Traffic and Parking Commission to Discuss Beverly Boulevard Bike Lanes

The Traffic and Parking Commission is expected to discuss a recommendation to the City Council on proposed bike lanes on Beverly Boulevard between North Santa Monica Boulevard and Doheny Drive. The proposed design would not remove any vehicle travel lanes or on-street parking.

This bikeway would connect with existing bike lanes on North Santa Monica Boulevard, an existing bike route on North Palm Drive, and planned bike lanes on Beverly Boulevard in the City of West Hollywood, which would close a gap in the regional bicycle network, according to the staff report.

According to the report, between Jan. 1, 2016 and Dec. 31, 2022, there have been 42 collisions on this segment of Beverly Boulevard. Nearly all were injury collisions except one.

“The top three primary collision factors include drivers violating right-of-way, failing to obey traffic signs and signals, and traveling at an unsafe speed. Two of these collisions involved bicyclists and four of them involved pedestrians, although the available data does not specify the party at fault," according to the staff report.

Proposed bike lanes on Beverly Blvd are not expected to result in any reduction in the number of vehicle travel lanes, turn lanes, or on-street parking spaces, as there is currently no on-street parking along this segment.

This is also intended to address reported concerns from residents by narrowing the travel lanes to include bike lanes in hopes of addressing excessive vehicle speeds. Electronic driver speed feedback signs will also be installed in an effort to encourage drivers to travel at speeds within the limit.

Staff is also exploring the possibility of installing narrow delineators on the bike lane lines to create protected bike lanes.

"Narrow protected bike lanes can create challenges, such as moving around any obstructions or debris that have fallen into the bike lane. However, it's possible that widely spaced delineators (as opposed to a continuous barrier) could alleviate these issues," according to the staff report.

City staff is expected to forward this recommendation from the Traffic and Parking Commission to the City Council. If approved, the bike lanes will be installed in late 2023.

Friends of Greystone at Standstill Over City Agreement

Friends of Greystone sent out a newsletter on Aug. 25 claiming that a proposed agreement with the City has been making it impossible for the nonprofit to function.

"After all these years of there never being an agreement in place, the City of Beverly Hills would like to now exist between the Friends of Greystone and the City of Beverly Hills. For over three years we have been negotiating an agreement. One that we have never been opposed to having, but ultimately we had to hire an attorney to represent our organization as the terms the City wants to impose on us would be just cause for any volunteer organization to throw in the towel," the newsletter said.

The letter claims that the proposed agreement from the City is controlling and burdensome with provisions and restrictions.

According to the letter, the organization has gone from an eight page agreement to one that is over 41 pages long. They claim to have worked with two City of Beverly Hills Mayor's but that city staff has taken a long time to implement matters that were agreed to.

"We know for a fact that certain City staff have inaccurately, and unfairly, spoken about matters pertaining to the Friends of Greystone. And as much as certain City staff report 'they are doing this with everyone, entering into agreements with everyone', we have conducted extensive research and are able to confirm this is definitely not the case," the letter said.

"As for the date of this letter we are at a standstill in these negotiations," the letter said. "We only want to be able to continue with our contributions to the City of Beverly Hills, and to the Doheny Greystone Estate, in a manner that is reasonable as well as fair. We are reaching out to you today with the hopes there is something you can do that could make a difference in this matter."

The letter states that the nonprofit previously asked to meet with Mayor Julian Gold to resolve the terms of the agreement, and that they were willing to do so with terminating the services of their attorney but were unsuccessful with that request.

"We are reviewing the letter by the Friends of Greystone and look forward to further discussions," Public Information Manager Lauren Santillana said.

Legislative Lobby Committee to Discuss 14 New Initiatives

The Legislative Lobby Committee was expected to discuss 14 new initiatives at their Wednesday meeting.

The bills expected to be discussed include the following :

- S.51 51 - End Hedge Fund Control of American Homes Act
- H.R.4232 - Excellence in Mental Health and Addiction Treatment Act of 2021
- HR. 3372— 10-year Pilot Program for Trucks with 6-Axles
- H.R. 1525 - Fifth Amendment Integrity Restoration (FAIR) Act
- Senate Bill 94 (Cortese) - Recall and

Resentencing: Special Circumstances

- Assembly Bill 1082 (Kalra) - Authority to Remove Vehicles
- State Ballot Initiative 22-0008 — Expands Local Governments' Authority to Enact Rent Control on Residential Property
- Assembly Constitutional Amendment 13 (Ward) - Voting Thresholds
- Assembly Bill 309 (Lee) - The Social Housing Act
- A. Senate Bill 326 (Eggman) - The Behavioral Health Services Act; and B. Assembly Bill 531 (Irwin) - The Behavioral Health Infrastructure Bond Act of 2023

- Senate Constitutional Amendment 7 (Umberg) - Employment: Workers' Rights
- Assembly Bill 504 (Reyes) - State and Local Public Employees: Labor Relations: Disputes

- Senate Bill 253 (Wiener) - Climate Corporate Data Accountability Act
- Assembly Bill 972 (Maienschein) - Local Assistance and Grant Program Streamlining Workgroup

Expanding Local Governments' Authority to Enact Rent Control on Residential Property is a request by Councilmember John Mirisch for the City to consider taking a position on Ballot Initiative 22-0008, also known as the "Justice for Renters Act." This would remove the ban on rent control in the state, giving local jurisdictions the right to adopt ordinances to stabilize rent regardless of when the home was constructed.

Senate Bill 94 (Cortese) - Recall and Resentencing: Special Circumstances. allows a person serving a prison sentence of life without the possibility of parole who meets certain requirements to file a petition in court seeking resentencing to a lesser sentence.

Gold received an "Trinity" by Judy Chicago email from the Office of the Governor asking the Mayor for a letter of support for SB 326 and AB 531. The primary aim of these two bills is to "revitalize the Mental Health Services Act and to secure a $4.86 billion bond to be placed on the state ballot." Gold, solely representing his support for this bill and not that of the City, sent a letter of support on Aug. 14, to the Governor's Office. Staff is now seeking the Committee's direction on supporting this legislation.

Senate Constitutional Amendment 7 (Umberg) - Employment: Workers' Rights is a measure that would establish a constitutional right for any person in the state to form a union and for that union to represent the person in collective bargaining with the respective employee. The League of California Cities has issued a letter of concern to Umberg.

The discussion was expected to take place after the Weekly's deadline.

City Council Expected to Approve Purchase of "Trinity" By Judy Chicago

The City Council is expected to discuss and possibly approve the purchase of the acquisition and installation of "Trinity" by Judy Chicago, at their Sept. 12 meeting, after the item was tabled at its last meeting.

Judy Chicago is an artist that has been included as one of Time Magazine's Most Influential People in 2018.

On May 16 the recommendation for the acquisition and installation of the artwork was presented to the Council. The recommendations included the purchase and support of the preferred location for installation as well as the "all in" cost of the acquisition at $550,000.

The selected location was expected to be at the Northwest corner of Crescent Drive and South Santa Monica Boulevard adjacent to the Crescent Drive parking structure at City Hall. However, the Council decided it would be best to install the statue at Beverly Gardens Park.

At the May 16 City Council meeting it was requested that staff work to address concerns regarding maintenance protocols, warranty of fabrication, as well as paint.

The purchase price of the artwork is $450,000. Jeffrey Deitch Art Gallery

"Trinity" by Judy Chicago has offered the City a discounted price at $400,000. This allocation will cover the purchase of the artwork, fabrication, engineering, inspections, permits, installation and transportation, creation of the base, and lighting. The anchoring system that will be used will allow for the artwork to be de-installed if restoration efforts are required in future without impact to the concrete base.

The Council had concerns regarding warranty and directed staff to work on ensuring that the artwork will be covered for at least 10 years.

The Council is expected to approve the purchase at its next meeting.

BHPD to Hold Sobriety and Driver's License Checkpoint

The Beverly Hills Police Department (BHPD) Traffic Bureau will conduct a sobriety and driver's license checkpoint on Friday, Sept. 8, in the area of North Santa Monica Blvd. and Crescent Drive.

The checkpoint will be operational from approximately 7:00 pm and conclude at approximately 2:00 am. All traffic will pass through the checkpoint. Motorists will be stopped and contacted by uniformed officers, who will check for alcohol and/or drug-impaired drivers. Officers will also check to ensure all contacted drivers have a valid driver's license.

DUI checkpoint locations are determined based on data showing incidents of impaired driving-related crashes. The primary purpose of DUI checkpoints is to promote public safety by taking suspected impaired drivers off the road.

"Impaired drivers put others on the road at significant risk," Chief Mark Stainbrook said. "Any prevention measures that reduce the number of impaired drivers on our roads significantly improve traffic safety."

The BHPD would like to remind the public that impaired driving is not just from alcohol. Some prescription medications and over-the-counter drugs may interfere with driving. While medicinal and recreational marijuana are legal, driving under the influence of marijuana is illegal.

Drivers charged with a first-time DUI face an average of $13,500 in fines and penalties and a suspended license.

Funding for impaired driving enforcement operations is provided by a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety through the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration.

Rodeo Station and North Portal Construction Continues

Rodeo station construction is still in progress and the easterly phase of the work between South Cañon Drive and Rexford Drive to install vaults and conduits is 70% complete.

Ground improvements, otherwise known as dewatering, work for cross-passage construction started May 2022. Cross passages allow passengers to move from one tunnel to the other in the case of an emergency.

Seven of the cross passages are located on the following residential streets

- Moreno Drive
- S. Lasky Drive
- Charleville Drive
- Spalding Drive
- Along Wilshire Boulevard, west of the Wilshire/Rodeo station.

The other seven cross passages are located along Wilshire Boulevard.

Two temporary dewatering wells have been installed for each cross passage. An enclosure containing a generator and equipment have been placed at each location for a few months until the tunneling work is complete.

These installations require occasional lane closures.

Some street parking will be impacted around each closure, so "No Parking" signs will be posted. Work hours are weekdays from 8:00 am to 6:00 pm on residential streets and 8:00 am to 11:00 pm on Wilshire Boulevard, but closures will remain until complete.

Installation of piles for the Rodeo station is the next major activity to be performed. The appendages include emergency exits, ventilation rooms/shafts, and utility structures. Wilshire Boulevard is expected to be reduced to two lanes in each direction with potential K-rail enclosures between El Camino Drive and Crescent Drive, during this work. However, piling and decking for the appendages on South Beverly and South Cañon Drives will be completed over the weekends with a complete street closure near the work areas.

The installation of piling and decking on South Beverly Drive was completed last month. Potholing for utility locations on South Cañon Drive prior to the start of the appendage piling and is anticipated to be completed by the end of this month. Excavation on South Beverly Drive is proposed to begin soon, during which at least one lane will remain open in each direction.

Transportation Safety Campaign Promotes "Be a 'Roll' Model Around Our Schools. Safe Transportation Starts with You!"

In part of the 2023 Transportation Safety Educational Campaign, the Traffic and Parking Commission is promoting "Be a 'roll' model around our schools. Safe transportation starts with you!" for the month of Sept.

The Sept. campaign theme is traffic safety around schools. This is intended to encourage drivers to obey traffic signs and signals, comply with reduced speed limits in school zones, and stop for any families and kids crossing the street.

When loading children, the City wants to remind drivers that they should park legally at the curb instead of double-parking. To avoid congestion at drop-off and pick-up times, the City also wants to inform parents that they could try leaving home a couple minutes earlier or biking, walking, or rolling to school.

The structure of the 2023 Transportation Safety Educational Campaign consists of the following: umbrella slogan for all campaign materials, monthly calls to action for road users, supplemental monthly key messages, communication tactics and rationale, collateral details and placement considerations, and graphic design direction.

The umbrella slogan identified for this campaign is, "We watch out for each other." This slogan is meant to convey the community's sense of pride in their city and support for their neighbors, and businesses. It is also meant to remind residents that their care for one another translates to their personal actions on the roads. The slogan will be used on all materials developed for the campaign.

Each month, the campaign features a different theme based on traffic safety issues. Each theme will have specific, direct calls to action for road users that are intended to improve traffic safety by watching out for each other.

Some monthly themes for this year include: pedestrian safety, right-of-way at intersections, speeding, and safety around schools, among others.

As part of the campaign, residents may request a free "20 is Plenty, Driving Slower Saves Lives" sign to display in front of their property. The signs are available for pick up at the Public Works building during regular business hours.

Design Review Commission to Discuss 145 North Stanley Drive Project

At their Thursday meeting the Design Review Commission is expected to discuss a project located 145 North Stanley Drive, to allow for the construction of a two-story residence with porte cochere, located in the Central Area of the City, south of Santa Monica Boulevard.

This project was previously reviewed by the Commission at its July meeting. The project was continued for revisions.

The proposed architectural style is identified by the applicant as Contemporary.

The revised project proposal is for a new two-story residence to replace the existing one-story structure. The design for the new building features a flat roof with broad fascia clad in bronze-toned metal. The façade also incorporates smooth-troweled cement plaster on portions of the main elevation with porcelain tile cladding on the remainder of the façade with sections in natural wood cladding at the rear. The main façade also incorporates large planes of glass on both first-and-second floors with sliding doors leading to the balcony area above the aligned glazing units at the ground floor.

In the current iteration, the recessed entry area has become more in-scale with the building proportions and the massing has been further articulated in response to the commissioner's comments, according to the staff report.

The applicant had previously presented this proposal to the Design Review Commission on July 6. The Commissioners' concerns overall were regarding the front yard landscaping, location of mechanical equipment, modifications to the two-story entry design, and modifications to the overall massing of the building.

The Assessment roll for 2023 has been closed as of June 30 and Assessor Jeff Prang has indicated that it reflects growth for Beverly Hills as well as the rest of the County.

Jeff Prang

This tally values more than 2.5 million real estate parcels in the County and results in tax dollars that goes to pay for public services such as healthcare, police, fire, schools, and librarians.

The 2023 Roll also grew by $111 billion (or 5.91%) over 2022. That value places nearly $20 billion to be used for those public services I just Mentioned,” Prang said.

Library to Host Author Talk with Adam Alter

The library will be hosting an author talk with Adam Alter about his new book Anatomy of a Breakthrough: How to Get Unstuck When It Matters Most, Wednesday, Sept. 20 at 2:00 PM

“Almost everyone feels stuck in some way. Whether you’re muddling through a midlife crisis, wrestling with writer’s block, trapped in a thankless job, or trying to remedy a fraying friendship, the resulting emotion is usually a mix of anxiety, uncertainty, fear, anger, and numbness. But it doesn’t have to be this way. Anatomy of a Breakthrough is the roadmap we all need to escape our inertia and flourish in the face of friction,” according to the library description.

According to the book, the solution to becoming unstuck rests on a process that Alter calls a friction audit—a systematic procedure that uncovers why a person or organization is stuck and then suggests a path to progress.

The friction audit states that people and organizations get unstuck when they overcome three sources of friction: HEART (unhelpful emotions); HEAD (unhelpful patterns of thought); and HABIT (unhelpful behaviors).

Adam Alter is a professor of marketing and the Stansky Teaching Excellence Faculty Fellow at New York University’s Stern School of Business. He also holds an affiliated professorship in social psychology at NYU’s psychology department. In 2020 he was voted professor of the year by the faculty and student body at NYU’s Stern School of Business and was among the Poets and Quants 40 Best Professors Under 40 in 2017. Alter is the New York Times bestselling author of two books: Drunk Tank Pink and Irresistible.

The Sept. 13 performance is "The Firestorm" by Meredith Friedman. Set in Ohio, Patrick Henderson is hot on the gubernatorial campaign trail with his Ivy League-educated, attorney wife, Gaby. He's white, she's Black. They're an interracial power couple who look good on paper and in photographs. But even in post-Obama America, their marriage is at once a selling point and a weak spot, according to their campaign manager, Leslie. To complicate things, Patrick wasn't the most open-minded fraternity brother during his college years, and a prank from his past doesn't just threaten his campaign, but also his marriage.

The Sept. 20 play is "The Ice Cream Sunday" by Frank Salisbury. In 1955, set on the grounds of the Massenet Estate, an actress is determined to celebrate her son's 25th birthday, while her husband is intent on introducing her to his mistress. Salisbury's farcical and irreverent comedy is a melange of mistaken identities, promiscuity and exaggerated personalities, reminiscent of madcap comedies of the 1930s.

The final play on Sept. 27 is "Beatnik Girl" by Leda Siskind. It's 1957 New York and the Beat Generation is creating new poetry, jazz, and art on the Lower East Side. It's exactly where twenty-two year old Edie Gordon wants to be. But can she find her creative voice while she struggles with misogyny, antisemitism, and an unwanted pregnancy?

BHHS Girls' Volleyball Team Set To Open League Play Tuesday

The Beverly High girls' volleyball team is scheduled to open Ocean League play Tuesday with a 3:15 p.m. match at Morningside.

The Normans lost at Pasadena, 25-10, 25-14, 25-14, in a nonleague match Aug. 19. Alyn Bates led Beverly Hills in kills while Liana Soroudi led in service aces, according to coach Martin Chiong, who also praised the play of Kaydence Labisiere and Leila Abrishami.

"It would have been a better match if there was more cohesiveness between the players and defense," Chiong said. "To quote the show 'Ted Lasso,' 'We are a work in progress' but at least the players had fun."

Chiong praised Bates' play in the Pasadena Poly tournament, where the Normans lost to San Marino and Pasadena Poly, both in two sets, Aug. 26.

"The team did their best but could not find the consistency to follow through," Chiong said. "There were tidbits of actual good connection -- pass-set-hit -- but not enough for us to win."

"The tournament was a great experience for my brand-newish varsity. They played teams who have club players who already had experience playing in a championship setting, so it was certainly a challenge but also a learning perspective from us."

Wells Bring Hope to Honor Former Los Angeles County District Attorney Gil Garcetti at 15th Annual Fundraiser

By Danielle Berjikian

You are hosting a fundraiser at your home on Oct. 1 for Wells Bring Hope. Tell us about that organization.

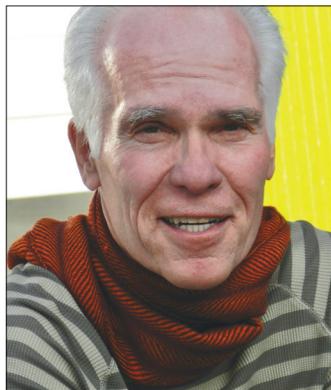

This is an exceptional organization founded by Barbara Goldberg approximately 15 years ago. After leaving office in December 2001, I went to West Africa with the Hilton Foundation, which funds water projects in West Africa. My wife was already going, and I was invited to take some photographs. While I knew what to expect in terms of poverty and disease, it was quite startling just to see it. But then I also saw the good side. I learned that there's plenty of good water for everyone in West Africa, but [90%] is subterranean. They have no financial means or expertise to find it, bring it up, save it, and teach people how to use it properly. That's what the Hilton Foundation was doing.

The second thing that startled me was learning that it was only girls and women who went to fetch water. Sometimes it's one day, one time a day, sometimes it's three or four times a day, depending on how far they have to walk. I walked with one group in Burkina Faso. [This] large group of women and girls walked seven miles one way. And that's why they take everyone in the household and they go and fetch it. In this particular situation, they looked like they were walking through fog but they were walking through sand. It's called the Martian winds. The winds come in and take out a fine layer of sand from the Sahara and it starts blowing constantly, 24 hours a day, seven days a week for over eight months. So I saw all of that.

The Hilton Foundation with World Vision helped and assisted with the process. The main thing, of course, was disease, blindness, and infant mortality, all of that was greatly reduced. But the best thing from my point of view was that the girls were now permitted to go to school because they didn't have to fetch water every day. And this was game-changing. In most of the villages that I went to, the girls started going to school but the mothers very often became micro-credit entrepreneurs. They were given $200, $300 to start a business, whatever they wanted to start and the women are so incredibly successful. They were just

"It takes really little money to change the lives of girls and women in the village. And by doing this, this changes the world"

fabulous. So I took all that in and I returned to Los Angeles in February 2001. I gave the Hilton Foundation photographs and I thought it was over. But then we had 9/11, 7 months later and I put my political hat back on and I said, 'Wait a minute. The countries we visited were Burkina Faso, Côte d'Ivoire, and Ghana. These are primarily Muslim countries. We - people in the United States, Western Europe, and other nations have to be seen as caring for Muslims.' Well, this was a very easy fix. Show them we can help by bringing safe water to the people of West Africa. So I went to the Hilton Foundation and I made my pitch. [I] said, 'I'll go back as often as necessary to take photographs and interview people, tell a story, [and] we will produce a book. [I wanted them] to produce the book so that [they] could give it to other organizations that help people bring safe water to West Africa. They can sell it, make some money, and finance their ideas. They went for it. I went back four times over three years. The book came out and I was asked to speak at Barbara Goldberg's Salon Forum. I was the first man to ever come and speak to this group of about 35-40 women and I wasn't trying to necessarily pitch them to get involved individually. What I suggested doing at the end of my presentation about my experience in West Africa is to reach out to an organization enlisted in the back of the book and see how they can help. A couple of weeks later, Barbara called me directly and said, 'We want to do it directly, we want to start our own and we need your help.'

Since you retired as a prosecutor, you have pursued photography. Tell us about that.

Well, that was an accident. I had vowed to my family and to myself that I was going to live in good mental and physical health until I was at least 88. I had gone through a serious illness some years before that. I met a man who inspired me to live at least that long. When I left the DA's office, it was after 32 years at 59. And I said, '88, that's another career. Why not try something completely different than the law?' So I turned down the offer I received to go into private practice. But I wanted to try something else. One day I was driving by the Walt Disney Concert Hall in June 2001, and I saw ironworkers up on the building, the skeleton of the building bringing in more iron. I just said, 'Wow, look at these guys. These are crazy guys.' And I always had a camera with me. I took some photographs and I said, 'Look at the beauty of this, the ironworkers are incredible.'

So I came back the next morning with my heavy equipment, took more photographs, and eventually got on site, taking photographs, and giving photographs to the ironworkers. They thought, 'Hey, what's going on?' Because I was the DA and they thought 'I am off probation, I paid my child support' or whatever it is. But then they were very welcoming to me as I was walking the beams without any safety equipment. But I was walking with them and taking photographs. So they liked that.

The Philaphomroc heard about it as they were the ones building the building. And they said, 'Can we take a look at your photographs? We understand they're very good.' So they came back a couple of days later. And the woman who was in charge, told me 'You got to do your own book. These are really marvelous photographs.' We did the book called "Iron: Erecting the Walt Disney Concert Hall." It came out in December 2002 when I was teaching at Harvard at the time. I heard the LA Times was going to write a review about it and I said, 'Oh man. They didn't care about me as DA and they are going to really trounce me.' But it was the opposite. They really loved my photography. The New York Times, Boston Globe, Washington Post, and others picked up on it and gave me some marvelous comments about my photography. I ended up continuing with this process because I enjoyed taking photographs.

I had an exhibition at the National Building Museum in Washington D.C. And it really launched my career as a photographer. Now I've done a total of 11 books. I've had exhibitions around the world. I was really honored to be asked to speak around the world on the issues of safe water in developing countries. So it's been a kick for me to do this. My most recent book is about the Sixth Street Viaduct bridge, and it shows what a private company can do working with really dedicated, very good city employees, engineers led by a team of four female engineers. It was the first time females led a project like this. So this is what I try to show through my photography.

How is your son former [Los Angeles Mayor] Eric doing as Ambassador to India?

He is doing great. He is loving it. He [received a Masters of International Affairs] degree. And now he's actually practicing it. He loves it.

Do you miss elected politics at all?

No, I certainly don't enjoy fundraising and all those kinds of things. It's a different world out there with social media. It is so much tougher to be an elected official. I just hope that we're not discouraging really qualified, passionate people who care about governance and democracy because of what they see in this crazy time in the United States and other places and what they are doing to people who dedicated their lives to public service.

How can readers get involved with Wells Bring Hope?

They can get involved on <https://wellsbringhope.org>. This is a group of women, all volunteers, including the founder, Barbara Goldberg. And it takes really little money to change the lives of the girls and women in the village. And by doing this, this changes the world. It really does. And girls can go to school. I met a wonderful woman who got a PhD. This is what can be done. But it takes clean water and it takes an education. And that's what this does for women and for girls.

Advance tickets for the gala are required and can be purchased at https://wellsbringhope.networkforgood.com/projects/198127-15th-anniversary-fundraiser?utm_campaign=dms_email_blast_2725487.

SUMMONS (CITATION JUDICIAL) CASE NUMBER 23VEFL00986
NOTICE TO RESPONDENT (AVISO AL DEMANDADO): JASMINE DENISE FURLLOW
PETITIONER'S NAME IS (EL NOMBRE DEL DEMANDANTE ES): RONALD CHARLES FINDEIS

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.sucorte.ca.gov) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court. There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid on a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of the outstanding lien that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPER-TY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponement be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale.
If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 844-477-7869, or visit this internet Web site www.stoxposting.com, using the file number assigned to this case T.S.# 86513. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale." For sales conducted after January 1, 2021:
NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase.
First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (844) 477-7869, or visit this internet website www.STOXPOSTING.com, using the file number assigned to this case 86513 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee.
Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid; by remit-ting the funds and affidavit described in Section 2924m(c) of the Civil Code; so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. LEGAL DESCRIPTION
