Claim Filed Against Spagnoli

A claim has been filed against BHPD Police Chief Sandra Spagnoli for allegedly running over the foot of photojournalist Jacob Rogers.

On April 25, Rogers allegedly approached Spagnoli to inquire about an officer within her department who had recently slandered a photographer.

According to the claim, Rogers—who was video recording the interview—watched as Spagnoli got into her car and felt her roll the vehicle over his foot.

Rogers allegedly suffered “contusions, swelling and injuries” to his foot, and has been unable to work. He has also received medical care from Dr. Teresa Lin Bartlett, a walking boot, and a crutch.

Spagnoli has denied all allegations that the incident was committed, either negligently or intentionally.

“It is our understanding that an individual approached Chief Spagnoli wanting to discuss a complaint he had filed concerning a previous encounter with an officer of the Beverly Hills Police Department. The Chief, out of a desire to be open and accessible, engaged him in conversation, which he recorded with a video camera,” said Public Information Officer Keith Sterling.

“However, when the individual became increasingly agitated and hostile, the Chief called for support from additional police officers, and ultimately decided it was appropriate to defuse the situation by politely terminating the conversation. She has expressed confidence that she did so carefully and did not injure this individual in any way. If we receive information that suggests further inquiry is warranted, we will act accordingly.”

Korbatov Questioned By FBI

Elliott Broidy

The Daily Beast is reporting that former Board of Education President Lisa Korbatov has been questioned by the FBI regarding her partnership with Republican fundraiser Elliott Broidy.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Council of the City of Beverly Hills, at its regular meeting to be held on Tuesday, May 21, 2019, at 7:00 p.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, in the Council Chamber of the City Hall, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210, will hold a public hearing to consider:

A REQUEST FOR AMENDMENTS TO A DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT FOR A PROJECT LOCATED AT 8600 WILSHIRE BOULEVARD. THE CURRENT REQUEST IS TO MODIFY LANGUAGE IN THE DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT IN ORDER TO ALLOW THE TWO DESIGNATED AFFORDABLE UNITS IN THE PREVIOUSLY APPROVED MIXED-USE PROJECT TO BE DEED RESTRICTED AFFORDABLE RENTAL UNITS, RATHER THAN SOLD AS AFFORDABLE CONDOMINIUM UNITS.

On November 13, 2007 the City Council approved (City Council Resolution 07-R-12446) a mixed-use project with three townhomes and 23 residential condominium units, inclusive of two affordable units for moderate income households. Subsequently, the applicant obtained a building permit and commenced construction on a mixed use project containing a total of 18 residential units and commercial space. At that time, the required entitlements for the project included a Zone Text Amendment, General Plan Amendment, related map amendments, as well as a Planned Development, Vesting Tentative Tract Map, and a Development Agreement.

A Final Environmental Impact Report (FEIR) was certified by the City Council when the project was originally approved by the City in 2007. The primary change to the 2007 Approved Project that will be evaluated by the City Council would modify the requirement for designated affordable units to require rental units rather than for-sale condominium units. This project has been assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA, Public Resources Code Sections 21000 et seq.), the State CEQA Guidelines (California Code of Regulations, Title 14, Sections 15000 et seq.), and the environmental regulations of the City. Accordingly, the City Council will consider staff's recommendation that the minor revision proposed is within the scope of the previously certified FEIR, that no further CEQA review is required, and in the alternative that the project exempt from the environmental review requirements of CEQA pursuant to Section 15301 (Existing Facilities).

All interested persons are invited to attend and speak on this matter. Written comments also may be submitted and should be addressed to the City Council, c/o City Clerk, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210. Written comments should be received prior to the public hearing date. Any written comments received by close of business on Tuesday, May 14, 2019 will be attached to the agenda report regarding this item. Any comments received after Tuesday, May 14, 2019, but prior to the public hearing, will be distributed to the Council under separate cover. Please note that if you challenge the City's action in regards to this matter in court, you may be limited to raising only those issues you or someone else raised at a public hearing or in written correspondence delivered to the City, either at or prior to the end of the public hearing.

If there are any questions regarding this notice, please contact Timothea Tway, Senior Planner, Community Development Department, at (310) 285-1122 or ttway@beverlyhills.org. The case file, including a copy of the proposed ordinance, is available for review in the Community Development Department, 455 N. Rexford Drive, 1st Floor, Beverly Hills, California 90210.

Beverly Vista Hosts BubbleFest

Almost 500 attendees showed up for Beverly Vista's BubbleFest and Carnival. Kids enjoyed giant bubbles, rides, laser tag, food and more.

The two were former business associates who in 2016 signed on to a joint venture in Angola called BCH Development Group. Korbatov was to get a finder's fee of three percent for any security contract negotiated by a security firm Broidy owned, but the deal did not come to fruition.

According to the Daily Beast, the BCH matter was "the only formal business dealing between the two."

A top fundraiser for Donald Trump's 2016 campaign, Broidy resigned from his post as the Republican National Committee's deputy finance chair last April after news broke that he impregnated and subsequently paid off a Playboy Playmate.

According to the article, Korbatov is expected to be further interviewed by Department of Justice prosecutors in the coming months about her work with Broidy and about Trump's inauguration.

Brynan Sues City Alleging Age Discrimination

Former Recreation and Parks Supervisor Cindy Brynan is suing the City, alleging age discrimination after being denied a managerial position.

According to her complaint, in 2017, Brynan, 66, interviewed with the City for a promotion but lost out to Kristin Buhagiar, approximately 35, who then served as her supervisor.

Before the hiring process even started, in December, 2016 Brynan allegedly made it known to Community Services Director Nancy Hunt-Coffey that she was interested in the Manager of DRP position, which would open up shortly.

Hunt-Coffey allegedly tried to "dissuade" Brynan from pursuing the manager position, telling her that the City was seeking "someone with a fine arts background."

Brynan, however, possessed a fine arts background as well as "approximately 20-plus years of pertinent experience," reads the complaint.

Brynan also assisted with management of the Greystone Mansion Estate, planning and implementing special events.

Nancy Hunt-Coffey

Buhagiar worked as a lifeguard and lifeguard supervisor for the City of Laguna Beach. She also managed a small venue in Burbank, but the complaint alleges that she likely "did not have a fine arts background, had no experience planning events, and had no experience with historic venues such as the Greystone Mansion."

"On information and belief, Ms. Buhagiar was substantially less qualified for the Manager position than was Ms. Brynan,” reads the complaint.

“I really shouldn’t share this with you because I am under a confidentiality agreement with the City, but in conducting interviews involving [Brynan] for the Manager job at Greystone, we were instructed to select ‘young blood’ and [Brynan] had no chance for the job,” the individual allegedly said.

According to the complaint, Brynan’s spouse allegedly spoke with someone involved in the hiring process who said they “[weren’t] surprised” that Brynan was being mistreated. In June 2018, for instance, Brynan was reassigned from Greystone Mansion to La Cienega Park where duties became “more menial and insignificant.”

Brynan worked for the City for over 30 years.

“The City of Beverly Hills Remains strongly committed to a workplace free from harassment, discrimination and retaliation,” said Public Information Manager Keith Sterling. “We look forward to presenting our case.”

Attorney Michael Carrillo said that the City will likely reject their claim, at which point the firm will file a lawsuit.

“He’s been out of work,” said Carrillo. “He relies on being out late at night, getting all the hot takes, and now for him to be stopped from doing that is just not right.”

Board of Education Issues Statement Supporting Bregy

The Board of Education issued a statement Monday expressing its unanimous support of BHUSD Superintendent Michael Bregy following what they call an “unrelenting campaign” by the Beverly Hills Courier to discredit and undermine him.

“If ever there was a time for stability it is now, and in confidence of his courageous leadership we have extended the term of Dr. Bregy’s employment contract,” reads the statement.

The release goes on to acknowledge Bregy’s commitment and leadership to the middle school reconfiguration, pointing out that although the transformation has been advocated for over 20 years by many superintendents and Board members, Bregy was the one to marshal the resources to make it happen.

“From the time he arrived at BHUSD, early in 2017, Dr. Bregy has endured a continual barrage of defamatory articles in The Courier, filled with pernicious insinuations and falsehoods (such as flying first class at the expense of the District), questioning his professional and ethical conduct, and has clearly been fueled by an unwarranted and mean-spirited personal animosity,” reads the statement. “The truth is not always positive and we expect to be held to a transparent standard allowing the public to receive facts and necessary information. Regrettably, The Courier’s coverage of District business is not impartial.”

The BHUSD said it has publicly and privately asked for the Courier to reassess their policy and report factually on the District’s progress.

“They have responded by intensifying their campaign, misstating content provided by the District, and even in the form of a scathing unsigned letter,” reads the statement. We condemn the Courier’s attacks on Dr. Bregy and the District. At this critical moment of change in our District, we will continue to prioritize our first and foremost responsibility, the education of our students.”

SAFIER'S RULES

Charitable Solicitations Commission Chair Joe Safier Discusses What Makes His Commission Tick

By Jenny Okhovat

You're currently the Chair of the Charitable Solicitations Commission. Tell us about that.

I have been the Chair since the January meeting. The commission meets every month on the 2nd Wednesday of the month, with the exception of the month of August. I have served on the Commission, almost four and a half years, and I find the work very interesting. During my four and a half years on the Commission, we have updated the Municipal Code, to reflect how permits are actually issued and the procedures and so forth. We've updated the 1-page financial statement reporting form, and then starting a couple of years ago, we began a process where we go and meet with each of the major hotels in town, and this year we're starting to meet with the event planners to educate them as to their requirements within the municipal code; if they are hired by a charity by an event, they're required to let us know. Their sole requirement is to inform the police requirement that there will be a charitable event in Beverly Hills. It is then up to the police department to get the charity to file for a permit and provide their financial statements.

ing to meet with the event planners to educate them as to their requirements within the municipal code; if they are hired by a charity by an event, they're required to let us know. Their sole requirement is to inform the police requirement that there will be a charitable event in Beverly Hills. It is then up to the police department to get the charity to file for a permit and provide their financial statements.

Can you provide some detail on what the Commission does exactly?

The Commission's primary objective is to oversee the police department's issuance of Charitable Solicitation Permits and then review the financial statements submitted by the charities at the conclusion of their fundraising event. Whether it is a fundraising drive, a "monetary drive", we call it, solicitation by mail, or if it's an event. The Commission's work is done in public of course. The Commission has a website as part of the City's website, where residents can go and see information about the charities. The Commission's primary role is to ensure all charitable solicitations within the community is permitted, and the expectation is that for every dollar the charity raises, at least 50 cents of that dollar goes to the charitable cause. The majority of the charities are fine, upstanding, reputable organizations that do good work, and the Beverly Hills community is a very generous community and very supportive of a lot of these charities. And as we should be, as a means of giving back, but what we want to do is make sure to minimize the risk to our residents of unscrupulous organizations coming in and attempting to raise money under the guise of charitable solicitation.

Does the City take a percentage from any of the charitable organizations?

No, and unlike the City of Los Angeles, there is no fee for pulling a permit in the City of Beverly Hills. LA charges a small permit fee.

Does every charity have to notify the commission if they're collecting funds?

Per the Municipal Code, the answer is yes. The reality is that not everyone does.

Who are some of the biggest charities in Beverly Hills?

By dollar amount, the largest is the Girl Scouts of Los Angeles. Other than the Girl Scouts, the Performing Arts Center (dba The Music Center) is the top fundraising organization, followed by Friends of Saban Clinic, and Milken Institute.

What happens if someone throws a charitable party (without notifying the commission?)

There are some code enforcement teeth in the municipal code. Generally, what we do, is when we find such events, we try to contact the charity and strongly encourage them to request a permit. And if you look historically at the number of charities with unpermitted events, that number is going down. And I want to give particular recognition to the police department and especially Emma Nica, who has been our administrative support in the Police Department for the last several years. She has done an outstanding job.

Is anyone welcome to attend a meeting?

Absolutely. They're open to the public. The primary purpose of the Commission is to educate the residents of the city, so that if they want to give to a charity, regardless of what the charity is, they at least have a resource in the Commission's Annual Report and website to look and see whether that charity is permitted in the City, and if so, what the results of that fundraising have been. So that when you get either a knock on the door, or a solicitation in the mail, or a phone call, you at least have some way to validate or verify if the charity is valid. And in fact, in some solicitations, you can ask for a copy of the permit.

You previously served on the COC for the school district (Citizen's Oversight Committee). Tell us about that.

Yes, I served on the Measure E School

Bond Citizens Oversight Committee from its inception, I want to say 2009 to 2015. And currently, I'm serving on the School District's finance committee. I'm also a proud graduate of Team Beverly Hills.

You served as a county grand juror. What was your experience like?

There is a county-wide body that one can apply for, call the Los Angeles Civil Grand Jury. The Civil Grand Jury is a volunteer organization, every county in California has a Civil Grand Jury and the mandate for each of the civil grand juries in California is to improve the economy and the efficiency of the local government.

What is your education/ work background?

I grew up in the home of the finest pro-football team in the Country, which of course, is Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. I received a bachelor's in Management Science (with Honors) and an MBA from the University of Rochester. And the day I got my MBA

I said, "if I never see another day of snow in my life it will be too soon." So I moved to Los Angeles in 1973, and started for what was then Arthur Young & Company as a CPA. I spent 22 years there, left in 1996 and joined Transit Casualty Company, which was a bankrupt insurance company in Century City as their Chief Information Officer, and ran their IT organization for 5 years. And when I left at the end of 2000, I've been devoting myself to charitable and civic work since then.

What is one surprising thing our readers might not know about you?

I have played in the same regular floating poker game for over 25 years! And, I grew up in Pittsburgh and am a life-long Steeler fan with license plates reading STLRPHN and 4DSTLRZ
