"3-2 Board split aired at recent meetings" [Issue 439]

I applaud and commend Helen Grossman and the three other Beverly High students who had the courage and conviction in their beliefs to express dissatisfaction with the comments articulated by certain BHUSD Board of Education members at prior meetings. I do not personally know these young adults; however, it is refreshing to see students actually respond to and express discontent with Board members who sometimes ignore the wishes of the voters who elected them.

Beverly Hills is a community of educated and affluent adults who are politically apathetic. These same adults will often quietly complain and gripe to each other about The Board of Ed and Beverly Hills City policies while refusing to publicly express disagreement with policymakers. An unwritten "Code of Silence" and a perceived fear of not being invited to socialize with the "In Power" crowd silences public discussion better than any censor.

The adults, students, teachers and administrators who criticized these four students should pay attention to the message they sought to communicate to the BHUSD Board using a symbolic turkey sandwich. If you do not pay attention to the proposed changes and react accordingly, then you deserve the reductions in staff, services and other changes you are given in the coming months!

"Delshad Questioned"

I am hard at work and unable to be there in person this evening. I would like to read this as an open-letter to Mayor Delshad, the honorable city council and members of our community about something that disturbs me terribly.

Recently, I've heard some disparaging comments about you, Mayor Delshad, and I felt compelled to comment publicly.

update was a fresh idea, I offered my time and talents as a community volunteer.

As we sat in council chambers to hear our orientation, a most distinguisheddressed gentleman (in every sense of the word) with an engaging smile, sat next to me. I introduced myself to this gentleman, and that was the first time that I met Jimmy Delshad. Certainly not the last.

Jimmy was appointed to my committee, the community processes topical committee. I had the opportunity to see Jimmy at work, always questioning the way things had been done and how they could be improved. My wife, Gloria, and I sat and continue to sit on the Board of Directors of Friends of Sheba Medical Center at Tel Hoshomer (Tel Aviv).

We've had the opportunity to meet his wonderful wife, Lonnie, as well as their

Board getting along better, but complicated issues remain

Tuesday night meeting featured lengthy discussions, few decisions

By Lauren Gabbaian

The Board of Education's four-and-ahalf-hour meeting Tuesday night covered a wide range of issues, including budget cuts, preschool, Beverly High's Independent Study Program and legacy permits, among others. The issue of budget cuts was still a hot topic, with Chris Bushée and a number of adult English learners making another urgent plea for the Board to reconsider its

Steven Fenton

Board to reconsider its teacher-heavy list of budget cuts. Though the Board did not further discuss the layoffs, it was able to return to an earlier proposal with the potential to reduce the strain. Prompted by a suggestion by Board member Brian Goldberg at the Feb. 26 meeting, the Board unanimously agreed to reallocate the MNO Fire Recovery Fund – some $782,000 in insurance money obtained after an athletic building adjacent to the Beverly High Swim-Gym burnt down – so it may also be used for field turf replacement.

"My hope was that we would alleviate the $450,000 to $500,000 in budget cuts that we set aside for field turf replacement to be used either for hiring back teachers or finding creative and new ways to deliver services within the district," Goldberg said.

Though this didn't quite happen – the money initially allocated to turf replacement has not been removed and there was no specific discussion as to what to do with the extra money – the Board seems content in knowing this will give them time to discuss the matter more thoroughly. Hopefully, Goldberg says,

Over $10,000 in credit card bills? Only making the minimum payments?

- We can get you out of debt in months instead of years
- We can save you thousands of dollars
- We can help you avoid bankruptcy

Not a high-priced consolidation loan or one of those consumer credit counseling programs this, along with the District's retirement incentive program, will give the Board the opportunity to reduce the number of layoffs that actually have to be made.

The issue of a district-run preschool, advocated by Goldberg and Board member Steven Fenton, was also discussed, but seemingly to no concrete conclusion.

Fenton would like to see a joint venture with the Recreation and Parks Department that expands the currently offered preschool program to more families, thus increasing revenue and encouraging district loyalty. In addition, kindergarten teachers are often met with students of varying preschool backgrounds, and this would be a means of ensuring at least some continuity.

"I would like to put together a blue ribbon committee made up of community members to explore this concept," Fenton said.

After lengthy discussion on the subject, Board members all seemed to be in agreement that the issue needs further study on questions such as community interest in the program and potential profitability, among others. Demeter asked each member to provide the name of a person they would like to see on the committee in addition to a list of questions they would like the committee to research.

The Independent Study Program (ISP) was up for a yearly renewal, and while students and parents had nothing but praise for the program, questions about its legality and effectiveness remained.

The Weekly has covered the ISP extensively, including a cover story in issue 420.

In spite of all the students and parents who claimed a renewed love of learning under teacher-of-all-subjects Sergio Mandiola, Demeter expressed her concern with there being no means of comparison between assessment methods for ISP students and their class-bound counterparts. Demeter was also uncertain about the missing role of teachers in the student referral process and was echoed by Fenton in wondering about Mandiola's lack of credentialing in the subjects of math and science.

"I still have to believe that there is some validity to having a teacher credentialed in the subject content area," Demeter said.

Though Director of Adult and Alternative Education Twila Cook seemed unable to respond to the two former issues, she did affirm that though the state requires alternative education teachers only have credentials in a single subject, Mandiola is actually credentialed to teach Spanish and social science. Cook further claims Mandiola is credentialed to teach English and English Learners, though these are not reflected on the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing's website.

"He has just taken the CSET in English and that hasn't been put on [the website] yet," Cook said.

The idea of legacy permits was also discussed at the meeting. Such permits would allow out-of-district students with parents or grandparents living within Beverly Hills or alumni families to have priority in the application review process. Though the attorney was not present at this meeting, Director of Pupil Personnel Dr. Amy Lambert said the legality of legacy permits is questionable, and that LAUSD, facing a similar problem of declining enrollment, would be unlikely to release the permits required for the program to work.

Lambert said the attorney will be present at the Board's April 8 meeting, and the issue will be further discussed at that time.

At the end of the meeting, Goldberg expressed his pleasure at the harmonious nature of the night.

"I hope that tonight was indicative of the collegial environment that we will strive and continue to work toward," Goldberg said. "

Demeter was out of the country and could not be reached for comment.

As the first-Iranian born mayor in the US, Jimmy has an awareness of Iranian-American issues, but has always put the issues of Beverly Hills first. There isn't a more honorable man that I know of who is as deserving to serve our city.

Sadly to say, no one who puts his name out there, can ever be free of attack from jealous, mean-spirited members of our community. Somehow these same people believe that their false accusations (at best) and flagrant lies (at worst) in attacking Jimmy is acceptable conduct. Shame, shame on all of you.

Jimmy, I am proud to have lived in Beverly Hills while you have served our city as both councilperson and mayor. You can always hang your head high with pride when you finish your business at the end of an exhausting day.

Jimmy, you have made Gloria and me and most of the residents of BH proud to know you and honored to have you serve us. Thank you from the bottoms of our hearts for the person that you are.

Louis Milkowski Beverly Hills

We add our voices to those who condemn the inflammatory "open letter" from the Beverly Hills North Homeowners Association (BHNHA).

Their message unfairly attacks Mayor Jimmy Delshad with questions that infer misdeeds, which he has publicly answered with backup provided to the City Attorney, and for which they provide no accompanying facts.

Their message wrongly condemns the entire current City Council for approving almost $100 million in Cityfunded projects. With the exception of a City-owned parking structure/building in the industrial/entertainment area, the rest of their list consists of projects being contemplated - not approved - and are all designed either to restore, revitalize or enhance City-owned assets. We should be upset if the Council allowed our parks and facilities to fall into disrepair, not because they are exploring ways to enhance our city. Oh yes, and Santa Monica Blvd. has still not been widened!

The letter resorts to name calling when they describe our elected neighbors as "incompetent, spendthrift(s)" who "resorts to burdensome taxes to pay for necessary City services." They cite no new taxes passed by City Council and only refer to increases in water rates whose costs are not controlled by the city. We buy the majority of our water from the Metropolitan Water District, and they set the price. And all taxes require a vote of the people. We haven't voted for any new taxes. Have you?

Finally, they attack the City Council for approving a Hilton project that they have not yet even conducted hearings on, and describe the project as originally proposed by the Hilton instead of acknowledging the dramatic changes that have been recommended after hours of study and public input by and to the Planning Commission. They ignore this reality.

In short, their letter is a mean-spirited and angry diatribe that is riddled with accusations that are false or are based upon innuendo and incomplete or incorrect information.

Hubert Humphrey once said, "The right to be heard doesn't necessarily include the right to be taken seriously." Members of the BHNHA have the right to disagree with projects and developments in the city, but that does not necessarily include the right to unfairly disparage people's reputation and ignore the facts that don't support their viewpoint. And those arguments should not be taken seriously. It is time for honest and open discussion, not rhetoric and distortion.

North Homeowners Association criticizes Council

The Beverly Hills North Homeowners Association calls for a recall of City Council members in the recently distributed issue of its newsletter. Citing the many upcoming development projects in the city, including the Montage Hotel, the Hilton Project and the Roxbury Park redesign, the Association calls the Council "incompetent" and "spendthrift."

"There are two ways to balance a budget. We can increase revenues and we can reduce costs. Instead, the City wants to spend approximately $100 million for development projects, including the rebuilding of Roxbury Park, that many people do not believe that we need," said Association Vice President Larry Larson. "If we need to cut costs, it should have started at the top with Rod Wood, our City Manager. Mr. Wood should lead by example. Instead, two weeks ago, the council gave Rod Wood a gift of approximately $400,000 by reducing the City's profit participation on Rod Wood's home, which was financed in part by the City with a low-interest-rate loan."

The Association has taken direct aim recently at Mayor Jimmy Delshad and his family, who they accuse of accepting gifts from the Hilton Hotel owners or related companies in return for a vote in favor of the Hilton development. Since the allegations were first made in November, the mayor has responded by providing receipts to show he paid for the items and services in question or else by refusing to answer the allegations as a matter of privacy. However, he did provide a response at the council meeting on March 4, saying even after he provided what he considers material proof, the Association still wanted more.

"I have not received any gifts over $50 from anyone including Hilton Corporations, Beverly Hilton Hotel, or its owners - that have not been reported to the general public on Form 700," Delshad said at the Council meeting. "I have answered all [the Association's] questions. Any more baseless allegations are unfair and are only meant to harm my reputation."

Even having heard this assertion, the Association is not satisfied. Larson insists the documents provided were not specific enough and highlights the fact that Delshad did not mention the two weddings he held at the Hilton.

"Why did it take him four months to make a statement?" Larson asked.

The newsletter also calls into question the City's take on the costs and revenues of the Montage Hotel, the necessity of remodeling Roxbury Park and the degree to which citizens should be involved in decision making.

Association President Robert K. Tanenbaum could not be reached for comment.

Monte Zimmerman scored the winning run on an error with two outs in the bottom of the ninth inning as Beverly High completed a comeback from a six-run deficit to defeat Los Angeles Crenshaw, 8-7, last Thursday in an El Segundo Tournament baseball game at La Cienega Park.

Zimmerman walked with one out, stole second, advanced to third on Justin Schwartz's two-out single and scored when Charlie Bogart reached first on an error.

Zimmerman's two-out, two-run double in the fifth tied the score, 7-7.

The Normans (2-2) began chipping away at the Cougars' 7-1 lead with four runs in the fourth. Michael Kerman's two-run homer drove in Jason Kantor, who led off with a single. Erik Munzer followed with a single, stole second and scored on Zimmerman's single. Bogart's two-out double drove in Zimmerman.

Brandon Cohen's two-out first inning single drove in Bogart, who singled and stole second, with Beverly Hills' first run.

Recall The City Council?

I can't even remember past members By Rudy Cole

You have to love the chutzpah of the Beverly Hills North Homeowner's Association. They are leading an uprising against corruption, malfeasance and other sordid deeds in city hall, but they are doing it in real style and comfort.

The Boston patriots would have welcomed the splendor of the venue the Northies have found to launch their revolution to save our city: The marvelous Sunset Room of the historic Beverly Hills Hotel.

Never mind the possible conflict of using a meeting place in a business that could, just possibly, benefit from the North HOA efforts to block the creation of a luxury hotel addition, a Waldorf Astoria at the Beverly Hilton, but how paradoxical that their rallies against intrusion into residential take place in a hotel that is totally surrounded by residential, and fine expensive homes they are.

It's almost as if an anti-war rally was scheduled at a National Guard Armory. In the interests of candor, the BHNHOA should also disclose whether they pay market rate for the meeting room or why their meetings aren't held in public assembly areas such as the Library or a school auditorium. I can understand why they no longer meet at Roxbury. That meeting room is much in need of repairs and the North groupies oppose renovation.

Don't get me too wrong. We need Homeowner associations to participate in decision making and, to coin a phrase, "some of my best friends are members of these groups." However, some of our more difficult communication issues have to do with a lack of understanding of city realities and, more important, a failure of a majority of our residents to become involved.

As long as there are cops patrolling our streets, the garbage is picked up and the traffic signals work, who cares about future planning or fiscal realities? Certainly not enough to vote.

Not every development proposal is good – some are greed driven and not in the public interest. They have no real community benefit, intrude into residential or demand exceptions from our zoning rules simply because that enhances their value.

This may surprise those of you who believe all the anti-council frenzy contained in mailers, but this and past city councils have rejected or modified some of the more egregious development schemes.

However, without balancing our needs, without understanding both fiscal and environmental realities, and unless we really adopt a "smart growth" test on proposals now and in the future we are doing serious harm to our true community values and interests.

What astounds me is the lack of concern by some of the North Association leaders to the proposal to create a condo project (Saks) in the southwest that would further congest southwest streets and neighborhoods. Why no sounds of anger? Where were the Northies when the poorly designed William Morris home office was being considered? Although somewhat modified, with some protection against it not being used by the agency in the future, it is, however, a less than attractive, major traffic generation mistake.

But the strangest silence of all has to be keeping quiet about a building proposal just outside our borders that, if approved, would create more footage than any and all new residential development proposals in our city combined! No excuse that this is a Los Angeles City Council decision. A massive protest from Beverly Hills, and the North Homeowers, could have some impact.

What if the North HOA did have five seats on the city council? Using some of their own words and issues, outlined in a very inflammatory letter last week, let's examine some test programs they want to demolish:

Renovation program at Roxbury Park. The North is using a high figure, but even assuming they are right and the costs will be $37.9 million, this is a desperately needed improvement of our most active park. The buildings, the playing fields and so much more need fixing and improvements. This park serves, among others, the youth sports program and our seniors. Reality check: What they don't explain is that the program will be spread over many years with funds never being appropriated all at once or even in one single fiscal year. Good news department: The delays have actually saved the city money since construction costs have gone down.

La Cienega Park Improvements: Again, the $18.5 million over time, not as long as Roxbury, but universally approved by users and residents. During the many hearings on park improvements, no objections to the improvements were voiced. Still up for discussion: An over La Cienega bridge which will make this a much safer facility as parents and kids park in the west of street structure and not have to use the cross walk. We have had tragic results when youngsters dashed across La Cienega in the middle of the block.

Commercial Industrial Area Development. North cost estimate of $30.4 million is tricky since this is a revenue producing project with final plans far from completed. Note: The city did change the name from Industrial to Entertainment for this section that now houses some top entertainment and electronic groups, including AOL. Here we may have some area of agreement. ICM holds the right to develop a concept. If it is not residential or urges a hotel, this column will take out a conditional membership in the North HOA.

Cultural Center Parking Structure. The tab would be about $12.2 million but again, a lack of candor by the North. The facility would provide parking for the Cultural Center, but most of the facility uses will go to a very under parked section of the north business section. Also, parking structures are intense revenue producers and, in time, more than pay for themselves.

There should be no hesitancy in supporting our first ever performing arts center - this will be an incredible resource for our city and, even though some Northies have made negative comments about the project, many current and past leaders are very much in support. Here too the North pamphlet writers have name calling difficulties. The project is now The Annenberg, thanks to a wonderful gift from that family. The city needs to bite this bullet and fund the parking building.

There's something far more basic involved in all of this and if the North groupies did have the power, they too would have to face the real world or, believe me, the recall petitions would fly faster than a North hit piece.

They, the North, talk about "your" tax dollars. Wrong. The money to pay for all the above and basic city services comes not from the residential property tax but mostly from the various business community taxes. Although most people in our village don't vote, don't belong to any homeowner association or other community group, they would rise up and throw the rascals out if there ever was a real cut in our outstanding police and fire services. Another reality: One of our most important revenue sources is the bed tax. We are fortunate that visitors to our city don't revolt and demand taxation with representation since their bucks pay so many of our basic service needs.

Final note: The North mailer makes serious personal charges against our elected officials. Enough is more than enough - where is the beef, not wild hit pieces. This personal vendetta against candidates who were elected despite their opposition is a distraction from what should be serious dialogues on our future - and here the North should and could play an important role. Killing the messenger didn't even work for Caesar. As for their headline, "RECALL," there was not one word to justify that teaser.

John Wayne's heroic statue near La Cienega on Wilshire welcomed visitors to Beverly Hills, but his memory lives on in an even more important role: The John Wayne Cancer Center which holds its annual fundraising gala on April 5 at the Beverly Hilton.

The Center will honor philanthropist Carolyn Dirks with the "The Duke Award." Both the John Wayne Cancer Institute and Saint John's Health Center benefit from the event. Dirks has been a major fund raiser for the organization. John's son Patrick, chair of the Wayne Center board, called her an "extraordinary role model and dedicated supporter." Past recipients of the "Duke" include Kirk Douglas, Merv Griffin, Jack Lemmon and Joyce Green. For more information, please call 310-829-8324 or the auxiliary's web site www.jwci.org.

COVERSTORY DELSHAD LOOKS BACK In the Weekly's interview, outgoing Mayor Jimmy Delshad discusses his term

By Lauren Gabbaian

What do you feel was your greatest accomplishment as mayor?

Making Beverly Hills known as more than a place of luxury and stars and richness. I elevated Beverly Hills to also be known as a "Smart City" in America. My success will depend on how smart we get, and I want it to be the smartest city in America.

Tell us about the Smart City Initiative.

Every city has an infrastructure – for roads, water, electricity and all that. But in the 21st century there is a new infrastructure that all cities are going to have to build. And that infrastructure is what I would call a "digital city." A city that will have to deal with all of the technologies that are coming out and move with them. Becoming a Smart City, that means we will strive to do everything we've been doing, but smartly. Not work hard, but work smart.

What are you sorry you didn't get to do?

I'm not sorry, but I haven't finished my idea of bringing more nightlife to Beverly Hills. This is something I wanted to do for Beverly Hills and there's just not enough time in the year to accomplish all of that.

I promoted the cultural center or anything that's cultural to bring more culture to Beverly Hills that will bring more night life. For example, asking the restaurants to stay open later, to be able to have music in restaurants, jazz clubs. Things like that that people will feel like they can go to a restaurant and stay for awhile and listen to good music.

What was it like to be the first Iranianborn mayor in Beverly Hills?

It's like being under a microscope. Many eyes are on that person, locally and nationally and internationally. You're looked at very often, at what you do. Everything is being analyzed quite minutely by all people, not just the residents not just the voters, businesses, but all the communities – the Persian community, the American community, the Israeli community, the Muslim community – they're all looking at this position to see how it works.

I'm happy to know that it's been quite fulfilling, very exciting. I have been very happy as a result, and I've been very blessed to have that opportunity to reach out to other communities and to make Beverly Hills really known as a very friendly place, as a place that accepts minorities, as a place where the American Dream comes true.

My message has been that I'm blessed to be in America, I'm blessed to be an  $% \left[ {{\left[ {{{K_{\rm{B}}}} \right]_{\rm{B}}}} \right]_{\rm{B}}} \right]$

American, and this is the place that has given me the opportunity, and the American Dream is still alive and well in Beverly Hills. My message is to encourage other minorities to get involved in politics and to govern your own life by choosing to vote and choosing to participate in democracy.

Do you think that being a minority has changed your politics at all?

I think it's given me an understanding of what minorities or less fortunate people go through. I had that experience growing up, and I use that wealth of experience that I have in order to improve people's lives as much as I can and open the doors for other people that would feel they cannot accomplish something on their own. Having come from nothing has given me a rich experience and helped me accomplish what I was able to do.

Was it a surprise to you that the North Homeowners Association attacked you personally?

No, not a surprise at all. They did that five years ago, even before I got on the City Council. They not only attacked me personally, they lied about my voting record. So when I saw that during the election, that they even took my voting record and changed it in order to make me look bad, I didn't expect anything less from them. There are a few hundred people that no matter what you do, it's not enough. So their attack doesn't bother me. My conscience is clear. I sleep well. I know what I've done and what I do and what my intentions are, so when a homeowner comes and [accuses me] of going on a vacation free, I know I don't need a free vacation. I had a million-dollar business that I gave up to run for the City Council to give back to the community, so I don't need a few hundred dollars for a vacation.

I know it's just a personal attack, because some of them feel that the [ends justify the means]. If they get me not to vote and defeat a project, then it's worth it to attack me so that I will not vote. To them it doesn't matter that it's a person they're dealing with. They just want the end, not to have a project pass, so they're going to attack anyone who is possibly for it. I haven't even voted on the project. I haven't given my opinion on any of these projects. But for five years in a row, I voted on every issue on city council. I have never recused myself from any issues on city council, because I believe the people that voted for me expected me to participate and give my opinion. That's why they voted for me – to represent them. By recusing myself I'm letting them down. So I have no conflict of interest in five years, even though I voted against my friends many times.

Knowing that this Hilton project was coming up, why choose to spend your vacation at a Hilton?

Because for 30 years I've been using Hilton hotels for everywhere I go. For 30 years I've been using Hilton hotels, so it doesn't matter to me whether the ownership is different or not. I've been using Beverly Hills Hotel for 20 years for all the non-profit organizations that I'm involved in. I've been using them for that. It's just part of my trust of using Hilton hotels. I use them no matter where I go and what I do. It didn't matter for me.

At the last Council meeting, a resident claimed that you originally voted against two-hour free parking. How do you respond?

I never voted against bringing it back. I promised during my election that I would bring it back for the residents. I voted to bring it back for the residents, they wanted it for everybody including merchants and employees. I felt like two-hour free parking should be controlled for shoppers and residents. I was against making it available for everybody but I was in favor of making it for residents only at the beginning, but then I decided after my trip to New York and meeting with a lot of businesses, I felt like it was better to make it free for everybody.

What are some perks of being mayor that you're going to miss?

The perks are to be able to meet important people in the world that shape the countries and shape the cities, and being able to meet with them as a mayor, oneon-one.

Being able to make a phone call and knowing that someone will take your phone call.

But more important than anything else, it's not a perk, even better than a blessing, it's really a privilege to be the mayor, because that's one way you can do your best to give back to this wonderful city and this wonderful country. So that privilege is a very important perk for me.

What advice would you give to incoming mayor Barry Brucker

To be yourself and do what's important to you. Each one of us is elected because we have certain desires to do something. We're all elected because we have certain things to do. So just be your own man and don't follow the small minorities and ignore the silent majority. There are a lot of small minorities that will make ten times as much noise as the silent majority. I would say for every mayor not to fall into that trap of being manipulated by a few hundred people and ignore 40,000 people.

What are you going to do now?

I plan to spend a little bit more time with my family. I have really taken away from my family, mostly from my wife. And during this year I have been at more than two or three occasions every night, including all weekends. [Sunday] alone [six] places, twice during the day and four times at night.

I plan to spend more time with my family, with my children. My daughter's expecting, so I'm looking forward to being a "Papa."

Merv Griffin Way today and as it will look after the revitalization.

THANK YOU!

hen the residents of Beverly Hills speak...we listen. That's because the Beverly Hilton Revitalization Plan is not only about enhancing and improving an iconic landmark – it's about giving our community and residents a real role in the design of this lush and beautiful new space. After twelve public meetings, the project has become smaller, greener and more neighborhood friendly.

So, thank you Beverly Hills for your continued support and fresh ideas.

Expanded open space and lush new gardens

The revised Beverly Hilton Revitalization Plan replaces outdated concrete structures with 4.5 acres of open space and more gardens, landscaping, sculptures and fountains along Wilshire and Santa Monica Boulevards.

Incorporating environmentally friendly design

While other elements have changed, the Revitalization Plan still incorporates the latest in environmentally friendly technology to achieve the U.S. Green Building Council's LEED® certification for sustainability. And, our commitment to a significant increase in green space on the property remains unchanged.

With fewer rooms, more luxury

The Beverly Hilton Revitalization Plan removes many aging Beverly Hilton hotel rooms from around the property, replacing them with luxury rooms in a new five-star Waldorf=Astoria hotel building. The result is fewer hotel rooms on the property – but upgraded ambiance and amenities.

9900 Wilshire Makes Sense

Not just because 75% of its 8 acres will be dedicated to open space and gardens.

Or that it is designed to be the first buildings in Beverly Hills to attain the U.S. Green Building Council's LEED Gold rating.

But because 9900 Wilshire will be an economic engine the City can count on now and into the future.

- Initial Upfront Fees: $52,001,000
- Projected Annual revenue: $3,584,000

And this will be achieved while keeping the project traffic neutral and creating a residential icon at the vital western gateway to our city.

Sometimes all the pieces come together and it just makes sense.

CAN YOU TURN YOUR $1 MILLION IRA INTO $10 MILLION?

If you are over 70 and have accumulated more money in your IRAs and Pensions than you need to live on, Alan Kaye can show you how to create more money for your heirs and favorite charities than you ever anticipated!

At age 70<sup>1</sup>/<sub>2</sub>, people who have IRAs, Pensions and 401k plans are required to take minimum annual distributions that are subject to ordinary income tax. If you don't spend or give that money away, it could be subject to estate taxes as well. After income and estate taxes, those in the highestbrackets could be leaving their families less than 1/3 of what they anticipated.

Why bother to make "wise" investments when it is likely that more than half of your accumulated wealth will go to the government instead of your family?

Simple Solutions!

If you have a large amount of money in your IRA, you can gift your annual distribution to your family, using that money to buy a life insurance policy that would create tax-free money for your heirs. In many cases, using the money to buy life insurance could give your heirs more than they would receive after-tax, by continuing to accumulate the funds in their retirement plans.

Assuming that your retirement plan earns a return of 5% annually, you could withdraw that amount without diminishing the principal. One client with a $1million IRA used his annual distribution to buy $3 million of life insurance to benefit his family. If he doesn't spend the principal, his plan is to leave the balance of his IRA to his own charitable foundation.

Under current law, without life insurance, his $1 million IRA would have to grow to more than $10 million, so that after income and estate taxes, his family could get the same $3 million that life insurance would pay tax-free. What's more, he can now leave more money to charity than he ever expected to.

Why wait for your $1 million retirement plan to grow to $10 million? As president of the Alan Kaye Insurance Agency and vice president of Barry Kaye Associates, Alan Kaye has helped thousands of people meet their goals by creating insurance plans that best satisfy their needs.

If you are over 70 years old and not maximizing the use of your assets, find out how life insurance can provide you with the opportunity to leave more tax-free money for both your heirs and charities. Call for a free consultation and be sure to ask when Alan Kaye's next free seminar will be held in your area.
