“Updated election results: it’s Mirisch, Friedman and Wunderlich” [Issue #911]

Now that the City Council race has been decided and the installation of the new members set for Tuesday, we must remind the three of who elected them and why.

A Proposition 65 Public Notice

The California Safe Drinking Water and Toxic Enforcement Act requires California businesses to advise employees and neighbors of any potential exposure to chemicals considered by the state to cause cancer, birth defects, or other reproductive harm.

Veolia Energy Los Angeles, Inc. wants you to know that detectable amounts of some of these substances may be found in and around its facility located at 2052 Century Park East, Los Angeles, CA. Potential sources of these substances can include common products such as gasoline, oil, natural gas, paint.

We the citizens of Beverly Hills hold each other to a high standard because our city demands the best.

That goes for our elected officials as well.

We are not without problems. We depend on our leaders to solve any problem and maintain the quality of life here that others dream of.

Congratulations John Mirisch, Les Friedman and Robert Wunderlich.

Also, congrats to our new Mayor Lili Bosse and Vice Mayor Julian Gold. We are in good hands for years to come.

See you all Tuesday night.

Goldberg continues to pursue lawsuit against BHPD years after his arrest

Former Board of Education member Brian Goldberg filed a second complaint on Thursday, March 9 alleging the Beverly Hills Police Department falsely arrested him without a warrant and probable cause.

Goldberg was arrested on March 9, 2015 by the BHPD on battery charges. The then-Board president reportedly shoved 18 year old Nahal Yashar, knocking her to the ground inside the Tower Drive condominium building where they were both residents.

After the incident, a lawsuit was filed against Goldberg on behalf of Yashar. The Los Angeles County District Attorney's office dropped the charges against Goldberg.

Goldberg brought forward his initial lawsuit against the BHPD and Yashar last March.

The 2017 complaint does not name Yashar as a defendant.

City attorney Larry Wiener explained to the Weekly filing two complaints, instead of a motion to amend the initial complaint, is not standard protocol.

"Filing a new complaint two years after the incident is procedurally irregular," Wiener said. "Normally, one would bring a motion to amend the complaint and the court would rule on the motion. We will address this procedural irregularity with the court, but in the end it doesn't change our opinion regarding the merits of this case."

The new complaint also indicates Goldberg believes his arrest was directly correlated to the Board of Education's denunciation of then-Police Chief David Snowden's involvement with Evidence Based, Inc.

"[Goldberg] called attention to and exposed the appearance of corruption and collusion involving the BHPD and [EBI].

[Goldberg] exposed payoffs by EBI to [Snowden], and the refusal of the BHPD to provide on-campus security services to the school district," according to a copy of the complaint obtained by the Weekly.

Attorney Arthur Barens, representing Snowden, called Goldberg's accusations

"[The] facts aren't going to change because [Goldberg has] filed lawsuits. He's made a fool of himself before and now he gets to repeat that."
—Attorney Arthur Barens

"total fiction."

"For years Mr. Goldberg has been making false charges that the BHPD retaliated against him. There is no evidence of that. That is total fiction. He has some obsession with the [police department] and a need for vindication, which he's not going to get with false [accusations]."

Barens also asserted that the new complaint brought forward by Goldberg and his attorneys earlier this month does not alter the alleged series events of events that initially triggered the arrest.

"The fact that he's refilled [the lawsuit] doesn't change the facts of what happened here, the police proceeded on [a citizen's complaint] that he violently pushed a woman, those facts aren't going to change because he's filed lawsuits. He's made a fool of himself before and now he gets to repeat that."

Attorney Gregory Smith, representing Goldberg, did not return the Weekly's call in time for comment.

Community Development to take over for Human Relations Commission on rent stabilization

The Human Relations Commission was informed at its meeting last Thursday that future of rent stabilization will no longer be under its jurisdiction.

Human Services Division Administrator Jim Latta explained that the work will be transferred over to the City's Community Development department.

"At this point, the [City] Council has put our Commission's work on hold," Latta said. "We've done everything we can. It's going to Community Development and they're working on some of the details as far as rent [stabilization]."

Latta noted that the Human Relations city staff will be working closely with Code Enforcement to transition the work over to the Community Development department.

At the meeting, Community Services Director Nancy Hunt-Coffey elaborated on why the decision was made to move the tenant/ landlord program to the Community Development department.

"There was some soul searching that took place here in the City," Hunt-Coffey said. "[I think] we did a very good job, but there was some soul searching about where it is most appropriate for the landlord/ tenant program, moving forward, to sit in the City structure. [Traditionally,] housing issues, code enforcement issues [and] inspection issues reside in the Community Development department. They have quite a bit more experience, than I have, with the various laws, regulations, building codes and all of those kinds of things."

Hunt-Coffey told the Commissioners that the Community Development department has started to work on some of the ordinance's structural components.

"The Community Development department has already started working with the IT department, based on work that we did, to start developing the backbone for the rental registry program. They are working on [having] an appeal process for landlords who feel they need to raise the rent beyond the three percent."

The Council unanimously approved a Rent Stabilization Urgency Ordinance to restrict no-cause tenant evictions and rent increases on Jan. 24. The ordinance capped tenant rent increases to three percent per year and established payment of relocation fees to tenant issued 60-day non-just cause termination notices.

The Human Relations Commission has hosted several Tenant Landlord forums to receive community feedback on the urgency ordinance.

The Commission also brought forward initial suggestions for the Council to consider, such as create a database for the approximately 8,600 multi-family units with descriptions of their current conditions, utilize the database to establish a Rental Registry Program in the City, change the current no-cause termination ordinance in Beverly Hills to include a relocation fee, and develop methods to limit annual 10 percent rent increases.

as Michael Vilkin have voiced concerns about how the Rent Stabilization Ordinance will impact their business.

"I don't raise people's rates every year," Vilkin told the Weekly [Issue #906]. "My raises are not very high on average. However, it doesn't flow smoothly. There are some years where the market doesn't allow you to raise very much at all and some years where, to catch up to market, you have to raise a lot larger. I don't think the landlords are being well represented."

Fine Arts Commission gets outside perspective on how to incorporate more cultural activities

Cusick Consulting President Jessica Cusick came to the Fine Arts Commission meeting last Thursday to provide insight on how the City could enhance its capacity for events related to cultural and the arts.

Jessica Cusick

At the request of Mayor John Mirisch, city staff has recently started researching potentially expanding the purview of an existing commission or creating an entirely new commission to handle cultural and art activities.

Community Services Director Nancy Hunt Coffey explained that the jurisdiction of the Fine Arts Commission is currently limited to the acquisition of fine art.

"The purview of the Fine Arts Commission is really restricted to the purchase and placement of 'world class fine art,'" Hunt Coffey said. "The desire [that has been expressed by Mayor John

"The Space Between Us" art installation at Glow 2013, all-night art event in Santa Monica Mirisch] is to look at expanding the scope of one of the commissions in the City to include a cultural arts component."

Chair Alan Kaye asked Cusick to elaborate on the ways in which Santa Monica incorporates cultural dealings into city government.

"As Cultural Affairs Manager, I was a manager within the department of Community and Cultural Services," Cusick said. "[The] Cultural Affairs division has responsibility for a number of facilities within the [City of Santa Monica], including the Miles Playhouse, the Civic Auditorium and the Beach House. It is responsible for the full spectrum of the cultural life in the City, from grants, to events, to public art, [with] the exception of landmarks and historic preservation."

Cusick left her role with the City of Santa Monica last March to return to consulting. As part of her work with Santa Monica Cusick developed "Glow," a unique, all-night art event that drew over 200,000 visitors in its first year. Over $750,000 was raised to put on an event of this magnitude.

"We mostly had foundation support," Cusick said. "Foundations loved [Glow] because of the reach of the program. [Getting] 150,000 people attending a free event [was something they] loved."

Highly visual, BrainWorks offers excellent photo and video opportunities of students performing surgery on human simulators, interacting with neuroscientists and participating in experiments.

New this year, students had the opportunity to use a new high-definition imaging device to perform simulated surgery and see inside the brains of patient simulators. The simulators have pulses and can eat, breathe, speak and blink.

Black started Brainworks in 1998 to help cultivate the same kind of passion for science that he discovered as a boy. He welcomes the students and introduce them to techniques in neurosurgery.

"Brainworks came about because we wanted to expose as many young minds as possible to how exciting science is and especially how fascinating the brain is," Black wrote in a statement. "Once they experience performing virtual surgery on a robot and look at tumors under a microscope, they start to believe that becoming a neurosurgeon or neuroscience researcher is in reach."

Q & A

Alana Morgan 2016 Junior Miss South Bay El Rodeo eighth grader

Tells us about how you prepared for the Junior Miss South Bay competition?

I [was] preparing for a long time. I first competed in [Junior Miss South Bay] in 2015. [It was the first time I ever competed in a pageant.] I didn't win, but I didn't get discouraged.

I was new to pageants and I didn't know what I was doing at first. But after I competed [in my first pageant], I looked back at the video [to learn] from my mistakes.

To prepare for the next pageant, I practiced with my family. I had my coaches [Tara Rice and Brittany Wagner] read over my judge's interview sheet to make sure it was perfect. [I also watched] Miss California and Miss America pageants to learn from what they did.

I studied hard to make sure I would do better.

Why were you interested in participating in pageants?

Most people, when they think of pageants, they think of glitz. It's not just about getting dressed up and walking across the stage. It's about influencing others. I wanted to do a pageant so I could influence other young girls.

I wanted to be an inspiration because I know a lot of girls aren't comfortable with their shape or their size. It's completely understandable, but everyone should be comfortable in their own skin. That's also why I wanted to help other young girls.

[Pageants] are about beauty and brains.

You've also worked as a professional actress and as a competitive dancer for Abby Lee's Dance Company. Tell us about that.

I've been acting since I was in third grade. I wanted to try acting because I looked up to my [older] sister who has done some acting and is also a musician. I started going on auditions and I went out for [shows like] "Jessie," "Brooklyn Nine-Nine" and "Hart of Dixie."

—Alana Morgan

I wanted to get better at dancing. I got accepted onto the preteen competition team [for the] Abby Lee Dance Company. From there, I've worked with Abby Lee Miller and she has given me critiques which I practice. I'm not perfect so there have been times I've messed up and she's helped me along the way.

Tell us about some of your favorite teachers at El Rodeo.

Ms. [Vergine] Makhmudyan is my math teacher. She's such a great teacher. She really pushes me because I feel like math isn't my best subject and she helps me out a lot. I also love Mr. [Robert] Croll. He's a really difficult history teacher. I don't get discouraged in his class even though his class is very hard.

There's a whole list of [teachers] that I love.

What advice do you have for other girls who would like to start competing in pageants?

Don't get discouraged. When I first wanted to do a pageant, I wasn't sure what I was going to get into. Be confident when you're going into a pageant because a pageant is a very good experience. You get to work with charities.

It's not just about who wins. It's also about the family you build and the charities you get to work with. [Even if you don't win], there could still be lots of opportunities and amazing things ahead. Don't think you're not pretty enough or you're not small enough because it's all shapes and sizes. Everyone is beautiful. Everyone has brains. Go try it out and love what you do.

JERRY'S YEAR

Human Relations Commission Chair Jerry Friedman on the ongoing landlord/tenant dispute

Why did you decide to join the Human Relations Commission?

I was fascinated by the mission, [which is] to try and engender friendship and civility among the residents of Beverly Hills. [The Commission] had just finished up discussions and hearings [regarding] the Noise Ordinance, which allowed people to air their feelings while also understanding [the opinions of others.]

I felt it would be beneficial to be on a commission that enables the citizens to express their concerns [without peer reprisal].

Judith and Jerry Friedman

Your commission has recently garnered some criticism for its involvement in the Rent Stabilization Ordinance passed by City Council at the end of January. What have you and your colleagues learned throughout this process?

I want to be clear that our mission was not to draft an ordinance. Originally, our mission was to educate the landlords and tenants on their rights. This was before the ordinance was even brought up, about a year and a half ago or so. We prepared and updated the landlord/tenant handbook because we recognized from our meetings that both landlords and tenants did not know what the laws were in the City.

When we got into the direction of what we'll call the "ordinance discussions" we were hearing that there was [a wide variety of both landlord and tenant experiences.] Everyone is entitled to their own opinions based upon their own experiences.

We learned, even before the ordinance, that there was a group of landlords who were not compassionate, to say the least, and there were also a lot of compassionate and considerate landlords. Similarly, there were a lot of tenants who were both respectful of the premises and the landlords and there were tenants who felt they were being mistreated. A lot of them were being mistreated.

We were there to let them express themselves without fear of peer reprisal so that the Council could understand what the emotions of the City were and what was happening to the various residents.

Outgoing Commission Chair Ori Blumenfeld told the Weekly, "We are a commission, not a legal body. If lawyers need to get involved [with rent stabilization] it's not something our commission can resolve." [Issue #801] At last week's Commission meeting, it was announced rent stabilization will move to the City's Community #### Development department. Was this issue out of reach for the Commission?

It appears, at the present time, the Council felt that the Community Development services were more appropriate to handle the landlord/tenant mediation. That's solely within the control of the Council.

I do not know whether or not, if afterwards, we will become the hearing process and the recommending process to hear all residents' opinions [after the conclusion of that mediation]. That has not yet been decided. That is up to the Council.

One of [the] disappointments I had was the fact that the whole process seemed to bring forth to the surface a lot of discontent [between] many tenants and landlords. It was not, at times, the civility we would appreciate in our city.

We'll see what happens with Community Development. They are apparently better staffed to handle the work on the resolution and on the ordinance.

The one recommendation we did give was we felt it needed more time. [The Council] has given it more time with [an interim] ordinance. There will be a panel with more discussions and there could be changes. We are looking at going from discussions, to more discussions, to panels and then that final result about the interim ordinance; or at least keeping parts of the interim ordinance in effect to prevent retaliation by certain landlords.

I think it's going the right route. This is a problem that's going to take a lot of time. There are a lot of ramifications that have not been fully analyzed by everybody.

Moving forward, what do you think will be the biggest challenge for the Human Relations Commission?

We will be back to hearing our landlord/tenant forum to try and address specific tenant or landlord concerns. We are focusing, now, back to some of our original mandated charges like our civility award. We're also looking at going back and doing our competition for anti-bullying videos among the schools to get our goal of a more civil city out to the neighbors and the residents.

We will also continue our goal, which is very important, of monitoring the ambassador program which we helped initiate.

How do you respond to people who question the Human Relations Commission's relevance?

I believe it's very relevant. We are trying our best to make this a city we're all happy to live in. [Throughout] the time I've been on the Commission, the 'One Book, One City' session brought together 500 to 1,000 people that showed up. That was a crowning achievement of that year's commission. We're looking at possibly trying to do it again.

We're bringing to the forefront the good in the community. I think it's very important to be reminded of that.

Tell us about your family.

We've been residents of Beverly Hills for about 30 years, since my youngest son [Ari] entered the third grade at El Rodeo. My wife, Judi, served [as chair] of the Fine Arts Commission [in 2011]. She is active in the arts. She's been involved with the Museum of Contemporary Art downtown.

I have five and a half grandchildren. I say five and a half because the sixth one will be here sometime in May. My son, Josh, was a member of the [Citizens Oversight Committee] for a while.

What is one thing you would like to accomplish one year from today on the Commission?

Unfortunately, this year we've had so many preset subjects that we really haven't had much time to get into anything new and positive.

Our staff has been stretched very thin, both with the landlord/tenant and now also with the Community Assistance grant fund which we also process with the Charitable Solicitations Commission. In the next month or two, we recommend approval for the various applicants for those funds.

My goal is for us to have enough time to promote the anti-bullying video. I hope we're able to do that this year.

Jerry, Ari and Josh Friedman

CALIFORNIA TD SPECIALISTS IS A DEBT COLLECTOR ATTEMPTING TO COLLECT A DEBT. ANY INFORMATION OBTAINED WILL BE USED FOR THAT PURPOSE. "NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid on a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of the outstanding lien that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. LA1785166 BEVERLY HILLS WEEKLY
3/23,30, 4/6,13 2017

CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS
DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS
345 FOOTHILL ROAD
BEVERLY HILLS, CALIFORNIA 90210

REQUEST FOR PREQUALIFICATION OF BIDDERS AND PREQUALIFICATION
INSTRUCTIONS FOR
BEVERLY GARDENS PARK RESTROOM
BUILDING REPLACEMENT PROJECTS

Notice is hereby given that the City of Beverly Hills ("CITY") has determined that all bidders for the restoration of the Beverly Gardens ("Projects") must be pre-qualified prior to submitting a bid on that Project. This prequalification is valid for a year and for more than one project. It is mandatory that all Contractors who intend to submit a bid, fully complete the prequalification questionnaire, provide all materials requested herein, and be approved by the CITY to be on the final qualified Bidders list.

No bid will be accepted from a Contractor that has failed to comply with these requirements.
If two or more business entities submit a bid as part of a Joint Venture, or expect to submit a bid as part of a Joint Venture, each entity within the Joint Venture must be separately qualified to bid. The last date to submit a fully completed questionnaire is 2:00 PM Monday, April 3, 2017. Contractors are encouraged to submit prequalification packages as soon as possible, so that they may be notified of omissions of information to be remedied or of their prequalification status in advance of the prequalification deadline for this Project.

The prequalification package may be found online at the following link:

http://www.beverlyhills.org/business/bidlistings/bidsrfps/bid1712beverly gardensparkrestroombuilding replacement/

Answers to questions contained in the attached questionnaire are required. The CITY will use these documents as the basis of rating Contractors with respect to whether each Contractor is qualified to bid on the Project, and reserves the right to check other sources available. The CITY's decision will be based on objective evaluation criteria.

The CITY reserves the right to adjust, increase, limit, suspend or rescind the prequalification rating based on subsequently learned information. Contractors whose rating changes sufficiently to disqualify them will be notified, and given an opportunity for a hearing consistent with the hearing procedures described below for appealing a prequalification rating.

While it is the intent of the prequalification questionnaire and documents required therewith to assist the CITY in determining bidder responsibility prior to bid and to aid the CITY in selecting the lowest responsible bidder, neither the fact of prequalification, nor any prequalification rating, will preclude the CITY from a post-bid consideration and determination of whether a bidder has the quality, fitness, capacity and experience to satisfactorily perform the proposed work, and has demonstrated the requisite trustworthiness.

The prequalification packages should be submitted under seal to the Office of the City Clerk, City of Beverly Hills, 455 North Rexford Drive, Room 290, Beverly Hills, CA 90210. The following should be clearly marked on the outside of the package "CONFIDENTIAL PREQUALIFICATION STATEMENT FOR THE
BUILDING REPLACEMENT"

The prequalification packages submitted by Contractors are not public records and are not open to public inspection. All information provided will be kept confidential to the extent permitted by law. However, the contents may be disclosed to third parties for purpose of verification, or investigation of substantial allegations, or in an appeal hearing. State law requires that the names of contractors applying for prequalification status shall be public records subject to disclosure, and the first page of the questionnaire will be used for that purpose.

Each questionnaire must be signed under penalty of perjury in the manner designated at the end of the form, by an individual who has the legal authority to bind the Contractor on whose behalf that person is signing. If any information provided by a Contractor becomes inaccurate, the Contractor must immediately notify the CITY and provide updated accurate information in writing, under penalty of perjury.

The CITY reserves the right to waive minor irregularities and omissions in the information contained in the prequalification application submitted, and to make all final determinations.
The CITY may also determine at any time that the prequalification process will be suspended for the Project and the Project will be bid without prequalification.

Contractors may submit prequalification packages during regular working hours on any day that the offices of the CITY are open.
Contractors who submit a complete prequalification package will be notified of their qualification status no later than ten business days after submission of the information.

The CITY may refuse to grant prequalification where the requested information and materials are not provided by the due date indicated above. There is no appeal from a refusal for an incomplete or late application, but re-application for a later project is permitted. Neither the closing time for submitting prequalification packages for this Project will be changed in order to accommodate supplementation of incomplete submissions, or late submissions, unless requested by the CITY in its sole discretion.

In addition to a contractor's failure to be pre-qualified pursuant to the scoring system set forth in the prequalification package, a contractor may be found not prequalified for either omission of or falsification of, any requested information.

Where a timely and completed application results in a rating below that necessary to pre-qualify, an appeal can be made by the unsucsuccessful Contractor. An appeal is begun by the Contractor delivering notice to the CITY of its appeal of the decision with respect to its prequalification rating, no later than two business days following notification that it is not pre-qualified. The notice of appeal shall include an address where the Contractor wishes to receive notice of the appeal hearing. Without a timely appeal, the Contractor waives any and all rights to challenge the decision of the CITY, whether by administrative process, judicial process or any other legal process or proceeding.

If the Contractor gives the required notice of appeal, a hearing shall be conducted no earlier than five business days after the CITY's receipt of the notice of appeal and not later than five business days prior to the date of the Notice Inviting Bids for this Project. Prior to the hearing, the Contractor shall, in writing, be advised of the basis for the City's pre-qualification determination.

The hearing shall be conducted by a panel consisting of three members of the Department of Public Works senior management staff (the "Appeals Panel"). The Appeals Panel shall consider any evidence presented by the Contractor, whether or not the evidence is presented in compliance with formal rules of evidence. The Contractor will be given the opportunity to present evidence, information and arguments as to why the Contractor believes it should be pre-qualified. Within one day after the conclusion of the hearing, the Appeals Panel will render a written determination as to whether the Contractor is pre-qualified. It is the intention of the CITY that the date for the submission and opening of bids will not be delayed or postponed to allow for completion of an appeal process.

Please contact Logan Phillippo at lphillippo@beverlyhills.org with any questions.
