"BOLD"

I work and live in the Beverly Hills area for many years. I spend many hours walking my dog all over Beverly Hills at all hours of the day and night. I walk the street more then a "beat cop" which doesn't exist in Los Angeles.

My question is how much longer will that big ugly pink box in front Starbucks near Charleville and South Beverly Drive stay there? (The one that says #BeBold.)

I never see ANYONE taking pictures in it or around it. I think more dogs have urinated on it and drunk people pissed in it then pictures have been taken.

How can "we" facilitate it's removal. It really is an eyesore and quite honestly if I owned the storefront that it is blocking I would be furious.

Maybe you can bring it downtown so it can be used for temporary housing?

Mirisch Installed as Mayor

At the City's annual reorganization meeting last Wednesday evening, John Mirisch was installed as the new Mayor of Beverly Hills for the third time.

Councilmember Lester Friedman became Vice Mayor.

Sworn in by son Vin, mother Wendy and brother Richard, Mirisch spent a significant portion of his speech criticizing Sacramento politicians and asserting that when conducted properly, local government is the best form of democracy.

"Controlled by money and special interests, Sacramento politicians often do not have our individual communities' best interests at heart," said Mirisch. "Strengthening local control and protecting and empowering communities is now more important than ever."

He went so far as to compare "Sacramento politicians" to arch villain Haman in the Jewish holiday of Purim and to lead the crowd in using groggers to "blot out the name and memory" of the words.

Popularly celebrated in Beverly Hills, Purim marks the deliverance of Jews from Haman-an advisor to the Persian king-who sought to destroy them. Due to an intervention by the king's secretly Jewish wife, Queen Esther, Haman was hung on the gallows and the Jews were saved.

"While Haman was foiled so many years ago, sadly Jews throughout the world are still under constant threat," said Mirisch. "Right now, our larger community is facing a different kind of threat. Less obvious, perhaps, and non-lethal, but nonetheless, [Sacramento politicians are] a threat which could potentially destroy Mayberry forever."

Mirisch averred that the California constitution must be amended so as to protect community rights "to self-determination and to reflect the principle of subsidiarity"-meaning that decisions should be made at the lowest competent level of government.

"It really all comes down to this: Do you want more decisions made closer to home. or do you want more decisions made by Sacramento politicians?" he asked.

Mirisch also, however, expressed excitement for the future, promising an inclusionary housing policy, a commitment to pushing the tobacco ban, the implementation of a Golden Shield program, the "reinvigoration" of La Cienega Park and, of course, more sing-alongs.

"I'm truly grateful to live in this community and for the opportunity to serve," he said. "I look forward to working closely with my colleagues on the Council as we explore new opportunities and programs while enhancing the amenities we are blessed with in Beverly Hills."

First elected to the Council in 2009, Mirisch served as Mayor from 2013-2014 and again from 2016-2017. Both he and Friedman will serve a one-year term.

Reveal News to Sue BHUSD

Alleging a violation of the California Public Records Act, investigative reporting website Reveal News has announced that it is suing the BHUSD.

According to a blog post published Friday, Reveal said that the BHUSD rejected its request for documents in relation the District's meetings focused on lobbying the Trump administration to help stop Metro construction from running beneath Beverly High.

The BHUSD claimed it doesn't possess said documents, which Reveal has called "highly implausible." Thus, the lawsuit asserts that the school district must conduct a proper search for the requested documents and "release them promptly, as the law requires."

"The public has an undeniably strong interest in knowing the use of public funds and the details of public officials' lobbying efforts paid for by taxpayers," claims the lawsuit.

Muslim Discrimination Suit Filed

Former Comerica Bank employee Mariam Bouarich has sued the Comerica and Westwood Branch Manager Lilit Gasparyan for anti-Muslim harassment and discrimination.

Filed February 25, the complaint claims that the branch manager regularly made racist, xenophobic, and Islamophobic comments about Ms. Bouarich because of her Muslim faith. These comments included "Muslim girls do not like to work," "all Muslim girls want to do is to marry rich," and that Comerica "would be better off without" Muslims working there.

The lawsuit further alleges that Ms. Bouarich was also ridiculed for her Moroccan background, unfairly belittled in front of her coworkers, and unjustifiably denied access to the bank's vault.

According to the lawsuit, after other employees complained about the anti-Muslim behavior, the Comerica bank manager summarily fired Bouarich. Upon firing her, the bank manager allegedly instructed Ms. Bouarch to "go back to your country" and yelled that "things here in America are different."

When Bouarich objected to the xenophobic and racist comments, the bank manager allegedly shoved and kicked Bouarich until she left the Westwood branch, leaving her bruised. She then filed police report with the LAPD.

"Given recent events and the climate in this country, it is unconscionable that Comerica permitted this cancer of Islamophobia to fester and metastasize into violence in Westwood, in the heart of one of the most diverse neighborhoods in America," said Bouarich's attorney, Sam Yebri of Merino Yebri LLP.

"With the help of numerous witnesses who have willingly come forward, Ms. Bouarich is prepared to hold Comerica, its branch manager, and its executives in Texas accountable and to send the message that racism and Islamophobia are not welcome in Los Angeles," said Yebri.

According to its website, Comerica boasts that its employees and managers undergo extensive diversity training, including a "Masters of Diversity Awareness (MDA) program," that involves "interactive exercises that focus on unconscious bias and microaggressions" and "how to recognize when bias is occurring."

Comerica Communications V.P. Susan Siravo said that the company does not comment on pending litigation.

Board Extends Superintendent Contract

The Board of Education approved a two-year extension to Superintendent Michael Bregy's contract on Tuesday.

Bregy's term, which would have expired July 1, 2020, will now run through June, 30, 2022.

During the meeting Board members recognized Bregy's dedication to and integral role in ensuring a smooth reconfiguration transition, with Board member Mel Spitz calling his contributions "inclusionary and transparent."

"Dr. Bregy's initiatives to accomplish reconfiguration of our school this coming August are really noteworthy," said Spitz. "The process he designed is sensitive to the stresses of transformational change. By approving the extension of his contract tonight, I hope the community recognizes the support that this Board has for Dr. Bregy.

Bregy's duties will remain predominately the same, some of which include working with the Board and public to develop leadership and direction to ensure that education, personnel and budget affairs are implemented.

Also included in the contract is a 2020-2021 base salary of $292,000 and a four percent increase for the 2021-2022 school year, "contingent on receiving a satisfactory evaluation from the Board for the preceding school year."

"I have appreciated working with you through this process of looking at a district that was in dire need of change and not being afraid to lead the charge and say, 'We can't expect ourselves to be the district that we want to be if we stay the same," said Board member Noah Margo. "You being here took us in a direction that was sorely needed.'

Fine Art Commission Recommends Approval of Cultural Art Ordinance

The Fine Art Commission gave their final recommendation last Thursday to approve an ongoing proposed expansion of the commission's purview to include cultural arts.

If ultimately approved by City Council, the mission of the Arts and Culture Commission would be to "promote and nurture the arts and cultural life of the City.'

Duties of the commission would include acting as advisors to the Council in issues regarding fine arts, visual arts, performing arts, digital and media arts, arts education, and community and cultural activities.

The commission would also serve as an advocate for cultural activities and community cultural programs, promote arts and culture activities to "broaden opportunities" for residents, foster public and private partnerships for providing arts and cultural programing, and encouraging arts education programs in the form of docent programs

Originally proposed by Mayor John Mirisch, the ordinance comes after months of back and forth within the commission, with Commissioner Carolyn Hiller call> ing the program "very ambitious.'

> "I support this, I just really wonder how it's going to be done," said Hiller, who expressed doubts regarding the amount volunteer work that would be involved with the docent program.

During the meeting, the commission slightly amended the plementing the City's Public Art Program from purchasing or accepting fine and public art donations to just fine art.

"The liaisons want Beverly Hills to be known for arts and culture; they want Beverly Hills to be known as an arts and culture city, so that's the intent of the language," said Community Services Director Nancy Hunt-Coffey.

The proposal includes an Arts and Culture Commission meeting date at 10:00 a.m. the second Tuesday of each month.

The proposed Ordinance will now be presented to the City Council.

Planning Commission Approves Aston Martin CUP

The Planning Commission agreed to renew a Conditional Use Permit (CUP) for car dealership Aston Martin, which will continue to allow a vehicle sales use and showroom on Robertson Boulevard.

Originally approved in December, 2008 for a 10-year term, the CUP expired last year. In order to maintain current operations, Aston Martin filed a timely request for renewal in June, 2018.

Staff recommended that there be no condition limiting the term of the CUP for the vehicle sales use, the modification rationale being that operations have been conducted in a code-compliant manner with "very limited" code enforcement action occurring over the past 10 years. swer, Commissioner Lori Greene Gordon inquired about how many current CUPs have expirations, to which City Planner Ryan Gohlich over 50 percent.

The commissioners also discussed the request for modifying maintenance activities to now include washing of vehicles using portable wash equipment. The modified condition states that all water discharge must be captured on-site and that temporary and permanent wastewater-capture mechanisms need to be installed and inspected by the Public Works Department.

Previously, the condition only allowed light detailing, including vacuuming and waterless cleaning.

According to applicant attorney Murray Fischer, the chemicals part of the waterless system "did not interact well with the paint nor the manufacturer specifications."

"Second of all, when you purchase a $250,000 vehicle, you would like to see that vehicle sparkle," said Fischer. "And in order to sparkle, [they] use a water system in the rear of the property.'

Fischer went on to explain that Aston Martin possess the proper drainage and clarifiers to make sure that nothing is deposited in the sewer systems.

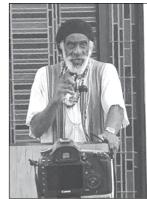

Ultimately, the Council unanimously voted to remove both the CUP term limits and the waterless system.

"You're a terrific part of our community," said Commissioner Peter Ostroff before the vote. "Keep it up."

In his speech, Hayes offered his perspective on homeless, explaining the last 35 years of sidewalks, beachfronts, public parks, and homeless encampments that helped homelessness "develop into the national security threat it is today, and what it takes to resolve it."

coverstory DANIEL AND SHARONA NAZARIAN TO BE HONORED BY SINAI TEMPLE Event to be held April 7

By Jenny Okhovat

You and your husband are being honored by Sinai Temple. Tell us about that.

Sharona: We feel very fortunate to be part of several strong and caring communities that are vibrant. We're Jewish American Iranians and we believe in building bridges and celebrating the rich tapestry of all of our communities along with the cultures that come with it. We feel it is our duty and privilege to give back to the community. Our synagogue is our home away from home, and that serves as our soul. Sinai Temple is dedicated to providing a welcoming and caring community. So, we were actually really humbled when they year's 32nd Annual Burning Bush Gala Honorees. We're delighted to be honored along with Michael and Julie Silverstein, who are most deserving of this award.

Over 40 percent of Sinai Temple members are Beverly Hills residents, and Sinai is an integral part of our lives. We have very deep roots at Sinai Temple and we value giving back to the community and it's great to be recognized. We hope to pass on our traditions. Sinai is a beautiful space of love and acceptance and we feel very blessed to be a part of it.

Daniel: The evening will also highlight and raise funds for the Emergency Volunteers Project, (EVP). EVP trains American firefighters to help save and protect the people of Israel. Representatives from the organization will be at the event and we will also welcome

You recently were appointed President of the Beverly Hills Rotary Club. Tell us about that.

Sharona: I'm currently Secretary [of the Club] and will be the incoming President in July. I actually love the work that the Rotary Club does for the community as well as internationally. I come from a long, familiar line of giving back. I feel like we're very privileged and blessed to be able to do that. The Rotary Club has been around since 1932 and the values that they hold are very dear to my heart.

> ty Charitable Fund with [Former Mayor] Linda Briskman. We allocate funding for worthy organizations and worthy causes in the community, as well as the community as large.

How did you get involved in philanthropic organizations such as The Maple Counseling Center and the Zimmer Children's Museum?

Sharona: Philanthropy was something I've always been involved with, even in High School. My brothers both went to Beverly, and I watched my parents philanthropic pursuits. It's something that's kind of instilled in us. My relationship with the Maple Counseling Center started in graduate school. I did my first internship there, which I was thrilled about. I also did one of their first bilingual parenting classes, and after that they invited the past 5 years. It's been a great experience for me to be able to give back to the community that I love and have been a part of for the past 40 years. The way

I even got to be considered and learn to get involved was first getting involved in

Team Beverly Hills, which actually Sha-

Sharona: member. sinaitemple.org / burningbush

Do you have to be a member to attend the event?

Daniel: You do not have to be a member to be able to attend the event. Many of our friends and colleagues, who are not members, will be there. We encourage anyone who is interested in supporting these types of programs to attend. This is a non-denominational program, in regards to EVP.

Tell us about your family.

Sharona: Being involved in Beverly Hills, Dan and I have both been active in all aspects of our children's lives. Danny has coached BHBL and AYSO, and I've tried to be a team administrator anytime I could. We open our home to various charities and organizations, and we try to raise our children with the same values as we hold. All three of our children have graduated from the Beverly Hills Police Department's BH Explorers program. Our oldest is a second generation Nazarian to graduate from Team Beverly Hills, and all three of our children hold multiple presidential awards for community service. Notice to Potential Bidders If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a Trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a Trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same Lender may hold more than one mortgage or Deed of Trust on the property. Notice to Property Owner The sale date shown on this Notice of Sale may be postponed one or more times by the Mortgagee, Beneficiary, Trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the Cali-fornia Civil Code.
