City priorities

As Passover (with its four questions) approaches, here are some other queries which come to mind:

First, if the City Council wants to rub shoulders with the Hollywood elite, why don't they do so in the library instead of closing off the City streets yet again? Perhaps, better yet, they could build a tent in the lot where the "dog park" is going.

Correction Issue #857

The story "Council authorizes $1M deposit agreement with Townscape Partners" mistakenly reported that the City Council backed an agreement with real estate investment firm Townscape Partners. In fact, the Council pulled the item from the consent calendar and will discuss the matter sometime in the future.

Why would The Courier not publish everyone's comments against the dog park? Is it because the publisher Mrs. Hobbs is in favor of a doggy park and takes her pet Bear to almost all events, including to City Council meetings? What can possibly be the benefit to a dog to romp in a park- like setting? If their owners need to believe so, then ask a psychologist.

Why is there is going to be $400,000 + of "our money" used for something that 47 people want. Half of the rest of the cost is being bankrolled by Mrs. Lili Bosse. If the park was so important, then Mrs. Bosse should not have to donate such an amount and let the "users" bear the costs. There is no way that you will find 1,000 or even 250 people who will donate to a dog park. Instead of all the money being wasted on a dog park, I believe that the residents would be better off using this money to hire police to provide surveillance at all of our schools at all times, whether the police department agrees or not. Our children's safety is of prime importance

Why would the City not lease that lot in order to generate a substantial revenue stream which would benefit all; especially, if directed to more policing? Remember last summer with the annual influx of visitors, where we had Orthodox women insulted on Beverly Drive and exotic sports' cars drag racing through our residential streets. Let's have more police, bicycle patrols, undercover officers....don't waste our money on dog parks.

Finally, why would the Hilton Hotel's owner want to inform us of his landscaping

Vice Mayor John Mirisch strummed the ukulele at the Centennial Sing-Along two years ago

A free concert and Sing-Along featuring the City Council and the Los Angeles Lawyers Philharmonic will kick off Mayor-elect

Hilton proposes 26-story tower

The Beverly Hilton unveiled a project proposal last week dubbed the "Beverly Hills Garden & Open Space Initiative."

In the media release, the first three paragraphs outline a sprawling garden that "will feature more than 100 varieties of trees, plants and flowers, as well as a rose garden, terrace seating, succulent garden, winding pathways, fountains and art sculptures."

The verbal foliage shrouds an important detail: a 26-story residential building planned for Santa Monica Boulevard.

"As we were completing the Waldorf Astoria Beverly Hills, we focused on the residential portion of the property and a better plan emerged that provides expansive new gardens for the community and places the residential on the Century City side of the property," said PR representative Marie Garvey.

Under the Beverly Hilton Revitalization Plan approved by the City Council and Beverly Hills voters in 2008, a second condominium building was planned for Wilshire Boulevard. In order to make room for the "garden destination," the two buildings will be consolidated, resulting in one 26-story behemoth along Santa Monica Boulevard at Merv Griffin Way.

"My initial reaction is that the project is too high and I would be willing to discuss a compromise with the developer," said Vice Mayor John Mirisch. "However, in its current form, I'm not supportive of the project for a number of reasons, including process."

According to Mirisch, the project evades the city's "entire" planning process, including the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA).

"Circumventing the process is not good public policy," Mirisch said.

But Garvey said the original plan was fully vetted through a "comprehensive" environmental review and approval process that spanned 19 hearings.

"We are adding no new square footage, there is no new traffic associated with this plan and there is no new usage," she said.

Visitors accessing the public garden by car would need to pay for parking at the Beverly Hilton. The garden, which stretches across approximately 1.7 acres, would be irrigated using a grey-water system.

Though part of the original plans, greywater will not be used in the condos.

Garvey said she will begin gathering signatures by the end of March in order to qualify the project for the November 8th ballot.

"While I like the idea of a garden, I think there are a number of things that need to be looked at," Mirisch said.

plans? It is my opinion that he knows that he is going to do what he wants which is to by-pass the city council and the planning commission, build up to a 6 foot fence, 3 feet from the property line and a tower that will increase the owner's value. The proposed rose garden is not going to be open to the public. Does anyone recall what, in my opinion and that of many others was a rigged vote which allowed the Hilton to grossly over-develop its' property? There was an election where the voting process was interrupted by "goons" who did not allow people to pass their line to vote and non-residents (and even a few deceased residents) were allowed to vote in what was a very close vote to approve the Hilton's plans... and the horrendous traffic coming up?

Board deliberates faculty layoffs, class sizes

Beverly High Principal Dave Jackson's son Gregory was listed on the certificated personnel report approved by the Board of Education at their meeting Tuesday.

Appointed to a counselor opening at the high school, Jackson is expected to begin the position in August. A probationary counselor was discharged earlier this week.

After hearing from several parents, the Board approved the first reading of a policy that increases the hard cap from 20 to 23 for grades kindergarten through third.

The 20-student cap sets a limit on enrollment, which has led to additional hiring, especially in the lower grades.

Superintendent Steve Kessler, who taught at Horace Mann for more than three decades before becoming principal, shared his perspective.

"When you think in terms of 23 children in a classroom and being fiscally responsible, I think it's the right thing to do," Kessler said. "This isn't me reading something out of a book, I have actually lived it."

The district has been stuck in a cycle of deficit spending for several years, meaning expenses have exceeded revenues.

Last December, Vice President Mel Spitz advised that the district regain its financial footing by cutting down per-student expenditures. Through his research, Spitz highlighted that comparable districts like San Marino and Las Virgenes have significantly higher student-to-teacher ratios but send more graduates to four-year colleges.

Recent enrollment numbers for the district's four K-8 schools show that several sections are severely under-enrolled, as reported by the Weekly in issue #854.

Cutting it close to the March 15 deadline, the Board later voted to lay off 16.40 full-time equivalents (see chart below).

The Board is required to notify probationary employees on or before March 15 of its decision to not reappoint them for the next school year.

Layoffs can be offset by voluntary retirements. The district has instituted a "golden handshake" financial incentive to encourage veteran faculty members to consider retirement.

At Tuesday's meeting, the Board authorized 25 employee resignations by approving the Supplemental Early Retirement Plan (SERP)

The Board opened the retirement window for SERP on January 12. Within six weeks, 15 certificated and 10 classified employees submitted letters of resignation, which is projected to save the district $3.8 million across five years.

Design Review OKs Angelo Dr. project

A residential project helmed by architect Yassi Gabbay received the Design Review Commission's stamp of approval last week.

Planned for 1729 Angelo Drive, the twostory residence was pushed forward with a 3-1 vote. Commission Chair Arline Pepp dissented.

"I'm not in favor of the project because I think it's too top heavy," Pepp said.

In order to transition better into a more traditional neighborhood, the Contemporary-style building requires "softening," Pepp said.

An urban design analysis concludes that the contemporary elements do not create a "consistent design aesthetic and lack the necessary internal compatibility." The report mentions that the second floor creates a "topheavy" feeling.

Unlike Pepp, Vice Chair Ilene Nathan did not find issue with the configuration.

"I think it looks bigger than it actually is in this rendering," Nathan said.

Stewart Newmark, who lives across from the new development, noted that the lot has been left vacant for many years.

The Commission approved the design under the condition that the three-foot front-yard fence is replaced with land-scaping. An evergreen tree will be added to the site.

"It's not yet an enhancement to the neighborhood, in my opinion," Pepp said.

BHHS football coach resigns Norman boys' lacrosse team defeats Westchester

By Steven Herbert

Beverly High football coach Charlie had one guy have surgery at the end of the Stansbury confirmed Wednesday he has resigned after three seasons because his wife got a job with San Luis Obispo County's government.

"I feel good, I feel bad at the same time," Stansbury said. "Feels like there are things unfinished here but at the same time I could use the breath of fresh air. All in all, it was a great experience for me in a lot of ways."

Stansbury had never coached on the high school level before being hired in February 2013 to succeed Donald Paysinger, who had guided the Normans to 2-8 records in each of his final two seasons.

Beverly Hills was 0-10 in Stansbury's first season and 1-9 in each of his last two.

Stansbury expressed confidence that he will be coaching in 2016 and "has some options right now, but nothing's set in stone."

Stansbury said he is looking at positions on both the high school and community college level. Stansbury had been the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Golden West College for four seasons before becoming the Normans' coach.

The deadline for district employees to apply to fill the coaching vacancy was 5 p.m. Wednesday, 10 days after the position was posted, principal David Jackson said.

"If we have somebody inside the district that is qualified, we will probably give that to them," Jackson said.

If no district employee who applied is determined to be qualified that position will be advertised in various places, Jackson said.

Jackson said he is seeking a coach "that likes kids, somebody that knows football, somebody that can help us build a program, someone who can attract coaches that kids want to play for, has football knowledge, both offensive and defensively, a good leader, organized, is willing to put in the time, both in-season and off-season, typically Bill Belichick," referring to the four-time Super Bowl-winning coach of the New England Patriots.

Jackson said he was "really sorry to lose Charlie."

"I think Charlie has done a wonderful job with the talent he's had the last couple of years," Jackson said.

Stansbury advised his successor to "find out what you're working with and set your goals from there."

"Success is measured a lot of different ways and there's a lot of things that I could say that happened in the last three years to this program that made it a success, regardless of the record," said Stansbury, whose father Bill held or shared the Normans football head coaching position from 1981-89.

"Last year, we won the homecoming game, which was great, but at the same time, that team didn't have anybody quit and only

"There's things like that are valuable for me to take away, but I think more than anything, I think I'm proud that regardless of what our situation was, I was able to provide the kids with a positive experience that they're going to remember for the rest of their lives."

BRIEN BIDS FAREWELL

Retiring City Councilmember Willie Brien to resign March 16

By Mina Riazi

You served one term on the Board of Education, from 1999 to 2003. What inspired you to first run for elected office?

My kids were in the schools, and there were some real challenges around building Beverly Vista after the earthquake, and there were also some financial challenges. I really thought that there needed to be, most importantly, more focus back on the education of the kids. It was a combination of those [factors] that made me decide to ultimately run. I had never run for any office anytime in my life-I wasn't involved in student government, but this prompted me to run. I was the president of Little League and I was the assistant commissioner of AYSO; I was on the Recreation and Parks Commission at the time, but it was really the direction of the schools and the kids' education that prompted me to run.

In recent months, you've been especially critical of the previous Board. Why?

One of the main reasons is [that] schools and school districts have limited funds-they have no way to increase their funding short of formulas that are prescribed by the state. When you have general fund dollars-millions of dollars—going to fight multiple lawsuits, that's money out of the classroom, and that's education for the kids. When you have monies being spent-millions of dollars, probably over $10 million from Measure E money—to fight Metro and to do fear mongering around the subway, it takes money out of the building program that the taxpayers had voted for and I had supported originally. I'm critical because I believe that the [previous] Board lost sight of the job. The job was not fighting people-it was about creating the best educational environment for the teachers to teach and the kids to learn. One can look at scores and statistics and a variety of different measures - you can pick anything you want to make them look good or bad-it was more that the Board's role as a policymaker should have been around the focus of children's education. All you had to do was look at what they were doing at their meetings-they were distracted by all this extraneous stuff that they were never going to win and they created a scenario of fear mongering, and I don't like that. The focus was lost.

Why did you decide to seek a seat on the Council?

In 2008, going into the 2010 election, the economy was turning and I was very concerned that there was not a really good economic plan to deal with the recession. Nobody knew how big or how deep it would be, but I was pretty convinced it was going to be bigger and deeper than what it appeared to be on the surface. Part of it was the time I spent in Washington D.C. doing some advocacy things on behalf of orthopedics and the hospital; part of it was seeing my patients and listening to their concerns. Being a physician, orthopedics at least, is not just about looking at the bone—you look at the person and you treat the person. And people were scared. That told me that the people who were working in the community were seeing the impacts, and that was the reason I decided to run.

What accomplishment are you most proud of on the Council?

One is that we got Roxbury Park done. We have a really nice community center that's brand new and clean for our seniors and clean for our kids. We got rid of the bathrooms that I used to use as a kid growing up there. We improved the fields. It's a community asset that's open to anyone in the community who wants to use the park facilities. I'm proud of that, because that was a very tough fight and it should not have been that difficult. The other accomplishment I'm very proud of is the people that I've met and worked with in the city: a person like Steve Gordon, who came to me and said that he wants to give back to the community. We were sitting in my office, I was yet, and he said, "What're we going to do about those parks?" And I said, "We're going to fix them up. We're going to do a public-private partnership and raise some money and the city is going to put in some money, because we need to restore those parks back to the way they were." And [Steve] said, "Great, I'm in. How can I help?" I said, "You're in charge of the private part of this, you're going to go out and raise the money." And he looked at me like I was crazy. This is a man who was passionate, believed in the project, stuck to his word, and he's raised more than $9 million-with more to comefrom businesses and residents in this community to restore an asset that we have. And I'm very proud of that—that's the public-private relationship that you > build with people and it also shows how many great people are willing to give back to a city they

> Tell us about your new role at CHI St. Luke's Health-Baylor Luke's

Medical Center in Houston.

"As I've said before, leaders lead, and if you want to serve on the Council and be a leader, you have to lead."

I will be the Chief Clinical Officer and the Vice President of Medical Services at Baylor St. Luke's Medical Center in Houston, which is part of the Texas Medical Center, one of the largest medical centers in the world. Baylor St. Luke's hospital has a rich tradition and history, and it's really a coming together of three entities: St. Luke's hospital, Baylor College of Medicine and Catholic Health Initiatives. So it's an opportunity to take my experience in quality and safety as the Chief of Staff at Cedars[-Sinai] and as the Chief of Orthopedics at Cedars and put that all together in one very large organization that covers all disciplines of medicine.

In 2013, you were the target of an aggressive but ultimately unsuccessful attempt by The Courier to defeat you. What did you learn from that experi-

You have to believe in yourself. In my situation, I had to trust the community to not the mayor Honeybear Brien and Willie Brien

recognize that what was being said was just not truthful and, in essence, meanspirited. Some of them were clear mistruths, lies; some of them were distortion of the facts. I got my message out to the people and I guess at the end of the day I'm still sitting here. I've always believed that if you share with people your views and why you're doing them, even if they don't agree with you, they'll respect you. That's all I could ever ask for. At the end of the day, people vote based on whether they want you to represent them or not, and that's their choice, not the candidate's choice. The candidate's responsibility is to be honest to himself and to share his views publically. As I've said before, leaders lead, and if you want to serve on the Council and be a leader, vou have to lead.

Compare and contrast serving on the school board vs. serving on the Council.

I've worked with great people both on the school board and the City Council. And I've learned from great people who served before me on the school board and the City Council. For that I'm grateful, because I learned from my colleagues the past and the present. I served with Barry Brucker on the City Council and the school board; Jimmy Delshad was somebody I really enjoyed working with; Nancy Krasne, I served with her two different times. Nancy is one of the smartest people around. I have great respect for my other colleagues: Julian and Lili and John. And [I have] tremendous respect for my other school board colleagues who I learned a lot from and enjoyed working with: Myra Demeter, Alissa Roston, and very special to me was Virginia Maas. I think that the politics in this country are so divided and you have to find ways to find common ground where you can, disagree when you can and then get onto the next issue to try to make things better. If you look at our current Council, we do that pretty well. We make our vote, maybe 4-1, 3-2, but most of them are 5-0. At the end, we move onto the next issue and we deal with it based on the merits of the issue, not based on, "You didn't vote for me the last time."

Any parting thoughts?

This is a great city, it's been a great city to live in and raise my family in and grow up in. The strength of this city is the people, it's the residents, it's the businesses who love to have their business here, and it's the employees in the city. I think all of them make this a very, very special place. You never want to lose sight of those three entities that are so critically important to this community.

ORDINANCE NO. 16-O-2700

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS AMENDING ARTICLES 32 (HISTORIC PRESERVATION) AND 32.5 (HISTORIC INCENTIVE PERMIT) OF THE BEVERLY HILLS ZONING CODE TO CLARIFY THAT CERTAIN ARCHIVED PHOTOGRAPHS AND FILMS MAY BE CONSIDERED IN DETERMINING WHETHER A PROPERTY IS AN "EXCEPTIONAL WORK," TO REFINE THE CRITERIA FOR ISSUANCE OF HISTORIC INCENTIVE PERMITS IN THE TROUSDALE ESTATES AREA OF THE CITY, TO CLARIFY APPLICABILITY OF THE ORDINANCE TO INTERIOR SPACES, AND TO CLARIFY TIMEFRAMES FOR APPLICABILITY OF THE REVISED HISTORIC PRESERVATION ORDINANCE.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS HEREBY ORDAINS AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. On November 12, 2015 and January 28, 2016, the Planning Commission held a duly noticed public hearing after which it adopted Resolution No. 1759, recommending that the City Council amend portions of Title 10 (Planning and Zoning) of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code to clarify the definition of an "Exceptional Work," to refine the criteria for issuance of Historic Incentive Permits in the Trousdale Estates area of the City, to clarify applicability of the ordinance to interior spaces, and to clarify timeframes for applicability of the revised historic preservation ordinance versus applicability of the prior ordinance (collectively, the "Amendments"). On February 16, 2016, the City Council held a duly noticed public hearing, received public testimony, and thereafter introduced this Ordinance.

Section 2. This Ordinance and the Amendments were assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City. The City Council finds that adoption of the Amendments will not have a significant environmental impact and is exempt from CEQA pursuant to Section 15305 (class 5 categorical exemption) of Title 14 of the California Code of Regulations. The class 5 exemption is applicable because the Amendments constitute minor changes in land use limitations, and will apply City-wide, which area has an average slope of less than 20%.

Section 3. The Amendments are consistent with the objectives, principles, and standards of the General Plan. General Plan Policy "HP 1.4 – Develop Incentives to Protect Significant Historic Resources" calls for the development and funding of financial and regulatory incentives to encourage the protection of historic buildings, districts, and public landmarks/monuments from demolition or significant alteration, which may include flexible development standards and other incentive-based mechanisms to make preservation feasible for owners and developers. Further, General Plan Policy "HP 1.1 – Local Register of Historic Resources" calls for the establishment of criteria for identifying resources.

Section 4. The City Council hereby amends Section 3202 of Article 32 of Chapter 3 of Title 10 of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code to modify the definitions of "Exceptional Work" and "Landmark" as follows, with all other portions of Section 10-3-3202 remaining in effect without amendment:

"EXCEPTIONAL WORK: A remarkably superior example of architectural work that has been recognized as such by members of the architectural community. At a minimum, the work's exceptional quality shall have been documented by at least one of the following: a) it was the subject of a major architectural award; b) it was substantively discussed (i.e., not just mentioned) and photographically depicted in a monograph on a master architect's career; or c) it was substantively discussed or photographically depicted in at least two (2) publications (e.g., a book, treatise, trade magazine article, film, or set of photographs made available to the public by an institutional archive) authored by acknowledged experts in the field of architecture. A monograph or publication made available to the public solely in electronic form and without any reasonable expectation of compensation to the author, or substantially authored by the architect of the work, shall not count toward this minimum."

"LANDMARK: Any property, including any building, structure, object, place, landscaping, or natural feature located on it that has been designated as a landmark pursuant to this article and is listed on the local register. In addition, any interior space or spaces of a landmark that is or was regularly open or accessible to the general public, or to which the public is or was regularly invited, including, but not limited to, a lobby area, restaurant areas, theaters and banks, may be included in the property's landmark designation."

Section 5. The City Council hereby amends Section 3253 of Article 32.5 of Chapter 3 of Title 10 of the Beverly Hills Municipal Code to read as follows, with all other portions of Section 10-3-3253 remaining in effect without amendment:

"10-3-3253: HISTORIC INCENTIVE PERMIT AUTHORITY: Upon application by a property owner, in a form satisfactory to the director of community development, the reviewing authority may, if it makes the necessary findings, issue a historic incentive permit to waive or deviate from any development standard set forth in this chapter, except that no waiver or deviation shall be granted to: exceed the building height standards for the Trousdale Estates Area of the City, as set forth in Section 10-3-2605 of this chapter; allow construction off the level pad in the Trousdale Estates Area of the City, as set forth in Section 10-3-2603 of this chapter; and/or allow grading of sloped areas for the Trousdale Estates Area of the City, as set forth in Section 10-3-2604 of this chapter. No certificate of appropriateness shall be required for any project for which a historic incentive permit is granted pursuant to the provisions of this article. Nothing in this section, however, shall be construed to permit any waiver or deviation from land use requirements or restrictions set forth in this chapter.

Section 6. Applicability.

A. The Historic Preservation Ordinance (Ordinance No. 12-O-2617) that was in effect prior to the effective date of Ordinance No. 15-O-2682 shall apply to:

(i) Applications for Nomination by a Property Owner or Property Owners that were deemed complete for processing and had a complete historic assessment report on file with the Community Development Department prior to the effective date of Ordinance No. 15-O-2682; and

C. All other applications or initiations shall be governed by the provisions of Ordinance No. 12-O-2617, as amended by Ordinance No. 15-O-2682 and as further amended by this Ordinance.

Section 7. Severability. Originally approved in 2008 with 235 residences and retail space, One Beverly Hills improves upon the previously approved 9900 Wilshire residential project by replacing five floors of residences in the South Building with a luxury boutique hotel. There are no substantial changes to the overall architectural concept, height or square footage from the original project.

One Beverly Hills will include:

- 193 new luxury residences
- 134-room luxury boutique hotel
- 3/4-acre public gardens and over 3 acres of open green space throughout the property
- LEED certification of Silver or higher
- Greywater recycling system

The City is currently preparing the Supplemental Environmental Impact Report for the project which will include a study of potential traffic impacts. We anticipate that the independent traffic engineers will determine that there will be no significant impacts.

One Beverly Hills will follow all City processes, including review and consideration by the Beverly Hills Planning Commission and the Beverly Hills City Council.

As the public review process continues, we will be hosting open houses at our offices to hear your thoughts and answer your questions. We look forward to meeting with you.
