Mundell appointed as Beverly Hills Fire Chief

Interim Fire Chief R a l p h Mundell has been appointed permanent fire chief for the Beverly Hills Fire Department. "It's a great honor to be the fire chief $_{R}$ of the city of Beverly Hills and the fire chiefs [before] me have set a great example of outstanding community service, and I look forward to improving upon that great standard of community service," said Mundell. "I'm looking forward to all the challenges that the fire chief's position brings."

Mundell was named interim fire chief following former Chief Tim Scranton's resignation in July.

Mundell, who joined the Beverly Hills Fire Department 27 years ago, served as deputy fire chief prior to being appointed as chief.

Mundell was in his third year of studying economics when he grew wary of the prospect of sitting behind a desk all day. An exam he took in high school had suggested he become a firefighter.

Mundell has spent his entire career in the city of Beverly Hills. Mundell was offered a position at three fire departments and chose Beverly Hills due to its reputation.

Mundell, a resident of Santa Clarita, was selected after an internal hiring process.

Board unanimously votes to create endowment

The Board of Education unanimously approved a resolution allowing for the creation of an endowment fund for the BHUSD Tuesday night. Board of Education member Lewis Hall did not attend the meeting.

and as a state the state government kicking the can down the road completely when it comes to our budget. We have an opportunity here in Beverly Hills to do something not unique but something that is special," said Board of Education member Brian Goldberg, who said the district is projecting additional growth over the next few years.

This resolution approved Tuesday authorizes and establishes a $9.01 million endowment, and also provides rules governing the fund's use and the use of investment proceeds from the fund. The intent is to allocate unassigned funds from the general fund until the endowment reaches $10 million.

The interest earnings from the endowment would be placed into the district's general fund. The principal can be used within a fiscal year to facilitate cash flows and avoid the necessity of borrowing money with the requirement that it be returned in the same fiscal year.

The resolution approved does not legally restrict the Board of Education from using the principal. It only describes the expectations, which is to save the money for the purposes of an endowment.

If the Board wanted to restrict the use of the $10 million, it would need to vote to pledge the principal to a creditor during a general obligation bond sale.

The board could have directed staff on Tuesday to pledge any portion of the principal amount in connection to the $45 million in bond sales authorized by the Board on October 8. There was not support for the direction.

The district is required by state law to have a three percent reserve for fiscal uncertainty. That reserve is separate from the endowment. Staff will research whether the required reserve – now at $1.7 million -- could be included in the endowment, so that the endowment would total $10 million. If the district can place the reserve in the endowment, the additional money in the three percent reserve could be allocated in the general fund.

The Board of Education approved a resolution allowing for a transfer of funds in order to establish an endowment at the formal meeting on Aug. 13. The resolution approved in August did not create the endowment but allowed for the transfer of $5.7 million in unassigned funds for the 2013 to 2014 year to the district's basic aid reserve fund, which contained $3.3 million. The total in the fund would be $9.04 million. The resolution also approved the transfer of additional unassigned funds from the general fund to the reserve fund as the funds become available until the total balance reaches $10 million, according to the resolution.

At the June 25 meeting, the Board directed staff to create a $10 million endowment to protect the district from financial instability. The endowment is expected to provide revenue into the general fund.

"We have an enormous opportunity here, and it can honestly only get better," said Board of Education President Jake Manaster, who said every competing

City Council discusses possible regulation of e-cigarettes

The City Council agreed to continue discussions regarding new regulations on sales and consumption of e- cigarettes, focusing on the possibility of combining them with the current prohibitions of regular cigarettes.

Pending feedback from the Health and Safety Commission, the recommendation would then be brought before a future City Council meeting.

The council decided to take this step after a debate spearheaded by Councilmember Julian Gold at the council's study session on Oct. 15.

Union 76 station recommended as local landmark

The Cultural Heritage Commission recommended that the Union 76 station at 427 North Crescent Drive be included in the local register of historic places at the commission's meeting on Oct. 9.

The station designed by architect Gin D. Wong, a partner at William L. Pereira and Associates was originally meant for a Standard Oil gas station on Century Boulevard by the Los Angeles International Airport. Standard Oil chose a different design and Union Oil decided to construct the Pereira-designed station at the corner of Crescent and Santa Monica, according to the historical report.

The station officially opened in 1965. The station can be characterized as part of the "Googie Style," according the historical report. Buildings in the "Googie Style" of architecture "appeared to defy gravity," and appeared futuristic in the 1950s and 1960s, according to the report.

The city council will vote at an upcoming formal meeting.

The commission also initiated nomination proceedings for the Beverly Hills Water Treatment Plant, the Regina Wilshire Fine Arts Theatre, and the Wallace Neff House.

Once nomination proceedings are initiated, the city's historic consultant provides a report to the Cultural Heritage Commission who then votes to recommend a property as a landmark.

The commission also chose not to initiate nomination proceedings for a Charles S. Lee designed house due to significant alterations and renovations to the property's design.

"Mr. Lee was one of the premier if not the preeminent theater designers in American history," said Cultural Heritage Commission Chair Rich Waldow.

Jack Nourafshan, the property owner, applied to remodel the Lee-designed home at 1177 Loma Linda Drive. A 30-day hold was automatically placed on the application for remodel and both the city council and Cultural Heritage Commission were notified of the application because the structure was designed by an architect on the city's list of master architects.

Commissioner Noah Furie visited the property and said that it was his opinion that there was "little of the original fabric left." The property has undergone significant alterations and additions, particularly in the front of the property.

Though the commission decided the house did not merit landmark designation, the commission asked Nourafshan if he would be willing to keep historically significant portions of the house such as the pond in the backyard and a "glass-to-glass" corner that originally served as a ventilation system, which he agreed to.

"We want to view e- cigarettes as we do regular cigarettes in terms of existing ordinances and we want to do that quickly," said Gold.

"And at the same time we want to give the entire issue to the Health and Safety Commission so they can review the entirety of the issue with the notion that if it makes sense we could be inclined to ban use the ban of tobacco products in town."

In 2008, the City Council adopted the '9(02)10 Fresh Air Dining Ordinance' which banned smoking in all outdoor dining areas, and in 2010 passed an ordinance to regulate tobacco retailers through an annual permitting process.

E- cigarettes are battery-powered devices that provide inhaled doses of nicotine through a vaporized solution contained in cartridges that are available in a variety of flavors. They have been marketed as an alternative way of consuming nicotine, but some preliminary studies suggest that e- cigarettes emit second-hand vapor which may still pose public health risks, according to the staff report.

The two ordinances currently in place refer to the terms "smoking" and "tobacco products", which may not necessarily be broad enough to include e-cigarettes because of the electronic's unique characteristics. Any e- cigarette use is called "vaping", as opposed to smoking, because it requires inhaling vapors, and e-cigarettes do not contain tobacco.

These electronic cigarettes, which are currently not regulated by the Federal Drug Administration, are also becoming a concern because of growing popularity.

Moving forward, the staff will now conduct a more comprehensive review on existing ordinances and programs. This could possibly include reviewing and amending the '9(02)10 Fresh Air Dining Ordinance' and the tobacco retailer regulatory permit to include e-cigarettes and a possible moratorium on future business licenses and permits.

Mayor John Mirisch agreed that current smoking prohibitions should be revisited to keep consistent with the city's overall mission to be smoke-free.

"I can support that, with the sense that we are going for an overall review of the tobacco ordinances with the aim to

Roxbury Community Center about 50 percent complete

Construction of the new Roxbury Park Community Center is on schedule and on budget, and is currently about halfway done, according to City Project Manager Donielle Kahikina.

The center is currently in the "wall framing" stage. Construction began mid-May. The Roxbury Park groundbreaking ceremony was held on June 4.

Demolition of the old community center was completed in June. The next stage in construction was pouring the foundation for the new building, which was followed by installing structural steel, and wall framing.

Completion is expected in the late spring or early summer. Bids for the community center were awarded in May, and fencing in preparation for construction went up on May 16.

The next stages of construction include roof framing, covering the walls, and applying tile to the exterior of the building. Finishing the exterior of the building is scheduled for the end of the year.

The City Council awarded a contract to Landscape Support Services, Inc. for Roxbury Park's field renovations at the city council meeting on Oct. 15. The field improvements include drainage and irrigation improvements to the baseball and soccer fields and replacement of the irrigation mainline for the park. The council approved a purchase order of $645,684, including a $25,000 contingency.

Field improvement work is scheduled for December to March.

Work that includes improvements to the restroom building is expected to go out to bid in December.

Roxbury Park will also receive new playground equipment. The Recreation and Parks Commission is currently discussing the equipment. At the commission's Sept. 26 meeting, the commission recommended the city continue to negotiate with KOMPAN, a playground manufacturer.

Voters must request vote by mail ballot by Oct. 29 for Nov. 5 election

Beverly Hills voters interested in voting early must request a vote by mail ballot by Oct. 29 for the Nov. 5 election.

Requests for a vote by mail application can be done online at http://lavote.net or by using the back of a sample ballot. Registered voters may also apply in person at the Los Angeles County Registrar Recorder/County Clerk's main office at 12400 Imperial Highway, room 3002 in Norwalk.

Beverly Hills voters will be voting for the BHUSD Board of Education. Candidates on the ballot are Incumbent Lisa Korbatov, attorney and former Horace Mann PTA president Howard Goldstein, Beverly Hills dentist James

Fabe, and realD executive John Dohm. Board tables agreement with law firm

The Board of Education tabled an agreement with Greenberg and Glusker law firm at the board's meeting on Tuesday night. Board of Education member Lisa Korbatov abstained from the vote.

The agreement appeared on the consent calendar, but was tabled without discussion.

The agreement tabled was to retain Greenberg and Glusker to represent the district in the district's civil case against Karen Christiansen, former Director of Planning and Facilities for the BHUSD, and her company Strategic Concepts. Fred Fenster, a partner at the firm, would represent the district.

Christiansen had been previously found in violation of Government Code 1090, which generally prohibits public officials from being financially interested in contracts they make in their official capacity. She had been sentenced to four years and four months in state prison on Jan. 5, 2012 and ordered to pay the district $3.5 million in restitution. She had been free on bond pending appeal. Recently, she was granted a petition of factual innocence that grants all arrest and prosecution documents to be sealed and destroyed.

A contract in 2006 between Christiansen and the district changed her employee status to that of a consultant. An appellate court found that section 1090 did not apply to Christiansen because she was not an employee of the district.

Prior to Christiansen's criminal investigation, Christiansen, as CEO of Strategic Concepts, sued the BHUSD for terminating the district's contract with the company.

SANDRA ARONBERG AND CHARLES ARONBERG COMMUNITY LEADER AWARD

The Aronbergs are both being honored with the Maple Counseling Center's Community Leader Award at the Endless Summer Bash this Wednesday.

"It's a wonderful honor and we're happy to receive it and we enjoy working in the community and we hope we continue to," said Former Mayor Charles Aronberg.

Aronberg helped establish The Maple Counseling Center during his tenure on the city council (1972-1984).

Aronberg said there was a need felt in the community for those who needed counseling services to be able to receive them regardless of status, income or age.

"Some people got together and tried to make it happen and they tried to have it local, so it would be easily available. There were various groups and individuals, but they didn't agree on some things. I tried to bring people together to talk things over to resolve their differences and emphasized the things that they did agree on," said Aronberg. "That was my role in bringing people together and helping establish it."

Aronberg said there was concern in the community for drug use and other general emotional situations at the time.

"People wanted to get help locally without having to travel too far, and there was that problem with the finances and the Maple Center seemed to be a natural development to help those situations," said Aronberg.

Aronberg, an opthamologist, previously served as the team physician for the United States Olympic Team. When the BHUSD became a basic aid district, Aronberg suggested the city step in and developed the Joint Powers Agreement.

"I suggested that there may be a way to transfer funds from the city to the school district but that was not allowed under certain regulations. We found a way to legally and morally do it, we developed [the Joint Powers Agreement] so that funds could be legally transferred for value received," Aronberg said.

Sandra Aronberg, an ob/gyn, is an assistant professor at UCLA. She currently serves on the Maple Center's Board of Governors and previously served on the Board of Directors for ten years.

Aronberg said she moved to the city in 1977.

"[The Maple Counseling Center] was already established as a key role in providing low cost quality mental health care to the community and the surrounding areas," she said.

Sandra Aronberg was the first chair of the City's Health and Safety Commission. She was also on the board of 1736 Family Crisis Center, which provides safe housing and counseling for victims of domestic violence. She has also been involved with the Israel Cancer Research Fund.

Another Maple Counseling Center honoree, Rudy Cole, who is posthumously receiving the center's 2013 Media Award, ran Charles Aronberg's first campaign in 1972.

Husky Fall Harvest Festival to be held Nov. 15

The Horace Mann School PTA will be hosting the "Husky Fall Harvest Festival" on Friday, Nov. 15 at 3:00 pm.

The festival will include carnival rides, bouncers, go-karts, game booths, arts and crafts, and a silent auction. The festival "He was extremely intelligent. I don't think anybody knew more about Beverly Hills than he did. He was idealistic and it worked out," Charles Aronberg said. "Beverly Hills was, outside his family, his number one interest in the world."

Charles Aronberg said the Maple Counseling Center was named after one of the City's most iconic streets: Maple Drive.

"We hope that it continues to serve the community," he said, noting that the center is contemplating changing locations when the lease ends in 2014. "I think the community should try to get together and try to keep it here or as close as possible, preferably here, in the city."

Sharona Nazarian first got involved with The Maple Counseling Center as an intern while pursuing a doctorate in psychology from the University of Southern California.

"I was privileged to see firsthand the wonderful work that they do for our community," said Nazarian.

Following her internship with the center, she created the first Farsi/English parenting class. She has also recently served on The Maple Counseling Center's Board of Directors and Executive Committee.

Now, The Maple Counseling Center is honoring Nazarian with the Community Leader Award for her involvement in numerous organizations in the community. Nazarian is the co-president of the Beverly Hills Sister Cities Association. Beverly Hills is sister cities with four international cities: Cannes, France, Herzliya, Israel, Acapulco, Mexico, and Pudong, China.

A sister city is a long-term partnership between two cities, which becomes official with a signing ceremony of the top-elected officials of the two local jurisdictions, following approval by the City Council. The mission of the Beverly Hills Sister Cities Association is to develop and promote friendship with the sister cities of the City of Beverly Hills through the exchange of culture, education, technology, art and community well-being.

Nazarian said the association is looking for friendly cities right now in conjunction with the City's centennial celebration.

Nazarian is also the national vice president of the organization, Beit Halochem, Friends of Israeli Disabled Veterans.

Locally, Nazarian is on the executive board of the Beverly Hills Rotary Club, which is also being honored as a club by the Maple Counseling Center with the 2013 Civic Philanthropy Award. Nazarian is also active at Sinai Akiva Academy, her children's school. She has three sons: Noah, Aaron, and Jonah.

"I feel very lucky to be able to be a part of this city and to be a part of this community and I feel that it's my responsibility to give back," Nazarian said.

Nazarian also serves on the city's Human Relations Commission. Her husband, Daniel, a periodontist, was recently appointed on the City's Health and Safety Commission.

RUDY COLE MEDIA AWARD

The Maple Counseling Center is honoring late-Weekly columnist Rudy Cole with its first Media Award for his contributions to the Beverly Hills community. Cole was profiled extensively in Weekly issue #698.

"Rudy strongly believed in the Maple Counseling Center's mission," said Josette Cole, Rudy's wife. "It is only fitting that the Maple Counseling Center created the first Media Award and that Rudy is the first to get it."

The Beverly Hills Rotary Club will be presented The Maple Counseling Center's 2013 Civic Philanthropy Award.

BHHS Football Team Routed by Santa Monica Normans to play host to Morningside in homecoming game Friday. By Steven Herbert

Beverly Hills lost to Santa Monica, 76-0, in an Ocean League football game Friday night at Nickoll Field, in what is believed to be its most one-sided loss. Beverly High has fielded a football team each year since it opened in 1927.

Norman coach Charlie Stansbury said before the game his goal was for his team to be "ready to compete in the first quarter."

Instead, Beverly Hills allowed a touchdown on the game's first possession, committed turnovers on each of the next two kickoffs and trailed 27-0 at the end of the first quarter.

The Vikings (4-3, 2-0 in league play) increased their lead to 48-0 at halftime and 69-0 at the end of the third quarter.

"I don't think our kids gave up on their effort," Stansbury said after his team fell to 0-7, 0-2.

"I think at times they were overmatched. I don't think their coach or our staff looked at it like anybody walked out there and quit."

Stansbury attributed the margin to Santa Monica's advantages in size and experience.

"They were probably the biggest team up front that we've played," Stansbury said.

Stansbury said he needs to be "more creative" in calling offensive plays "to keep people more off guard."

What's Next?

The Normans are scheduled to play host to Morningside (4-3, 1-1) Friday night in their homecoming game at Nickoll Field. The opening kickoff for the Ocean League game is set for 7 p.m.

The teams have one common opponent, Santa Monica, which defeated the Monarchs, 41-6, Oct. 11.

Morningside has scored at least 40 points in three games this season and allowed at least 40 twice.

Stansbury said his top goal for his defense is to be disciplined "in our alignments and our assignments."

On offense "we've got to match the physicality of their team and be able to take advantage of opportunities," Stansbury said.

The high school football website Calpreps.com projects a 40-14 Morningside victory. It had projected Santa Monica would defeated Beverly Hills, 62-0.

You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. What you don't know about your life insurance policy could cost you a fortune!

At age 80, Norman's life insurance policy had a $5 million death benefit with a yearly payment of $66,000. Unfortunately, he didn't know that if he lived another ten years, his payment would increase to $400,000 annually!

Until her consultation with Alan Kaye, Joyce didn't know that unless she continued making payments, her $1 million policy would be cancelled on her 87th birthday.

Do you know:

- Whether your policy will be cancelled if you stop making payments?
- If it's guaranteed to stay in effect for your lifetime at your current payment?
- If your policy can stay in effect beyond age ninety or even one hundred?
- If your cash value is sufficient to buy 50% more coverage than you have now?
- If you can sell your policy for more than its cash surrender value, even if it's term insurance?

Let's face it! Most people don't have a clue!

Alan Kaye has over forty years of experience helping individuals and businesses create an insurance plan that will best satisfy their needs. As president of his own company and his many years as vice president of Barry Kaye Associates, Alan is an authority on wealth creation and preservation. He has helped thousands of people determine if their policies and plans really work, meet their goals and help implement creative solutions to their estate planning problems.

Don't wait until you lose your health, your life insurance and your options! If you are over 50 years old and have at least $250,000 of life insurance, ask for your complimentary consultation and policy apprasial, either on the phone or in person.
