Licht drops out of Board of Education race in surprising announcement

In a surprising development in the 2011 Board of Education election, candidate Andy Licht announced Wednesday that he was dropping out of the race.

> "On Sunday, facing friends and family, I realized that as much as I want to serve on the school board, that as important as serving our city is, I was not fully prepared for the commitment," Licht said in a statement.

"During the Sunday kick-off party, I looked out on the sea of friends and supporters and realized that I needed to be there 100 percent for them, as they are for me. I did not fully anticipate the enormous commitment the campaign and the board seat requires."

Licht said he regretted that he would not be able to fulfill the expectations of his friends and supporters. Licht's endorsements included Mayor Barry Brucker, outgoing Board member Steven Fenton, BHEA, and the Los Angeles County Democratic Party. Licht said the response he has received from his supporters so far has been that of understanding.

Licht is the second candidate to drop out of the election. Damien Bean announced withdrawal of his candidacy on Aug. 12.

Licht's decision not to run leaves three candidates—Frances Bilak, Brian Goldberg and Lewis Hall—to contend for the Nov. 8 election of three seats.

Since it is too late for Licht to officially withdraw his candidacy, his name will remain on the ballot. Should Licht be elected, he could resign at his discretion, and the Board would then appoint someone for a two-year term until the next election.

Noise ordinance hearing creates confusion; City Council removes fines, sets cut off time at 10 p.m.

After an unusual series of procedures and an at times tense public hearing of the second reading of the City's noise ordinance, the City Council decided in a 3-2 vote Tuesday night to set the cut off time for amplified noise at 10 p.m., in line with the Council's decision at the Sept. 8 meeting, but decided to do away with the amendment that set fines for violations.

Vice Mayor Willie Brien and Councilmember John Mirisch voted no, because they supported the City Council's unanimous consensus reached minutes earlier to remove the noise ordinance from the agenda, with the intention of making no changes to the ordinance.

The ordinance's second reading had been scheduled on the agenda's consent calendar, meaning it could have been approved without discussion along with several other items, but it was brought up for discussion because 19 residents requested to make public comments on the topic. On Tuesday night, the majority of speakers supported a later cut off time for amplified sound and expressed concern about the criminalization of hosting parties by imposing fines. This was in contrast to the group that addressed the Council on Sept. 8, most of whom supported no change to the current noise ordinance.

"The current code the way it exists may not be the best government in the world with conflicting laws and unclear rules, but I guess it seems to have worked," Mirisch said. "So maybe it turns out keeping the status quo is the best policy as I hear that from Mr. [Robert K.] Tanenbaum and also from Mr. [Joe] Shooshani that, let's keep it, let's let people work things out. I admonish everyone [to] make it work because very clearly we're going to have to apply common sense, consideration, and that buzz word we have used before, civility."

Prior to the vote, the City's noise ordinance prohibited amplified sound after 6 p.m., but police began enforcement at 10 p.m. A second section of the municipal code permitted some types of noise until 10 p.m. Part of the Council's task for the ordinance was reconciling the inconsistencies in the two code sections. Councilmember Lili Bosse, one of the City Council-Human Relations Commission liaisons who worked on the noise ordinance recommendation, said she was told by the police that making no change to the ordinance would likely result in more noise complaints to the police starting at 6 p.m.

After removing consideration of the noise ordinance from the agenda, the City Council decided to open the topic back up for discussion once it became apparent there was confusion in the Chambers about the Council's decision to maintain the status quo. Public Works Commissioner Shooshani, who supported a later cut off time on the weekends, asked the Council after the vote if 10 p.m. had been decided as the cut off time. Nessah Synagogue Chair Leon Farahnik expressed concern that there were still two conflicting sections of the municipal code.

Former Mayor and North Homeowners Association President Robert K. Tanenbaum approached the podium to question the procedure of removing the item from the agenda, and then placing it back for reconsideration. Brucker had suggested reviving the topic in order to do away with the conflicting code sections. Tanenbaum had earlier urged the Council to leave the status quo in place for at least six months to monitor whether or not noise complaints between 6 and 10 p.m. to the police actually increased.

"What happened was, the mayor withdrew the motion after there were four votes to defeat it. Now what you're saying is without any changed circumstances, without anything being duly noticed, [the original item is now back up for consideration]," Tanenbaum said to the Council. "The only reason you removed it is because you polled your colleagues. There were four votes when you polled them to not pass the ordinance."

Brucker responded that "the only reason this is now being brought up again is that there was possibly some confusion as to what's the time that we enforce this ordinance." City Attorney Larry Wiener said the ordinance that the Council brought back up for consideration was the same ordinance that had been introduced at the Sept. 8 Council meeting and appeared on the Sept. 20 agenda, and it had been duly noticed.

During the public comment section, Shooshani said he preferred a later cut off time on weekends, and he also protested the penalties that were part of the proposed ordinance.

"This new law, as it stands, is criminalizing having parties," Shooshani said. "I foresee in the dark of night, there will be arguments between police and homeowners. In short more harm is done than good [with this ordinance]."

In response to a question from Mirisch, Shooshani said the current enforcement practice without fines was preferable to the ordinance the Council approved Sept. 8. Ultimately, the Council decided to set the cut off time at 10 p.m. and remove the provision for fines. According to Brucker, the City's

DATE: September 26, 2011 TIME: 1:30 PM, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard LOCATION: Council Meeting Room 280A Beverly Hills City Hall 455 North Rexford Drive Beverly Hills, CA 90210

The Planning Commission of the City of Beverly Hills, at its Special meeting on Monday, September 26, 2011, will hold a public hearing beginning at 1:30 PM, or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard to consider the Lexus expansion project as described below, as well as consideration of the Final EIR.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

Jim Falk Properties, LLC and JF Wilshire Properties, LLC, propose the demolition and replacement of the existing Lexus dealership located at 9230 Wilshire Boulevard. The project site consists of two parcels, one located at the southwest corner of Wilshire Boulevard and Maple Drive (Wilshire property), and the other located along South Maple Drive, immediately south of the east/west alley that borders the southern side of the Wilshire property. The proposed new automobile dealership will contain a combined total of approximately 29,165 square feet of showroom and office space within the first and second levels, approximately 82,286 square feet of vehicle parking and circulation areas within levels one through four, and approximately 56,768 square feet of subterranean vehicle service areas (70 service bays in total). The proposed new building would be approximately 45-feet to the roof level, 48-feet 6-inches to the top of the parapet and 59-feet to the top of the stair tower. The project proposes 352 parking spaces in a stacked/tandem configuration, including rooftop parking. While 84 of the parking spaces would be utilized to satisfy the City's zoning code requirement for sales and office areas, the remainder of the parking spaces would be utilized for automobile storage.

The Wilshire Boulevard portion of the site would house the primary existing Lexus dealership operations and is currently zoned for general commercial (C-3) uses. The parcel on South Maple Drive, south of the existing building across the alley is currently utilized by the dealership for vehicle storage/surface parking and is zoned for multiple-family residential (R-4) uses, which also permits parking related to commercial uses fronting on Wilshire Boulevard. The 1,822 square foot portion of the east/west alley that bisects the parcels is proposed to be vacated and relocated to the south of the proposed building as a part of the Project. The entire building site, including the proposed alley area is approximately 32,643 square feet.

The current dealership operation has offsite car storage, including rooftop storage at 9900 Wilshire Boulevard (Robinsons May site parking structure), underground parking at 8942 Wilshire Boulevard (ICM site), and a service location at 194 North Robertson Boulevard. An objective of the project is to consolidate these off-site activities and centralize them in one location.

DISCRETIONARY APPROVALS REQUESTED

Approval of the project requires the following discretionary approvals:

- Zone Text Amendment: The applicant requests a zone text amendment to amend the Municipal Code as follows:
 A provision to exclude above-ground automobile dealership parking areas and subterranean service areas from the definition of Floor Area; and
 - A provision to allow automobile dealerships to provide stacked/tandem parking.
- Conditional Use Permit The applicant requests a Conditional Use Permit to establish a new car dealership.
- Alley Vacation/Amendment to Streets and Highways Master Plan The applicant requests to vacate a portion of a public alley south of Wilshire Boulevard, adjacent to the site and provide a replacement alley to the south of the project site.
- Encroachment Permit The applicant requests an encroachment permit to allow loading activities to be located within the public right-of-way, on Wilshire Boulevard, abutting the project site.

This project has been assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City. An Environmental Impact Report has been prepared for this project and was circulated for public review in accordance with state requirements. A Final Environmental Impact Report, including responses to comments previously received, will be reviewed at this hearing.

Any interested person may attend the meeting and be heard or present written comments to the Commission.

According to Government Code Section 65009, if you challenge the Commission's action in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the public hearing described in this notice, or in written correspondence delivered to the City, either at or prior to the public hearing.

municipal code already contains a schedule of fines for code violations.

On Wednesday, Brucker said he was satisfied with the result.

"It was not the most efficient way of passing an ordinance, but we finally did get it right and I think everybody in the community should be comforted to know that it will be fair and balanced for all citizens, No. 1 respecting the peace and quiet and tranquility of our community, and No. 2 allowing people to have respectful social events up to a reasonable time, which is 10 p.m.," Brucker said.

The Council voted 4-1 Sept. 8 on an ordinance that prohibits amplified sound that is "distinctly audible beyond the property line" between 10 p.m. and 8 a.m. seven days a week, imposed fines of up to $250 for the second violation and up to $1,000 for subsequent violations, and prohibits the rental of private homes for commercial parties, except for events or activities in connection with non-profit or charity functions. Brien voted no because he thought the ordinance would pit neighbors against neighbors.

Superior Court says Metro did not violate California Public Records Act by withholding information from BHUSD

BHUSD's effort to obtain additional records from Metro in connection with the draft environmental impact statement related to the Westside Subway Extension alignment hit a setback Sept. 14 when Los Angeles Superior Court Judge Ann Jones denied the district's petition that argued Metro was improperly withholding certain records from the district.

"A review of the verified petition, however, fails to identify which items on Petitioner's series of requests remain outstanding," Jones wrote in her ruling. "Therefore, it is virtually

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The City Council of the City of Beverly Hills, at its adjourned regular meeting to be held on Tuesday, September 27, 2011, at 7:00 p.m., in the Council Chambers of the City Hall, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210, will consider:

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS TO PROHIBIT DRILLING AND EXTRACTION OF OIL, GAS AND OTHER HYDROCARBON SUBSTANCES FROM SURFACE LOCATIONS IN THE CITY, AMENDING CHAPTER 5 OF ARTICLE 10 OF THE BEVERLY HILLS MUNICIPAL CODE

On January 25, 2011, the City Council adopted an interim urgency ordinance to prohibit drilling and extraction from surface locations in the City. Pursuant to State Law, the interim ordinance was effective for an initial period of 45 days. On March 1, 2011, the City Council extended interim ordinance for a period of 10 months and 15 days to allow the City's Planning Commission to consider the proposed permanent ordinance. On September 8, 2011, the City's Planning Commission considered an ordinance and recommended that the City Council adopt permanent regulations prohibiting drilling and extraction from surface locations in the City. The Commission also recommend that proposed ordinance include modifications to the conditions to be imposed on drilling from locations outside of the City to require surface facilities to be located a minimum distance from schools and parks.

The proposed ordinance has been environmentally reviewed pursuant to the California Environmental Quality Act ("CEQA"), (Public Resource Sections 21000, et seq.), the State CEQA Guidelines (California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Sections 15000 et seq.), and the City's Local CEQA guidelines and has been determined to be exempt pursuant to the Guidelines Section 15061 (b) (3) in that it can be seen with certainty that prohibiting drilling and extraction within the City will not result in an potentially significant environmental impacts.

All interested persons are invited to attend and speak on this matter. Written comments may also be submitted and should be addressed to the City Council, c/o City Clerk, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Room 290, Beverly Hills, CA 90210. The comments should be received prior to the hearing date.

Please remember, if you challenge the Council's action in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at the hearing before the City Council or in written correspondence delivered to the City, either at or prior to the hearing.

impossible for Metro to counter the allegations. And, even worse, it makes it impossible for the Court to determine whether Petitioner's claims of non-production are, in fact correct."

Even though Jones stated the district's petition's "lack of specificity is fatal to the instant Petition," she stated, "It is possible to discern whether a proper verified Petition would have been availing." Jones determined the petitioner "failed to demonstrate that the Respondent did not fully comply with the CPRA [California Public Records Act]."

Jones agreed Metro rightly withheld certain requested documents from the district on the grounds that certain information is not a public record as it is not yet complete; certain information is proprietary and therefore exempt from disclosure under the CPRA; the material is maintained and in the possession of private consultants and not Metro; and the requests for documents are essentially questions posed to Metro consultants.

"We were very disappointed," President Lisa Korbatov said. "We're going to study the options when we have another closed session."

BHUSD's attorney Kevin Brogan said he was still evaluating the ruling. He would not elaborate on what options the school board might consider.

Metro Senior Public Communications Officer Dave Sotero said Metro was pleased with the ruling.

"We are currently working to complete the environmental analysis, and look forward to the release of the final environmental report for everyone to review later this year," Sotero said in a statement.

Jones ruled in the City of Beverly Hills' favor in April when she granted the City's request for a preliminary injunction against having to implement Measure 2P, which was passed by voters this past March.

Enrichment courses encourage students, teachers to branch out

Once a month, Beverly High students will have the opportunity to branch out from the routine of their regularly scheduled courses to sign up for an enrichment course. Likewise, the enrichment classes will give teachers a break from their typical subjects, allowing them to share their expertise in other areas in which they are passionate.

"[It] could be a tutorial period, it could be a book group, it could be literary magazine, it could be study skills," Interim Director of Curriculum, Instruction and Professional Development Jennifer Tedford said. The enrichment period could also be used for special assemblies and scheduling additional college counseling sessions, she said.

The 55-minute enrichment period is part of the monthly "odd" block schedule, which occurs on one Wednesday each month. A committee spearheaded by Principal Carter Paysinger and then-Assistant Principal Tedford engaged staff, parents and students to come up with a schedule that would meet all stakeholders' needs. The Board of Education approved the committee's proposed bell schedule, considered a "hybrid" schedule containing elements of block and daily schedules, on May 31. Tedford proposed including an enrichment period after learning about a similar program at Thomas Jefferson High School in Virginia on a campus visit this past January.

On a first-come, first-serve basis, students will have the opportunity to sign up for enrichment courses each month. Teachers may choose to offer different courses each month, or offer an ongoing course throughout the year. The first enrichment period is on Oct. 5.

"There is an incentive for students to sign up quickly and there's an incentive for teachers to publicize their programs accordingly," Tedford said.

School board candidates launch campaigns

With the PTA Council and BHEF-sponsored candidates' forum last week, and the kick off of school board candidates' campaigns this past Sunday, the Board of Education campaign is officially underway. Brian Goldberg kicked off his campaign at the home of Sam and Ardyth Freshman, and Frances Bilak held her campaign kick-off at Roxbury Park Community Center. Lewis Hall will kick off his campaign this Sunday from 2 to 4:30 p.m. at the home of Janet Salter at 804 North Linden Drive.

English teacher Julie Goler said she is excited about the enrichment courses.

"I think it's a wonderful idea," Goler said. "We have so many staff members who have things that they would like to share with students, and over the next year I plan to teach a yoga class, [a course] on organic gardening and I plan to do several book groups for kids, taking things I love and being able to share them with the kids."

Goler has heard offerings from other teachers may include meditation, college essay writing and a thank-you note writing workshop.

"I just love that we have a chance to showcase things other than the subject that we teach," Goler said.

Tedford said she hoped the enrichment program would benefit both students and teachers.

"I think this is going to be an extraordinary concept for the high school," Tedford said. "We're going to watch it closely and see how it goes."

Fine Art Commission considers new purchase; Dill prompts new policy

The Fine Art Commission is moving on. At its August meeting, the Commission decided to cease plans for commissioning a glass piece from Dan Graham after the Commission was unable to find a suitable location for the piece after three years. At its meeting on Sept. 13, the Commission introduced the possibility of purchasing one of two pieces by Spanish artist Jaume Plensa.

"Because we did not go forward with the

"Center Obelisk" by Joan Brown

Dan Graham, we now have money to look at another piece," Commission Chair Judi Friedman said.

Friedman said the six-member commission has unanimously been interested in Plensa's work for two years. The two pieces the Commission is considering purchasing are stainless steel figures that are 96-by-100-by-87 inches. One piece called Endless III depicts a human figure, made of stainless steel letters fused together, hugging its knees. The other

The Lion Sleeps Tonight turns 50

Beverly Hills residents Noah and Phil Margo, along with other band and family members, celebrated the 50th anniversary of their group the Tokens' hit song "The Lion Sleeps Tonight," at the Brooklyn Book Festival last weekend. The Tokens performed a concert and sing-along, and wrapped up the weekend by performing at the festival's after party at the Brooklyn Bowl.

"Very few groups are around to celebrate the 50th anniversary of any of their hits," Noah Margo said of the anniversary's significance. "The other significance is the song itself is part of history. Everyone knows it, everyone sings it, even if they can't remember who originally recorded it."

Noah Margo, Phil's son who has been performing with the Tokens for 18 years, said the location of the celebration was also significant because "[we were] doing it in the place where we were all born, myself, my father, my uncle [Mitch Margo]—the three of us core Tokens—and my aunt [Maxine Margo] who came up and sang also."

Incidentally, the 50th anniversary celebration took place on the release weekend of The Lion King in 3D, which features the song and was No. 1 at the box office.

Noise battle ends

And Licht guits board race

By Rudy Cole

What we thought was a Solomon like considerable skill even when tempers began decision on making our noise ordinances more realistic, and concurrently avoiding any divisiveness in the community, which last week I applauded, turned out to be very flawed.

Thanks to the research talents of our city attorney, Larry Wiener, we now discover that there are two conflicting ordinances on the books: One enforces noise controls at 6 p.m. and another that kicks in at 10 p.m.

What the council apparently achieved, and this is still a work in progress, was to remove the 6 p.m. enforcement, modify some of the harsher fines and continue to support the police department's ability to use their judgment when complaints are received.

The one councilmember who immediately recognized the hazards of the proposed new rules was Vice Mayor Dr. Willie Brien, who voted against the first proposal at the previous council meeting. His concerns were validated by Tuesday's council action.

However, crafting the wording and offering amendments that restored some reason to the process was Councilmember Lili Bosse, and, despite the highly charged atmosphere at the meeting, Councilmember Dr. Julian Gold was both rational and conciliatory.

It also took some political fortitude for Councilmember John Mirisch to avoid playing to his more passionate supporters and remain reasonably detached and calm.

Then there was the incredible appearance at the podium of an early teen young man, Alexander Kashfi, who was so rational and composed in his calm call for a compromise that would remove the 6 p.m. ordinance and allow entertainment with sound equipment later on weekends that Mayor Barry Brucker predicted he would one day easily win election to the council.

Mayor Brucker wielded the gavel with to overtake reason. What was probably helpful is that the two culturally divided sides on this issue appeared at different council meetings.

Time to step back, take a politically difficult moment of calm and recognize that there are very different cultures involved. Inevitably, both sides feel that the other is imposing on their rights. One insists that amplified sound, the real and only issue here, should not intrude on their "quiet enjoyment" of their homes. The other argues that they have purchased expensive homes to live full and socially active lives, and in their culture that means having social events that run later in the evening than those of some of their neighbors.

Thanks to the rational approach by our police department, when there have been disputes, the problems have been mostly carefully resolved by talking and not quick issuance of citations. This is obvious when you compare the number of complaints with ticketing.

There is no quick fix, no absolute compromise that can ever satisfy the diverse differences involved. But there are some interventions that just might make this issue a means of improving understanding in our community. First, the sky is not falling, most people who live here are tolerant, considerate of their neighbors, law abiding and always good citizens. We are not that far apart and we live together, no matter our differences, with appreciation of what we share together: A safe, well managed, education committed and highly attractive urban environment.

How can we make it even more united and tolerant?

Some years back the city actually had a staff person with experience in the field of human relations. Can't remember her name, but she had broad experience in other communities, including a successful

Even more important is having a Farsispeaking, Persian culture-background person serving various needs at city hall. This staffer could do outreach, handle resident requests for information and assistance from many city agencies and help communicate the decision makers' problems before they become too divisive.

Finally, the city needs a hearing officer process, not only for noise enforcement issues, but other neighborhood disputes of any kind. Conciliation, bringing neighbors together in a spirit of compromise may not always work or be easy, but is clearly worth trying.

And we must always, always remember that diversity and tolerance is what distinguishes us as a community and enriches our lives.

As if the school board race was not without drama, we learned yesterday that Andy Licht, one of the front runners, has withdrawn from the election (see brief on page 2).

In a statement to this column, Licht said he simply did not feel that he could make the commitment either to the campaign or to service on the board at this time in his life.

Clearly, Licht was probably going to win, he had a very impressive group of supporters. It also seems clear that he will not be able to have his name taken off the ballot, but he will urge voters not to give him one of their three votes. Personally, I am sorry he dropped out. He has integrity and abil-

Now, if you want peace and quiet, watch any of the debates or attend one of the events for any candidates for school board. This has yet to rise to the level of boring.

If there are differences, they did not surface in the first candidates' forum. Aside from incumbent Dr. Brian David Goldberg, the others are so laid back that they have yet to clearly define any differences.

Up to this moment, the election is probably a referendum on Goldberg and the record of the school board. Although incumbents have not fared well in recent years, Goldberg's campaign is so much more intense, with many very active, loyal supporters that he had emerged as the strongest early contender.

Certainly, this was also shown by the numbers of people attending the candidates' kick off events. Goldberg had well over 200 at the Ardyth and Sam Freshman's, while Andy Licht had about a hundred and Frances Bilak a disappointing 30.

Bilak did break some traditions by holding her kickoff at Roxbury Park. Incidentally, she broke no rules. Park facilities are legally available for political events. Bilak took the time to announce she had the backing of many community leaders including Judie Fenton.

The fourth, now third contender, Lewis Hall did score a major breakthrough in his campaign by obtaining the Janet Salter residence for his kickoff this Sunday at 2 p.m. (804 North Linden Drive, open to all voters.) Mayor Barry Brucker is expected to introduce Hall.

Hall and Bilak have good professional credentials and, just maybe, Hall being relatively new to the community may actually be an advantage. He can serve above and out of all the past angst.

Does the election still matter? Yes, the order in which they finish will determine who has seniority for board president.

What is fascinating is the city's inability in finding candidates for public office. Consider this: Eleven highly qualified residents applied for appointment to the city's Planning Commission but only three people are willing to serve on the Board of Education. Of the eleven, all were well known and active; of the remaining board candidates, only one, Goldberg, had any name recognition.

The community is becoming very concerned about a lack of progress in the police contract negotiations, and many are urging both sides to come to a speedy agreement.

Our long history of outstanding policecommunity relations should not be diminished by protracted and contentious disagreements. The city council needs to take hold and the police association must tell their story to the community.

Also troubling is the apparent loss of some of our most experienced top brass

Hotel news: The historic Bel Air is set to open late next month with a Wolfgang Puck restaurant and other food services.

How this will impact our own hotels is unclear, although the Bel Air has the same management as the Beverly Hills Hotel.

Good news for Beverly Hills tax coffers: All our hotels are doing close to occupancy. The Beverly Hilton had an incredible 90 percent in recent months.

This city has made some very wise decisions through the years, but there are some historic goofs. Here are some puzzlers:

The entrance to the Beverly Hills from the south is not manageable and always dangerous. Early planners, probably not realizing that one day there would be homes all around the Pink Lady, made minimal requirements for parking.

Two post office puzzlers: For some reason, there are no 7000 to 8000 addresses on Wilshire Boulevard. (Just maybe because the street was named for a well known anarchist, Gaylord Wilshire.) Leaving Los Angeles, the numbers go from 6500 to 8200. If you are not familiar with the street, you might well drive for miles before you realize the confusion.

As for Robertson, some real geniuses decided that the east side in Los Angeles would have 800 numbers, while the west in Beverly Hills would begin with 200. Try to explain that to visitors.

Of course my favorite is the design of the Rite Aid, with a blank wall on Canon and an entrance off the street from the parking lot. Dims hopes for a makeover of Canon Drive.

As for more recent planning decisions, the CVS at Wilshire and Doheny has restricted hours, a zero pedestrian entrance on Wilshire and egress challenges on Doheny.

depicts a human head, which is white because it is composed of baked stainless steel.

"[Endless III] is at a gallery in New York, and [the head] is being shown in Paris right now," Friedman said. "That [could] have a lot to do with which one we get, if the one in Paris could be sold before we make a decision."

Continuing business from the last meeting, the Commission is still seeking a location for Joan Brown's Center Obelisk, which was previously located at the former Hilton Headquarters at 9336 Civic Center Drive. Current property owner Tishman Speyer, which has planned a renovation of the building that will add 6,000 square feet of office space, does not want the piece. Tishman Speyer has offered to not only give the sculpture to the City, but also to repair it, store it until the City finds an appropriate location, and then place it for the City.

The Commission discussed the possibility of placing the obelisk on one of two islands at Whittier and Linden or Whittier and Walden. Friedman said they would be good places to display art, but the City is worried about the possibility of an out-of-control driver crashing into it.

"When we [place] public art, we don't want to put it where a car can take it out," Friedman said.

Friedman has asked commissioners to arrive early to their meeting next month so they can walk the area around the library and City Hall to see if they can find a suitable location for the obelisk there.

Another order of business the Commission considered last week was the City's draft deaccessioning policy.

"The City does not have any way of selling a piece of art or giving a piece of art or destroying a piece of art if nobody wants it," Friedman said.

Commissioners Fiona Chalom and Sandy Pressman serve on an ad hoc committee that is working on the City's deaccessioning policy, which is needed because the Commission is trying to figure out what to do with Guy Dill's Egalmah, the Great Palace, a 120-ton piece made of prestressed concrete that has been stored for years at the reservoir on Loma Vista Drive. It needs to be moved in March 2012 when the reservoir is renovated. The Commission is looking at ways it can donate or sell the piece.

Stan and Debra Berman gave the piece to the City in 2000, but its size and mass made it difficult to find a place to put it on display. The deaccessioning policy will determine what the City can do with the piece, whether traffic in the southwest.

Of course, residents who wanted these Rube Goldberg configurations are long gone and leaving the rest of us the pain.

On the other hand, and of course there always is, the traffic management systems in place in the southwest and on our major boulevards and our one-way streets have been an important tool in automobile movement control.

Yes, much of these improvements made when Mark Scott was city manager.

One of the most admired guys in our community, Monty Hall, will be honored by the Canadian government next week for his historic efforts in raising over $1 billion for charities.

Ambassador Gary Doer and Consul General David Fransen will host a reception in Hall's honor next week. Hall is an OC (Order of Canada) and OM (Order of Manitoba), so you may indeed call him your Excellency.

My own Hall story: When I was preparing a brochure for Max Salter's first city council campaign, Hall very graciously gave me permission to use his name in any way I wanted. But I made a serious error in grammar, which he caught.

Having lunch at Hillcrest, shortly after, some people at my table were impressed that Hall was heading our way. He had two words for me: "Permission Withdrawn."

But he forgave me, certainly when he learned that our anniversaries were on the same date, September 28. Also, Chief David Snowden's birthday.

BHHS Football Team Defeats San Marcos

Beverly High played average against San Marcos of Santa Barbara in a nonleague football game Friday night at Nickoll Field, according to coach Donald Paysinger, but was still able to defeat the Royals, 20-14.

The Normans broke a 7-7 tie with about three minutes to play on Frank Brown's one-yard touchdown run. Following an interception, quarterback Cameron Countryman ran 52 yards for touchdown, increasing Beverly Hills' lead to 20-7, with about two minutes to play.

San Marcos scored a touchdown on a 60yard pass on the first play from scrimmage following the ensuing kickoff. The Normans

(1-1) recovered the Royals' onside kickoff and ran out the clock.

Following a scoreless first half, Beverly Hills opened the scoring in the third quarter on a 71-yard touchdown pass from Countryman to Willie Green. San Marcos (0-3) tied the score later in the third quarter, returning an interception of a Countryman pass for a touchdown.

"Except for the one big play, our defense played extremely well," Paysinger said. "Our offense played average. We have to improve

BHUSD retirees reunite for fourth annual breakfast

Fifty BHUSD retirees reunited at the home of Howard Green and Vivian Saatjian-Green for the fourth annual retiree breakfast on Sept. 14.

"Our careers in education tend to be very social. Over the years I have met wonderful people who [I've] maintained a friendship with outside of school, and when I retired, I thought it would be a nice venue to invite people to the house for a reunion to reconnect," said Saatjian-Green, who retired in 2006 after 17 years as Beverly High director of guidance and 25 years with the district.

Adrian Bal, who was hired in 1958, was the oldest in attendance at age 92. The youngest attendee was 60, Saatjian-Green said. Attendance has doubled since Saatjian-Green hosted the first breakfast in 2007, when about 20 to 25 people showed up. A core group has attended every year, Saatjian-Green said.

"It's a wonderful time; people are happy to see each other," Saatjian-Green said. "There are many people from the 60s who do not know the people from the 90s and there's a group of us who are from the 80s when we were hired, who know both sides of it."

Normans have to "clean up the little things." We're still working on that," Paysinger said.

Another goal was to tackle better, which Paysinger said he felt the team did.

A third area Paysinger targeted for improvement was passing.

"We threw the ball well late in the third quarter and the fourth quarter," Paysinger said.

Countryman completed eight of 16 passes for 158 yards, with the one touchdown. He had one pass intercepted.

Brown drew praise from Paysinger after he rushed for 85 yards on 23 carries and made three interceptions. Linebacker Ole Woods, who made $6\frac{1}{2}$ tackles, also drew praise from Paysinger.

The Normans are scheduled to play host to Peninsula Friday at 7 p.m. at Nickoll Field in a nonleague game.

COVERSTORY SCHOOL BOARD SHAKEUP Andy Licht drops out of the race in a surprising announcement, but will a new write-in candidate emerge?

By Melanie Anderson

Four candidates had been running for three seats until the surprise announcement yesterday that Andy Licht was dropping out of the race. Three candidates are left for three slots, but will a new candidate run as a write-in? The Weekly takes a look.

FRANCES BILAK

No longer a practicing attorney, Frances Bilak calls herself a practicing mom.

After enrolling her children Maddie and Michael Bilak at El Rodeo last year, Bilak became involved with the PTA and volunteered in Maddie's classroom. Bilak, who is currently in charge of Spirit Wear for the El Rodeo PTA Executive Board, said her volunteer experience and her desire to give back to the community inspired her run for school board.

"I want every child in the district to receive the type of education I feel they have a right to," Bilak said. "I want to address their academic, their social and their emotional needs."

Bilak may be a newcomer to the district but her children are on track to follow in the footsteps of their father Dorian Bilak ('88), his brothers Marcel Bilak ('92) and the late Olivier Bilak ('90), and their grandfather Milton Bilak ('59), all of whom are Beverly High graduates.

Maddie and Michael Bilak attended Shalhevet School until the elementary and middle schools closed at the end of 2010. Michael entered fifth grade at El Rodeo in 2010, and Maddie Bilak entered kindergarten.

"My husband had made a strong push for the Beverly Hills school system," Bilak said. "When I received notice the school was closing, within that week, I went to El Rodeo and began to research the school, and I found that I was so comforted by the feel of the school."

As a family lawyer in Washington, D.C., Bilak said she primarily represented men in divorce and custody cases. When representing a client and a child was involved, Bilak said she wanted to make sure the child's best interests were of "paramount concern."

"Although I didn't have any children of my own at the time, I realized the importance of not using children as chattel," Bilak said. "We need[ed] to seriously consider what was in the best interest of a child."

Bilak, who grew up in Maryland, said she had been running her own law firm in Washington D.C., for about 12 years when she met Dorian Bilak at the bar mitzvah of a mutual friend in Mexico City in August 1996. After exchanging e-mails, the pair began a long-distance relationship. By April 1997 they had married. Bilak continued to commute for several months between Washington, D.C. and California. Eventually she settled in California, even though Dorian, president of real estate firm Bilak Enterprises in Beverly Hills, had offered to establish a business in Washington, D.C.

"If we had children, I knew that I was not going to continue to work," Bilak said. "The same dedication I put into practicing law, I was going to put into my children and my husband."

Now Bilak says she is ready to commit to the school board. She acknowledged the amount of time she spends with Dorian may be affected, but she does not expect serving to interfere with her parenting responsibilities except for on Tuesday nights, when board meetings are scheduled.

"Both of us have had a lot of community involvement, and it's not something that we're unaccustomed to," Bilak said. "I think we both realize the importance of giving back. We need to lead by example so our children see what we do."

When asked why she thought there were only a few candidates running, Bilak said perhaps it was because of the difficult issues the school district is facing.

"I know that there are truly some phenomenal people that are out there that are very involved in the community," Bilak said. "I have to tell you, it's really hard to put yourself out there and run."

BRIAN GOLDBERG

As the only incumbent, Brian Goldberg enters the campaign with the most name recognition of the candidates.

When he was elected four years ago, Goldberg was considered a newcomer to the community. Goldberg's early days on the school board were an "eye-opening experience," he said.

"I would say I was a little bit idealistic in believing that if I did my homework, made a coherent argument as to why the board should support one policy or one direction over another that I would be able to convince my colleagues on the school board through the force of my argument that we should do something or not do something," Goldberg said.

Goldberg said he discovered quickly that decision-making was more about politics than policy.

"As someone who is a professor of political science, I like to believe that politics is really about doing what's in the best interest as opposed to what is the most politically expedient," said Goldberg, who is an assistant professor and co-chair of the political science department at American Jewish University.

What Goldberg has learned, he said, is compromise is the key to successfully passing and implementing policies and having a board majority is critical to implementing the goals and vision for the district.

"That's just the reality why the 2009 election [of President Lisa Korbatov and Board member Jake Manaster and defeat of Nooshin Meshkaty] was so critically important for the school district moving in the direction in which we have, which is greater academic success, better morale, more fiscal stability, and continuity in administrative positions," Goldberg said. The 2011 election will bring a new composition to the board, when Myra Lurie and Steven Fenton's terms end, as both opted not to run again.

"Steven has been a tremendous ally and a very important part of the success of this new board majority. His leadership and expertise is going to be sorely missed by me and I think by the rest of the board," Goldberg said. "Although Myra and I don't get along on a personal level I've always respected and admired her work ethic and the time and effort she puts into serving on the board, and that will be missed."

Goldberg, though proud of his track record, acknowledged serving on the board has come with personal challenges of competing priorities and dealing with the publicity of a lawsuit against Goldberg and a family business. When asked how he managed to balance public service with his professional and family life, he responded, "Not very well."

"Anyone who is going to run for school board has to understand in order to do a good job, it takes a commitment of time and effort, which for me has resulted in less time with my own kids and certainly has hurt my efforts in my professional career because I just can't put the time in that I would like to because of my commitment to the school board and the school district," Goldberg said.

In addition to serving on the school board and teaching, Goldberg is CEO of Casa de la Familia, a nonprofit that provides bicultural and bilingual psychological treatment, education and outreach to the Latino community.

"We all rationalize things in our own way. I rationalize my time away from my children in I'm trying to make the district better for all students," Goldberg said. "If I'm successful at that my kids will benefit from that indirectly. I also hope I'm providing valuable life lessons to them about public service and the importance of getting involved and being part of the solution instead of part of the problem."

Goldberg identified being part of the solution as one of the things he likes most about serving on the school board.

"Another thing I really like about the Board of Education is there's always a new challenge, and the work is never complete," Goldberg said. "It's never boring being on the Board of Education. Some people may think it's crazy but I certainly thrive in that kind of environment."

LEWIS HALL

Lewis Hall says this is a good time for him to run for school board. His youngest daughter, Cara Hall, graduated from Beverly High in 2011 and he noticed a number of issues in the district that he thought needed attention. Hall said running his own business also gives him the flexibility to serve.

The main issue that inspired Hall to run, he said, was that only three 2011 Beverly High graduates were admitted to Ivy League colleges. Hall said it was "heartbreaking" to see some of Cara's peers-who he said were smart, had high GPAs, and were involved in many activities-not gain admission to their top-choice colleges.

"I want every kid who graduates to be realistic of where they can get in and what they would like to do. I want them to have every opportunity," Hall said. "It requires work, [and] it requires good counselors who know the schools, who can be an advocate for the students, who can advise the student well and communicate with admissions people at these colleges and sell the student to them."

Hall's older daughter Tasha Hall graduated from Harvard-Westlake, and Cara Hall started out at Marymount. After her sophomore year, Cara wanted to attend a larger school that offered more AP classes, so the Hall family moved from Cheviot Hills to Beverly Hills so Cara could attend Beverly High. Hall said Beverly High was the right choice for Cara, and he was impressed by the staff, especially English teacher Minna Kim and Cara's counselor Leanne Domnitz, who retired in June.

Since Hall is new to the district and the City, he said he has talked to a number of board members and city councilmembers to get a sense of the community. Hall said he finds former Mayor Ed Brown's work on the Facilities Advisory Committee inspiring.

"The best thing about this whole campaign [is the] people I've met," Hall said.

Hall, who grew up in Virginia and studied film at UCLA, is interested in education via digital media, which he has explored through making educational films and launching an educational iPad app through his company Elevated Lab. Hall acquired the rights to math research he had done a few years earlier for an educational DVD to create the app that presents 120 hours of middle school math instruction.

"I made educational films because I wanted to motivate the kids. I wanted them to become curious about a subject," Hall said. "If they are curious then it's a lot easier to teach them, so that was why I was inspired to work that way."

Before starting Elevated Lab, Hall worked as design director at CBS Entertainment and then art director at Novocom, where he worked on identity campaigns for various television networks and founded the company's new media department. For the past 10 years, Hall has been teaching undergraduates in the digital media department of Otis College of Art and Design. He currently teaches the senior thesis course and the advanced concept development class, which teaches students how to generate ideas and then sell them.

"I find it exhilarating when I see a kid improve, when they gain confidence, when they feel like they have accomplished something that they feel good about and they feel like they get direction for their lives," Hall said.

WRITE-IN CANDIDATE?

Although the candidacy filing deadline has passed, it's not too late for someone to file a statement of write-in candidacy for the Nov. 8 election.

Winning a seat on the BHUSD Board of Education as a write-in candidate is not unprecedented. Mayor Barry Brucker became the first successful write-in candidate in a California election in 15 years when he was elected to the school board in 1997.

"I ran as a write-in because community members came to me and said, 'We need someone with your business skills for the school board," Brucker said. "We had just passed a bond and knowing that I ran a business, they felt that I would bring that skill set to the table."

Brucker, who received a little over 1,500 votes, received the most votes of the six candidates. Newcomer Gerald Lunn was also elected that year, with a little over 1,100 votes. Lunn has endorsed Goldberg this year. A writein candidate this year would probably need to get around the same number of votes, depending on voter turnout.

Brucker said campaigning as a write-in candidate was a very difficult undertaking but it helped that he had grown up in Beverly Hills and had tremendous support from the community. Brucker took a leave from work, so campaigning became his full-time occupation for about a month-he filed as a write-in candidate on roughly Oct. 1-and he said he knocked on every door in Beverly Hills to introduce himself. He said it was also critical to have an experienced campaign team, committee and volunteers. The late Jim Tabilio served as Brucker's political strategist.

"It's a very, very difficult challenge because No. 1, you have to teach people the mechanism of writing in and how to do it, and No. 2 is people are going to wonder where were you? Why are you coming in as a Johnny-come-lately?" Brucker said.

Brucker said half of his campaign was educating voters on how to properly cast a write-in vote, and the other half was presenting Brucker's qualifications. Brucker issued pencils labeled with the slogan, "The Write Choice," to potential voters.

"I think it's really a formidable undertaking but it can be done," Brucker said. "It has been done by people in the state. It makes it a little bit more difficult, but with the right candidate and the right guidance, anything can happen."

Write-in candidates have until 5 p.m. on Oct. 25, two weeks before the election, to file a statement of write-in candidacy with the Los Angeles County Registrar-Recorder/ County Clerk's office. A name written on a ballot in any election will not be counted unless the person has filed a statement of write-in candidacy. For more information, visit lavote.net or call (800) 815-2666.

The Normans have never defeated Peninsula. formed in 1991 by the merger of Miraleste, Palos Verdes and Rolling Hills high schools.

Beverly Hills is 0-7-1 against the Panthers, including a 23-23 tie in their most recent meeting, Nov. 7, 2003 in a game the Normans trailed 23-7 midway through the third quarter.

Norman kicker Juan Amador missed a 26yard field goal attempt on Beverly Hills' next to last possession.

BHHS Water Polo Team Defeats Santa Ana Valley

Zak Zukoski scored five goals and Ariel Rafalian three as the Beverly High boys' water polo team recorded its first victory of the season, defeating Santa Ana Valley 14-7, in a pool play game of the Chris Weisz-TRX Memorial Cup Sept. 9 at Santa Ana Valley High School.

The Normans, who had lost their first two games of the season, led 4-2 at the end of the first quarter as Zukoski scored twice and David Prokopenko and Rafalian scored once each.

Zukoski scored the first two goals of the second quarter to increase Beverly Hills' lead to 6-2. After the Falcons scored, Rafalian scored twice and Dillon Silverstein once to give the Normans a 9-3 halftime lead.

Zukoski scored Beverly Hills lone goal of the third quarter.

The Normans led 10-4 entering the fourth quarter when they got two goals from Steven Turnbull and one each from Nick Goncharov and Bernardo DiPietro.

Beverly Hills goaltender Francois Reihani made six saves.

Zukoski scored four goals, Tyler Neman two and Rafalian one in a 14-7 loss to Placentia Valencia Sept. 10 in a 25th-place semifinal at Beckman High School in Irvine.

Reihani made seven saves.

The Normans lost to Santa Monica, 12-5, in the 27th-place game of the 32-team tournament later Sept. 10 at Beckman High School as Silverstein scored three goals and Zukoski two.

Reihani made four saves as Beverly Hills dropped to 1-4.

BHHS Girls' Volleyball Team Reaches Tournament Semifinals

Beverly High girls' volleyball coach Marla Weiss was "very, very pleased" with her team's play in the Pasadena Poly tournament Sept. 10, as it fulfilled her goal of reaching the single-elimination portion of the eight-team tournament.

The Normans finished second in their four-team pool, beginning play by defeating Flintridge Prep, 25-21, 17, splitting two games with San Gabriel Gabrielino, winning the first 25-19, and losing the second, 26-24, and losing to eventual finalist Los Angeles Windward, 25-9. 25-8.

Beverly Hills lost to Poly, 25-9, 25-15, in the semifinals.

"I felt like we beat who we should have beaten and we lost to teams that are stronger than us," Weiss said. "This team is going to get stronger every match."

Norman senior setter Halle Beesen was named to the all-tournament team.

Beverly Hills lost to Rio Hondo Prep, 16-25, 25-18, 21-25, 25-23, 15-13, in a nonleague match at the Swim-Gym Sept. 13.

"This was a match we should have won," Weiss said. "It's very difficult to lose the fourth and fifth games with the scores that we had. We definitely had our opportunities. (We) simply missed too many serves at the wrong time (and) had some unlucky plays."

The Normans "need to work on our funda-mentals," Weiss said.

"When you have a young team, the fundamentals are going to make or break you," Weiss said.

Beesen, outside hitter Liat Hackman and libero Ginelle Wolfe drew praise from Weiss for their play for Beverly Hills.

Statistics were not available for the tournament or Rio Hondo match.

BHHS Cross Country Teams Compete in Rosemead Invitational

DaEun Lee was the fastest Beverly High girls cross country runner in Saturday's Rosemead Invitational, completing the 3-mile course at Rosemead High School in 20 minutes, 15.54 seconds to finish 16th in the sophomore race.

Michael Redston was the fastest Norman boys' runner, completing the 3-mile course in 17:18.95 to finish 36th in the sophomore race.

The Beverly Hills boys' and girls' teams are scheduled to compete in an Ocean League meet today at Kenneth Hahn State Recreation Area in Baldwin Hills beginning at 2:30 p.m.

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the will or estate, or both, of MARILYN MACDONALD aka MARILYN M. WINTHROP

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by City National Bank, a national banking association in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES. THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that City National Bank, a national banking association be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Oct. 11, 2011 at 8:30 AM in Dept. No. 11 located at 111 N. Hill St., Los Angeles, CA 90012.

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in Probate Code section 9100. The time for filing claims will not expire before four months from the hearing date noticed above.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by Mahtab Mojab in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Mahtab Mojab be appointed as personal representa-tive to administer the estate of the decedent. THE PETITION requests the decedent's will and codicils, if any, be admitted to probate. The will and any codicils are available for examination in the file kept by the court.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held on Oct. 7, 2011 at 9:00 AM in Dept. No. A located at 1725 Main St., Santa Monica, CA 90401. IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the peti-

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the deceased, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within four months from the date of first issuance of letters as provided in Probate Code sec tion 9100. The time for filing claims will not expire before four months from the hearing date noticed above. YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court.

If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. PROJECT 12-09 CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS PROJECT ADMINISTRATION 345 FOOTHILL ROAD BEVERLY HILLS, CALIFORNIA 90210 REQUEST FOR PREQUALIFICATION OF BIDDERS AND PREQUALIFICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR:

THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE ROXBURY COMMUNITY CENTER IN THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS

Notice is hereby given that the City of Beverly Hills ("CITY") has determined that all bidders for the construction of the Construction of the Roxbury Community Center in the City of Beverly Hills ("PROJECT"), must be pre-qualified prior to submitting a bid on that PROJECT. It is mandatory that all Contractors who intend to submit a bid. fully complete the prequalification questionnaire, provide all materials requested herein, and be approved by the CITY to be on the final qualified Bidders list.

No bid will be accepted from a Contractor that has failed to comply with these requirements. If two or more business entities submit a bid as part of a Joint Venture, or expect to submit a bid as part of a Joint Venture, each entity within the Joint Venture must be separately qualified to bid. The last date to submit a fully completed questionnaire is the date shown on the cover page. Contractors are encouraged to submit prequalification packages as soon as possible, so that they may be notified of omissions of information to be remedied or of their prequalification status in advance of the prequalification deadline for this PROJECT.

Answers to questions contained in the attached guestionnaire are required. The CITY will use these documents as the basis of rating Contractors with respect to whether each Contractor is qualified to bid on the PROJECT, and reserves the right to check other sources available. The CITY's decision will be based on objective evaluation criteria.

The CITY reserves the right to adjust, increase, limit, suspend or rescind the prequalification rating based on subsequently learned information. Contractors whose rating changes sufficiently to disqualify them will be notified, and given an opportunity for a hearing consistent with the hear-ing procedures described below for appealing a prequalification rating.

While it is the intent of the prequalification questionnaire and documents required therewith to assist the CITY in determining bidder responsibility prior to bid and to aid the CITY in selecting the lowest responsible bidder, neither the fact of prequalification, nor any prequalification rating, will preclude the CITY from a post-bid consideration and determination of whether a bidder has the quality, fitness, capacity and experience to satisfactorily perform the proposed work, and has demonstrated the requisite trustworthiness.

The pregualification package should be submitted under seal to the City Clerk at the address shown on the cover page. That page also indicates how the package should be identified.

The prequalification packages submitted by Contractors are not public records and are not open to public inspection. All information provided will be kept confidential to the extent permitted by law. However, the contents may be disclosed to third parties for purpose of verification, or investigation of substantial allegations, or in an appeal hearing. State law requires that the names of contractor applying for prequalification status shall be public records subject to disclosure, and the Contact Information page of this questionnaire will be used for that purpose.

Each questionnaire must be signed under pen-alty of perjury in the manner designated in the Certification, by an individual who has the legal authority to bind the Contractor on whose behalf that person is signing. If any information pro-vided by a Contractor becomes inaccurate, the Contractor must immediately notify the CITY and provide updated accurate information in writing, under penalty of perjury.

The CITY reserves the right to waive minor irregularities and omissions in the information contained in the prequalification application submitted, and to make all final determinations. The CITY may also determine at any time that the prequalification process will be suspended for the PROJECT and the PROJECT will be bid without prequalification.

Contractors may submit prequalification packages during regular working hours on any day that the offices of the CITY are open. Contractors who submit a complete pregualification package will be notified of their qualification status no later than ten business days after the Due Date.

The CITY may refuse to grant prequalification where the requested information and materials are not provided by the Due Date indicated above. There is no appeal from a refusal for an incomplete or late application, but re-application for a later project is permitted. Neither the closing time for submitting prequalification packages for this PROJECT will be changed in order to accommodate supplementation of incomplete submissions, or late submissions, unless requested by the CITY in its sole discretion.

In addition to a contractor's failure to be pre-gualified pursuant to the scoring system set forth in the prequalification package, a Contractor may be found not pregualified for either omission of or falsification of, any requested information.

Where a timely and completed application results in a rating below that necessary to pre-gualify, an appeal can be made by the unsuccessful Contractor. An appeal is begun by the contractor delivering notice to the CITY of its appeal of the decision with respect to its prequalification rating, no later than two business days following notifica-tion that it is not pre-qualified. The notice of appeal shall include an address where the contractor wishes to receive notice of the appeal hearing. Without a timely appeal, the contractor waives any and all rights to challenge the decision of the CITY, whether by administrative process, judicial process or any other legal process or proceeding.

If the Contractor gives the required notice of appeal, a hearing shall be conducted no earlier than five business days after the CITY's receipt of the notice of appeal and not later than five business days prior to the date of the Notice Inviting Bids for this Project. Prior to the hearing, the Contractor shall, in writing, be advised of the basis for the City's pre-gualification determination.

The hearing shall be conducted by a panel consisting of three members of the Department of Public Works & Transportation senior management staff (the "Appeals Panel"). The Appeals Panel shall consider any evidence presented by the Contractor, whether or not the evidence is presented in compliance with formal rules of evidence. The Contractor will be given the opportunity to present evidence, information and arguments as to why the Contractor believes it should be prequalified. Within one week after the conclusion of the hearing, the Appeals Panel will render a written determination as to whether the Contractor is pre-qualified. It is the intention of the CITY that the date for the submission and opening of bids will not be delayed or postponed to allow for completion of an appeal process.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The PROJECT is approximately 26,000 sf and will be located within The Roxbury Memorial Park in the City of Beverly Hills. The PROJECT will be constructed in three phases. Phase 1 includes the demolition of approximately 50% of the existing Roxbury Community Center and a portion of the surface parking lot; the portions of the building and parking that remain must remain open and in full operation through the completion of phase 2, which is construction of the new Community Center facility and surface parking lot. Phase 3 includes the demolition of the remaining existing Community Center and remaining surface parking lot, and the reconstruction of surface parking in that area.

Some of the features of the new Roxbury Community Center will consist of a sports gymnasium, exercise room, several meeting rooms, a branch library, commercial grade catering kitchen and open office area. The work consists of demolition of the existing Community Center including restrooms, walls, ceilings, ducts, remaining fur-nishings, and other portions of the building. The construction consists of the construction of exterior walls with finishes of glass and stone, inte-rior walls, ceiling, floor finishes, duct work, built-in cabinetry, restrooms, mechanical, electrical and plumbing work.

The current estimate is approximately $15 million. A 10% bidder's security or bid bond will be required to bid, and the selected lowest responsible bidder will be required to provide 100% performance & payment bonds.

Don't se your life insurance policy until you know the rue

Alan L. Kaye, CLU, ChFC President Most people over the age of 70, who want to sell their old insurance policies for more than their cash surrender value, are not getting the most money from their assets.

AVOID RISKS OF INSURANCE FINANCING STRATEGIES

Others, who expect to create "something from nothing", participate in insurance financing plans without having full knowledge of the chances they are taking. You can avoid these risks by becoming informed of established procedures and you won't make costly mistakes.

The Alan Kaye Insurance Agency is a leader in the field of insurance and estate planning. Now, as a wholly owned subsidiary of National Financial Partners, an NYSE company, they have expanded their resources to better provide the latest planning strategies. This is a particularly important resource when performing due-diligence on life insurance settlement companies.

THREE ESSENTIAL RULES THAT CAN PREVENT YOU FROM MAKING COSTLY DECISIONS

- Provide full and accurate descriptions of all offers relating to the sale of your policy.
- Acquire at least five offers from unrelated insurance purchasing companies.
- Complete background checks on potential purchasers to make sure they are financially and commercially acceptable firms to do business with.

ARE YOU COMPLETING A LIFE INSURANCE SETTLEMENT OR JUST SETTLING?

What kind of insurance professional is helping you sell your old life insurance policy? Are you dealing with a life settlement specialist? Are you represented by a licensed professional with E&O Insurance that covers life settlements? Has your agent explained the risks involved in financing your life insurance?

Call us today to find out what your insurance is really worth and we will help you decide whether to sell, surrender, keep or replace your old insurance policy.
