City to Not Enforce Potential County Mask Mandate

A potential new health order by the County that could mandate masking indoors will not be enforced by City staff, the City Council unanimously directed on Monday. The item was brought forward for discussion by Mayor Lili Bosse.

The Los Angeles County Department of Public Health (LACDPH) recently announced that for the second week in a row the number of COVID cases and the number of COVID related hospitalizations have pushed the county into the "high" level and subsequently a new mask order will likely go into effect on Friday, July 29 unless the hospitalization rate decreases by Thursday, July 28.

LACDPH is currently the public health agency for the City. However, city staff is researching the requirements for the City to form its own health department. The City and its businesses are currently subject to the health orders issued by the County at this time.

Although the City would be included in any new health order issued, they may or may not choose to utilize staff resources to enforce it.

The majority of public comments were against enforcement of a mask mandate with many citing the burden it will put on businesses.

"I feel it is our job to lead and I support the power of choice. Our job is to be proactive and public about what we believe. This is a united City Council and community that cares about health. We are not where we were in 2020, and now we need to move forward as a community and be part of the solution," Bosse said.

Planning Commission to Discuss Hedge Heights

At their Thursday meeting the Planning Commission is expected to discuss proposed regulations and changes pertaining to walls, fences, and hedges included in a draft ordinance.

On May 10 the City Council held a study session to discuss the rules governing the maximum height of hedges in residential zones and directed staff to work with the

REMEMBERING RHODA SHARP

Longtime Beverly Hills resident Rhoda Sharp died July 21. The Beverly Hills flag was lowered at half-staff last Thursday in her honor. Rhoda was a resident for over 50 years. She worked at Beverly High for 28 years where she created the Regional Occupation Program. She was an active member of the Rotary Club and Chair of the Human Relations Commission. She was married to her late husband Dr. Jim Sharp for almost 30 years and was the proud mother to sons Roger Hyman and Robert Hyman. Rhoda was recently profiled in issue #1168. Her friends have shared their favorite memories of Rhoda below.

CHARLES BLACK III FORMER ROTARY PRESIDENT

“As everyone knows, ‘Rho’ always said what was on her mind...no matter what the subject was. Prior to the first Rotary meeting during my term as President, she sent me this message: ‘I’m writing today to wish you the VERY BEST tomorrow. You don’t need these wishes because you have all the credentials to make you a fabulous president and a wonderful Rotary year. I’ve been around a long time so I do recognize great when I see it. Please take this as a rise from my seat to applaud you as you approach the microphone.’ Over the past 12 months, she attended our meetings primarily by Zoom. While she was concerned about her own health and safety, she was more concerned about the health and safety of her friends and family; specifically her granddaughter. She called and emailed me many times throughout the year to share what she liked and didn’t like about the meetings...and she ALWAYS shared kind words about me and my efforts.

We spoke shortly after my inaugural meeting that she watched on Zoom and asked me if she could give me some advice (and I knew that coming from her this was not a ‘yes’ or a ‘no’ question). I was completely prepared to receive some tremendous words of wisdom when she said ‘The face. Shave it.’ I could only laugh out loud...and I DID shave it for her before the next meeting. She was truly one of the most unique women I have ever met and I will miss her terribly.”

LILI BOSSE BEVERLY HILLS MAYOR

“Rhoda was a force of nature. Whatever was on her mind at that exact moment, she would share. She would watch our City Council meetings and leave messages as the meeting was happening.. anything from ‘I don’t like that color on you, it washes you out, to her complimenting me as only one’s biggest fan would do. You always knew where you stood with Rhoda. If she loved you, she made you feel like you were the most lovable person on the planet, but if she didn’t like something, you’d know it beyond a shadow of a doubt. We would debate each other as to who loved who more. She had the biggest heart, kindest soul, and was a marshmallow inside. I am forever changed by the bond she and I shared. I know that I will continue to hear her ‘Rhoda-isms’ advice in my head and heart forever.”

JOHN CARROLL MEN’S CLOTHING RETAILER, CARROLL CUSTOM

“Rhoda was a special lady. Not just in my life, but she helped so many thousands of young, impressionable high schoolers entering the most important time in their lives.

Rhoda was my high school counselor. I was lucky enough to have my last name begin with a ‘C’ which slotted me into her domain. She gave invaluable advice along with kindness and a sense of humor which was often lacking with many of my high school teachers.

We connected again later in life as she frequented our family business, Carroll & Company. She always said I was her favorite student. Now, I’m sure she has said this a number of times about a number of students, but she never stopped. She would tell the employees in the store each time she came in. A few customers heard about it. My wife, of course. My kids one day, when she happened to be shopping – oh if you could only grow up to be just like your father. Even my mother got pulled aside one day for a little chat with Rhoda. If I was indeed her favorite, or even one of them, I feel honored. We’ve lost a great ambassador for Beverly Hills. She will be missed and remembered by many.

GEORGE CHAVEZ CITY MANAGER

“I remember fondly after her back surgery how thankful she was that city staff would take time out of their lunch hour and after hours to help her with transportation and grocery shopping. She was so special to so many and will be dearly missed.”

NOELLE FREEMAN HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSION VICE CHAIR

“If you were lucky enough to call Rhoda Sharp a friend, your life was brighter and more meaningful because of it. She captivated the hearts of everyone in her orbit and always knew how to make a new friend.

Her love for people and heart for service is what made Rhoda truly special. As Chair of the Human Relations Commission, Rhoda’s infectious love for Beverly Hills was at the center of everything she did. She was a beacon of community pride and set the example for embracing new people, no matter their walk of life. Her inclusive warmth has made an everlasting impact on our commission, community and city. Rhoda, thank you for teaching me both grit and compassion. Your frank advice, sense of humor, and will to always do what’s right. It will live in me forever and I hope to make you proud.”

KIMBERLY KLAUSNER, M.D ROXBURY PEDIATRICS

“I can’t tell you how much she did for me in high school and what an impact she made. I doubt I would be a doctor if it weren’t for her! May her memory be a blessing.”

SOL LEVINE FMR. BHUSD SUPERINTENDENT

“Rhoda Sharp was a treasured member of the Beverly Hills school staff. Through her efforts, she built bridges to the community that brought a new dimension to the school curriculum for the benefit of our students. Rhoda knew countless people in this city she loved which enabled her to place generations of students into internships and work experiences. This program gave our students the opportunity to explore potential career options. It was a program that touched and shaped their lives. Many students shared with me their gratitude to Rhoda for opening new vistas for them.

Rhoda, in her quiet and unassuming way, recruited many community mentors to become part of this educational effort. After all, it was very difficult to say ‘no’ to Rhoda. The program flourished while guiding students in making decisions on future life challenges. As her Principal and Superintendent of schools, I have no doubt that her success was built on her personal philosophy of life which put simply was ‘kindness and caring’ matter. Dear Rhoda, as personal friends, Marilyn and I will miss you and know that your legacy and good deeds will live on through the achievements and success of your students.”

DAN STEPENOSKY LAS VIRGENES USD SUPERINTENDENT

“Rhoda was the best. You knew she cared about you and loved you because she didn’t hold back. Rhoda provided lots of life and career advice. I met Rhoda in 1995 when I was a first year [science] teacher at Beverly Hills High School. She immediately provided lots of advice on who to date, where to go, how to navigate Beverly Hills High School, how to improve teaching...it was all full of love and caring. She was an integral part of the amazing leadership team of Principal Ben Bushman, Assistant Principal Rick Munitz, Tanis Harris and Chuck Kloes with Head Counselor Vivian Saaitjian-Green. She connected generations of BHHS students, families and staff. She had unparalleled passion and energy. She was a true Norman through and through.”

JENNIFER CHADORCHI YADIDI

“Rhoda Sharp has been a true friend and mentor through the years. Rhoda Sharp cared for her students as a mother, offering guidance and sharing her wisdom to guide her students and give them wings to soar. She was a true advocate for her students, and truly cared for them, and the future of the community. As a Rotarian, she deeply cared for making the world a better place. It is truly the end of an era. I feel so lucky to have called Rhoda my teacher, my mentor, and my true friend.”

Planning Commission to draft an ordinance that would allow taller walls, fences, and hedges in rear yards in residential zones.

The City has recently received an influx of inquiries regarding increasing allowable wall, fence, and hedge heights due to security concerns, particularly along rear alleys.

The Beverly Hills Municipal Code outlines the regulations that govern the height of hedges in the City. The allowable height is dictated by where in the City a property is located.

The maximum height in the City for rear yards is eight feet for most areas except in the hillside area where it is seven feet.

On June 9 the Commission discussed the existing allowable heights of walls, fences, and hedges in four residential zones across the city, and the heights allowed in neighboring jurisdictions. At this meeting, residents from Trousdale expressed a desire to forgo any changes to regulations.

During that meeting, the Commission expressed support for increasing the height of walls and fences in the rear and alley-facing yards of single-family and multi-family residential properties in the Central Area of the city. They also expressed support for increasing the height of hedges in these zones.

Based on the discussion at the study session, the Commission is expected to approve adding an additional two feet of height for walls and fences, and an additional eight feet for hedges to the Municipal Code for single-family and multi-family residential zones in the Central Area of the city.

No regulation changes regarding any walls, fences, or hedges, are proposed for the Trousdale Estates area and the Hillside Area of the city as part of the proposed ordinance.

The BHPD also said that an increase of fence and hedge heights from eight feet to 10 feet does not have an impact on BHPD’s response capabilities and that this may act as a deterrent to opportunist criminals because they generally look for the path of least resistance and potential soft entry points to a property.

If the Commission adopts a resolution recommending approval of the proposed ordinance, it will be recommended to the City Council for final approval.

Real Time Watch Center Catches Suspects

The Real Time Watch Center, which officially launched on June 7, was able to locate suspects wanted for a burglary that occurred in June. Lieutenant Giovanni Trejo gave an update to the Human Relations Commission at last Thursday’s meeting.

The Real Time Watch Center allows for around-the-clock live monitoring of cameras across both residential and business corridors. It is intended to deter criminal activity and improve police ability to respond to public safety needs.

A crime bulletin was issued for suspects and a vehicle from a hotel burglary in June. Automated License Plate Readers (ALPRs) detected the vehicle entering the City 26 days later on Beverly Drive and notified the investigators. Drone and Video Ops monitored the vehicle and occupants and detectives confirmed the occupants were wanted for burglary.

Patrol units made the arrest while nearby security staff controlled traffic. One of the suspects ‘flipped off’ the drone as it hovered nearby, moments before the arrests.

The BHPD was also able to arrest another two individuals who were responsible for seven out of 12 commercial burglaries between March and May.

Eventually, their license plate was entered in the BHPD system which allowed detectives to be alerted when the vehicle entered the City. The vehicle was immediately tracked as it traveled through town. Upon seeing the police units, the suspects fled in their vehicle but were immediately located by police.

“The two cases are perfect examples of how the watch center works to accomplish goals to identify and arrest and aid in the successful prosecution of those responsible for criminal activity,” Trejo said.

BOLD Summer is Back

Presented by the City, in partnership with the Beverly Hills Conference & Visitors Bureau, Rodeo Drive Committee, and Beverly Hills Chamber of Commerce, BOLD Summer features dynamic, Citywide programming, pop-ups, and social media activations alongside the world’s best shopping, dining and hotels.

“We’re ready for another BOLD summer in beautiful and walkable Beverly Hills,” Mayor Lili Bosse said. “I love, love, love to see the energy and excitement that can only happen here. Our outdoor dining terraces are buzzing and there’s a sense of vibrancy and connection as we enjoy the sunshine and beautiful summer nights together.”

Siegman Posthumously Honored with Lifetime Achievement Award

Joe Siegman was posthumously awarded the Lifetime Achievement Award for significant contributions to the State of Israel and society through sports by the International Jewish Sports Hall of Fame. Siegman founded the Jewish Sports Hall of Fame in 1979 with the concept “It’s not about the best Jewish athletes, but the best athletes who were also Jewish.” The theme was: “The Deeds of the Past Shall Inspire the Achievements of the Future.”

Siegman was also active with the Beverly Hills Lawn Bowling Club. He was President of the club from 1982-1983 and 1991-2002.

“I’m grateful to have opportunities to honor my Dad for his accomplishments. My whole life I saw how hard he worked. I think about the time - hours, days, weeks, months, and years my Dad devoted himself to the passions he had. He loved what he did, and he believed in his heart and mind, the deeds of the past inspire the achievements of the future,” Joe’s son Mike Siegman, pictured above, said.

PLANNING FOR THE FUTURE

Myra Demeter on Chairing the Planning Commission

By Danielle Berjikian

What drew you to the Planning Commission?

I had served for seven years on the Health and Safety Commission and during that time very important issues were brought forth, approved, and sent to the City Council. There were four no smoking ordinances, one of which was precedent-setting and I am not shy by saying that I championed that. It was a very wonderful experience for me. In fact, of all the things I have done, I have found that these four ordinances really contributed to our City's health and welfare. I had to develop new skills in order to present the information to find advocates. People found me from Washington from San Francisco and we corralled the Medical Science Academy students - brought in these advocates - they spoke to them, and the students picked up the cause. They went before the Commission, they went before City

"For me, process is very important. Some people have called me 'Ms. Process' because I know wonderful, creative things can happen"

Council, and City Council passed each of these four [ordinances]. The fourth was precedent setting, no one in the United States had prohibited the sale of tobacco and we did. That was an extremely fulfilling piece of my service.

I was terming out and I felt that this experience was so positive and I learned so much, that I was ready to tackle the next step - which was Planning. In Planning you need a voice, you need to examine all different issues. I had to learn a lot. I am interested because I am a lifelong learner. I have a very strong background in some things and not in others. And I wanted to broaden my experience of expertise. I interviewed and literally the day after I left Health and Safety, I was installed into the Planning Commission. That was two years ago.

You previously served on the Board of Education from 2001 to 2009. How is serving on the Board different from serving on the commission?

As a school board member, you are an elected official. And the responsibility for the finances, the personnel, all those things come from the Board. The Board has a CEO who is the superintendent but the Board of Education is the final decision maker who sets the goals and you work with your superintendent to enact them. In fact, you even judge your superintendent on how well he or she enacted the stated goals. They have a yearly review. The Planning Commission is advisory to the City Council. There are some things where we are the final decision maker but many things come to us and we discuss and research them and then they move on to the City Council. We are not elected officials, we are appointed. We don't make final decisions on all topics that come before us. We don't have a CEO, we have a minimal staff of planners.

What are your goals as chair of the commission?

I think that my belief about my role as Chair stems from my experience on the Board of Education. While on the Board, I attended sessions and received a master's in governance from the California School Boards Association [CSBA] where we learned the roles and responsibilities of board members, presidents, and chairs to optimize operation. It was a very helpful set of workshops and it influenced me not only in my board service but also as Chair. I am going to really rely on the skills I learned there at those sessions. The Chair is a member of the commission and his or her job is to manage and moderate the meetings. The Chair is no more powerful or no more important than their colleagues. It is a responsibility to review and meet with staff before the meeting to make sure adequate materials were provided and that in-debt research has been done by staff to present in the staff report to commissioners. At the meeting, the chair manages the agenda, the time, and it's important for the chair to gather everyone's opinion and meld them into some sort of cohesive product. If compromises can be made, if things can be worked out, that's her job to try and do that. But every vote is not unanimous. An elected board position is very different. Again, nothing has to be unanimous but open-mindedness, working together across lines, I think that's where the Chair role is most important. I don't have an agenda. I believe I have a critical eye. I keep all parties' interests in mind. I am going to ensure that there's a fair, impartial, apolitical, review of every issue and project.

I believe I am consistent and I know that I consider all solutions - very clearly resident's rights as well as developer's rights. There has to be a balance. For me, process is very important. Some people have called me 'Ms. Process' because I know wonderful, creative things can happen. And this is a point as Chair where I can make a contribution because I am a trained educator. My background is both school-aged up to graduate school. I often find that people come to me after the fact, after the meeting to say 'we didn't know what was going on.' I think that sends a message to us that even though we put things in the mail for people within a radius of a thousand feet around the project, and we put notices in the newspaper - we are not doing enough. If so many people come to me after and say 'I didn't know' then we have to do something better. I am going to be meeting the head of planning staff Timmi Tway to discuss some of these things and how we can work them better. I also think that this community - people are interested in issues that are not just relevant but involve them or their homes. That's the way it works all the time. People get involved in issues when it affects them. But I think that we are a community where every issue affects everybody. Whether it's traffic on Olympic and you live north or some building going up on Wilshire and you are all the way in the South. We are a small community. We need to listen, we need to encourage people to get involved community-wide. I am going to talk to Timmi Tway to see how we can educate more people as to the issues and the process. Where does it go from planning? Are we the end? What is the process? Frankly, too many people call after the fact.

Prior to the Commission sending back the Hillel project for additional revisions, a motion was approved to bring back a resolution to conditionally approve the project. You were the sole dissenting vote. Why was that?

My primary concern was safety. The proposed configuration of the drop off and pick up was a double lane. There were four cars for a total of eight in this double lane and each one would have at least three children in it. That meant, 24 children from preschool to eighth grade were exiting those cars. Twelve of them were passing over a lane of cars. I was very concerned about the safety issue there.

I also did not feel that it was fair to exit onto [South] Oakhurst where there would be a crush of cars exiting the new pathway south of the project. And they were making a right turn and ending either back on Olympic or they were going through the alley and going to Palm. [They were] creating the same issue for residents on Palm that was on Oakhurst. I had concerns about that as well.

In issue #1084 former Chair Peter Ostroff said "Basically, in most instances we're not a 'Planning' Commission, we're a 'Reacting' Commission - we react to things that are presented". Do you agree with that statement?

Unfortunately, he's right. We are not the initiators of projects. What we can do is make suggestions in ordinances that will help developers feel more positive about coming to our community. I think that creative incentives are needed and we do that. We've got to improve our housing stock. We started with the mixed use and we are committed to our draft RHNA [Regional Housing Needs Assessment], which went before the state. And we have to do it if we are going to be certified. Otherwise, we do lose local control. Do we determine the projects that come before us? No, we don't. And there's a long process before it gets to us and there's a process when it moves on. So, we are open to hearing things and we do. But probably the one way we can enact change and encourage some sort of new development is by making ordinances that give creative incentives.

The Cheval Blanc [LVMH] luxury hotel project has been sent back many times for revisions before it was conditionally approved by the Commission. What specifically changed your mind to approve the project?

All the commissioners had questions and the preliminary hearings that we had, each of us aired our concerns. Whether it was parking, traffic, the alley, and the club. I was just one of five commissioners asking questions and giving them an opportunity to address them, which they did. They took everything very seriously. They addressed every single issue. Some of them didn't feel they could change and some of them did. So, I think by the end of the process, which was extensive, I was convinced that it was a workable solution and I was in favor of it. That's how I voted. I never started out with a negative view. I came in open-minded and thought it was going to be a great project but it needed some tweaking.

The Commission often dissects projects and makes them better. Do you find that part of the process rewarding?

I think it's wonderful because we each come with different perspectives, different backgrounds, and different concerns. And we come into a project and everyone puts their issues on the table. Sometimes people think of things that I didn't and I am so happy that they do because I really dissect and do my research. When something comes up that I haven't thought of - it's wonderful. We did that with the Cheval Blanc project, we did that with One Beverly Hills. We have an upcoming proposal that's way in the future for the proposed Saks project. And we have a very strong new group on the Planning Commission and that's part of the excitement, creativity and joy in being part of a group that looks at things and is able to message them. I just want to mention that one of the things that [former] Chair Peter Ostroff is very good at and I need to incorporate is - he would always ask disputing parties to go back and talk between themselves and see if they can come up with a solution. He did this several times. He even did it with Cheval Blanc and some of the businesses that were questioning the direction of the alley. I have to give him credit and I really learned a lot from him.

K-12 and University level before I came to Beverly Hills. I have a Ph.D. in Mathematics education and I taught math to middle and high school students in public schools. And I taught at Brooklyn College for 15 years, to help prepare people who wanted to go into the teaching profession. I also taught full time at the University of Hawaii when I moved to Hawaii. I am a trailing spouse. Which means, my husband was recruited for a position in California and we discussed it and felt that our future lay here. He was recruited as the CIO for a worldwide executive search firm. When I came to Beverly Hills, it wasn't by accident. We searched for public school districts for our four sons. I had gone to public school; my husband went to public school in Israel. My children went to public school in New York and I looked for the best public school system I could find and Beverly Hills is where we said we have to be. While I was here, I didn't really know anyone but I was an educator so I started going to PTA meetings at Hawthorne School where my three children were placed.

Two years after I arrived, I was called to the principal's office and they said 'we want you to be PTA president.' You can imagine I was shocked. I had never spoken to anybody but I did workshops. So, I became PTA president. I am interested in process, so I read the whole book and it said 'for every fundraising event you need three career events.' So we did math night, we had psychologists come in; we did a lot of interesting things. And then my fellow PTA presidents said 'you're going to run for office.' And I realized I had a voice. I spoke at a board meeting once and it was recognized. I ran against two men, one was an incumbent and both grew up in Beverly Hills. And I won. That started an eight year journey that was very educational. My children continued through the schools.

I am very proud of the things that we did. We could never cheer for our children at a home game because if it rained we had to go elsewhere. So, we put in artificial turf. People don't realize that that artificial turf meant our teams could have home cheers. We had online grading that was not here. Everything was done by mail. During the time I was on the Board, I advocated for it. It was hard because teachers weren't used to it but now we swear by it. It really is a wonderful thing because parents are partners and they should be able to support their own children. You had to wait for the mail to come to see a progress report or report card. This way you have your own password and you can support your child.

After the Board of Education, I was looking for another profession and unfortunately, my husband [Dan] had a massive stroke. All my plans went by the wayside and I devoted myself to his care. He had lost all functions. He couldn't walk, he couldn't talk, and he had double vision. And everything began to go, his heart, thyroid, everything. Dan is remarkable. He survived now 12 years. Dan was an officer in the Israeli army. He came here with just a suitcase. I met him when he was a tourist because all Israelis tour after their tour of duty. He was a can-do guy. There was never anything - whether it was a mission for the Israeli army and he had no equipment or coming to a new country and working on a truck in the day and going to school at night, taking 120 credits in economics paying full tuition. He finished degrees, and went on to get an MBA. He worked for Citibank for 16 years, and then was recruited by Korn Ferry where he spent 15 years before his stroke. He still has many disabilities and has made a wonderful life for himself. He is able to play chess online. He doesn't ambulate well. He cannot drive.

My four kids went through the Beverly Hills schools and we felt they would all go through the UCs when we moved here. It didn't turn out that way because we were privileged to offer them higher education institutions that fit them best. The reason I'll start with my youngest is because all the other boys sort of knew what they were doing. Roy didn't play an instrument. He was in theater. He's my youngest. He went to Northwestern on a radio, TV, and film major. After Dan's stroke, he finished school, came to me a few years ago, and said 'he was profoundly struck and influenced by my husband's stroke.' He was actually home when the stroke hit and he wanted to go back to school to be a doctor. So, he went to USC's post baccalaureate program. It took him about six years to do that. He's now in his second year in medical school in Fresno. He's also married. He brought a lovely young lady who he met at Northwestern into our lives. It only took them 12 years to get married.

My eldest Ron is a graduate of Johns Hopkins. He is a senior partner at a national public relations firm. My second son, Gil, graduated from Haas, the business school [UC Berkeley]. He's a private equity fellow. My third son, Guy, found his perfect fit at the University of Chicago and he works for the federal government. I would be remiss if I didn't mention my three rescued animals. We are a big animal family. We have a bonded pair of cats and a Maltipoo named Kelly. They are really part of our family and they bring us great joy.

Have you considered running for City Council?

I have been approached several times by many people. I am just humbled by their interest. Right now I have four more years to go on Planning and I am really loving and learning. Of course, I'll never rule out a run for City Council, but I am very happy doing what I am doing now.

In short, how can the City be smart and considerate about development?

We have a lot to be proud of. We've done wonderful projects and we are going to be adding the Cheval Blanc property. We will have the world's finest five star hotel collection in our small area. I think that we also need to think about how we can revitalize some of the areas of our City that are not fulfilled in the way I think they have the potential to be. I think the mixed use ordinance is a beginning and I think that we can maintain the village arena if we do it smartly but we are going to have to do it more proactive. Since we haven't gotten more than a single handful of mixed use interests, we really have to look at what our incentives are and how we can make them more robust. We also need to make sure our community is alive and flourishing. We have a great business triangle and there are exciting things going on there but we need to look at some of the other areas that aren't designated in the mixed use ordinance to see how we can improve their desirability to developers.

SUMMONS (CITATION JUDICIAL) CASE NUMBER 22VFL00737
NOTICE TO RESPONDENT (AVISO AL DEMANDADO): Merino, Virginia
PETITIONER'S NAME IS: (NOMBRE DEL DEMANDANTE ES): Platero, Armando Merino
NOMBRE DEL DEMANDADO: CALÉNDARO DÍAZ. El demandado es el que le entregó esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se empare una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.suorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, puede llamar a un abogado que le ayude a obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services. (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.suorte.ca.gov) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales. You have 30 CALÉNDARO DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the court's nearest legal aid office. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court. There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association.

executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell Under Deed of Trust (the "Notice of Default and Election to Sell"). The undersigned caused the Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located and more than three months have elapsed since such recordation. The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the property address or other common designation, if any, shown herein. If no street address or other common designation is shown, directions to the location of the property may be obtained by sending a written request to the beneficiary within 10 days of the date of first publication of this Notice of Trustee's Sale. If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. Notice To Potential Bidders: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. Notice To Property Owner: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (877)440-4460 or visit this internet web-site www.mkconsultantsinc.com, using the file number assigned to this case F22-00021. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet web-site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. Notice To Tenant: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction, if conducted after January 1, 2021, pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer" you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (877)440-4460 or visit this internet website www.mkconsultantsinc.com, using the file number assigned to this case F22-00021 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid, by remitting the funds and affidavit described in Section 2924m(c) of the Civil Code, so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.* Notice To Potential Bidders: We Require Certified Funds At Sale By Cashier's Check(S) Payable Directly To "Assured Lender Services, Inc." To Avoid Delays In Issuing The Final Deed. The Property Cov-
