West Hollywood/Beverly Hills Democratic Club Endorses Candidates

The West Hollywood/Beverly Hills Democratic Club has announced its endorsements for Beverly Hills City Council. City Councilmembers Les Friedman and Bob Wunderlich, and Planning Commission Chair Andy Licht were endorsed by the club.

Jake Manaster was endorsed for City Treasurer and a yes on Measure TL (the term limit initiative).

"The candidates were interviewed by an endorsement committee and recommended to the entire Club membership. All the candidates were impressive. But because of their long held Democratic values and years of activism, plus a wide breathe and depth of City experience and knowledge these candidates were selected," Democratic Club President Lillian Raffel said.

JusticeLA Holds Candidate Forum for Board of Supervisors Race

The JusticeLA coalition (JLA) held a candidate forum for the Board of Supervisors District 3 race on April 20. JLA hopes to "reduce the footprint of incarceration in Los Angeles County and reinvest county dollars into alternatives to incarceration," according to their website.

District 3 includes Beverly Hills and a large portion of the San Fernando Valley.

The forum focused on equity, racial justice, affordable housing, criminal justice reform, economic justice, and health and human services.

Candidates in attendance included Lindsay Horvath, Bob Hertzberg, Henry Stern, Craig Brill, and Roxanne Hoge, and was moderated by Carter Moon.

One question that was asked of the candidates was if they would commit to closing Men's Central Jail by March 2023,

When asked if they support universal basic income Stern and Horvath said they do and Hertzberg said he supports giving people capital so they can grow rather than supporting income.

The candidates were also given a minute at the end of the forum to speak.

"I am running because I am very committed to making sure that the vision that has been clearly created by community-based organizations that have been invested in the creation of Measure J, Measure R, and the goals outlined in the ATI [alternative to incarceration] plan are fully realized and that we transform LA County not just for the benefit of residents and community members of LA County but as an example for the rest of the county on how we lead with a care first model," Horvath said

Measure J dedicates at least 10% of the locally generated unrestricted funding to address the disproportionate impact of "racial injustice" through community investments such as youth development, job training, small business development, supportive housing services, and alternatives to incarceration

Measure R is a sales tax intended to finance new transportation projects and programs and accelerate those already in the pipeline.

"I came back for two principal reasons. One, because I was deeply concerned about environmental issues, which I have been working on, and secondly, on this whole issue of justice. I've done a series of bills, whether it was bail, working on the Humprey's case, which we worked on with these guys. Whether it was issues of all these kinds of issues on justice and impacts on people. I created the crime lab. We got a candidate here who claims he got rid of rape kits. Are you kidding me?" Hertzberg said.

The California Supreme Court held that detention based solely because of the inability to pay bail is unconstitutional.

"I am up here in Sacramento. I want to be home with you. It's not just because that's where my roots are and the people I've been trying to serve are, but that's where we have to micromanage this system to some extent on a daily basis, person by person, life by life. And restore some kind of justice in this County," Stern said.

Planning Commission to Discuss Hillel Expansion

The Planning Commission is expected to discuss a proposed project involving the renovation and expansion of Harkham Hillel Hebrew Academy, located at 9120 Olympic Boulevard.

The proposed project was initially considered by the Planning Commission at their meeting on Feb. 24.

Harkham Hillel Hebrew Academy is a private school for early childhood through eighth grade, with enrollment that ranges from 516 to 721 students.

The project site is located in both the C-3T-2 Commercial Zone and R-4 Multiple-Family Residential Zone. The campus is currently composed of two buildings, generally identified as the Oakhurst building and the Doheny building on the northern portion of the project site along Olympic Boulevard with a partially subterranean parking structure located on the southern portion of the project site and accessed through South Doheny Drive.

An existing outdoor area with a playground and game courts is located on top of the parking structure. The project is primarily focused in the southern portion of the project site where a new gym and classroom building is proposed adjacent to South Oakhurst Drive and an addition to the existing Doheny building is proposed along South Doheny Drive.

The overall project would include 44 total classrooms and would provide 45 parking spaces within the existing parking area. According to the applicant, the intent of the overall project is to modernize the facilities and to enhance the learning environment. The applicant has stated that the existing buildings are "undersized, irregularly shaped, and lack amenities and features required to best serve current and future students."

At the Feb. Planning Commission meeting, the commissioners expressed concern regarding several aspects of the project including existing and potential traffic impacts; the proposed outdoor game court on the roof of the proposed gym, and whether such feature was appropriate in a residential area; and the accommodation of on-site parking for staff and faculty, and alternative measures to reduce parking demand.

Additionally, the Commission expressed concerns regarding the existing vehicle queueing currently experienced on Olympic Boulevard, a portion of which may be attributable to the existing pickup and drop-off configuration in front of the school on South Doheny Drive, which can only accommodate three vehicles at a time

The Planning Commission offered the applicant the opportunity to work further on resolving the issues raised during the

The applicant has reconsidered the pick-up and drop-off configuration in order to alleviate, as much as possible, the existing queueing on Olympic Boulevard.

"The other components of the project, such as the overall building configuration, > staff/faculty parking, and outdoor game court on the roof of the proposed classroom and gym building remain largely as previously proposed with minor modifications necessitated by the proposed changes to the pick-up and dropoff configuration," according to the staff report.

The vehicles would access the new proposed drive aisle by making a right turn into the drive aisle from southbound South Doheny Drive and exit the drive aisle at South Oakhurst Drive. The revised traffic assessment notes three alternatives for vehicles exiting onto South Oakhurst Drive. Alternative one: no Oakhurst Drive turn restrictions Alternative two: to Oakhurst Drive turn restrictions. Alternative three: tight turn only onto Oakhurst Drive.

According to the staff report, each of the three alternatives results in varying levels of impact to South Oakhurst Drive.

The commission is expected to consider whether the proposed drive aisle is an appropriate option for facilitating the pickup and drop-offs and identify which of the three alternatives is preferable.

"The applicant has expressed their preference for Alternative 1 as it would disperse outbound traffic as broadly and quickly as possible and would not cause adverse impacts to the intersection. However, the City's senior transportation engineer suggests Alternative 3 so as to limit, as much as possible, any impacts to that portion of South Oakhurst Drive that is located south of the egress point," according to the staff report.

A letter was previously sent to the Planning Commission on behalf of residents on the 400 block of South Oakhurst Drive.

"The proposed project will exacerbate all of the problems we have experienced with traffic, noise, and access. We are already beyond capacity on South Oakhurst, with limited parking and bottleneck traffic at pick-up and drop-off times. For those of us working on zoom, the noise levels throughout the day and, especially, during holidays and school celebrations, is untenable, and exceeds acceptable levels of noise on residential streets. The proposed expansion will mean more traffic and more noise as the size of the building expands and enrollment increases," the letter said.

The commission is expected to provide feedback and provide direction to staff to prepare a resolution memorializing the commission's findings.

Public Works Commission Discusses Cabrillo Reservoir Project

The Public Works Commission discussed alternatives and provided input for the Cabrillo Reservoir project, at their April 14 meeting.

On Dec. 9 City staff and Kennedy/Jenks Consultants, Inc. (KJ) provided two design alternatives, analysis, and probable cost for the Cabrillo reservoir. The first alternative consisted of two 2.15 million gallon circular prestressed concrete reservoir chambers providing a total combined capacity of 4.3 million gallons with a probable cost of approximately $32.4 million. The second alternative consisted of one rectangular and one trapezoidal concrete reservoir with a total combined capacity of 4.3 million gallons with a probable cost of approximately $29.7 million.

The cost for both alternatives was significantly higher than the cost identified in the Integrated Water Resources Master Plan (IWRMP) of approximately $14 million, which includes $2 million for the design and $12 million for construction.

It was requested at a previous meeting that the Commission provide input on whether to continue design and construction as planned, continue the design and defer construction, or defer design and construction. The Commission ultimately directed staff to return at a future meeting and present different options and alternatives that maximize water storage and increase turn at a future meeting and provide more details and cost analyses on those options.

The latest option includes the installation of a pump station forebay at the Cabrillo reservoir. This pumping forebay is intended to provide enhanced redundant fire flow capabilities for the upper-pressure zones of the water system.

It was recommended by staff to go with the pump station forebay option installation along with three Reservoir Management Systems (RMS's) at Coldwater Canyon, Greystone, and Sunset Reservoirs.

The total cost including the design and construction of the pump station forebay and three RMS's is estimated at $14.2 million.

The City Council will provide further direction regarding the best way to move forward with the Cabrillo Reservoir, at a future meeting.

The Human Relations Commission's Ad Hoc has been working in conjunction with the Charitable Solicitations Commission's Ad Hoc to review all applications and virtual interviews have begun with new agencies who submitted complete applications. Funding supports services that the City offers to vulnerable community members including, but not limited to: seniors, homeless people, food-insecure households, low-income residents, and those with disabilities. Sharp also discussed Autism Awareness Month.

Health and Safety Commission Honors Susan Mendlowitz-Belgrade

For April, Health and Safety Commissioner Erica Felsenthal selected Susan Mendlowitz-Belgrade for the Health and Safety Recognition Program.

As part of the Health and Safety Recognition Program, every other month, a Commissioner will honor an individual, business, or group who has demonstrated leadership in the field of health and safety issues or made a contribution to the mission of the Health and Safety Commission.

Susan has worked for Jewish Family Service LA for the past 22 years. During the pandemic, Susan took on a leadership role as Senior Director of Senior and Multipurpose Centers of JFS. She is the former Director of the Freda Mohr Multipurpose Center. Her previous experience with JFS includes managing the Adult Day Health Cares and Social Day Care Centers, oversight of the Private Care Fee for Service Concierge Program, Registry for Home Care Providers, Conservatorship program as well as the Jewish Free Burial Program.

Currently, Susan provides oversight of four Senior Centers as well as the Life Office Activities Program at Park La Brea and the Bar Center at the Beach. She works closely with the Beverly Hills Human Services Community Services Department and worked with Beverly Hills Rent Stabilization Department to help qualified Beverly Hills residents receive rental assistance during the pandemic. She also facilitates the Café Europa Socialization program for Holocaust survivors.

"Ms. Belgrade received the Dora and Charles Mesnick Award for Excellence in Senior Programming, served as a board member of the Mid-City West Community Council, Menorah Housing and the Mid-City Homeless Coalition. Susan has a strong sense of community and vision in helping the older disenfranchised population," according to the staff report.

Health and Safety Commission Discusses Fire Department Peer Support Program

The Health and Safety Commission discussed an informational update on the Beverly Hills Fire Department's Peer Support Program (PSP) at their Monday meeting.

According to the staff report, research has shown Firefighters and other First Responders are at an increased risk for mental health issues such as anxiety, depression, PTSD, and suicidal thoughts. The Fire Department has developed a Peer Support Program to assist the membership and their families from the stresses that are associated with the job.

The Fire Department currently has about 11 members ranging from Firefighter to Captain, trained and available all hours of the day for the membership.

The initial training to become a Peer Support Member involves a 32 hour accredited class.

Along with the Peer Support Members, the program is overseen by a Mental Health Provider who acts as the Department's Clinical Director. The Clinical Director provides continuing education to the team, fields calls from members wishing to have further evaluation, and refers membership to in person mental health providers if needed. The Clinical Director also has access to a Crisis Response Team that can be activated if the Department encounters an incident such as serious injury or line of duty death.

"The BHFD Peer Support Team is committed to providing sincere. confidential help to any member of the Department that may need assistance. The goal of our program is to be proactive in our approach so that we can prevent the detriments of stress affecting the lives and well-being of our membership. Using this model, we continually strive to better our program through training, new research, and additional resources that may benefit our membership and their families," according to the staff report.

Human Relations Commission Discusses Engagement Project

At their April 21 meeting the Human Relations Commission discussed the preliminary concept of the Beverly Hills Unified School District (BHUSD) Engagement Project.

Chair Rhoda Sharp presented on the Project during the Jan. Commission meeting. The goal of this project is to create a public service announcement that emphasizes an anti-hate message to school-age children. The public service announcement will then be used as an educational resource in the Beverly Hills Unified School District curriculum and could potentially be shared with other school districts across the state and nation.

The Commission voted to explore the concept further to identify a way to best execute this project.

At the Feb. 17 meeting Sharp invited director George Nicholas to present his proposal for the project, which included an animated short film. Nicholas proposed that the project would utilize a professional animator, and voice actors, and estimated the project to cost a minimum of $100,000.

Some concerns regarding the budget and lack of student engagement were raised

Next BH Discusses Voter Initiative, Finalizes Time Capsule

The Next BH Committee discussed a voter initiative that they intend to pursue called "You Decide What's Next", at their April 21 meeting.

The Committee is launching a social media campaign this week to encourage people to get registered, educate themselves, and vote. The Committee will also be pushing the message to register and vote at places like the farmers' market and will most likely do something in conjunction with Beverly High.

"It's very important that the younger generation register and vote, and educate themselves," Chair Tiffany Davis said.

The Committee also finalized the time capsule project that they have been working on for several months.

The Time Capsule was an idea that started with the Committee because they thought that 2020 and 2021 were very historic years and they wanted to put something together to leave for the next generation.

The Committee collected memorabilia and put together a scrapbook to leave inside the time capsule. It was officially dedicated to live at City Hall for the next 15 years. They also made some predictions about what will happen in the next 15 years and where everyone will be.

"Hopefully there is a Next Beverly Hills Committee in 15 years that's going strong, and they will open it and reflect back on this time," Davis said.

EIGHT QUESTIONS WITH THE CITY COUNCIL CANDIDATES - PART II

By Danielle Berjikian

Beverly Hills Weekly received these answers after its deadline. For the other candidates, see issue #1177.

Why are you running for City Council?

Shiva Bagheri: I have many different reasons running for Coun-City One of cil. the reasons is I believe ALL of the City Councilmen have broken their constitutional oath of office. believe they abused their power by attacking my freedom rally with their draconian ordinances to crush it. They had the former chief of police try to coerce, shame, and intimidate me from having them along with calling my landlord to try to get me evicted from my apartment. If they can do this to me, they can do this to ANY-ONE! I want to protect the people here from this ever happening again! I'm sick of the lies and believe the public has a right to know the truth. No one will be able to buy me off because I only serve God.

Vera Markowitz: In wake of the many scandals that have plagued the Beverly Hills City Council, I am running with the goal of restoring the integrity of the council and rebuilding public trust. If elected, I pledge to enact sweeping reforms to ensure that the Beverly Hills City Council meet the highest standards for ethics, fairness, and accuracy. I will work to ensure a more transparent, accessible and efficient city government. We must return Beverly Hills to a great place to live, work and raise a family.

Sharona Nazarian: I am running for Beverly Hills City Council to bring a much needed fresh perspective to resolve issues because I am a problem solver who gets things done! I am accessible, creative, and innovative. I will govern with the highest level of ethics and do what is right. I want to unify our community through a residents first approach. I am experienced, have energy and will work hard to be an advocate for our residents, small businesses and community.

How would you evaluate the job the current City Council is doing?

Bagheri: [Mayor Lili] Bosse has admitted to me that every one of them are Democrats. They voted for the horrible things that are happening in California. How can I trust them to fix things? We need to fix core issues and not just the symptoms. The core issues are the bad policies like prop 47 and no bail for criminals. I'm a victim of violent crime and the police officers told me that if I press charges that the person that assaulted me and took my phone will be let out of iail and know where I live. That doesn't protect victims. That only protects criminals. They voted against the no confidence of George Gascon but what does that mean? If there are no actions taken it's just lip service. This guy should be sued for aiding and abetting criminals!

Markowitz: The City Council has failed us. The council has been derelict in their duties and cost taxpayers over $15 million dollars to settle lawsuits against the city for discrimination and seen a mass exodus of over 50 rank and file police officers and support staff. The effects of which are being felt on our community as reflected in the rise of crime and the reduction of tax revenues.

Nazarian: The current City Council needs to be more proactive instead of reactive. Plans and policies need to be implemented instead of only being discussed or voted upon. We need more oversight and need to see more results.

Had you been on the Council, would you have voted to support the One Beverly Hills Project (or for the incumbent candidates, why did you vote the way you voted)?

Bagheri: Being a public servant is supposed to serve what the public wants. Has there been any polls or surveys done to see what the residents feel about this project?

Markowitz: I support the One Beverly Hills Project.

Nazarian: It is already approved and voted on. My job on the council will be to work on building the project as safely as possible so it will have the least impact on the school, surrounding neighborhoods, and businesses. I want to be as helpful to ensure the project is built without delay but in the safest manner possible.

Will you vote to approve the Cheval Blanc project as proposed?

Bagheri: My answer is the same as #3. Markowitz: The current proposal is under review and being amended. The current proposal has been modified and not yet open for public review. Given this, I cannot comment on a project that is not available for public consideration.

Nazarian: This project, as well as all projects, must go through their due process. I need to do my due diligence and ensure I hear all viewpoints and have sufficient information prior to making any decision. I always say that knowledge is the key, and the current City Council needs to better inform the community about the process and provide updates regarding the specifics of the projects being proposed. The public, including myself, does not have enough information.

A three-term term limit initiative is on the ballot, do you support it? Why or why not?

Bagheri: I think the public has a right to vote for whomever they want. My answer is no.

Markowitz: I support term limits. The idea of citizen legislators is at the very foundation of our constitution. As we see with the current council and governments across our country, in recent years professional politicians have come under fire and been marred in corruption scandal after ethical scandal. Incumbents become indebted to special interest groups and developers. Term limits would help to end the influence of special interest and developer money in our local government.

Nazarian: I support it wholeheartedly. Two terms are long enough for City Council Members in a small town like Beverly Hills. A residents' first approach can be lost when serving longer than two terms. We need fresh and new ideas. When one serves for too long, there is a chance that they lose touch as well as their connection with the community at a local city council level. That's an important part of why I am running. I am not a career politician. I will bring fresh and new ideas. I believe that the residents of Beverly Hills are extremely intelligent and will vote for the candidate that they believe will do the best job.

How would you evaluate the job City Manager George Chavez is doing?

Bagheri: I really don't have an opinion about this because I don't have enough information at this time.

Markowitz: With all due respect to Mr. Chavez and I appreciate his years of public service, I think it is in the best interest of the taxpayers of Beverly Hills to seek new leadership for the position of City Manager. Mr. Chavez has become complacent in the performance of his responsibilities. From his failure to properly vet the previous and current police chiefs to his lack of execution of modernizing Beverly Hills' fiber optics which resulted in wasting tax payer money without completion, the City Manager has been derelict in his duties.

Nazarian: Mr. Chavez is doing a good job under the circumstances he inherited. I respect that he has institutional knowledge that is important in understanding the past. That knowledge will be important when preparing for the future. He is someone I look forward to partnering with to support improvements in Beverly Hills.

What would you say is the single biggest issue facing the City at this time?

Bagheri: The biggest issue is high crime. First we had massive EDD fraud and the stores were just taking the illegal money. Now it's the smash and grabs. We need to make the politicians that are putting our lives in danger accountable! If the city can use ordinance to crush my first amendment rights they can certainly use them to block these horrible policies!

Markowitz: The City is facing a multitude of problems. To single out any one issue as greater than any other would only serve to divide us. The root of the problems we face in Beverly Hills however can all be traced back to the failed leadership of our current City Council. Their lack of ethics, fairness and accountability have created not only a toxic environment in city hall but created uncertainty amongst tax payers, stakeholders and small business owners. The City Council is responsible for managing not only the budget and city services but promoting business', ensuring the safety of the public and their property, but also the councils other ancillary functions, including transportation, information technology, clerical and administration, human resources and promoting the general well being of the residents of Beverly Hills. The job of a council member requires not only strong political skills to work successfully but also strong people skills to help promote Beverly Hills as one of the finest cities in the world

Nazarian: Public safety and security, especially the smash and grabs, home invasion robberies, and burglaries are the biggest issues facing our community. We are being targeted. We want to walk down the street and not feel like we are going to be the next crime statistic. We need action now! I want to hire more qualified police officers, place more specialized and undercover units to address crime, proactively deter criminal activity by utilizing technology, have dedicated Police substations at the two new Metro stops and push to have our own City Prosecutor so we hold criminals accountable.

What one thing do you want the voters to know about you before they cast their ballot?

Bagheri: I'm a constitutionalist. I'm for less taxes, government overreach, regulation/bureaucracy, and ridiculous permits. The government is supposed to work FOR the people and not AGAINST the people. That's why I started the Beverly Hills Freedom Rally! We need major reform!

Markowitz: I have lived here in Beverly Hills for over 50 years. This city is where I raised my children and the city I

—Leah Yebri

By Danielle Berjikian

Sam Yebri is running for Los Angeles City Council's 5th district, which surrounds Beverly Hills, and includes Westwood, West LA, Century City, and the Beverly Center area. The primary election is June 7. We caught up with him and his wife Leah to hear about life on the campaign trail.

Leah: You have four children and Sam is running for LA City Council, what's that like?

It's been hard of course, but also very beautiful and meaningful to watch because I am watching Sam in front of my eyes living his dream. And that's not something everybody can say or do. Watching him be so passionate and so caring about our City, children [and] future is very empowering. It inspires me to help him [and] it inspires me to put up with all the difficult aspects.

Sam: How did you and Leah meet?

We met through mutual friends more than a decade ago and we shared so much in common that we hit it off immediately.

Leah: On your wedding website, you said it took Sam quite a while to ask vou out for the first time?

I met him in February, and he didn't ask me out until after Passover. It was after April that he asked me out.

Sam: What have you learned about yourself over the course of your city council Campaign?

What I've learned is how much I love this City and how much Leah and I and our families owe to this great City. So being able to try and give back now as a candidate, after having given back as a nonprofit leader over so many years, seems like such a special opportuni> ty. This City has so many diverse communities and we are all struggling in the same way with the issues of crime and homelessness that are exploding throughout Los Angeles.

Leah: Do you think that Sam's passion for city government has influenced you to follow civic affairs more closely?

Definitely, he's inspired me to become more active, to pay attention to detail and I thank him for that.

Sam: How much do your kids ask you about what you're doing?

We sat down our older kids when we first decided to do this and there's now been a fury of questions, including some of their friends from school about what a councilmember can do. And the questions are really profound. 'Why are there people who are sleeping in our parks?' 'Why can't they live in a home like we do?' And we tell them about the powers of a councilmember, including things that they are patient about, like our parks and library. And they are excited to learn more.

Leah: Often candidate's spouse takes attacks more personally than the candidates themselves. Do you find this to be true?

Absolutely. I try to protect Sam with my life. When I hear anything negative, I get very defensive.

Sam: You and Leah have always been involved in a number of pro-Israel causes. Tell us about that.

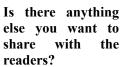

Sam: Our Judaism really informs every aspect of our lives and our values. And that includes our passion for a strong U.S.-Israel relationship. Leah especially has a passion for helping vulnerable people in Israel through different charities like WIZO, which ist Organization, and through a hospital in Israel that we support called Shaare Zedek Medical Center in Jerusalem. And I've been active in activism in _ the political realm.

Leah: We try to be social media warriors too. Well. I do. It's very hard to see negative comments about Israel on social media but there's so much of it out there. I try very hard to defend Israel.

Leah: What's one thing you want people to know about your husband that they may not realize?

I really want people to know that he is very real in everything that he says and does. He's not a wishy-washy fake per> son. What he says, he means. What he says he's going to do, he's actually going to do. He's a fantastic father and husband. Which is also very rare. He manages to do both really well and he also manages to run a perfect campaign in my eyes.

Sam: How import-June 7] is for the City that we all love. We encourage everyone to get informed, get engaged, and go vote because we can actually make a big difference for our kids, for great neighborhoods, and for this great City that we all love.

Leah: I think Sam is actually the only candidate that can make a change.

love. My work with Team Beverly Hills has given me valuable insight into the inner workings of Beverly Hills and the unique challenges our city faces. As the co-founder and director of "Just In Case BH", I have fought to keep our community safe and prepared for any emergency we may face. I have worked tirelessly for three years on behalf of the citizens of Beverly Hills creating a program for emergency preparedness for the entire city that we can rely on and be proud of. Just in Case BH includes having meeting places, communication centers and everything to keep all our residents safe during a large emergency. The police and fire will not be able to get to residence for a number of days because they're dealing in the large emergencies. Our program allows us to protect each other. It includes having a manual that tells you where to go and what to do, including having a real time app and a number of other resources so that every individual will be kept safe in those emergencies.

Nazarian: I have lived in Beverly Hills for over 30 years. I raised my family here. I love this town and will care for it with all my heart and strength because I want to see it as a place where our parents, children and grandchildren can all live and enjoy. I am thoughtful, trusted and a balanced leader with over 20 years of dedicated community and civic experience. I am a clinical psychologist by education so listening to people is at my core. I am also a unique candidate because I have worked in LA County and Beverly Hills as a commissioner. I understand governance at different levels and the issues we are facing today such as homelessness, the mental health and substance abuse crisis, and public safety. I am able to build consensus and unity around issues and policies because I am a proven and effective leader as well as a mental health professional. I listen, I evaluate and I find solutions, working collaboratively with the community whenever possible. I will bring much needed diversity to the City Council in thought, action, and representation. I will have a residents' first approach and will find new ways to help local businesses flourish in this trying environment. But most importantly, public safety and security will always be my number one priority. We must be more proactive in all areas of public safety to continually keep our city safe. I will work closely with our residents to build consensus on behalf of our community. I am thorough, thoughtful, and best of all, I get things done! I'd be honored to have your vote!

Notice To Potential Bidders: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. Notice To Property Owner: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (877) 440-4460 or visit this Internet Web site www.mkconsultantsinc.com, using the file number assigned to this case 220310067. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Notice To Tenant: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil . Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (877) 440-4460, or visit this internet website site www.tlssales.info, using the file number assigned to this case 220310067 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.
