind of building and it is not in recently constructed Community Centers but in buildings like the Los Angeles Athletic Club, the Jonathan Club, the California Club the absolutely stunning RAC in London to which I belong and became involved with due to my admiration for the building in which it is housed.

These buildings proudly assert themselves.

They do not attempt to hide their size and importance by raising the grade 17 feet as in West Hollywood or by creating a 28-foot high overpass to conceal its mass.

Those attempts do not work and have serious urban consequences.

Isn't it time to take a serious look at what is being proposed, and fix it?

City Council Nixes Art Skin for Metro Sound Wall

As mentioned in Issue 1041, the Council reviewed a possible mural by artist Tomokazu Matsuyama at a September 17 study session for the Metro sound wall located on North Canon Drive at a total cost of approximately $400,000, including removal, reinstallation, and repair.

Staff recommended that the Council move forward with the mural painted directly on the temporary sound wall instead of a removable skin due to Matsuyama's conditions following that meeting.

During the most recent City Council formal meeting last week, the Council unanimously voted to forgo the removable skin altogether.

"I thought it was a bad idea from the beginning, I think it's a worse idea tonight," said Councilmember Julian Gold, after much discussion concerning Metro's request to lift the holiday moratorium, a request that was not approved by the Council with a unanimous vote.

The projected completion of the mural skin was to be late November.

"I believe we should just have a temporary sound wall, and not have the removable skin," Vice Mayor Lester Friedman said.

Mayor John Mirisch agreed with Friedman, adding that he "does not see the value in having [the skin], so I'm happy to see [the sound wall] disappear once it is done."

Bosse Announces Re-Election Bid for Council

C o u n - cilmember Lili Bosse announced her candidacy for the March 3, 2020 City Council election last week.

Bosse served as Mayor of Beverly Hills from 2014 to 2015, and again from 2017 to 2018. She has also served for over 25 years as chair and member of numerous commissions, committees, foundations, and boards, including the Planning Commission, Traffic and Parking Commission, Arts and Culture Commission, and the Beverly Hills Education Foundation.

Bosse is currently serving her second term on the Council. She joins Councilmember Julian Gold, and Planning Commissioners Lori Greene Gordon and Joe Shooshani.

The filing period for the March municipal elections is November 12 through December 6. If an incumbent does not formally file within that time frame, then it is extended to December 11, according to City Clerk Huma Ahmed.

Council Determines City's Cost of Oil Well Plugging, and How Much BHUSD Will Pay

The City Council discussed a reoccurring agenda item at a formal meeting last week concerning the oil well plugging on the Beverly High campus.

"This is an important issue, because it will cost a lot of money," Councilmember Robert Wunderlich said.

The Council approved an appropriation in the amount of $8 million from the City's general fund for the oil well abandonment and approved an increase to the amount of $26 million for operation and abandonment services.

City Engineer Daren Grilley reported that the 13th well "will be plugged tomorrow," and was completed last week.

"[All plugging] is expected to be completed next Spring, or June of next year," Grilley said.

"The total project cost has increased over time, and we're looking at a [total] of over $35 million," Grilley said.

"This is [currently] a $28 million project, and [the City's contribution] is capped at $11 million," Councilmember Julian Gold said. "Over what period of time will [the BHUSD] put $17 million into [the account]?"

The funds would be pulled out of a BHUSD bond to facilitate the rest of the cost, according to the report.

BHUSD Board President Noah Margo said the oil well plugging and abandonment project "is an opportunity for the school district to work together with the City on a major project that will eventually benefit the school and community as a whole."

"Of course, this is something neither civic entity planned on, but it is a reality and we all have agreed to make the situation right," Margo said. "I appreciate the City's dedication to this project and hope that by the end of [the] abandonment process both parties will have contributed a fair amount."

The City Council unanimously approved the purchase order and appropriation amount detailed in the agenda.

40+ City Resident Renee Firestone in "Facing Survival"

"Facing Survival" is an exhibition featuring paintings and drawings by David Kassan of more than two dozen Holocaust survivors, which opened on September 18 at the Fisher Museum of Art.

The collaboration advances USC Shoah Foundation's Stronger Than Hate initiative to "build a proactive, effective, actionable response to the growth and proliferation of antisemitism, racism, and other forms of identity-based hatred worldwide."

Renee Firestone, a long-time resident of Beverly Hills, was one of the subjects Kassan highlighted in his exhibition. She was part of a group of survivors that Kassan met at the Museum of Tolerance in 2017.

"We had interviewed her really quickly [at the museum] for a film interview that we do with all the subjects, and we had about two hours to [interview] 11 survivors," said Kassan. "So I've been working with [Renee's story] for the past two years."

jects, and we David Kassan

The last time Kassan and Firestone met was at the unveiling gala of the exhibition.

"It's funny because, at the gala [at the Beverly Hills Hilton], they have big celebrities like Oprah [in attendance]. There are all these celebrities walking around, and I saw Renee, who I hadn't seen in two years. I ran up to her as if she was my celebrity," Kassan said.

Filming his subjects' testimonies was a key component in preparing to paint his portraits, Kassan said.

"It adds more context to the paintings,

Firestone's Suit from the 1960's, Featured at LACMA

so I can understand a bit more about their lives," he said. "I listen to the testimonies as I'm working on the paintings."

LA county resident Jonathan Adler was one of the many subjects portrayed by Kassan. Opening day of the exhibition happened to fall on Adler's 96th birthday.

"His painting was kind of set off to the back of the museum. And he walked over to it, he had a walker with him. When he looked at the painting, he just started crying," Kassan said. "Then he looked at me and gave me a huge hug. It was a pretty emotional night."

Firestone had a similar reaction to other subjects when she first saw her portrait.

"I was in awe when I first saw it," Firestone said. "You really need to see these [paintings] up close. What [Kassan] does is incredible."

All the portraits are a testament to the artwork that gained Kassan international recognition. Kassan is best known for his life-size representational paintings, which combine figurative subjects with symbolic textured abstract backgrounds. His work is described by USC Shoah Foundation Director Kim Simon as "a form of social documentary.'

"David Kassan, through his vivid portraits, provides an evocative statement about survival," said Simon. "Viewing his paintings alongside the testimonies humanizes and personalizes the experiences of Holocaust survivors and provides a bridge to develop empathy, understanding and respect for each other."

LOCATION: Commission Meeting Room 280A

Beverly Hills City Hall 455 North Rexford Drive Beverly Hills, CA 90210

The Planning Commission of the City of Beverly Hills, at its REGULAR meeting on Thursday, October 10, 2019, will hold a public hearing beginning at 1:30 PM, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard to consider:

A RESOLUTION OF THE PLANNING COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS ADOPTING LOCAL CALIFORNIA ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY ACT THRESHOLDS OF SIGNIFICANCE FOR TRANSPORTATION IMPACTS AND ADOPTING LOCAL TRANSPORTATION ASSESSMENT GUIDELINES

Based upon the requirements of California Senate Bill (SB) 743, which was signed into law on September 27, 2013, the City of Beverly Hills is required to re-evaluate the criteria that is used for analyzing transportation impacts for the purposes of California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) review of projects. State CEQA Guidelines Section 15064.3 requires that jurisdictions use "Vehicle Miles Travelled" as the metric to analyze the transportation impacts of land use and transportation projects. CEQA Guidelines Section 15064.3 also requires that jurisdictions adopt the Vehicle Miles Travelled metric as the standard for project review by

On July 25, 2019, the Planning Commission held a study session to discuss compliance with the requirements of SB 743 and provided direction to staff to draft new CEQA transportation impact thresholds for the City. The Commission also provided staff direction regarding developing Local Transportation Assessment Guidelines for the City that continue to use the Level of Service ("LOS") metric to evaluate intersections in the vicinity of proposed land use projects. At the July 25, 2019 Planning Commission meeting the Planning Commission created an Ad Hoc Subcommittee with the purpose of discussing the issue in detail and providing further direction to staff. The Ad Hoc Subcommittee met on August 13, 2019. Based upon the direction provided by the Planning Commission and Ad Hoc Subcommittee, new CEQA thresholds of significance for traffic impacts and a new document containing Local Transportation Assessment Guidelines have been drafted. On October 10, 2019, the Planning Commission will consider a Resolution to adopt both the CEQA thresholds of significance for transportation impacts and Local Transportation Assessment Guidelines.

This Resolution was assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City. The adoption of new local CEQA thresholds of significance for transportation impacts and adoption of Local Transportation Assessment Guidelines will not have a significant environmental impact and are exempt from CEQA pursuant to Section 15308 of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations because the two actions are undertaken by the City of Beverly Hills for the protection of the environment. The revised CEQA thresholds will be compliant with a State mandate (SB 743) and will be used in a regulatory process (CEQA process) that involves procedures for the protection of the environment. The new Local Transportation Assessment Guidelines will provide the City with project specific transportation information that can be used in the local regulatory process in which protection of the environment is considered. Accordingly, the Planning Commission will consider the recommendation to find the Resolution exempt from the environmental review requirements of CEQA pursuant to Section 15308 of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations.

Any interested person may attend the meeting and be heard or present written comments to the Commission. According to Government Code Section 65009, if you challenge the Commission's action in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City, either at or prior to the public hearing.

If there are any questions regarding this notice, please contact Masa Alkire, Principal Planner in the Planning Division at (310) 285-1135, or by email at malkire@beverlyhills.org. The case file, including associated documents are on file in the Community Development Department, and can be reviewed by any interested person at 455 North Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210.

Sincerely, Masa Alkire, AICP Principal Planner

Pursuant to the Americans with Disabilities Act, the City of Beverly Hills will make reasonable efforts to accommodate persons with disabilities. If you require special assistance, please call (310) 285-1122 (voice) or (310) 285-6881 (TTY). Providing at least forty-eight (48) hours advance notice will help to ensure availability of services. "[The exhibition] joins distinct but related forms of testimony together," said Holo. "Through the art of David Kassan, we are bringing to the forefront a body of testimony that extends beyond the verbal, the written, to communicate in a purely visual language."

Firestone has said that she would continue to tell her story for as long as she can speak. For her, being featured in Kassan's exhibition was a fulfillment of that promise.

"I want visitors to take these stories with them," Firestone said. "It is important for me to continue this story. I know all of the [other subjects featured] and we all agree how important it is to do that."

"It is absolutely magnificent what [Kassan] captured. Pictures do not do it justice," Renee's daughter Karla Firestone said.

Renee came to Beverly Hills in 1977 after her daughter Karla's wedding. She became a fashion designer after arriving in the United States, but decided her calling was to become a full-time speaker about her experiences during the war.

"This was so important to me, I had to [devote] my full-time to [speaking out]," Firestone said.

Firestone decided to settle in Beverly Hills after visiting family in Southern California in the 1970's.

"We came to visit family, and we just never left," Firestone said.

Kassan said that the exhibition, despite its name, is about more than facing sur-

"I want Renee to be known not just as a survivor, but as a fashion designer. I want people to understand the career they've had, and the families they've built past the holocaust; because they really didn't have control over their lives or what was going on. But then the 75 years after, they've built beautiful families and careers," Kassan. "It makes the painting inspiring to me. It's not meant to dwell on the negativity, but to really be inspired by how they thrived afterwards.'

City Council Discusses Potential Health Hazards of 5G Wireless Networks

The City Council discussed the potential health risks of 5G cellular networks at a study session last week, at the request of Mayor John Mirisch.

The fifth generation of cellular networks, or 5G, holds the potential to deliver and power new technologies such as automated cars and augmented and virtual reality experiences.

At the present time, the City has not received permit applications for 5G infrastructure to be installed; wireless carriers have indicated that 5G deployments are coming to the Los Angeles area in the near future and plan to expand to Beverly www.pointdesign.us info@pointdesign.us Schirmer presented an overview of gathered research and studies to the Council.

SERVING SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA FOR OVER 40 YEARS

"The research is sort of a 'mixed bag' [of results]," Schirmer said.

The Ramazzini Institute in Italy found that 5G waves, which lie between cellphone and microwave waves on the non-ionizing level of the electromagnetic spectrum, can cause tumors in rats, according to Schirmer's presentation.

A Danish study indicated no increased risk, as did the United Kingdom's "Million Women Study." Schrimer said that these "results have been questioned [by non-advocacy groups]."

The World Health Organization indicated in a 2011 study that "cellphones might cause brain cancer." Also in that list "are coffee and pickles," Schrimer said.

Schrimer ended his presentation with a conclusion from The American Cancer Society, stating that "out of the thousands of studies that have been conducted over the past two decades, the results have been mixed. Most of the studies published so far on the use of traditional cellphone service in the 'RF' range haven't found a link with the development of tumors."

Mirisch invited Human Rights Attorney and Advocate on Wireless Technology Dafna Tachover to the session to discuss her findings on the potential health hazards of fifth generation cellular networks.

Tachover is head of the organization "We Are the Evidence," a wireless technology injured advocacy group.

"The evidence is massive," Tachover said. "It's not just cancer [that can be a risk], there are neurological impacts as well."

Tachover referenced a 1999 FDA study that "shows clear evidence that [5G wireless networks] can cause cancer and break up the DNA."

The report was followed by public comment. During said time a number of residents voiced a concern of health risks associated with 5G networks.

"I don't trust any studies that come out and say there's no [negative] effect on this," said resident Lauren Steiner. "That's what the tobacco industry said, that's what the fossil fuel industry said, and we now know those [industries] disseminated false information."

"You may remember doctors going on [television], smoking Chesterfields, and saying how they were safe, so I don't trust those studies," Steiner said. "I have three friends who have died from brain cancer, and the [tumor] were all on the side of the head they held their cellphones."

Mirisch said that he asked for this issue to be brought up because "the notion of more, at an increased level of radiation outside of our door, something that we can't regulate, I can't say that I have a lot of trust for [non-conclusive studies]."

"We need to get more information, it's like when we took a stance on vaping. We knew it didn't sound good, even when there wasn't a lot of evidence," Mirisch said.

Mill Valley introduced an emergency ordinance to block 5G deployments in residential areas last year. San Anselmo, Petaluma, and Ross passed similar ordinances. New Hampshire introduced a bill establishing a commission to study the health effects of 5G this year.

The California Department of Health issued guidelines recommending a reduction of exposure to RF energy from cell phones, whereas Florida, Maine, and Ohio are fast-tracking 5G deployments.

However, federal law indicates that municipalities cannot regulate electromagnetic waves that comply with Federal Communications Commission regulations, nor the installation of wireless telecommunications facilities on existing utility poles.

"We've heard from a lot of passionate people today, from people who have suffered some pretty horrendous injuries," Councilmember Robert Wunderlich said. "But what we are missing today, is a different perspective. Everyone we have heard from is an advocate for something."

Wunderlich, who holds a Ph.D. in chemical physics, said that the subject matter is not his area of expertise, and that he is "not in a position to debate whatever is being said point for point."

"My point is that there is no one in this room who can do that. What we have is an issue where one side has been presented. I think it was inappropriate of us to have this [item] where only one side was presented, and if we revisit this or other topics, I don't think this is the useful way of doing it," Wunderlich said.

Hoshino Reflects on 30+ Years of Service with the BHPD

Lincoln Hoshino, former BHPD Captain, retired from the department on September 5 after more than 30 years of service.

Hoshino joined the force as a cadet in 1986 in an "unlikely" way, he said.

"I was a student at [USC] and had some interest in law enforcement, and one of my former instructors at Fullerton College suggested that I talk to his brother, who was the Chief of Police in Beverly Hills," Hoshino said.

One of the projects Hoshino worked on throughout college was a career paper, and he said he was "encouraged by [the late LAPD Chief] Daryl Gates to apply as a police officer." Hoshino said he had never applied anywhere else when he was accepted as a cadet, as one out of a "couple hundred applicants."

Lincoln Hoshino

"It was extremely difficult to get hired [by BHPD]. Fortunately for me, they knew who I was because I was already a cadet, and that's why I think it's so important to have a cadet program as a 'feeding ground' for the department," he said.

Throughout his time with the department, Hoshino had experienced pivotal moments in law enforcement that garnered national attention, including Rodney King and the riots that ensued.

"Over the years, we've been able to rapidly evolve. Even now, going through more changes, our department has been able to adapt rather quickly to some of the needs in law enforcement. That requires our personnel to be ethnically diverse, and highly educated," he said. "I think we've been able to stay with the times and hire the right people to do the job, not necessarily that they will do it better, but there is a [high level] of expectations placed on us [by the community]."

Hoshino said one of the most rewarding aspects of the position was providing leadership to a generation of officers below him.

"When I was a sergeant, I would try to prepare and train my field officers below me to take my position [as sergeant]. When I became a lieutenant, my goal was to have the sergeants who worked for me prepared to be lieutenant. And then same as captain," he said.

Hoshino says his plan for the future following retirement is to spend more time with family.

"I have an 18 year old son [Kurt Hoshino] who travels the world snowboarding, and my goal is to travel with him a little bit more," he said.

Architectural Commission Approves Revision for Gucci Men's Store Signage

Roy Hasson, the applicant representing Gucci Men's Store on Rodeo Drive, requested review and approval for the revision of a previously approved construction barricade graphic and building identification sign.

On February 20, the Architectural Commission reviewed and approved a façade remodel, building identification signage, a sign accommodation to allow multiple business identification signs, and a construction barricade graphic. On June 19, the Commission reviewed and approved a revision to the construction barricade sign.

The revisions Hasson brought before the Commission include a brand-specific graphic with an 8.05 square-foot business identification sign located on the construction barricade graphic, and a return facing the south and north with adjacent tenant identification signs.

The proposal represents a bold graphic design for the construction barricade for the retailer to be installed in advance of the finality of the construction phase for this project.

"As designed, the temporary construction enclosure is a creative visual representation of the brand and will appropriately announce the future innovative façade improvements for this renowned international company," the applicant report stated.

The proposed logo signage will be located on the east elevation of the building at 353 North Rodeo Drive and will be approximately 15 square feet in size. The sign will be back-lit illuminated with a polished nickel finish.

Architectural Commission Approves Signage Changes for Cedars-Sinai

The Architectural Commission approved changes to business identification and wayfinding signage for Cedars-Sinai last week.

In addition, a one-inch deep architectural panel is proposed as a backing to the business identification signs on Wilshire Boulevard and Clark Drive in order to conceal the junction box and damage left by prior signs.

The existing office and medical use building is located at the northeast corner of Wilshire Boulevard and South Clark Drive, and was designed by architect Arthur O'Leary in 1952 in the late "Moderne" architectural style. The building is faced in stucco with projecting volumes of painted Roman Brick with precast design elements that frame the glazed areas. A taller massing volume is expressed at the corner, which becomes a focal point for the entry to the subject tenant's suite.

The proposed business identification signage is at the ground floor of this portion and above the entry to the tenant space. Additionally, the applicant is proposing to maintain the existing cabinet pole sign and replace two parking entrance identification vinyl sign panels.

City Launches Trust and Innovation Portal

The City has launched a Trust and Innovation Portal (TIP) in an ongoing effort to improve local government and ensure transparent and effective City operations.

Traffic and Road Closures due to Metro Expansion

Metro began pile installation to create the support structure for the Wilshire/Rodeo station on the Purple Line Extension's second section this week. Construction is expected to begin amid numerous road closures within the City.

North Gale Drive will be intermittently closed at Wilshire Boulevard to support excavation activities in the Gale Staging Yard. Work hours will be Monday through Saturday, from 6 a.m. to 6 p.m. Access to North Gale Drive will be maintained from San Vicente Boulevard. This closure is a public safety measure due to high volumes of vehicle ingress and egress from the property, according to Metro.net.

Concrete and material deliveries to the Wilshire/La Cienega Station box are anticipated to begin in early October.

Hauling hours are anticipated to increase as excavation continues under

Proposed Wilshire/La Cienega Station

Wilshire Boulevard. The work hours pertaining to excavation purposes will be from 6 a.m. to 5 p.m. and again from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m.

Access for pedestrians will be maintained outside of the construction zone. Access for emergency responders will be maintained. Construction within project staging yards is 24 hours a day.

Metro will host a "Lunch with Us Webinar" for stakeholders interested in Metro construction in the City on Wednesday,

DESIGNING THE STATION

Residents Weigh in on the Wilshire/Rodeo Metro Station

By Allyson Aleksey

A town hall meeting was held on September 19 at City Hall to provide public comment on the environmental review process for the Wilshire/Rodeo Station North Portal.

The project pertains to a second entrance and exit for the Wilshire/Rodeo Station on the north side of Wilshire Boulevard.

The North Portal entranceway is currently being proposed by the City on the north side of Wilshire Boulevard and is in the public comment part of the environmental review process. The scoping meeting held last week was one in a series of proposed town hall meetings.

The floor was open for public comment following a presentation given by AECOM

Planning Managers David Derosa.

Resident Allan Alexander prefaced his comment by stating that he has been involved with the Metro expansion process "since 1990."

"I'm very pleased to see where it is [now]. There was great opposition to there being a subway in Beverly Hills for a number of years, and that issue is behind us," Alexander said. "We are fortunate to have [the North Portal] because the Metro always took the position that they would not pay [for it]. My understanding is that they will pay for half of October 2, from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. The webinar will focus on the La Cienega and Rodeo stations. There will also be an update meeting on October 2, held from 6:30 p.m. to 8 p.m. at City Hall, one of a series of monthly meetings.

-Former Mayor

Allan Alexander

Alexander added an urgency to explore the fiscal impact of expanding the corridor after the Environmental Impact Review (EIR) held last week.

Metro initially had plans for one station entrance on the south side of Wilshire Boulevard, between Beverly Drive and Canon Drive. Under a proposed agreement with the City earlier this year, Metro would pay half the cost of constructing the second North Portal entrance, located on the northeast corner of Wilshire and Canon.

Not all residents are in support of the proposed North Portal and the design associated with it thus far

"The south portal is fundamentally unsafe," resident Phil Savenick said. "We need to get all of the passengers loaded and unloaded on the north side, and we need to have a place on the north side where a ride share can pull over, open a door to load or unload."

Savernick also said that the subway would "only bring in a certain clientele for the city."

Executive Office of Public Relations for Metro Dave Sotero said Metro will consider the heavy foot traffic on Rodeo Drive when designing the entranceway.

"The first mile and last mile plan have

Writers Bloc presents Rachel Maddow's "Blowout" on October 7

Political commentator and journalist Rachel Maddow will discuss her unreleased book "Blowout: Corrupter Democracy, Rouge State Russia, and the Richest, Most Destructive Industry" on Earth on October 7 as part of the Writers' Bloc discussion series.

The book focuses on "the greed and incompetence of 'Big Oil and Gas,'" according to the publisher, Penguin Random House.

M a d d o w is host of the Emmy Award-winning Rachel Maddow Show specific improvements to pedestrians, bicyclists, ride share and bus rider [traffic]. We do have a plan and we are moving forward with making it easier for people to access the station," Sotero said.

Mitigating vehicle traffic will also be a priority during construction. Wilshire Boulevard will experience lane reductions.

"It's been successful when we've done [these reductions] on other parts of Wilshire Boulevard," Sotero said.

Some residents also voiced concern over the necessity of restrooms at the station. Currently, only three stops within the Metro transit system contain public restrooms: El Monte Station and Harbor Gateway, as well the system's main hub Union Station.

Bathrooms at transit stations in large cities through large cities throughout the country are comparatively rare. For reference, there are operative restrooms in only 51 of New York City's subway system's 472 stations. With an average of 5.6 million riders a day, that amounts to about one restroom for every 53,000 riders.

Retailers have expressed interest in restroom facilities at a City Council meeting held on September 17.

Then-county Supervisor and Los Angeles Planning and Programming Committee Vice Chair Zev Yaroslavsky echoed the concerns of forgoing such a facility in a meeting held in 2013, pertaining to the Orange Line Pierce College Station in Woodland Hills.

"[Pierce College Station] is immediately adjacent to a residential single family area. Residents say that the shortage of toilets has led some riders to create their own bathrooms in the alleys and narrow walkways that separate their backyards from the Orange Line thoroughfare," Yaroslavsky's report read.

Metro came to an agreement with the City in 2014 regarding the expansion, though excavation work didn't begin until 2016. The Council reaffirmed the proposed holiday moratorium, ceasing work in the Beverly Hills corridor between late November and early January.

The holiday moratorium will not affect the overall completion of the Purple Line expansion, Sotero said.

The scoping period is from September 5 through October 7. Those unable to attend the meeting may still submit comments during the scoping to North-Portal@beverlyhills.org.

After closing comment for the scoping period, Metro will conduct a 45-day public review period and public hearing between Fall of this year through Spring 2020 to address the drafted EIR and select a preferred alternative.

BHHS rallies from 20-point fourth-quarter deficit to defeat Cerritos

By Steven Herbert

Quarterback Thomas Recupero ran for the tie-breaking 2-point conversion with two minutes, two seconds to play as Beverly High completed a comeback from a 20-point deficit in a 22-20 victory over Cerritos Friday night.

Ilai Dardashti ran for the tying touchdown. The Normans opted to attempt a 2-point conversion instead of a kick because "that's not in our repertoire" and "we haven't practiced that," coach Jarrod Bunch said.

The Dons hopes for a comeback ended when they lost a fumble on the ensuing kickoff.

"We finally put everything together," said Bunch, whose team trailed 20-0 earlier in the fourth quarter of the nonleague football game at Rants Stadium in Cerritos.

Over the first three quarters, Beverly Hills (2-2) again made the type of mistakes that plagued it in its 46-8 loss to Gardena Sept. 13, Bunch said.

"We would put drives together and then get to fourth down and 1 and go offside, third-and-3, get a holding (penalty)," said Bunch, whose team lost to Cerritos, 42-6 last season. "It was always a little bit of something.

"The fourth quarter all the mistakes were eliminated and everybody did their jobs."

Cerritos (2-2) led 13-0 at halftime and capitalized on a third-quarter interception to increase its lead to 20-0.

Recupero "played very well," Bunch

The Norman defense "played the best game they had all year," including Will Liner making an interception in the end zone in the third quarter, Bunch said.

Defensive end Milan Nadzakov "played very well," said Bunch, who also praised the play of defensive tackle Jeremy Zarnegin.

First-year defensive coordinator Kellen Yancey is "doing an outstanding job of getting the guys ready and putting them in position to learn and to get better," Bunch said.

What's Next?

The Normans are scheduled to play their first home game of the 2019 season Friday, playing host to winless Firebaugh in a nonleague game beginning at 7 p.m. at Nickoll Field.

Beverly Hills defeated the Falcons, 32-8, for their second and final victory in 2018. The teams have one common opponent in 2019 – Cerritos – which defeated Firebaugh, 46-8, Aug. 30.

Bunch said he is guarding against overconfidence by having "hard" practices this week, including a rare Saturday practice.

The Normans will be seeking back-toback victories and their first season with more than two victories since 2010.

Rosemead Cross Country Invitational

Freshman Danielle Hollander posted the fastest time among Beverly Hills runners, completing the 3-mile course through Rosemead High School and City of Rosemead Park Sept. 7 in 19 minutes, 27.6 seconds, 42nd overall.

Hollander's time was second-fastest among freshmen, behind only Talia Richland of Tesoro, who was 15th in 18:45.5.

Costa Mesa senior Diane Molina won in 17:29.8.

Beverly Hills was 39th in the team competition among 58 teams with 1,068 points.

Boys' Cross-Country

Rosemead Cross Country Invitational

Freshman Joshua Hollander, the twin brother of Danielle Hollander, posted the fastest time among Beverly Hills runners, completing the 3-mile course Sept. 7 in 17:45.5, 294th overall.

The Normans were 48th in the team competition among 58 teams with 1,443 points.

the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property.

If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BEV-ERLY HILLS HEREBY ORDAINS AS FOL-LOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 10 ("REFERENDUM") is hereby added to Title 1 ("GENERAL PROVI-SIONS") of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code as

1-10-1: DEFINITIONS:

REFERENDUM FINANCIER: Actual legal name of any person(s) whose cumulative contributions, whether cash or in kind, to a Ballot Measure Committee as defined in Section 1-8-2, or otherwise, to support or oppose a referendum, total ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) or more. There may be more than one Referendum Financier.

1-10-2: CIRCULATOR BADGE:

- (a) A circulator who has not been paid, or promised to be paid, for circulating a referendum petition relating to a City ordinance shall, at all times while circulating wear on his or her person in a visible location an identification badge with a blue-colored outer border that includes the words "VOLUNTEER CIRCULA-TOR" in bold-faced type that is clearly legible and has a font size of at least 16 points.
- (b) A circulator who has been paid, or is promised to be paid, for circulating a referendum petition relating to a City ordinance shall, at all times while circulating wear on his or her person in a visible location an identification badge with a yellow-colored outer border that includes the words "PAID CIRCULATOR" in bold-faced type that is clearly legible and has a font size of at least 16 points. The identification badge shall also include in boldfaced type that is clearly legible and has a font size of at least 12 points the name and telephone number of the individual or entity employing the circulator as well as any Referendum Financier; provided, however, if an entity employing such circulator is a signature gathering service, then the name of the individual or entity employing such signature gathering service shall be disclosed. If there is more than one Referendum Financier, then the identification badge shall list the top three Referendum Financiers by contribution
- (c) The City Clerk shall maintain and make available on request an example of each of the identification badges required by this Section.

1-10-3. IMPARTIAL ANALYSIS:

The City Attorney shall prepare a 500-word or less impartial analysis of the ordinance subject to referendum showing the effect of the ordinance on the existing law upon the earlier of the following: (a) within 5 business days of direction by the City Manager; or (b) within 5 business days of filing by a Referendum Financier a legislative advocate registration form pursuant to Section 1-9-105 of this Code. The impartial analysis shall be posted on the City's website.

1-10-4: COMPLAINTS AND RESPONSE:

Any person may make a complaint alleging a violation of this Chapter, or of the provisions of Chapter 1-9 relating to referendum petitions, by submitting the complaint in writing to the City Clerk's office. The City Clerk shall transmit such complaints to the City Attorney, who shall determine which office of the City shall investigate the complaint. The City Attorney or his designee shall acknowledge receipt of the complaint in writing to the complainant within two (2) business days of receiving the complaint from the City Clerk.

Section 2. Section 1-9-102 ("DEFINITIONS") of Article 1 ("Compensated Legislative Advocates") of Chapter 9 ("Legislative Advocates") of Title 1 ("GENERAL PROVISIONS") of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code is hereby amended to amend the definition of "Legislative Advocate" and to add a definition for "Financier".

LEGISLATIVE ADVOCATE: Any individual who is compensated or who is hired, directed, retained or otherwise becomes entitled to be compensated for engaging in legislative advocacy and makes a direct or indirect communication with a City official or who is an expenditure lobbyist or Financier. For example, a legislative advocate may include attorneys, permit expediters, and architects or designers. However, notwithstanding the definition, a legislative advocate shall not include contractors.

FINANCIER: Actual legal name of any person(s) whose cumulative contributions, whether cash or in kind, to a Ballot Measure Committee as defined in Section 1-8-2, or otherwise, to support or oppose an initiative or referendum, total ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) or more. There may be more than one Financier.

Section 3. Section 1-9-103(B) ("EXEMP-TIONS") of Article 1 ("Compensated Legislative Advocates") of Chapter 9 ("Legislative Advocates") of Title 1 ("GENERAL PROVISIONS") of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code is hereby amended as follows:

1-9-103: EXEMPTIONS:

The following persons are exempt from the requirements of this article:

B. Any person who is engaging in legislative advocacy without compensation other than a Financier.

Section 4. Section 1-9-104 ("PROHIBITIONS") of Article 1 ("Compensated Legislative Advocates") of Chapter 9 ("Legislative Advocates") of Title 1 ("GENERAL PROVISIONS") of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code is hereby amended to add subsection C as follows:

"C. If such legislative advocate is a Financier, deceive or attempt to deceive directly or indirectly, any resident of the City with regard to any material fact pertinent to any proposed, pending or existing Municipal Legislation.

D. If such legislative advocate is a Financier, employ any individual or group of individuals, directly or indirectly through any other person or entity, as circulators without having first caused each individual circulator to have received a written factual description of the true purpose and effect of the referendum, and required that each individual circulator attend a training session of at least two (2) hours concerning the requirements of this Code and the Elections Code relating to the circulation of referendum petitions, the signature gatherer's duty not to deceive the voters, and the actual purpose and effect of the referendum. Financiers shall maintain written records of the Financier's contract with signature gathering firm or firms with these requirements incorporated into said contracts, as well as written records showing that each circulator employed has received the written description and attended the training required herein. Financiers shall maintain such records for not less than two (2) calendar years following the later of the date of the election on the referendum, the date the City Council repeals the ordinance subject to referendum, or the date the referendum fails to qualify for the ballot. Financiers shall make such records available to the City Attorney or his designee during normal business hours following not less than 24 hours written notice to the Financier."

Section 5. Paragraph A of Section 1-9-105 ("REGISTRATION") of Article 1 ("Compensated Legislative Advocates") of Chapter 9 ("Legislative Advocates") of Title 1 ("GENERAL PROVISIONS") of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code is hereby amended and restated as follows:

"1-9-105: REGISTRATION:

A. Within ten (10) days after a legislative advocate begins to engage in legislative advocacy or receives an executed Engagement Letter, whichever is sooner, the legislative advocate shall register as a legislative advocate with the City Clerk on a form provided by the City for that purpose; provided however, Financiers shall register within 72 hours of (a) collecting signatures for a referendum or initiative petition or (b) engaging a signature gathering company to acquire such signatures or (c) qualifying as a Financier. The legislative advocate shall specify:

- 1. The name, telephone number, business address, e-mail address and fax number of the legislative advocate and the legislative advocate's employer,
- 2. The identity of the client and the contact information for the client; provided however that this requirement shall not apply to Financiers,
- 3. A description of the specific business in which the client or Financier is involved as it relates to the legislative advocacy,
- 4. A description with specificity of the matter of Municipal Legislation the legislative advocate is attempting to influence, and the outcome desired by the client or Financier,
- 5. An estimate of fees to be generated, or if the legislative advocate is a Financier, the estimate of fees to be paid by such Financier. The estimate of fees shall be a check-box on the form that will provide a range of fees as follows:

Up to $25,000.00

$25,001.00 to $50,000.00

$50,001.00 to $75,000.00, and

$75,001.00 and above,

6. Whether the legislative advocate has ever been sanctioned for a violation of this article or a violation of any law, regulation or ordinance of another jurisdiction governing legislative advocacy or lobbying. The legislative advocate shall include a description of any such violation

7. Whether a firm at which the legislative advocate works, has worked, or for which he owns or has owned an equity interest, has been sanctioned for a violation of this article or a violation of any law, regulation or ordinance of another jurisdiction governing legislative advocacy or lobbying. Provided however, the legislative advocate need only report those violations that occurred while he worked for or held in equity interest in the firm. The legislative advocate shall include a description of any such violation.

8. A description of legislative advocacy conducted during the previous twelve (12) months that was not previously reported to the City by the legislative advocate."

Section 7. CEQA. This Ordinance was assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City. The adoption and implementation of the Ordinance would temporarily delay the approval or disapproval of a development project subject to a zoning ordinance being challenged by a referendum, or to a zoning ordinance amended by a referendum-challenged ordinance, while the referendum is pending and the challenged zoning ordinance is suspended pursuant to state law. The Ordinance also requires the City Council to submit an Ordinance Subject to Referendum to voters within 100 days of a referendum petition's certification. The Ordinance is exempt from the requirements of CEQA pursuant to CEQA Guidelines Section 15061(b)(3) because it can be seen with certainty that there is no possibility that suspending approvals and disapprovals of certain development projects for a brief and definite amount of time, or requiring an election on a challenged zoning ordinance within 100 days of a referendum petition's certification, will have a significant effect on the environment.

Section 8. Severability. If any section, subsection, subdivision, sentence, clause, phrase, or portion of this Ordinance or the application thereof to any person or place, is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional by the final decision of any court of competent jurisdiction, the remainder of this Ordinance shall be and remain in full force and effect.

Section 9. Publication. The City Clerk shall cause this Ordinance to be published at least once in a newspaper of general circulation published and circulated in the City within fifteen (15) days after its passage in accordance with Section 36933 of the Government Code, shall certify to the adoption of this Ordinance, and shall cause this Ordinance and his certification, together with proof of publication, to be entered in the Book of Ordinances of the Council of this City.

Section 10. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall go into effect and be in full force and effect at 12:01 a.m. on the thirty-first (31st) day after its passage.
