"Open Letter to Candidates for Public Office in Beverly Hills"

We believe that all of our residents, regardless of their means, should have the ability to seek public office. In order to encourage interested residents to seek public office and enhance the prospect that our elections will be determined on the basis of the leadership strengths of the candidates, not the financial strengths of their supporters, we have a proposal regarding limits on campaign financial contributions for all candidates.

The Beverly Hills Municipal Code provides both limits on contributions to campaigns and a voluntary limit on campaign expenditures. No candidate may solicit or accept contributions in excess of $125 per person unless the candidate files with the city clerk a statement accepting a voluntary expenditure limit committing to a spending limit of $80,000.

If and only if a candidate commits to this spending limit, the candidate is rewarded with an increase in the per person contribution limit from $125 to $450. In addition, the candidate is afforded the substantial benefit of the inclusion at the City's expense of the candidate's statement in support of his or her candidacy with all sample ballot materials that are mailed to the voters.

In the past, some candidates who committed to the spending limit of $80,000 have, knowingly or not, had the benefit of substantial additional and unlimited spending on their behalf by Political Action Committees or any political committee organized for the purpose of raising and spending money to elect and defeat candidates. (collectively "PACs"). In at least one recent instance, these PAC expenditures alone have exceeded the $80,000 spending limit the candidate has committed to.

We anticipate that candidates receiving PAC support may contend that they have no knowledge of or control over what their supporters do apart from and in addition to the contribution or expenditure limits. Such contentions should be viewed with a healthy degree of skepticism.

Making a commitment to limit all expenditures to $80,000 in exchange for important benefits and then failing to reject the establishment and financial support of PACs is, at best, highly hypocritical.

We are concerned that one or more PACs intended to support and/or oppose one or more of the announced candidates for the Beverly Hills June 2022 City Council election are being planned. This is wrong and should not happen. If we know about these plans, it is likely the candidates who are the intended beneficiaries do as well.

We know that PACs established by special interests are very common (and arguably "legal" if they do not coordinate their activities with the candidates) in federal, state and other elections. However, elections in Beverly Hills are different. In other elections, the candidates are not making express commitments to limit expenditures for which they receive important benefits. Further, as a small City, our offices should be available to all residents, not just those with deep pockets or wealthy supporters.

Therefore, we strongly urge all candidates for public office in Beverly Hills to actively discourage the establishment and support of PACs. In furtherance of this, we request that the written commitment to the spending limit submitted by any candidate voluntarily include a statement under oath that the candidate has no knowledge of or information about any actual or potential PAC support and will make it known that he or she does not want and will not accept any such support.

An open letter to city council candidates (see above), authored by planning commissioner Peter Ostroff, which was circulated for signatures, points out the inequities in a candidate receiving financial help from a PAC. That is because a candidate can limit expenditures to $80K so the candidate can receive a contribution of up to $450 instead of up to $125. Meanwhile, under current law, a PAC can spend an unlimited amount of money to further the campaign of a candidate, making the expenditure limit meaningless.

During the last election, large donations from real estate interests, totaling about $80K was funneled through a PAC to insure the re-election of Bosse and Gold. Once elected, Bosse and Gold voted in favor of the mixed use ordinance, which had been in the works but was not mentioned by them during their speeches, and they also voted in favor of the One Beverly Hilton high rise project with greatly decreased parking requirements, and allowed an 11 story building across the street from, darkening a school playground with shade.

The donation problem and sources were brought out publicly in the Weekly, but unfortunately many residents do not have time to keep up with local affairs. The larger problem is that not enough good people stepped up to run for office against incumbents who had declared their candidacy early to discourage others.

The sentiments in Ostroff's open letter are good and seem well-intended, however the thrust of the letter—that a candidate should discourage the formation of PACs—is fairly meaningless because by definition, a PAC can only spend great amounts of money to further a candidate's campaign if the PAC's activities are neither authorized nor controlled by a candidate. In fact flyers promoting candidates will bear a notation such as we saw in the last election:

"Paid for by Beverly Hills United to Support Bosse and Gold for Council 2020. This advertisement was not authorized by a candidate or a committee controlled by a candidate."

We can check PAC filings, donations, donors, and expenditures through the City Clerk's office. This time we should take heed, follow the money, and get the information circulated. And most importantly, we should encourage good people to step up and run by the nomination deadline between February 14 and March 11, 2022.

Planning Commission Discusses Cheval Blanc DEIR

At their Oct. 28 special meeting the Planning Commission discussed a Draft Environmental Impact Report (Draft EIR) for the Cheval Blanc Beverly Hills Specific Plan Project. The request is for a multiple-use building containing a luxury hotel with restaurants and ancillary services, a private club, and street-level retail uses with North Rodeo Drive.

The meeting specifically focused on the environmental impacts of the project and received public comments from the public and commissioners. The meeting was not focused on discussing any approvals or modifications to the project.

The public comment period for the Draft EIR ended on Nov. 1.

The Draft EIR looked at air quality, biological resources (Bats), cultural resources, energy, geology/soils (paleontological), greenhouse gas emissions, land use and planning, noise, transportation, tribal cultural resources, and utilities/service systems (energy).

The project is located within the northern portion of the Beverly Hills Business Triangle near retail and restaurants. North of the Project Site, across South Santa Monica Boulevard, are smaller retail and restaurant storefronts. Further to the north, located on North Santa Monica Boulevard, are city-operated parking structures and Beverly Gardens Park.

The proposed plan allows up to 115 hotel guest rooms. The proposed building is four stories, 51' tall on the North Rodeo Drive frontage, has multiple step-ups in building height towards the east side of the project site, and a maximum height of 9-stories, 115' tall on the Project's North Beverly Drive frontage.

Concerns were raised over an existing alley that currently bisects the project site and provides rear access to commercial properties located on both North Rodeo Drive and North Beverly Drive. The existing alley would be relocated from a north-south configuration to the southern portion of the project site, accessible from North Beverly Drive.

"We are not at the beginning of this process. These plans have been publicly vedited for almost two years and if there are issues respecting the alley and the use of the alley, and so on, you can continue to raise them but to come in here and to talk a mile a minute about things that could have been put in writing a long time ago, I find that very troublesome," said Commissioner Peter Ostroff.

Since this meeting was intended to only focus on the EIR report, this concern will be addressed at a future meeting.

A final EIR report will be presented to the planning commission at a future meet-

Five Year Contract for Blake Withdrawn During Board Meeting

A five year contract for Bond Management Services between the BHUSD and Don Blake's Team Concept Development Services, Inc (TCDS) was withdrawn by Board of Education Member Noah Margo at the Tuesday meeting after he insisted on putting the item back on the agenda for approval. It was first pulled at the Oct. 26 Board meeting by Board member Mary Wells.

Blake is in charge of the ongoing BHU-SD construction projects.

"In the last meeting I made a motion to pull this from the agenda, and so I don't feel it's the time to have this on the agenda again to be approved. There's no urgency for this contract to be approved at this time since we have an existing five year contract that still has nine months on it. Given that this is a contract to be worth an estimated amount of $50 million, I feel this contract deserves and requires more due diligence and thoughtful consideration before entering into this contract," Wells said

Wells recommended that the contract be reviewed by board subcommittees. Margo was the only board member who did not want the contract reviewed by other committees.

"Last meeting we voted on a $6 million ProWest contract in the next phase [and] nobody on this board asked the committees to review that. That's both financial and construction related. I found it hypocritical to say you're going to want certain things reviewed but not everything reviewed," Margo said.

Margo also voiced concerns with delaying the construction program despite Blake previously informing the board there are considerable delays and shortfalls for all projects related to Measure

Wells mentioned concerns with higher rates and that the terms of the contract does not require Blake to have a contractor's license

"I understand that the rates have changed and is a 10% increase and you're comparing it to the other district staffing increases, but I'd rather know what is the industry standard and what those rates are Not necessarily what our staff members are getting in the district, but what is the industry standard for other vendors out there that can provide this service. I would like to know why we are putting language in that specifically states we don't need a contractors license. What prompted that? Does Don [Blake] have a contractor's license?" Wells said.

According to the State Contractor's Licensing Board, Blake's contractors license expired in Nov. of 2000.

Margo withdrew his motion to approve the contract due to lack of support from the other board members.

The contract will be reviewed by the Facilities and Construction Committee on Finance Committee on Dec. 9 before it goes b a c k the to board for approval.

Cultural Heritage Commission Discusses Potential Landmark

At their Oct. 4 meeting the Cultural Heritage Commission discussed whether to nominate the property located at 1010 Hillcrest Road as a potential landmark for inclusion onto the Beverly Hills Register of Historic Properties.

On July 14 the commission voted to initiate landmark proceedings on the property as a possible historic resource designed by a master architect. Following the initiation, the Director of Community Development completed a preliminary evaluation which stated that based on limited information available at the time, the property appeared potentially eligible, but that further research and a site visit would be needed to support a conclusion.

At their Aug. 24 special meeting, the commission conducted a hearing to consider the preliminary evaluation and found that sufficient evidence existed to merit furtherance of landmark proceedings.

The residence was originally built for Paul and Jean Trousdale, who lived in the house for over 30 years. Paul Trousdale was a prominent real estate developer known for building Trousdale Estates in Beverly Hills.

The Trousdale residence is a 5,500

1010 Hillcrest Road

square foot single family home and was designed by John Elgin Woolf in 1959. The property combines elements of English Regency and French architecture.

The house was originally designed with one master bedroom with a complementary bathroom, a servant's room with bathroom, a kitchen with a separate pantry, a dining room, a study, and a living room.

A detached garage, landscaping with reflecting pools, and a swimming pool, along with garden walls were also added to the site as part of the overall design in the same era.

The dwelling, garage and site have been modified to accommodate the needs of the various property owners over the years.

The most significant alteration made to the property was a second story added to the structure in the 1970s.

The property was made available for a site visit on Oct. 17 for commissioners, city staff, and historic consultants. The historic consultant completed a landmark assessment and evaluation report on the subject property which concludes that the property does not appear to qualify for local listing.

The commission was in consensus that the property did not meet the requirements to nominate the property as a potential landmark for inclusion onto the Beverly Hills Register of Historic Properties. The commission will vote on the resolution at a future meeting.

Public Works Commission Approve Organic Waste Ordinance

At their Wednesday meeting the Public Works Commission approved a Mandatory Organic Waste Disposal Reduction Ordinance draft that will be presented to the City Council for adoption.

Senate Bill 1383 (SB 1383), authored by then-state Senator Ricardo Lara (D - Bell Gardens), requires the city to adopt an ordinance by Jan. 1 to enforce that all residents, and business/property owners in the city comply with SB 1383 by subscribing to the organic waste collection services.

SB 1383 was signed into law on Sept. 19, 2016, and is intended to reduce organic waste disposal by 75% and increase edible food recovery by 20% by 2025. This requires all businesses, residents, multi-family apartments, and condominiums to have access to recycling programs that capture food scraps, food-soiled paper, and landscaping waste, among other organic waste materials.

The California Department of Resources Recycling and Recovery (CalRecycle) developed regulations to achieve the organic waste disposal goals by 2025. Over the last four years, CalRecycle conducted informal hearings with local governments and stakeholders to develop regulations to achieve the waste reduction mandates and in Nov. 2020, CalRecycle released the final regulations for SB 1383.

On May 13 city staff presented an overview of SB 1383 requirements to the commission and an action item from that meeting was to return to the commission with the draft ordinance for review before presenting the draft ordinance to the City Council for adoption.

The city is required to provide organic material collection to all residents and businesses; inspect commercial and residential containers, and enforce compliance with SB1383 by adopting an enforcement ordinance before Jan. 1; establish a food recovery program to recover edible food from the landfill; conduct outreach and education to all affected parties; procurement requirements for direct service providers and vendors; and maintain records of SB 1383 compliance for annual reporting requirements.

These regulations also give CalRecycle the ability to engage in enforcement actions of its own against any jurisdiction if compliance is not met.

These actions may include: more frequent inspections; taking over direct enforcement on non-compliant businesses; establishing a schedule for compliance and a probationary period; requiring a work plan; and seeking administrative penalties against the city of up to $10,000 per day.

In 2009, the city began providing organic waste collection services to large food establishment businesses that generated a large amount of organic waste. There are approximately 134 businesses on this program. This service is primarily for restaurant businesses, but it is available to all businesses that generate a large amount of organic waste. Under the new requirements all organic waste generators will be required to recycle their organics. It is anticipated that an additional 370 businesses will subscribe to organic collection services, according to the staff report.

In 2020, the city also expanded the yard waste bin services to include food waste, and residents can now place food waste into their green waste bins.

Frieze Accommodates Request From City Council

At their Nov. 2 Study Session the City Council discussed an update with organizers from the Frieze Art Fair that will take place in Beverly Hills in Feb.

The show is scheduled to run from Thursday through Sunday, Feb. 17 - 20.

Frieze Art Fair is an international contemporary art fair typically held in New York, London, and Los Angeles. This would be the first year the event takes place in Beverly Hill.

On Oct. 26 the City Council discussed the fair with organizers and made recommendations regarding promotional and marketing material such as street pole banners; the 'Frieze Sculpture Beverly Hills' located in Beverly Gardens Park and the medians of Rodeo Drive; capacity, reservations, and access to the Frieze dance performances at the Greystone Mansion and Gardens; priority promotion of Beverly Hills restaurants and hotels; and a dedicated city guide map online at www.Frieze.com.

To promote the event the city has proposed to hang street pole banners. Frieze will cover the estimated cost of banners, which is about $235 each for fabrication, installation, maintenance, and removal.

Frieze organizers met with city staff to discuss options for incorporating Beverly Hills' name and shield into marketing, branding, and promotion of Frieze Week, based on recommendations from the City Council at their Oct. 26 meeting.

The council did not like how the banners were originally planned to say 'Los Angeles' when the event will take place in Beverly Hills. The street banners will now say "FRIEZE WEEK in BEVERLY HILLS" and include the city shield.

There will be a sculpture in Beverly Gardens park known as 'Frieze sculpture Beverly Hills' which will launch in Feb. and be free and open to the public during Frieze week and remain open for three months.

The Frieze Sculpture Beverly Hills will also be the first public sculpture display by Frieze on the west coast.

There will be two dance performances at the Greystone Beverly Hills and organizers will work with the city to optimize capacity at the venue and will extend early and complimentary access to ticketing for Beverly Hills residents, as requested by the council. The capacity of the event was increased from 100 to 200, giving 400 people the opportunity to experience the performance. For each performance 50% of the audience would be invited by Frieze and 50% of tickets would be available to the community, both residents of Beverly Hills and the general public. Priority booking will be given to Beverly Hills residents.

"This is absolutely the type of event that we want to have in Beverly Hills and I thank the people from Frieze for listening to us and rebranding it so that it is a Beverly Hills event," Councilmember Lester Friedman said.

The council has approved the requested waive fees that total $73,336 as a result of meeting the accommodations requested by the council.

Arts and Culture Commission Provide Update on Holiday Programming

At their Nov. 9 meeting the Arts and Culture Commission provided an update on upcoming holiday programming to be held at Greystone Mansion and Gardens on Dec. 11.

The city plans to transform the former pool area of Greystone Mansion and Gardens into the "Greystone Holiday Garden", which is intended to be an intimate family-friendly space for all to celebrate the holiday season.

The "Greystone Holiday Garden" will consist of various winter-themed and holiday decorations, arts and crafts, photo opportunities, games, and more for families and children.

This event will be free of charge; however reservations will be required for one of the scheduled time slots. This reservation will give people the opportunity to partake in all of the on-site activities as well as visit the exterior grounds of the park.

HALIMI APPOINTED AS NEW BOARD OF EDUCATION MEMBER

By Danielle Berjikian

At the Tuesday Special Board of Education meeting the Board appointed Gabriel Halimi to fill the vacant seat.

The board did three rounds of voting. In the first round of voting each board member voted for up to three applicants. Board member Mandy Stern voted for Judy Friedman, Brigitte Lifson, and Halimi. Board member Noah Margo voted for Lifson and Friedman.

Board member Mary Wells voted for Judy Kermani Manouchehri, Halimi, and Robert Myers.

Board President Rachelle Marcus voted for Manouchehri, Myers, and Halimi.

Student Board member Eli Ramer cast an advisory vote for Aaron Reitman and Manouchehri.

The board then cast a second round of votes with each board member voting for up to two applicants.

Stern voted for Friedman and Halimi. Margo voted for Friedman and Lifson.

Gabriel Halimi

Wells voted for Halimi and Manouchehri.

Marcus voted for Halimi and Manouchehri. Ramer cast an advisory vote for Halimi and Manouchehri. Margo was not in favor of appointing Halimi.

"I don't think he was any of our first choice, but he might be our compromise. That being the case, I will support Mr. Halimi to try and get some harmony and stability on the board but hopefully he [Halimi] knows that this grisley old man here [Margo] has his eye out. I have one eye open," Margo said.

The board unanimously approved the provisional appointment of Halimi.

Halimi is an entrepreneur, attorney, and businessman. He is currently employed as the CEO of Flo Technologies, Inc., which was acquired by Fortune Brands Home and Security (NYSE: FBHS). He founded Flo Technologies with his father in 2015 and signed a merger agreement with FBHS in 2020.

He also co-founded Or Shemesh preschool and summer camp in 2020 during the school shutdowns. (See cover story

Board of Education from 1999-2000 as the student board member, and graduated from Beverly High in 2000. He is also a graduate of Hawthorne School, UC Santa Barbara, and Loyola Law School.

On Nov. 2 the board held a special meeting and interviewed the seven applicants to make their decision. The applicants interviewed were Friedman, Halimi, Lifson, Manouchehri, Myers, Reitman, and Michal Amir-Salkin.

Applicants were interviewed for approximately 30 minutes and asked the same list of questions.

During the interview, applicants were asked what they thought the district has done well, what the district has done poorly, and what they would do to address it.

Halimi said that creating Beverly Vista as a middle school has been one of the best decisions the board has made over the past few years. He also said one of the challenges that he has seen is that the board needs to work together more as a "One of the things this board needs to do differently is it needs to operate with excellence and I feel like that's something I can really help with," Halimi said.

In a separate response Halimi said that the district could benefit from having more subcommittees.

"I'm a big believer that there should be even more subcommittees. Any way that we can engage the community and bring them into the processes we have should be very much welcomed. We should be pulling the best and brightest of our community for some of the decisions that we make here. I feel it's really important to hold a mirror up," Halimi said.

Margo also mentioned that he did not like how Halimi wanted to utilize more subcommittees.

"Some of his feelings about sending everything back to committees, sending all the board approvals back to committees, that's not the job of the committees. Committees are not tasked to do our job. We're tasked to do our job, we're elected to do our job. So, it worries me that we're going to put forward somebody that doesn't really know what their responsibility is," Margo said.

Myers said he thinks the district has done well with the pandemic and that the district has done poorly with making people feel like their voices have been heard.

"If I was appointed to the board that Halimi spent a year on the BHUSD would be the issue I would try and ad-hensive at first but when I thought about it, I talked to people, they explained to me this is only for the good, and I agree with them now," Reitman said.

Manouchehri said that the district is doing a really good job at communication but that the district needs to work on unity.

"I do speak with a lot of parents who feel that one group is valued over another or their experience is something that can be understood by people who are not exactly living or having lived the last couple years that we all have as parents," Manouchehri said.

Lifson said the board has handled the pandemic and regulations well and that they provided the schools and teachers with what they needed under the circumstances. She did not address a weakness but said one of her concerns would be to continue focusing on the regulations the board is going to have to deal with.

"My kids have done well, for the most part. As a family, I don't feel like we've had too many problems with the schools. That to me is a sign of a system that's working pretty well," Lifson said.

Friedman thinks the district did a good job with the pandemic but that the district has shifted their focus away from the students.

"I think we've given way too much voice and way too much power to people who are not putting student interest first," Friedman said.

Applicants were also asked how they would address the challenges regarding the implementation of vaccine mandates.

Halimi said that if the state requires vaccinations for students there would not be much the board could do.

"The best we could do is engage the community [and] make sure they understand that. If they are upset they have to take that beef up with the right folks and those folks may be up at the state and not at the school district level," Halimi said.

Myers said he understands there are very strong opinions regarding mandates but that we need to put our trust in science and he would try and work with the community to reach a resolution.

"I think with this we need to look to science. Obviously, we have certain things we may have to do but at the end of the day, the kids' health is the most important thing. We need to figure out in the least politically motivated fashion, what is the right thing to do with these kids. We need to communicate with the community in any way that we possibly can," Myers said.

Reitman said there are things that will be mandated by the state and decisions regarding vaccine mandates have either already been made or will most likely be made by the state.

"The EUA [emergency use authorization] is out there. Governor Newson has already said that once it is approved for the age, the following semester it is going to be mandatory. And it's not just COVID. The governors in California have done this before with Measles, Mumps, Rubella, tetanus, so they've done it before. It's also having the discussion with the parents and talking to them [about] why it's going to be beneficial. There are very strong opinions about this. [In] every single board meeting that I've watched the majority of them are talking about COVID and the public opinions," Reitman said.

Amir-Salkin said she believes that it is important for each family to make their own decisions regarding vaccines and that the school district will need to deal with the medicine aspect versus the legality of things.

"At this point, we really do not yet know what is the right thing [to do]," Amir-Salkin said.

Manouchehri said she would not mandate vaccinations in advance of the law.

"I think it's too much of a hot topic and I think that it's very divisive. I think that most families are actually going to get it but they might need a little bit of time. Let's give them that, let them have the benefit of time and the studies coming out longer," Manouchehri said.

Lifson said she would respect and support any laws or mandates.

"I have a healthy respect for the law," Lifson said.

Friedman said the board needs to follow the law.

"I think that people need to be heard, they need to feel heard, and I think that they're going to be conversations that we are going to have [that need to be] done in a respectful [and] thoughtful way where people feel that they've been heard. We're doing everything we can but at the end of the day we are going to follow the law," Friedman said.

Halimi will be sworn in at a future meeting. He will serve on the Board until Nov. 2022 and said he will not consider a candidacy in the next term.

Should any residents choose to cancel the provisional appointment they have 30 days to circulate a petition (see example on page 6) which needs approximately 330 valid signatures and is delivered to LACOE.

Freshman Throws Two Touchdown Passes in BHHS Football Team's 2021 Season Finale

By Steven Herbert

Freshman Matthew Recupero threw two short touchdown passes to Connor Saul in the second half as the Beverly High football team concluded its 2021 season with a 48-14 loss to Centennial in an Ocean League game at Centennial High Oct. 29.

Connor McGee ran for a 2-point conversion in the third quarter for the Normans (1-9, 0-5 in league play).

Beverly Hills trailed 20-0 at the end of the first quarter, 28-0 at halftime and 42-8 entering the fourth quarter.

The Normans had several starters sidelined, including senior quarterback Will Harris, who suffered a mild concussion at the beginning of the fourth quarter in the 43-8 loss to Hawthorne Oct. 22.

Recupero completed eight of 24 passes for 35 yards and two touchdowns with four interceptions in place of Harris.

"Recupero did a good job," Beverly Hills coach Marquis Bowling said. "He showed some promise."

Bowling said he called more passing plays than in other games because "our protection allowed us to get into the passing game a little more."

Bowling cited Recupero's inexperience as a reason for the interceptions.

"He hasn't had a lot of opportunity to read coverages," Bowling said.

Bowling also praised the play of defensive end Gabe Cohn and defensive tackle Nathaniel Werner, both freshmen, and sophomore defensive end Malachi Daubon and Jackson Tonley for "booming a couple" of kickoffs in his debut.

Treyvon Taylor, a 6-foot, 3-inch senior, caught two touchdown passes from Kamatre Williams for Centennial "with guys hanging on him," Bowling said.

"Our guys were in position, they were just too small," Bowling said. "He was just that much more physically dominant than our guys."

Williams also ran for a touchdown while Joshua Sheffield ran for 167 yards and two touchdowns on 13 carries for the Apaches (3-7, 2-3).

"Our tackling was an issue," Bowling said. "They made runs. We had people in position and we didn't make tackles.'

One of Bowling's goals for the game was to have senior kicker Mimi Kessler score a touchdown. Kessler caught a pass at Centennial's 2-yard line, but the play was blown dead before she could reach the goal line

"I really, really wanted to get her into the end zone," Bowling said. "She has been a great team leader. She has executed her onside kicks almost flawlessly. I want to give her all props and kudos for a wonderful year."

Horse Racing

Aloha West, owned by a partnership founded by 1995 Beverly Hills High School graduate Aron Wellman, won the $2 million Breeders' Cup Sprint Saturday at Del Mar

Aloha West was eighth in the field of nine at the start of the six-furlong race, moved to seventh after two furlongs, was sixth with a half-mile to go and at the head of the stretch, then rallied on the far outside to finish a nose ahead of Dr. Schivel.

Aloha West was the fourth choice at 11-1 and paid $24.60 to win, $8.20 to place and $6.00 to show.

Wellman, the president of Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, said he intends to run Aloha West as a 5-year-old in 2022 "with the ultimate goal being a defense of his Breeders' Cup championship at Keeneland next year.'

Wellman was joined in the winner's circle by his father Michael, a 1968 Beverly High graduate and thoroughbred breeder, and his brother Kyle, a 1999 Beverly High graduate.

In his post-race comments to NBC Sports Network, Wellman expressed his wish that his mother Cory, a 1967 Beverly High graduate and breeder in partnership with her husband, could have attended the race. She was unable to attend because she has been diagnosed with advanced Alzheimer's disease, Wellman told Beverly Hills Weekly.

The victory was the second in the Breeders' Cup for Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, joining Sharing, the 2019 Juvenile Fillies Turf winner. Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners, has entered 21 horses in the Breeders' Cup, running at least one horse in all 11 years of its existence.

The Eclipse Thoroughbred Partners' owned Tapwrit won the 2017 Belmont Stakes, among their 17 Grade 1 stakes victories, which also include the Queen Mary at Royal Ascot in England and the Australian Classic, the Australian Oaks.

Selling your home doesn't have to be scary

If you're thinking of selling your home in the near future, don't be intimidated by the process. Here are some reasons why you should:

Your home will likely sell quickly.

According to NAR's Realtors Confidence Index, homes are selling in just 17 days on average. This indicates strong demand, which is great news for sellers.

Buyers will be competing for your home.

The same NAR survey shows sellers receiving more than 4 offers on average. In certain markets, this number can average even higher. Multiple offers allow sellers to accept the best scenario for their financial well-being.

Buyers are qualified and move fast.

Historically low interest rates brought buyers into the market, allowing many to qualify for higher-priced homes. Due to plenty of qualified buyers with cash and pre-approval, the average days on market for new listings remains low. (Compass California Q2 Market Report)

Inventory is low, shining the spotlight on your home.

Inventory constraints continue to result in multiple offers and bidding wars as standard operating procedure. Sellers of remodeled and updated homes in desirable locations were inundated with multiple offers often far above asking prices, according to Compass California's Q2 Market Report.

Gone are the days of waiting weeks or months for an acceptable offer. Today's buyers are motivated, empowered by low interest rates, and driven to act fast by constricted inventory.

IF YOU'RE READY TO MAKE A MOVE, THERE ISN'T A BETTER TIME TO LIST YOUR HOME. IF MY SERVICES CAN OFFER PEACE OF MIND, PLEASE DON'T BE AFRAID TO REACH OUT!
