Reconfiguration: BHUSD Announces Committee Members, School Tours

Parents and community leaders are working with the Beverly Hills Unified School District to shape the future of the district as it continues to reconfigure its K-8 schools into three elementary schools and a middle school by serving on transition advisory committees intended to shape the process going forward. Students and staff are also getting involved by filming virtual school tours and hosting in-person tours for parents and incoming students.

BHUSD Superintendent Michael Bregy announced via email last week that students at each of the district's schools will be using 360-degree cameras and Google Tour Creator to create school campus tours for incoming students. A Pen-Pal writing program has also begun for students in first through fourth grade so that they can get to know the students with whom they'll be sharing classes next fall. For parents, Bregy said "Coffee with the Principal" gatherings will be held throughout the month of March to inform them about the "process and progress" of reconfiguration.

Four transition advisory committees were originally established. Those included a steering committee, which serves to steer and support the reconfiguration of the district, a student transition advisory committee, which reviews initiatives to assist students during reconfiguration and creates opportunities for students to meet their new peers, a brand identity transition advisory committee, which would assess the needs of the community as new brand identity options are considered for the new middle school, and an athletics committee, which formed to develop a competitive and diverse athletic program at the new middle school.

The brand identity committee was disbanded at Tuesday night's Board of Education meeting, however, following much debate over a proposal to change the name

Metro Starts Demolition Work for Purple Line Section Two

Work on the Metropolitan Transportation Authority's (Metro's) Purple Line Extension project continued this week as crews began the demolition of existing buildings at 9383-9393 and 9395-9399 Wilshire Boulevard and the installation of a sound wall around the property, which will later serve as the site for the Wilshire/Rodeo station.

The demolition began Tuesday and is expected to continue for five weeks. Work hours during demolition are Monday-Friday, 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. Demolition and hauling activities will take place between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. Intermittent closure of an adjacent sidewalk and westbound curb lane on Wilshire are expected as the demolition process continues.

Utility potholing, which serves to identify existing utilities below the street, and fault line investigations are also underway at the future Wilshire/Rodeo station. The potholing work is expected to continue for two weeks. Drilling and sampling work to assess the geological makeup of the soil and tunnel route as part of the fault line investigation process will cause eastbound Wilshire Boulevard to be reduce to one lane west of North Santa Monica Boulevard to Roxbury Drive. All three lanes on westbound Wilshire will be maintained.

Beginning in March, a 22-week sewer and water line replacement process will begin. During that process, two lanes in each direction will be maintained for day work on Wilshire. One lane in each direction will be maintained for night work.

North Canon Drive at Wilshire Boulevard will close for approximately two years starting in April and a 20-foot temporary wall will be constructed to block access between N. Canon north of Wilshire and Wilshire. The wall will feature art on the North Canon side, which will be reconfigured as a cul-de-sac, and public information graphics on the Wilshire side. Recommendations for what art should decorate the wall will be presented to the City Council on March 5.

Additional information about Metro's Purple Line Extension project can be found online at www.metro.net/projects/ westside/.

Here I Go Again: Beverly High Presents 'Mamma Mia!'

The Beverly High Performing Arts Department will present its rendition of the 1999 Broadway classic 'Mamma Mia!' beginning March 1 in the Salter Family Theater on the Beverly High campus. Performances will also be held March 2, 7, 8, and 9 at 7:00 p.m. A special performance for the K-8 school audiences will be held on March 6.

Senior stage manager Lola Spector rehearses Donna and The Dynamos Super Trouper routine with seniors Angela Braun (Tanya), Caroline German (Donna), and Izabella Paz (Rosie)

Beverly High Performing Arts Department Artistic Director and instructor Karen Chandler told the Weekly that 'Mamma Mia!' would be the last musical performed in the Salter before remodeling begins on the performance space. A location has not yet been determined for future shows, though Chandler offered both The Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts and The Saban Theatre as potential options

The renovation, Chandler said, played a large part in why 'Mamma Mia!' was selected as this year's musical.

"Musicals have to be chosen for the Salter with a small orchestra, limited set pieces and tech. 'Mamma Mia!' fit that bill. With a great ensemble oriented senior class manning all the leads, a large chorus, great musicians, and with catchy tunes everyone knows, we are sure that it will be a crowd pleaser," Chandler said. "The hardest part for the audience will be not to sing along during the show, but rest assured, a giant spandex clad finale will invite everyone to join in the fun. And where will we be next year for our musical? That will be a surprise but our diligent administration and board is working on all that and we will not disappoint!"

In March, the Performing Arts Department will send performers to participate in the California Thespian Festival and in April students will participate in the Shakespeare Festival competition, sponsored by the Drama Teachers Association of Southern California

Tickets for 'Mamma Mia!' can be purchased online at www.bhhs.bhusd.org or at the box office.

Fire Department Launches New Nurse Practitioner Program

The City of Beverly Hills Fire Department launched a Nurse Practitioner Program on Tuesday that is unparalleled in Los Angeles County.

Through a unique and innovative Emergency Medical Service (EMS) model, the program is designed to deliver advanced, efficient and effective healthcare in the pre-hospital setting. BHFD's vehicle, 'Nurse Practitioner 1' (NP1), will respond to calls for service in the field. Staffed with both a Nurse Practitioner and Firefighter Paramedic with oversight from a board certified Emergency Medicine physician, NP1 is equipped with an array of medications, select laboratory diagnostics and technical medical equipment. Whether responding to 911 calls or following up on 'in home' patient referrals, NP1 will provide mobile urgent care while helping to determine the best treatments for longterm care

More information on the program can be found on the Fire Department's website or you can contact Sean Stokes at (310) 281-2733.

Beverly Vista Teacher Awarded Sarah D. Barder Fellowship

In January, fifth grade Beverly Vista teacher Kris Milliken was nominated by a former student, Beverly Vista sixth grader Ryan Manzoku, for the Johns Hopkins University Center for Talented Youth's Sarah D. Barder Fellowship Program. On February 8, Milliken was told he won one of the coveted fellowship spots.

"Like you,

Kris Milliken

Milliken in an acceptance email. "Each of them deserves the chance to reach his or her fullest potential, and the future depends on the skills and values they develop now; the failure to sustain and enhance their talents is a waste for individuals and a loss for society as a whole."

The fellowship program, named after educator and philanthropist Sarah D. Barder, provides first year fellows an all-expense paid trip to the annual Johns Hopkins Center for Talented Youth conference and a $500 stipend. Veteran fellows are invited to return to the conference in subsequent years to participate in professional development and interact with new and returning fellows. More than 400 teachers and administrators have been honored in the 29-year history of the fellowship program.

This year's CTY conference will be held at the Renaissance Baltimore Harborplace Hotel in Baltimore on March 1-2. Milliken is unable to attend the event, but BHUSD Assistant Superintendent for Education Services Dustin Seemann said the district is "so grateful" for the recognition of his work with students in Beverly Hills.

Milliken has taught in the Beverly Hills Unified School District for eight years at Beverly Vista. Before that, he taught fourth grade for five years in New York City and spent a year teaching a fifth and sixth grade combination class in Salinas.

The Wallis Hosts Panel on L.A. Arts Programs

The Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts, in partnership with Los Angeles magazine, will present present 'CENTER STAGE - Moving Beyond Scarcity: Achieving a Brighter Future for Arts Education in Los Angeles,' a dynamic panel discussion with local arts and education leaders about a rise in arts programs in the region's public schools, on February 20 at 9 a.m. The panel will discuss the momentum to expand arts programs across Los Angeles County as well as avenues for community support and involvement.

The conversation will be moderated by The Wallis' Director of Education, Mark Slavkin, with Los Angeles magazine Deputy Editor, Marielle Wakim, and features panelists Dai Shalon Jordan and Jennifer Lobliner-Cortez, educators whose schools are working with Turnaround Arts CA, Joe Landon of California Alliance for Arts Education, and Pat Wayne of CREATE California

Admission is free, but reservations are required. The Chamber Singers from Hamilton High School Academy of Music and Performing Arts, directed by Wendy Walsh, will open the event with a special performance, and complimentary refreshments are generously being provided by Porta Via Beverly Hills.

"There are some incredibly diverse ground-breaking programs in the pipeline that are beginning to gain traction as well as national attention. Leaders in the arts and education sectors are committed to working together closely to ensure that the next generation of students receives high quality arts education in the classroom. This event will delve into what's propelling this positive trend in arts education in LA."

The Wallis' Executive Director and CEO Rachel Fine echoed Slavkin's remarks, as did Los Angeles magazine Deputy Editor Marielle Wakim.

"There's never been a more hopeful time for arts education in Los Angeles than right now," added Wakim. "The unprecedented growth and collaboration among a variety of arts and education organizations will help ensure arts education is an essential component of public education."

PaulGomberg Rockstar Realtor

You grew up in Beverly Hills. What brought you to Houston?

I moved to Houston for the real estate business back in the late 1970s. My father [Ronan Gonberg] had been involved in real estate here in Beverly Hills for many years and set up shop in the mid-70s in Houston. It took him about four vears to convince me to do the same and then I was off to Houston. At the time I had already been doing real estate in Beverly Hills.

Besides being cheaper, compare and contrast the Houston real estate market to the Beverly Hills market.

In today's world, you would say it's a lot less expensive. It's a competitive market because lots of people are moving to Houston because it's perceived to be an affordable place to live in comparison to Los Angeles or New York or other places like that. It's just less expensive to live there. Now, I always tell everyone there when you live in Houston versus here in Beverly Hills.

"A lot of the older homes built in the 1930s, 40s and 50s seem to be turning into mega mansions. There's no way to stop is a price to be paid that type of progress."

-Paul Gomberg

The weather is worse. They have traffic just like we do here, but in the summer here in L.A. you aren't sitting in 98-degree heat with 70 percent humidity. You can make it to your next meeting here without getting sweaty on the way over.

The market has been good there, of course. It's just at a lower price point. That's really the main difference-there are a few more zeros added to the end if you're buying in Beverly Hills.

Houston real estate is known for a series of boom-and-bust cycles, usually tied to the price of oil. Tell us about that.

Houston had a boom in the late-70s and early 1980s that was brought on by oil. Houston is still an oil town today, but luckily businesses there have diversified, mostly to a lot of Internet com> panies. During that boom, though, a lot of developers were taken down. Lots of commercial buildings were left standing half-built for years and years. The same was true with shopping centers. That was what happened a lot because they don't have the processes in Houston like we have in Beverly Hills where you have probably a year or two of review before you ever begin building. You can build something that would take two years here in two weeks in Houston. It's a very streamlined process. So, when the bust came in the mid-80s I ended up selling the units that were being foreclosed on and all sorts of homes. I sold shopping centers and commercial buildings, mostly to California investors. They had cash and wanted to get into buildings. They couldn't believe how inexpensive things were in Houston. They could buy a commercial building and land for $12 a foot with the building as a shell, which was an excellent price. Some of those people still have those same buildings now and they've done well.

There was another downturn in the early 1990s. I spent 1990 through 2009 as mainly a home developer and builder. I built in excess of 200 homes near downtown Houston. All the while, I had a Texas real estate license, so I wore a bunch of different hats in that time period. The builder hat was really my biggest source of pleasure in the real estate business at that time.

The next bust came in 2008 and everyone stopped doing anything in real estate for a while. The highs now aren't as high as they go in Los Angeles or Miami. We didn't have a great big zoom up where everyone was building and purchasing. When things slow down for real estate they don't slow down in Houston: they crash. Still, the price point is lower and that makes homes more readily available to more people there. So, when the bust came I just went back to my real estate agent routine. I had my first real estate license in probably 1980. I've been doing this a long time. In the last two years I switched back over to doing it here in Beverly Hills.

What brought you back to Beverly Hills?

It really was because I have a lot of friends in this business that live in the area and my family lives in The Flats. I've been devoting more and more time to helping my family and caring for my elderly parents, so seemed like the best way to do it. I figured if I was going to be spending a week or two here every month I might as well get my license again and apply my 30+ years of knowledge. I work with Keller Williams in Houston and I also work with Keller Williams Beverly Hills Realty on North Canon. I'm kind of back and forth right now. I call myself the commuting "rockstar realtor."

How is the city different than when vou left?

A lot of the older homes built in the 1930s, 40s and 50s seem to be turning into mega mansions. There's no way to stop that type of progress. With the prices they're commanding, no matter how nice something is or how much sentimental value a house has it's still going to be a tear down because they're functionally obsolete. So, that's one of the differences. The houses are bigger. The streets are the same because you can't make streets bigger out here, so there's more traffic. I take Uber a lot more.

What do you hope to accomplish in Beverly Hills real estate?

I kind of fashion myself as an Indiana Jones of Real Estate. I'm looking for buried treasure. I have some clients who don't mind spending $7 or $8 million on a house, but they're not necessarily looking to knock it down and make it into a big mansion. Here when you make a purchase like that it is the only way to go economically. You'll spend less money.

I like networking, talking with people, and building a business where I'm helping people to achieve their goals, whether that's finding their dream house or something else, so I hope to continue that here. My goal is to help and communicate with my clients in real time. I do walk-throughs for people over Face-Time if they can't be there. I video chat and take phone calls with them all day to make sure things are moving in the right direction. I like to personalize the process. I like to provide people with a high level of service that is different than what they've seen before. I'm not out to impress anybody other than through my communication skills and ability to get a deal done. That's it, and that's really what I'm looking to do. My whole thing is that I'm having fun doing this. You have to have fun. I save my clients from the stress of buying a home or piece of property. I make it fun for them.

COVERSTORY BEVERLY VISTA NAME CHANGE SHELVED AFTER BRANDING COMMITTEE DISBANDMENT

By Kelcey Caulder

The Beverly Hills Board of Education ordered staff on Tuesday to disband the newly established Brand Identity Committee, which was originally formed to make recommendations on branding for the new middle school opening on the Beverly Vista campus next school year, after it moved forward with a proposal to rename the school without first seeking Board approval to do so.

"Mr. Allen, I think you took the words out of my mouth when you said this was irrelevant," Board President Noah Margo said to El Rodeo Principal Kevin Allen, who will serve as the new middle school principal and formerly served as the facilitator of the Brand Identity Committee, at Tuesday's meeting. "I would go so far as to recommend disbanding the committee right now. Staff does not need to be focused on this at all."

Margo continued by saying any discussion of renaming the schools should be put on pause while the district focuses on improving its educational offerings and establishing the middle school as its own entity.

"Why don't we come back and discuss the names of something, if we care even to do that, when we're great? Because we're not there yet and we need to be there," Margo said. "What's really going to help this transition is superior instruction in the classroom, number one."

Rumors of the potential name change first started to spread late last week after the committee met to discuss potential recommendations for a new name, mascot, and colors for the school. Beverly Hills residents responded to the news with mixed feelings, with some blasting the Board for even considering changing the name of Beverly Vista and others arguing that doing so would make students transferring from other schools in the district feel more comfortable.

Among those arguing that the Beverly Vista name should not be changed were Alma Ordaz, Benjamin Reiss, Kim Reiss, Diana Gordon, Robert Switzer, and City Councilmember Lili Bosse.

In a letter read into the record on Tuesday, Bosse, who was at a City Council meeting and could not attend in person, urged the Board to retain the name that has been in place since Beverly Vista first opened in 1924.

"As an alumna of Beverly Vista School and a proud advocate for our schools, I urge you to please not rename Beverly Vista," the letter said. "It makes perfect sense to honor its heritage, retain its name, and call it Beverly Vista Middle School."

Rice, who currently serves as the Director of Strategic Development for the nonprofit Beverly Hills Heritage group, also emphasized the importance of retaining the nearly 100 years of heritage tied to the school name in his comments.

"We believe that changing [Beverly Vista's] name would be equivalent to erasing the history of an institution that has worn its moniker for nearly a century, during which time it produced many prominent graduates, and reflect poorly on the school district's, and by extension the city's, regard for its heritage," Rice said. "A name change will not affect the quality of the curriculum, teaching staff, and student body. More importantly, it will not magically improve test scores."

Rusti Banegas, who has a child in fourth grade at Hawthorne and participates on the school's PTA, spoke in favor of changing the name on Tuesday and stated that the decision to rename the school was supported by all fourteen members of the Brand Identity Committee. She also argued that any final decision about what the name should be had to come from the students themselves.

"I am asking that our Beverly Hills students be given a voice. I am asking that you give them a chance to feel a sense of pride, a sense of ownership, and a sense of belonging. Give them a school that is truly theirs. Let them choose the name for the middle school," Banegas said. "It is dumbfounding to me that we have people in this room, or maybe watching from their living rooms, that have never attended Beverly Vista and have never had a child attend Beverly Vista, yet they are willing to send a petition to not change the name. I hope this Board takes into consideration what their motivation might be."

The petition in question received 881

signatures from residents and community members who opposed any change to the school's name.

Board Vice President Isabel Hacker was the first to mention that the committee had moved forward with a proposal to change the name without direction from the Board, adding that the Board should "control the conversation" as reconfiguration moves forward.

"I am sure that we're going to have many more conversations about growth and change and we can do that. We can do that at the dais respectfully with an open mind, but we should control that conversation," Hacker said. "Ninety percent of what happens on the school agenda is all consent, meaning it's the business of just running the institution, and we're here to support our staff through that. The other stuff is creative work or ideas and that should come from the Board, so I just want to clarify for the community. This did not come from the Board in this instance."

Hacker asked both Allen and BHUSD Superintendent Michael Bregy if they knew where the idea originally came from, to which Bregy responded that the idea cropped up during discussions with the Future Focused Schools Team "over a year ago." Board member Tristen Walker-Shuman, who served on that team, shook her head at that explanation but made no comment.

COVERSTORY FOUR-HOUR STANDOFF ENDS IN ARREST ON REEVES

By Kelcey Caulder

A man who barricaded himself inside a residence on South Reeves Drive for nearly four hours last Thursday was jailed for assault with a firearm and false imprisonment.

The standoff began at around 6 p.m. Thursday evening when officers from the Beverly Hills Police Department responded to a report of a gunman in the 200 block of South Reeves, between Wilshire and Olympic boulevards. The suspect initially refused to come out, but was later taken into custody at approximately 9:40 p.m.

BHUSD Lieutenant and Executive Officer Elisabeth Albanese said Ahron was taken into custody "without incident."

Later identified as Jonathan Ahron, the suspect works in real estate and has since been released on bail.

Miscellany

Beverly High has new track and field, boys' tennis and boys' and girls' lacrosse coaches this spring.

Katrina Smith will coach the track and field team. She is a Beverly High alumnus and was a sprinter at the University of Washington.

"She's a good, young, energetic coach that brings some enthusiasm to our program, which I was looking for," said Tim Ellis, the Beverly Hills Unified School District's director of athletics.

Smith's coaching staff will include Norman football coach Jarrod Bunch, who will coach the throwers, Ellis said.

Smith succeeds Mark Luevano, who opted not to return, Ellis said.

Eric Busi will be the boys' tennis coach after being the junior varsity coach last season.

Ellis described Busi as young and enthusiastic "who will bring energy to the

Beverly Hills

Rory Cosgrove and A.J. Ellis will be the boys' lacrosse co-coaches.

Cosgrove was a midfielder at Division III Bates College in Lewiston, Maine and was second on the team in goal-scoring as a senior in 2011 with 14 in 13 games.

Tim Ellis described Cosgrove and Ellis as having "an incredible knowledge of lacrosse."

Stephanie Bianco will be the girls' lacrosse coach.

"She came in with a good plan," Tim Ellis said. "It's hard to find lacrosse coaches. She impressed me with her knowledge and how she wanted to implement things."

Bianco played at Division II Indiana University of Pennsylvania and has been an assistant women's lacrosse coach at SUNY New Paltz, Quinnipiac University, Central Connecticut State University and Bard College.

(Eminent Domain Law), including but not limited to Sections 1240.010, 1240.020, 1240.110, 1240.120, and by other provisions of law.

Section 3. The City seeks to acquire the fee simple interest in the real property located at 1297 Monte Cielo Drive, Beverly Hills, California, and identified as Los Angeles County Tax Assessor's Parcel Number 4350-018-044 (Subject Property). The Subject Property is an approximate 22,650 square foot vacant parcel. The Subject Property is described more particularly on Exhibit "A" and depicted on Exhibit "B", which are attached hereto and incorporated herein by this reference

Section 4. The City and Jay Isaac Landers and Despina Gianopulos Landers, Trustees of the Landers Family Trust (Landers Trust), the record owner of the Larger Parcel, entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement and Joint Escrow Instructions between the City of Beverly Hills and the Landers Family Trust for the Acquisition of Real Property Located at 1297 Monte Cielo Drive in Beveriy Hills and 1721 Monte Ciclo Court in Los Angeles with an effective date of July 17, 2018 (Purchase and Sale Agreement). The City acquired the real property located at 1721 Monte Cielo Court (Monte Cielo Court Property) on September 7, 2018 pursuant to the Grant Deed recorded as Document Number 20180913385 of Official Records of the County of Los Angeles Escrow on the Subject Property, however, could not close due to certain encumbrances, including but not limited to restrictions, recorded against the Subject Property. Accordingly, it is necessary that the City acquire in fee the Subject Property by eminent domain to clear any title issues and encumbrances recorded against the Subject Property.

Section 5. The City seeks to acquire in fec the Subject Property for a public use, namely for proposed small water infrastructure purposes in connection with the City's existing water pressure regulation stations and abandoned facilities located in the vicinity of the Subject Property, and all uses necessary and convenient thereto. The Project, as planned and located, is in the public interest and necessity and is needed to help the City to construct proposed small water infrastructure facilities that will help it to meet its goal of providing additional water storage capacity in accordance with the goals set forth in the City's Water Enterprise Plan (July 2015) (referred to below as WEP), which is incorporated herein by this reference.

The Subject Property is located at the northern edge of the city limits of the City of Beverly Hills near Coldwater Canyon Drive. It is located adjacent to City-owned property that contains an abandoned subsurface water main, an active water pressure regulation station servicing an interconnection between Los Angeles Department of Water and Power and the City's water distribution system, and an abandoned vault containing two abandoned water tanks. able the City to build additional water infrastructure to accomplish certain goals set forth in the WEP. The Project, as planned and located, would help further the goals of the WEP because it would enable the City to provide for emergency storage of water. This will help the City to work towards meeting the goal of having sufficient emergency reservoir storage capacity to meet a seven-day demand during peak demand periods, which will benefit the community. The Project would allow the City to add some storage capacity to help eventually reach the goal of adding 35 MG of storage to the City's existing supply of 43 MG in existing storage capacity.

The Project is planned and located in the manner that is most compatible with the greatest public good and least private injury. It is planned and located to provide much needed water infrastructure to this area of the City. The Subject Property is strategically located adjacent to other City-owned property, thus, minimizing the need to acquire other private property by eminent domain. Code Regs. Section 15000 et seq. (CEQA ines). City Staff determined that the Project is exempt from CEQA pursuant to Section 15303 of the CEQA Guidelines. The Project falls under the Class 3 Exemption. As part of the Project, the City proposes to construct new small water infrastructure facilities and structures on the Subject Property in connection with existing water pressure regulation stations and abandoned facilities located in the vicinity of the Subject Property. The City will duly post a Notice of Exemption with the Los Angeles County Clerk's Office in accordance with applicable law. Said

Notice of Exemption is incorporated herein by this reference. These environmental findings are the appropriate findings with respect to the proposed acquisition of the Subject Property.

Section 7. Pursuant to Government Code Section 7260 et seq., the City obtained a fair market value appraisal of the Subject Property and the Monte Cielo Court Property that were the subject of the Purchase and Sale Agreement. The City set just compensation and extended to the Landers Trust an offer for the Subject Property and the Monte Cielo Court Property. The City and the Landers Trust negotiated in good faith for the City's purchase of said parcels. Escrow on the Subject Property transaction, however, could not close due to title issues that could not be cleared through Escrow.

Section 8. On November 2, 2018, the City provided written notice to the record owner of the City Council's intent to consider the adoption of the proposed Resolution of Necessity pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure Section 1245.235.
