the school board has approved the implementation of a fiber optic network to BHUSD classrooms. The fiber optic network is an economic alternative to the previous copper based networks. With a fiber optic network, the schools are able to support higher bandwidth applications such as virtual field trips or streaming high-definition video.

"By bringing fiber to the classroom we've actually provided our teaching staff the ability to do real time teaching using the Internet. We could potentially have a classroom conducted at 9 a.m. [PST] with a classroom in New York 'team teach' at 12 p.m. [EST] and actually have a joint classroom instructional environment," said BHUSD Chief Facilities Officer Charlotte Clement.

To further reduce BHUSD's digital footprint, the new classroom wing at Horace Mann will utilize LED lights as opposed to the familiar white fluorescent

The Division of the State Architect has reviewed the plans for Horace Mann's new classroom wing and underground parking lot, and engineers are giving solutions to satisfy the plan check requirements. A meeting will be held on October 31, to verify that the new solutions meet the DSA standards.

The COC is hopeful that by early January, the DSA will give their final approval and the construction project will be ready for bidding.

Measure E, the $334 million dollar bond passed by voters in 2008 to modernize the city's schools, is funding the construction of the new classroom wing.

electioneditorial OUR BOARD ENDORSEMENTS

GOLDSTEIN • KORBATOV

This year's Board of Education election was, sadly, the election that wasn't.

We didn't have a chance to evaluate the candidates because there wasn't much of a contest. Voter turnout will be minimal, reminiscent of the 2005 Board of Education race, which was cancelled entirely.

James Fabe and John Dohm both did not wage serious campaigns. Therefore, we're forced to choose the two best candidates, who really are the only candidates in the race.

The incumbent Board and superintendent should not suddenly think they're wildly popular. The fact is that no one seems to want to run for school board anymore. The irony is that a fired BHHS track coach fills a packed room at school board meetings, yet no one in the audience wants to serve. In the end, it's our district that loses.

HOWARD GOLDSTEIN

Howard Goldstein is an attorney and former Horace Mann PTA president. He is proficient on BHUSD issues and has waged the more active of two campaigns.

We would have liked to see more definitive positions on issues from Howard. However, who can blame him for keeping a low profile when there wasn't much of a race to begin with? Howard's volunteer team, including many Horace Mann parents, such as Colleen Sternshein, Tina Wiener and others, are among the people we respect most in the school community. For this reason, we endorse Howard Goldstein for Board of Education.

LISA KORBATOV

When Lisa first ran for the school board in 2009 as a come-from-nowhere candidate, Beverly Hills Weekly endorsed her when no one else did. The Beverly Hills Courier, now one of her biggest supporters, ignored her entirely in that race.

Since she's been on the school board, we've had a bit of a love/hate relationship with Lisa. On the one hand, we applaud her blunt honesty, headstrong attitude, and commitment to turning around the district. On the flip side, we don't like that she's often late to meetings and at times defensive when the Weekly has raised constructive criticism about the BHUSD's out-of-control legal fees (with no end in sight). We suspect Lisa will run for City Council in 2015 and not fulfill her four year term. However, had this been a significant issue, one would think more candidates would have filed to run. So we haven't agreed with her on everything, but Beverly Hills Weekly endorses Lisa Korbatov for Board of Education.

Beverly Hills Weekly recommends a vote for Howard Goldstein and Lisa Korbatov.

VOTE TUESDAY, NOV. 5. POLLS ARE OPEN 7 A.M. TO 8 P.M. FOR VOTING INFORMATION, CALL 562-462-2748.

Measure E funding was also used to evaluate BHUSD for seismic safety. The results found that the ornamental additions on the school buildings are potentially hazardous in the event of an earthquake. However, the buildings themselves are architecturally sound.

Due to restrictive rules for distribution of funding, it is unlikely that BHUSD will receive state money for seismic prevention repairs.

Rodeo Drive will host City's 100th birthday cake

The Beverly Hills City Council unanimously approved the east side street closure of the 300 block of North Rodeo Drive and co-sponsorship in the amount of $13,000 for the Centennial Birthday Cake Event to be held next year.

The City will cover the cost of the permit and street closure fees. Labor and material costs of approximately $5,000 will be the responsibility of the Luxe Hotel Rodeo Drive and Guittard Chocolate.

The event is planned for March 23.

Donald Wressell, renowned Guittard Chocolate Pastry Chef, is partnering with the Luxe Hotel to create a birthday cake which will be on display in front of the hotel as the centerpiece of the City's Centennial Celebration.

When Beverly Hills celebrated its 75th anniversary in July 1988, Wressell created a 1.5 ton birthday cake replica of Beverly Hills City Hall as a gift to the City. That cake fed 10,000 people. Wressell is now challenging himself to design an even grander cake for the City's upcoming centennial celebration.

"One hundred years is a much bigger deal, so we have to make it bigger and nicer," said General Manager of the Luxe Hotel, Marcus Mueller. "We thought this is a great way to celebrate it and make sure that one of the most world renowned cities is getting a really proud celebration for its birthday."

The cake will be Kosher and made with Guittard Chocolate. The cake design is set to feature iconic symbols of the city such as the Beverly Hills Shield, City Hall, Rodeo Drive and palm trees. Due to its size, the cake will be delivered in separate pieces and will require eight hours to assemble.

The City Council expressed interest in expanding the birthday cake event to also include carnival themed activities and family friendly entertainment. Stores, restaurants and hotels located on the 300 block of North Rodeo Drive will remain open during the hours of the celebration.

"I am so excited you can't imagine. I think this is the best example of having your cake and eating it too," said Vice Mayor Lili Bosse.

Next month, the Rodeo Drive Committee will return to the City Council with a proposed budget and concept for a block party to accompany the Centennial Birthday Cake Event.

BHPD assists NYPD with arrest warrant

Menachem Tewel

Beverly Hills Police Department arrested Menachem Tewel, 30, of New York, at the JEM Center - formerly the Beverly Hills Y— on the 9900 block of South

Santa Monica Boulevard on Tuesday for an outside warrant.

Tewel, also known as Mendel Tevel, is allegedly charged by New York statutes for Criminal Sexual Act in the First Degree, Criminal Sexual Act in the Third Degree, and Sexual Abuse in the First Degree.

BHPD assisted the New York Police Department in the arrest. Tewel will be extradited to New York. There are no charges pending in California.

The Jewish Journal reported in August that four men, who live in Brooklyn, have accused Tewel of abuse when they were minors (ranging from ages 6 to 14 at the time of the alleged abuse). According to the Journal's reports, the men claimed Tewel performed acts that included spanking on bare skin, to sexually suggestive rubbing. The instances described by those who spoke with the Journal took place as early as around 1995 and as recently as around 2004.

Millard Sheets Mural Dedication ceremony to be held Saturday

The mural is located above the Rexford Drive entrance to the Civic Center parking garage

The City's newest art piece and newest landmark on the Local Register of Historic Places will be dedicated this Saturday, Nov. 2 at 2 p.m. at the Beverly Hills Public Library.

California artist Millard Sheets created the mosaic, which has been named "El briefs cont. on page 4 Camino Real." The piece, which originally hung in the motor court of the Beverly Wilshire Hotel was donated to the city in 1987 and was in storage for over 20 years prior to its installation on the Civic Center parking garage earlier this year.

The dedication ceremony had originally been planned for May 7, but was postponed so the City Council could discuss the height of the mural. There were concerns about the visibility of the piece.

The mosaic weighing more than five tons was installed at its current height so the floor of the parking structure could support the piece's weight. It measures approximately 15 by 31 feet.

At the most recent council meeting on Oct. 15, the council unanimously voted to include the piece in the City's register of Historic Places. It is the only City landmark that is a piece of fine art.

Saturday's public celebration will include mariachi music and refreshments. Installation of the mural was funded through the Public Art Fund.

The dedication ceremony is sponsored by JP Morgan Chase, which owns numerous bank branches designed by Millard Sheets.

In the 1950s, Sheets designed buildings, including mosaics for dozens of branch offices for Home Savings and Loan Assoc. – many now acquired by Chase. Two other Millard Sheets mosaics in Beverly Hills are located at 9245 Wilshire Boulevard and 9145 Wilshire Boulevard.

The ceremony is free and will begin at 2 p.m. on Nov. 2 in front of the Library at 444 N. Rexford Drive. Attendees are encouraged to use the Civic Center entrance to the parking structure.

9595 Wilshire Boulevard, proposed restaurant will be on ground floor

Architectural Commission gets first look at new Ocean Prime restaurant

The Architectural Commission reacted positively to a preliminary review of a façade remodel for Ocean Prime, a restaurant slated to open spring 2014 at 9595 Wilshire Boulevard at the commission's meeting on Oct. 16.

"We asked for more details and they're going to bring them to us, but from a vision standpoint, it is not only going to be stunning but it will enhance that corner and will be a restaurant the city needs," said Architectural Commission Chair James Blakeley.

Ocean Prime is both a steakhouse and seafood restaurant. "Mitchell's Ocean Club,"

Ocean Prime is both a steakhouse and seafood restaurant. "Mitchell's Ocean Club," the company's first location opened in Columbus, Ohio in 2006. As the restaurant expanded, it was renamed Ocean Prime, and now has 10 locations – Beverly Hills is set to be the eleventh.

El Torito Grill had previously occupied the space.

Ocean Prime presented preliminary plans for a façade remodel, business identification signage, landscaping, and open air dining elements.

"It's a very sophisticated, elegant addition to what the city needs," said Blakeley.

The commission also discussed a façade remodel for Teavana Tea Bar, at 9811 South Santa Monica Boulevard, located at the City's gateway.

The site, currently just a Starbucks Coffee, will return to the commission next month with adjustments. They will also appear at the same meeting as Starbucks, which is also applying for a façade remodel at the same site.

Starbucks acquired Teavana in late 2012 and last week opened the first Teavana Tea Bar in Manhattan.

The Architectural Commission approved plans for Jimmy Choo, at 240 North Rodeo Drive Request for a façade remodel, a sign accommodation for multiple business identification signs, and a construction barricade graphic.

"It was very chic and elegant and understated," said Blakeley.

The commission also discussed a preliminary review of a façade remodel for a Kennedy Wilson building at 151 El Camino Drive.

The applicants will return at a future meeting.

"The only question that I had as chair was to make sure that the side of their building takes into consideration that its facing a residential [area]," said Blakeley.

CVB, is expected to be the next chair of the board of directors pending a vote at the June meeting.

COVERSTORY TRIBUTE TO A HERO

Lt. Col. Edwin Ramsey lives on in a new library exhibit by Andrea Aldana

Beverly Hills/Greater Los Angeles Association of Realtors President Marty Geimer talks to us on how he stumbled on the idea of honoring veteran soldiers and turned the idea into reality.

What made you get involved?

It was probably about 3 o'clock one morning when I couldn't sleep. I thought of things that I wanted to do and hadn't done. I was thinking about what I could do for the veterans, both World War II veterans and more current, and I thought of a display. I thought of the concept and I knew [City Librarian and Assistant Director of Community Services] Nancy Hunt-Coffey and Director of Community Services Steve Zoet. I talked to them and I brought in Police Chief Dave Snowden. Clark Fogg is [Senior Forensic Specialist] at the Beverly Hills Police Department Crime Lab and he was brought in by the chief to help me arrange the display. Fogg is the creative genius behind the placement of memorabilia. He and I put it together usually but he does a lot of the mechanical [aspects] such as building the racks. He's what I would call the creative genius behind us as far as the display. All of this is done with the approval and endorsement of the City Council and without any cost to the city.

How many displays are there?

The displays have run for several months at a time. They are a series. Glenn Ford was the first. [One] we put in was Jimmy Stewart. The reason I did that is because I met his daughter Kelly Stewart at a World War II function. It was wonderful because his daughter wrote a biography for her father. She [asked], "Do you want it from a historical point or would you like to have it be a daughter talking about her father?" I thought a daughter talking about her father would be fantastic. I got most of the material from her, but also reading his biography, I found out that when Jimmy Stewart married Gloria [McLean], she had two sons: one of them being Ron [McLean]. Ron, having grown up with Jimmy Stewart as a father figure and Jimmy being a World War II hero having flown 20 missions in Europe, joined the marines. In 1969, while [Ron McLean] was a lieutenant in Vietnam, he was killed and honored the Silver Star posthumously, so I got [Kelly's] permission to put her stepbrother in. [The display] was a combination of Jimmy and Ron.

Lt. Col. Edwin Ramsey was actually a personal friend of Chief Snowden's, so that's how Col. Ramsey was [chosen.] He led the last [mounted] cavalry charge in World War II over the Philippines. Ramsey was there from 1942 until about 1945 until [General] MacArthur came back and at the time, he was one of the last maybe twenty men and officers that were left alive after this three year period. He was in command of 40,000 Philipping querilles.

we're involved in. It's just a matter of supporting the troops that have supported us."

– Realtor Marty Geimer

How long has the series been going on?

It's been a couple of years now. I did it to really try to educate the young kids who really are not aware of what these service people did for them, whether it's World War II or Korea or Vietnam [or] the current wars we're involved in. It's just a matter of supporting the troops that have supported us. You may or may not agree with what is going on in certain area, but it's to educate the young kids, and also bring forth memories. We have a lot of veterans that walk in and out of the library. People, like my parents, who were of that era up until the kids now who have parents and grandparents that fought in wars and skirmishes.

Is there criteria that needs to be met to be displayed?

It has been kept [to those] who have lived, worked, or played in or around Beverly Hills. Like Glenn Ford lived over on Oxford Way. Jimmy Stewart lived on North Roxbury Drive. Col. Ramsey lived just outside of Beverly Hills and his wife [is a recently retired English Learner teacher at Beverly High].

We have the next person who will be going in and his name is Sam Storm. He's lived here for about 30 years and he fought in Vietnam.

How did you find him?

Sam's an old friend of both Chief Snowden and myself. I was looking for a Vietnam veteran to put in. What I'd love [to display next] is a female veteran from the World War II era. There aren't many, but that's what I'd love to find.

BHHS Football Team Loses to Morningside at Homecoming

Normans to play at Hawthorne Friday, facing former coach By Steven Herbert

Beverly High entered the fourth quarter of Friday night's Ocean League football game against Morningside at Nickoll Field with the smallest deficit at that point of the game this season.

However, Norman quarterbacks Mike Massie and Zack Bialobos combined to throw four interceptions the Monarchs turned into 24 points in a 62-27 victory in Beverly Hills' homecoming game.

The Normans (0-8, 0-3 in league play) had cut the deficit to 32-27 on Bialobos' 23-yard touchdown pass to Chris Johnson with one minute, 34 seconds left in the third quarter.

Morningside (5-3, 2-1) drove 43 yards on 10 plays on the ensuing possession, culminating with Christian Williams' seven-yard touchdown run.

Each of Beverly Hills' next four series would end with interceptions.

Massie threw a pass that was intercepted by Joseph Bradshaw and returned 46 yards to the Normans 5-yard line. Williams ran for a touchdown on the next Williams ran 20 yards for his fourth touchdown, three plays after Darion Bryant intercepted a Bialobos pass.

Johnny Lopez intercepted a pass by Massie and returned it 45 yards for a touchdown 14 seconds later.

Willy Paul's 40-yard return of an interception thrown by Massie set up the Monarchs' final touchdown, a five-yard run by Jonathan Hill.

Beverly Hills coach Charlie Stansbury said one interception was the result of a "really athletic play" on a ball that had been tipped.

Massie completed five of 11 passes for 72 yards with the three interceptions. Bialobos was three for six for 26 yards with one interception.

Stansbury said he had planned before the game to use both quarterbacks, in part because of Massie's play on defense.

Stansbury said he was satisfied with how the Norman defense fulfilled his pregame goal of playing "assignment football.'

Beverly Hills played "a lot of young kids" on defense who "did a really good job of attacking and being where they were supposed to be," Stansbury said.

The Normans' 27 points were six fewer than their combined total for the previous six games.

Stansbury praised the play of Damiyon Brown and Ysaquirre, both running backs, defensive lineman Brandon Davis, Solomon Nwanko and Boris Mitrofanov and, linebacker Jonny Hakimi.

"I told the kids there's too many good things that happened in that game to focus on the end," Stansbury said. Considering 'where we are as a team the ability to be in that game in the fourth quarter is something I'm very impressed our kids were able to do."

What's Next?

The Normans are scheduled to play at Hawthorne (2-6, 0-3) Friday night in a game whose loser will likely finish last in the six-team Ocean League.

You will be bidding on a lien, not on a property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012
