“Courier Editorial”

[The Courier Editorial] recently expressed opposition to all of the propositions on the May 19 statewide special election ballot. I offer an alternative point of view.

Blood, sweat, and tears are not sufficient resources for California to provide high quality education to our residents. We also need money. California ranks 47th out of 50 states in terms of per-pupil funding. This is dismal and it's shortchanging generations of children.

I belong to the California Teachers Association and we support all six propositions, 1A through 1F, as a way to close our state's multi-billion dollar budget gap. Propositions 1A and 1B are the most impactful.

Proposition 1A stabilizes future state spending and creates a long-term reserve fund to help prevent further cuts to schools, health care, and public safety. 1A also extends the temporary statewide tax increases by one to two years to prevent California from running out of money as we suffer the largest economic downturn since the Great Depression of the 1930s.

Proposition 1B ensures that California public schools are repaid the $9.3 billion they are owed under the minimum school funding law, a proposal so uncontroversial that the Secretary of State's official voter information guide does not even include an argument against 1B.

However, 1A generates the money necessary for 1B to be implemented. If 1A fails, then 1B automatically fails and $16 billion will be cut from schools, health care, and public safety. This would be on top of the $11 billion in cuts that schools have already suffered over the last two years.

A “cuts-only” approach to schools is short-sighted. Rather, we must maintain and grow our investment in children's education and keep our state fiscally solvent by voting “YES” on 1A through 1F on May 19.

“An Apple For the Teacher” [Issue 499]

As an Apple Award recipient, interview and reception opportunities have provided a forum to thank many who have helped me become a better educator. But upon reflection, there are two local entities that I have failed to recognize.

First, I would like to thank our City Council for their continuing support of our schools.

With Willie Brien and John Mirisch joining Nancy Krasne, Jimmy Delshad, and Barry Brucker, I am confident that the BHUSD will remain a major civic focus. I would finally like to acknowledge the BHEA, led by Chris Bushee and Mark Frenn, for being teacher, student, and community advocates who work tirelessly on all of our behalves.

Ethics Seminar course may be added after students register incorrectly

The Ethics Seminar, formally known as the Beverly Seminar is one of the most sought after courses this summer, with another course currently in the works after four sections reached maximum capacity hours after opening up for students.

Beverly students were eligible to register for summer courses on April 29 at 9 AM. However, since students can take courses at any site, some Beverly students found a loophole: Register early through Burbank prior to open registration for Beverly.

The summer enrichment program offered by Marymount College includes other high schools such as St. Bernard Catholic High School in Playa Del Rey and John Burroughs High School from the Burbank Unified School District.

Students can take courses at any school site. John Burroughs began registration approximately two weeks before Beverly.

The online system allows students to register at any time. To register, a student creates an account using their name, address, and email. There is no verification process of what school the student is from, which allowed students to register for the class through the John Burroughs portal.

By the morning of the 29th, all ethics sections were closed.

Beverly English teacher and principal of the Summer Enrichment program at Beverly Christiane Elhabr said approximately 15 students registered for the class through the back-door before the registration date.

Elhabr said in the past, classes have reached capacity in as little as two hours, which contributes to the students trying to get a head start on registration.

"It's a new requirement and everyone's nervous," said Elhabr. "It's ironic that some of the students registered for the Ethics Seminar in an unethical way."

Elhabr also said some students may have registered without malicious intent.

"The webpage can be confusing since there are other schools involved. A student could have easily pressed the wrong link," said Elhabr.

Elhabr said all registration is time-stamped, and Marymount is going through all of the files to determine all students who registered before the allowed date. Elhabr said they will try to accommodate everyone, especially those who registered ethically.

"We are in the process of opening one more health and one more Ethics Seminar class," said Elhabr. "Those who signed up before the registration date will be put at the end of the list."

She did not confirm how soon classes would be added. Elhabr said they might know in the next week.

"There were a lot of people who wanted the class and couldn't get in," said Marymount College Community Education Director Lisa Francis. "We continued to take applications even after classes were full so it is fair to those who want the course."

Vahagn Setian Charity Event

The Vahagn Setian Charitable Foundation, (VSCF) a non-profit organization dedicated to enriching the quality of education in performing arts and music in honor of Vahagn Setian, hosted a fundraiser May 3 at Beverly High.

The event included performances by Carolina Liar, Jessarae, and Derek Bentley. Mayor Nancy Krasne also presented Carolina Liar with the "Responsible Artist Award," recognizing them as role models for today's young generation.

Francis said she could not determine exactly when classes reached capacity.

Elhabr said she has not received the roster, but anyone who has registered in the course that is not an incoming Beverly freshman, will be taken out of the class.

Elhabr said Marymount is going through the applications one by one to log everything in order received.

"It's going to take some time because we're trying to meet everyone's needs,

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Council of the City of Beverly Hills, at its adjourned regular meeting to be held on Wednesday, May 13, 2009, at 7:00 p.m., in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, California, will hold a public hearing to consider adoption of:

A RESOLUTION OF THE COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS AMENDING THE COMPREHENSIVE SCHEDULE OF TAXES, FEES & SERVICE CHARGES FOR THE FISCAL YEAR 2009/2010.

The proposed resolution will increase the taxes, fees, and service charges that are charged to the public for the various activities and services as set forth in the schedule for fiscal year 2009/2010. The majority of the fees and charges would be increased by 1.1% based on the Consumer Price Index (CPI) for November 2008. In some cases, the fees were adjusted to reflect a change in service level, more equitable distribution of costs, or to obtain full-cost recovery, rather than by the CPI. The new fees would become effective on July 1, 2009. Fees for development applications, per State law, become effective 60 days after adoption of the adjusted fee schedule, which is July 13, 2009.

Copies of the proposed Resolution and the Fee Study Report are available for review or purchase in the Office of the City Clerk, Room 290, 455 N. Rexford Drive, and in the Finance Department, 9357 West Third Street, Beverly Hills, California. Any interested person may attend the meeting and be heard. The comments should be received prior to the hearing date. If you need more information, please contact Lucy Gonzalez at (310) 285-2413.

Please note that if you challenge the Council's action in regard to this matter in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City, either at or prior to the public hearing.

but it will all work out," said Elhabr. "Marymount is personally making calls to each student who is registered, which has helped with the panic in the past week."

The Ethics Seminar is a new graduation requirement which focuses on life skills, ethical behavior, and judgment. Students have until their junior year to complete the Ethics Seminar. The program was approved by the Board of Education last year, and recent changes to the program were presented at the last Board of Education meeting.

Koretz, Vahedi Face Off in Runoff Election

Former West Hollywood City councilmember Paul Koretz and David T. Vahedi will face off for a seat on the Los Angeles City Council later this month.

The race to replace Councilmember Jack Weiss in the 5th district is extremely close, with poll results from recent months showing as little as a 0.2 percent according to the LA Times.

Weiss will face former Deputy District Attorney Carmen Trutanich to succeed termed-out City Attorney Rocky Delgadillo.

LA council's 5th district surrounds Beverly Hills, and includes the communities of Westwood, Century City, Bel Air, Holmby Hills, Cheviot Hills, Encino, Beverly Wilshire, Carthay Circle, and Sherman Oaks. The District has approximately 258,000 residents, with one of the highest voter registrations in the city at approximately 62 percent.

Vahedi, who is a lifelong resident of the 5th district, worked as an auditor for the State Board of Equalization. He is supported by Mayor of Beverly Hills Nancy Krasne, the Los Angeles Airport Police Officers Association, and the Century Park East and Westwood Gardens Homeowners Associations.

Koretz is endorsed by Beverly Hills City Councilmember Jimmy Delshad and Public Works Commissioner Joe Shooshani. He is also supported by Weiss' predecessor, Assemblymember Mike Feuer as well as the Los Angeles County Federation of Labor. Koretz served on the West Hollywood City Council from 1988-2000.

"Paul [Koretz] wants to help people, he's an excellent politician, he's the only Jewish candidate in the race, and if he does half of what he did in West Hollywood, Los Angeles will be a happy place," said Shooshani. "He means well and he does right."

Bel Air-Beverly Crest Neighborhood Council boardmember G.G. Verone disagrees. The association includes hillside communities stretching from Laurel Canyon to Sepulveda Boulevard and Sunset Boulevard to Mulholland Drive.

"Paul Koretz will be disastrous," said Verone. "He's jumping from one community to another, and didn't do anything great in West Hollywood in my opinion."

Verone said the biggest concern of homeowners associations in the 5th district is overdevelopment, and traffic and

Beverly students receive top honors at National journalism conference

Beverly students attended the Journalism Education Association (JEA) National Conference in Phoenix and returned with a third place award for the Highlights newspaper and the three individual awards.

Nineteen journalism, broadcast, and yearbook students attended the conference with yearbook adviser and social studies teacher Malia Frutschy and journalism and English teacher Phillip West.

Junior Minki Kim received an honorable mention for editorial cartooning, junior Salena Martell received an honorable mention for feature story writing, and junior Danielle Montero was recognized for broadcast news reporting.

The Highlights newspaper was judged in the 9-12 page newspaper category. Students will compete nationally again this fall in Washington D.C.

"The students never cease to amaze me. They work hard and they're extremely dedicated to their art," said West. "I couldn't be more proud."

safety are key issues as well.

"We want homeowners to be considered, and that's not happening on any level right now," said Verone.

She believes Vahedi will be a better advocate for the residents in the 5th district.

"Vahedi is better, and he's not taking money from big developers," said Verone.

Voters in the 5th district have a history of picking younger candidates and less established names.

In 1953, they elected 22-year-old Rosalind Wiener, later known as Rosalind Wyman, and in 1975, the district chose 26-year-old Zev Yaroslavsky, now a veteran county supervisor.

If elected, Vahedi will become the first Iranian American elected to serve on the City Council of Los Angeles.

In a debate at UCLA on April 20, both candidates were asked for their top three priorities for spending stimulus funds. Vahedi said sufficient hospitals, mass transit and schools, as well as funding additional scholarship programs. Koretz said transportation, infrastructure and affordable housing.

Annenberg Center parking plan presented to Architectural Commission

The City owned and operated three-level subterranean parking structure conceptual landscaping plan was presented at the last Architectural Commission meeting.

The 470-car parking garage was approved by the City Council in January 2009 in conjunction with the approved Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts.

Architectural commission chair Allen Rennett said the project is still in its beginning stages and it is too early to tell what will be affected.

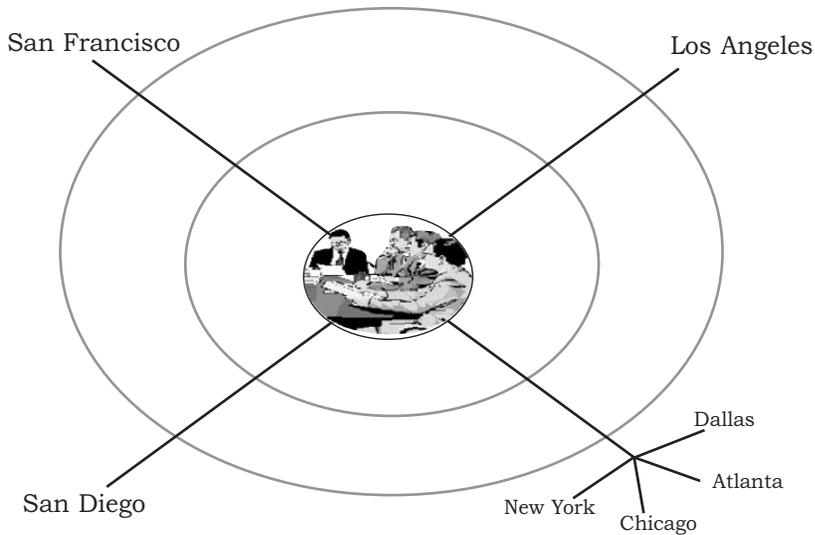

Rennett said the underground lot will go towards City Hall, which may affect

Selected Short Subjects

People making news

By Rudy Cole

Even though we may not always hold them in high regard, newspapers really need public relations types, lovingly called flacks. Some are incredibly skilled, knowledgeable and highly professional, but some unfortunately have the same limitations as the rest of us in the information biz: clueless.

An example of the latter: The late publisher of the Los Angeles Times, Norman Chandler, once showed me a press release he had received for a play soon to open at the old Biltmore Theatre, one of our few stage venues before his wife Buffy shamed our big spenders into funding the Music Center.

Chandler, the scion of a newspaper dynasty, asked if I knew the PR person who had sent him the following: "Attached is press release announcing the opening of Tea and Sympathy at the Biltmore Theatre" (followed by show times, cast, synopsis of play etc.) and the following: "If you will bring a 'tear sheet' (clipping) of the story you print to the box office, we will be pleased to give you two passes to any matinee."

The play was not reviewed.

Columnists emails are overloaded with clever attempts by publicists to by-pass the advertising departments. Why not try to promote your product in the news section instead of paying for ads? The PR departments will argue that it is important news, information your readers must have: that a new face cream will actually reduce the need for cosmetic surgery or that a pet grooming service merits page one placement.

Often, the press releases are so outlandish that I am simply unable to resist not sending a response. A recent communication from a PR firm touted the importance of an "exciting" new product: an electronic cigarette. This incredible contribution to scientific advancement assures us that we could "satisfy our nicotine cravings without the flame, tobacco, tar or carbon monoxide found in real cigarettes." There are also cigars and they come complete with a "stainless steel battery, nicotine cartridge and atomizer."

So, I sent the following, admittedly not Benchley or Cerf quality, but at least a mild attempt at sardonic humor: "Electric Smokes? This comes as a big SHOCK to me, but I'm sure users will get an enormous CHARGE from the experience. However, since I am a pipe smoker, could you recommend something that would not become BATTERY of another person because of second hand CURRENTS."

Trust me, this is a verbatim answer to my email: "Thank you for your response. I'm not quite sure I understand your question. Would you be interested in interviewing 'SmokeaCali.'" (Names of PR person omitted to avoid pain for the very innocent.)

Good to have some top leadership come to instead of depart from our city government. Planning and Building and Safety, combined into one department during the Rod Wood reorganization structuring, will have a new boss: Susan Healy Keene, who has, despite her very youthful appearance, over 25 years experience in municipal government.

Most recently in West Hollywood, Ms. Healy-Keene also served in Santa Monica with our director of planning, John Lait. Lait had very high praise for Susan's talents and leadership skills.

Healy-Keene will assume her responsibilities next month.

Some notable events: Fred Hayman hosted a reception last week for the unveiling of a re-creation of his world famous Giorgio Beverly Hills storefront on his building on Canon Drive, complete with faux entrance.

After the viewing, the guests made the short trip to Hayman's favorite watering venue, Spago.

It is certain to be a tourist attraction on a street, Canon, that itself is going through positive change. Giorgio's, the fragrance name and not the store, was sold to Avon and then Hayman kept the store giving it his own name.

So much a visitor attraction, his shopping bags became collector items.

With the opening of Giorgio's, Hayman truly helped set the theme for what has become one of the world's most famous streets.

Guests included city officials and City Manager Rod Wood, Barbara Lazaroff, Buzz Aldrin, Bram Goldsmith, Wolf Puck, Richard Rosenzweig and Judy Henning, Lee Iacoco, Donna Ellman Garber, Hamid Gabbay, Councilmember John Mirisch, Janet and Maxwell Salter, Mayor Nancy Krasne, Chief David and Ellyn Snowden, Ali Kasikci and many more.

Katy Sweet gave the welcoming address with her usual good style and humor. She was followed by famed author Judith Kranz, who said her best selling book, "Scruples" was based on Hayman's store.

Sad note: Betty and Fred Hayman's dog, Giorgio, a volatile Dachshund, passed away just weeks before the event, but lives on in the replication.

The sculpture, by J. Seward Johnson, Jr., depicts a young family visiting Rodeo Drive. The work also includes a copy of the famed store's opening.

Originally turned down by the Architectural Commission because the work did not fit any city category or precedent, their ruling was unanimously overturned by the city council. (A unanimous vote on a land use issue, that too is historic.)

***

Good to have some genuine community leaders recognized, and that did happen Tuesday night at the Beverly Hilton, when Lillian and Stuart Raffel were given the Beverly Hills Education Foundation annual service award. (See photos on page 5)

The Raffels are involved, really active in almost every aspect of city life and they exemplify what is best about our city: giving back and caring.

The event was also a tribute to the teachers of our schools and the theme was very different this year, not your usual cookie cutter dinner. Cinco de Mayo was recognized in the great décor, the refreshments and, mostly, the attire of the guests who embraced the theme. We could not attend, Josette had a conflict, and not because the day celebrates the Mexican army defeat of the French.

Dev Hankin, the energetic and talented executive director of the BHEF, put the gala together along with some highly skilled volunteers. These included dinner chair Deborah Deutsch, Michelle Kaye and Sheryl Weissberg. "Action" chairs: Jodi

Eye Infection from Contact Lenses?

If you've developed Acanthamoeba Keratitis eye infection after using contact lenses, You May Be Entitled To Money Damages. Acanthamoeba keratitis is an infection of the eye that typically occurs in healthy persons and can result in permanent visual impairment or blindness. Symptoms include:

Galen and Jana Garrotto and president Jean Rosenblatt. Also making it a success were Judie Fenton, Rosalie and Dr. Lad Rubaum and Hy Sanders. Ronna Berlin did much of the work obtaining auction items.

Dinner committee members were Cynthia Baseman, Tara Brucker, Don Creamer (who designed the invitations), Azy Farahmand, Julie Fluegel, Barbara Gillham, Linda Kadisha, Zarrina Kaufma, Elaine Maltzman, Sandra Oivencia (wife of recent retired Deputy Chief Robert Curtis), Franny Rennie, Fern Avidon Safier and Ilona Sherman.

***

The Montage's managing director Ali Kasikci recently hosted a very special dinner reception in the hotel's elegant Chef's private dining room for former Chamber of Commerce executive vice president and general manager, Rolfe Arnhym. Attending were most of the organizations presidents during Rolf's time of service.

The former chamber presidents included Tom Voltin, Lee Silver, Charles Avis, Richard Rosenzweig, Martin Barab and Tom Korey.

Rolfe, known by his more military title of Colonel, was probably somewhat surprised to hear about efforts to separate the Conference and Visitor's Bureau from the Chamber and, not too incidentally, reducing all Chamber services to the community. However, this is still subject to the new mayor and new councilmembers reconsideration.

Not too clear who is actually sponsoring this other event, but it does pay tribute to a great guy, Chief David Snowden, and a very good cause: the government to government program for bringing law enforcement professionals in the United States to Israel in counter terrorism training.

Snowden, the police department and "the city of Beverly Hills," will have a ceremony at city hall at 1: 30 p.m. on Tuesday, May 12 with a reception to follow. For more information: 323.848.8175

***

Other upcoming events you should not miss. The Beverly Hills Firefighters Association, the highly popular annual event that supports the association's work for retired members and their families, will be held on June 3, 2009 at the Beverly Hilton, where else. This is really an evening of showing our support for our first responders, consistently rated one of the finest in the nation. For ducats and info, call FTA at 310. 288.1755.

Notes on newspaper responsibilities. When either of our two papers publishes a letter to the editor attacking a public official, it should make it possible for a response to be published at the same time and in the same issue. A recent letter in the Courier had a headline critical of Myra Demeter, a member of the board of education and former board president. Although a somewhat critical headline for the letter did not quite match the message by the writer, Demeter, who gives her time to public service, deserves respect whether or not you agree with her board actions.

Speaking of the board, Member Brian David Goldberg should be commended for his informational newsletter to the community. Our district really needs a public affairs program that communicates school programs and policies effectively. Short of that, Dr. Goldberg helps fill a void.

Great presentation on city budget needs by City Manager Rod Wood Wednesday at the Economic Development Committee luncheon at Spago's. The EDC is affiliated with the Chamber of Commerce and includes most of our top businesses.

Former mayor Allan Alexander chairs the committee and served as master of ceremonies. Former mayors we saw who attended included Joe Tilem, Mark Egerman and my Ed Brown. I first worked with Ed when he was treasurer of Dr. Charles Aronberg's first council race – we won, and the campaign also had the benefit of the very savvy Linda Brown.

Councilmember John Mirisch was also there as was Planning Commissioner Nan Cole, and Jay Newman, the prime mover of the successful Montage development effort. Incidentally, although the newest member of city government, Mirisch is taking a very careful and thoughtful look at city issues and is doing his homework.

***

Speaking of newspaper fairness, and most of the time we try, a one time drama critic of the New York Times, who had a running feud with John Barrymore, wrote these two separate reviews for two Barrymore plays, I give them to you in their entirety:

"Last night Barrymore opened in Hamlet. Why?"

"Last night Barrymore played Macbeth. Macbeth lost."

BHHS Boys', Girls' Track Teams Win Ocean League Championships

Norman boys' golf team edges Oak Park to complete undefeated dual match season.

By Steven Herbert

The Beverly High boys' and girls' track teams both routed Hawthorne last Thursday to assure themselves of Ocean League dual meet championships.

The Norman boys' team won every event in a 106-11 victory, while the girls' team won all but one event in a 96-12 victory at Hawthorne.

In the boys' meet, Trey Houghton won the 200 meters, 400 and high jump for the Normans (5-2, 5-0 in league competition.)

Caylin Hauptmann (discus throw, shot put), Daniel Bradbury (300 intermediate hurdles), Alex Dubin (3,200), Brandon Hale (long jump), Gunther Klaus (1,600), Byron Myles (800), Kayvon Pedram (pole vault), Marcus Silbiger (110 high hurdles) and Trevor Walters (100) were Beverly Hills' other individual event winners.

In the girls' meet, Kemi Olonade (long jump, triple jump), and Nicole Weinstein (1,600, 3,200) both won two events for Beverly Hills (6-1, 5-0).

Freshman Melina Nassib cleared 7 feet, 6 inches to win the pole vault, matching the Norman school frosh-soph record set by Mary Ulickey in 1996 and moving into a six-way tie for second on the all-time varsity list.

IS BEVERLY HILLS PUSHING OUT DEALERSHIPS?

BMW leaves the City, could Lexus be next?

By Diana Vu

With one closure of an auto dealership as a result of expansion problems, and another in the process of expansion approval, the City could be losing significant sales tax revenue.

City budget study sessions in recent months have included discussions about numerous cuts in departments throughout the City including information technology, community development, fire, and police to make up for the shortfall. In past meetings, City Council members have discussed all the possible ways to make up for the deficit, including reducing overtime and utilizing the City's reserves.

With car sales in the hundred millions, the City can receive $1 million plus a year from a single dealership. With a budget deficit of $18 million, does every cent count? A revenue generator like BMW, Mercedes, or Ferrari is important—or is it?

According to Chief Financial Officer Scott Miller, car dealerships contribute mainly through sales taxes. The City receives 1 percent of the 9.25 state sales tax. The city also receives a business tax, based on a gross percentage of sales outside of the sales tax. The City receives $1.25 per $1,000 of gross receipts in business tax.

For example, BMW generated approximately $140 million in gross sales last year; a little over $1 million went to the City.

"Car sales are an important element of the City's overall sales tax revenue. In 2008, the transportation sector, which includes auto parts/repair, auto sales, and misc. Vehicle sales accounted for 13.9 percent of the City's sales tax revenue," said Director of Economic Development and Marketing Alison Maxwell. "New sales alone accounted for 12.1 percent."

Last year's total sales tax revenue was $26.5 million, which is approximately 16 percent of the $167 million general fund budget. Of that $26.5 million the automobile industry contributed $3 million to the City, which is approximately 2 percent of the total budget.

Maxwell also said overall sales were down for the year ending December 2008 by 18.6 percent compared to the year ending December 2007. In terms of dollars this is a drop of approximately $700,000.

Unlike other cities that rely heavily or solely on sales tax, Beverly Hills does not. According to Chamber of Commerce Vice President of Economic Development & Government Affairs Anita Zusman Eddy, the main source of tax revenue comes from tourism and retail.

In addition to sales and business taxes, the Transient Occupancy Tax (TOT) included with hotel room rates also contributes a percentage to tourism and retail sales tax revenue.

In the last quarter, through the months of October 2008-December 2008, car dealerships contributed to 12 percent of the City's total sales tax revenue. Miller said the percentage fluctuates every quarter.

"Twelve percent is not as big of an impact, but losing the dealership is going to hurt," said Miller. "We only have 4, but it's too soon to tell how much impact it is going to have."

The auto dealership industry is changing in Beverly Hills, with Lexus seeking City assistance in expansion, what BMW could not accomplish.

Zusman Eddy said auto dealerships are critical; however they are other outlets for the City.

"We are sorry to see them leave, but there are other sources and it's not going to negatively overwhelm the ability to supply services to Beverly Hills," said Zusman Eddy.

BMW is leaving Beverly Hills for two buildings on La Brea and Wilshire Boulevard, as a result of the issues with the City in expanding the dealership as ordered by the corporation. The company needed to expand their service area.

The buildings are under construction, and the dealership will keep the Beverly Hills name. Murray Fischer, attorney for BMW said the company wanted to stay, but City gave them no other choice but to leave.

"We tried to find other locations to expand within the city, unfortunately we didn't accomplish our goal," said Fischer. "We found a location outside of Beverly Hills and LA graciously accepted us."

Construction will be completed in the next year.

A scoping session was held April 23 and an initial study was presented for the Beverly Hills Lexus Expansion project. The City is currently preparing an Environmental Impact Review (EIR).

The scoping meeting allowed citizens of the community to comment on the potential environmental impacts that should be addressed in the EIR.

Eight individuals attended the meeting according to official meeting minutes.

Included in the minutes, is a written comment from Beverly residents Leslie and Phil Katz, who manage a 60+ unit building on South Maple Drive. Both addressed the issues of increased traffic, horns, and the frequency of backups interfering with the residential area.

Lexus currently has a service center on Robertson Boulevard and storage facilities in the 9900 Wilshire building in addition to the Jim Falk Lexus on Wilshire Boulevard.

If approved, the current building on Wilshire Boulevard would be torn down, and rebuilt to a new proposed 150,000 square foot, five-story facility.

The proposed expansion is 65 feet 4 inches in height, including a showroom, two levels of service, 201 parking spaces, and room for office and lounge areas.

According to the public notice of the scoping meeting, the City Council would need to approve, "a general plan amendment to extend the commercial land use designation onto the South Maple Drive parcel [currently residential], increase the allowed height to 66 feet, an amendment to the City of Beverly Hills Streets and Highway Master Plan to vacate the alley between South Maple and Wilshire Boulevard, the creation of an Overlay Zone to increase height, and allow tandem parking."

Calls to Jim Falk Lexus General Manager Kevin Wuepper were not returned by press time.

The proposed project will also be subject to Development Plan Review by the Planning Commission and the project will require Architectural Commission Review.

Although the City and BMW could not come to an agreement, Mercedes continues to maintain a good relationship with the City.

The City leased space to Jardine California Motors DBA (doing business as) Beverly Hills Mercedes Benz located at 400 Foothill Road. The 49,500 square feet property was used for the servicing of cars. The City leased this space to Beverly Hills Mercedes from 1997 to 2007.

Although the City rarely sells property, in 2007 the City sold that property to Jardine California Motors Limited. The City also leased the eastern half of the City owned property at 348 Foothill Road to Beverly Hills Mercedes Benz for auto storage. This lease is still in effect.

This week the dealership donated a second car to the Beverly Hills Police Department, a DARE SmartCar. Calls to Mercedes General Manager Bruce Schulman were not returned by press time.

For years the old Ford dealership on Rexford and Olympic remains empty, with no major complaints from the City or residents. In other cities, most would not hesitate to add another dealership.

City Planner Jonathan Lait said the City will try to work with Lexus' needs.

"City staff will continue working with Lexus to balance a shared interest in their continued investment in Beverly Hills with the need to ensure that future development is consistent and compatible with surrounding neighborhoods," said Lait.

CAN YOU TURN YOUR $1 MILLION IRA INTO $10 MILLION?

If you are over 70 and have accumulated more money in your IRAs and Pensions than you need to live on, Alan Kaye can show you how to create more money for your heirs and favorite charities than you ever anticipated!

---

At age 70½, people who have IRAs, Pensions and 401k plans are required to take minimum annual distributions that are subject to ordinary income tax. If you don't spend or give that money away, it could be subject to estate taxes as well. After income and estate taxes, those in the highest brackets could be leaving their families less than 1/3 of what they anticipated.

Why bother to make "wise" investments when it is likely that more than half of your accumulated wealth will go to the government instead of your family?

Simple Solutions!

If you have a large amount of money in your IRA, you can gift your annual distribution to your family, using that money to buy a life insurance policy that would create tax-free money for your heirs. In many cases, using the money to buy life insurance could give your heirs more than they would receive after-tax, by continuing to accumulate the funds in their retirement plans.

Assuming that your retirement plan earns a return of 5% annually, you could withdraw that amount without diminishing the principal. One client with a $1 million IRA used his annual distribution to buy $3 million of life insurance to benefit his family. If he doesn't spend the principal, his plan is to leave the balance of his IRA to his own charitable foundation.

Under current law, without life insurance, his $1 million IRA would have to grow to more than $10 million, so that after income and estate taxes, his family could get the same $3 million that life insurance would pay tax-free. What's more, he can now leave more money to charity than he ever expected to.

Why wait for your $1 million retirement plan to grow to $10 million? As president of the Alan Kaye Insurance Agency and vice president of Barry Kaye Associates, Alan Kaye has helped thousands of people meet their goals by creating insurance plans that best satisfy their needs.
