Recall Effort Put on Hold as Organizers Engage with School Board Members

The recall effort against BHUSD Board of Education members Russell Stuart and Sigalie Sabag has been put on hold as organizers seek to engage in discussions with board members regarding district governance and transparency concerns.

In recent weeks, community members expressed frustration over administrative decisions, including non-renewals of personnel and a restructuring of district positions. The proposed recall effort accused Stuart and Sabag of a lack of transparency, questionable decision-making, and destabilizing the district's leadership. However, recall organizers have opted to delay filing the petition in an effort to foster constructive dialogue with the board.

Jackie Kruger, one of the recall organizers, confirmed that while the group is ready to proceed with the recall process, they are giving the board members an opportunity to demonstrate their willingness to listen to community concerns.

"We have everything ready for serving and filing the recall," Kruger said. "But since we've opened a dialogue, we want to give them an opportunity to show that they are actually fiduciaries for us. [The recall effort] could be served at any point, but we are holding off to see if they take our concerns seriously."

Kruger emphasized that the group's ultimate goal is to ensure a transparent and functional school board. "What we want is a functioning school board that cares about its constituents, the community, and the students," she said.

Councilmember Mary Wells, who facilitated a meeting between organizers and board members, clarified her role in the discussion, stating that she was not involved in the recall effort itself.

"I have not been involved in any recall efforts, and I do not plan to be," Wells said in an emailed statement. "A concerned parent reached out to me for advice, and I encouraged them to speak directly with board members. To help start that conversation, I offered to host a casual meeting at my home with two parents and two board members. Everyone came willingly and, after a few hours of open discussion, they all expressed their desire to keep the lines of communication open."

She reiterated that her involvement was solely to facilitate dialogue, not to take a position on the recall. "I also made it clear that my role was simply to help initiate the dialogue, and I did not need to be involved in their conversations going forward. I facilitated that meeting as a community member, not as

Beverly Hills Celebrates Nowruz with a Table Display at City Hall

The Beverly Hills City Council gathered at the Nowruz table at City Hall to mark the start of the Persian New Year. a councilmember. I care deeply about our community and believe we should be able to talk through our differences with respect and openness. We are a small community, and we all want the best education and school experience for our children."

During a recent board meeting, parents raised concerns about the non-renewal of contracts for El Rodeo School's Assistant Principal Kevin Painter and Principal Sarah Kaber. The board has defended its restructuring decisions as necessary due to financial constraints, but critics argue the moves lack transparency and seem politically motivated.

Despite holding off on filing the recall, Kruger and other organizers are still looking for tangible action from the board. "We were promised transparency in the selection of a new superintendent and that decisions would be communicated clearly to the community,” Kruger said. “We have yet to see a concrete plan, but we will continue to monitor their actions. If they fail to follow through, the recall effort remains an option.”

Kruger also mentioned that organizers are considering requesting a town hall with all five board members. “Our hope is that they act as fiduciaries and that they hear the community in response to all of their murky, closed processes.”

Beverly Hills Defends Actions Amid Public Backlash Over DuPont Clinic

The City Council faced criticism at its March 18 meeting over the city's involvement in the legal battle surrounding DuPont Clinic, a facility offering elective abortions through 31 weeks and 6 days of gestation, which had planned to open in the city but was ultimately unable to do so.

DuPont Clinic had been set to open at 8920 Wilshire Blvd. in October 2023. However, its lease was rescinded by the property's landlord, sparking a lawsuit against the city. DuPont alleged that Beverly Hills officials had pressured the landlord into terminating the lease, effectively preventing the clinic from opening.

Members of the public accused the city of bowing to activists and called on council members to drop its attempt to recover legal fees from the clinic.

“Any claim that the city desires to financially harm DuPont is groundless and simply not true. Even though the city did not terminate the lease, or pressure the landlord to terminate the lease, we still continue to participate in good faith settlement negotiations,” Mayor Les Friedman said. “My colleagues and I have repeatedly stated and continue to believe in a woman's right to choose. The legal issues presented in the DuPont matter do not alter that position. We continue to seek a fair and reasonable resolution of the issues with the DuPont representatives and the landlord.”

These public comments follow a recent legal ruling in which Los Angeles County Superior Court Judge Michael Schultz dismissed the majority of DuPont Clinic's claims, stating that the plaintiffs had presented “not a shred of admissible evidence” to support their allegations against the city.

Beverly Hills Considers Ministerial Permit Process for Builder's Remedy Housing Developments

The Beverly Hills Planning Commission is set to discuss the potential establishment of a ministerial permit process for certain housing development projects that fall under the “Builder's Remedy” provision of California's Housing Accountability Act, at its Thursday meeting.

City of Beverly Hills Honors the Farhang Foundation

At last Tuesday's meeting, the City Council honored the Farhang Foundation for the contributions of the Iranian community and proclaimed March 20 to be Nowruz Day in the City of Beverly Hills. According to its website, the "Farhang Foundation is a member-supported, non-religious, non-political, not-for-profit organization established in 2008 to celebrate and promote Iranian art and culture for the benefit of the community-at-large.

proposed ordinance. No new regulations will be adopted during this session.

The Housing Accountability Act restricts cities from denying qualifying housing development projects that meet specific affordability requirements, according to a city staff report. The Builder's Remedy provision further limits local agencies' ability to reject such projects even if they conflict with general plan and zoning regulations, provided certain conditions are met.

Beverly Hills currently has 14 Builder's Remedy projects undergoing discretionary land use entitlement processes, according to the report. These projects are subject to the city's Development Plan Review process, requiring review by the Planning Commission or City Council on appeal. However, state laws significantly limit the ability of local authorities to deny or modify these projects.

A ministerial permit process is intended to remove the discretionary review requirement, allowing qualifying Builder's Remedy projects to be approved based on objective standards. Unlike the current system, this process would not require a public hearing or allow for an appeal. The goal of the proposed process is to provide a streamlined review while incentivizing developers to reduce the scale of their projects, according to a city staff report.

Key aspects of the proposed framework include:

- Eligibility Criteria: The process would be available to Builder's Remedy projects that submitted a preliminary application before May 1, and do not involve historic resources.

- Objective Standards: Standards would address issues such as height limits (75 feet to the floor level of the top story, 85 feet to the top of the building), setbacks, parking, and balcony design restrictions.

- Operational Conditions: Common outdoor spaces would be subject to restricted hours of operation (7:00 AM to 10:00 PM on weekdays, 9:00 AM to 10:00 PM on weekends), among other conditions.

- Parking and Access: Requirements would include designated access points and compliance with screening regulations.

During a January 28, 2025, study session, the City Council considered which project types should be eligible for ministerial approval and what objective standards should apply. The council indicated that such a process should be limited to Builder's Remedy projects and could serve as an incentive for developers to reduce project scale in exchange for faster approvals.

The Planning Commission will review the proposed framework and provide direction to city staff regarding the preparation of a draft ordinance. If pursued, the ordinance will be presented at a future City Council meeting for consideration.

Beverly Hills Police Department Launches "Adopt-a-Dispatcher" Campaign

The Beverly Hills Police Department (BHPD) has announced a new initiative called "Adopt-a-Dispatcher" in recognition of National Public Safety Telecommunicators Week, which will take place from April 13–19. The campaign invites members of the community to participate by showing appreciation for the city's emergency dispatchers.

According to the department, dispatchers handle police and fire calls around the clock, acting as the first point of contact in emergencies. They coordinate response efforts, provide guidance to callers, and ensure that resources are dispatched efficiently.

The "Adopt-a-Dispatcher" program encourages community members, businesses, families, and schools to express gratitude by sending handwritten notes, cards, snacks, or children's artwork. However, BHPD has specified that monetary gifts and gift cards are not permitted.

Participants who sign up will be matched with a dispatcher and will receive information about their assigned individual based on a "Get to Know Your Dispatcher" sheet completed by each employee.

Those interested in taking part can contact Patricia Tachias, Communications and Interim Records Manager, for further details, at ptachias@beverlyhills.org.

Writers Bloc and Study Sessions

Long time Beverly Hills resident Andrea Grossman has made and continues to make substantial contributions to the cultural life of our region.

Twenty-nine years ago, Ms. Grossman formed a wonderful non-profit, Writers Bloc. Simply described, Writers Bloc is a literary series where authors of all stripes appear in front of a live audience and are generally interviewed by journalists or others knowledgeable about the featured subject matter.

Previously, Ms. Grossman had been involved with selecting authors for a UCLA program "Friends of English" and it occurred to her that she could do her own programming untethered from a committee. (I support that principle in almost every other context.)

As a result of her very first program featuring Joan Didion which drew 500 people, Ms. Grossman was on her way.

There is some good natured family debate between Andrea and her husband Rick, a lawyer, as to who came up with the name, "Writers Bloc." She explains: "Rick and I have two very different memories of coming up with the name. He claims he thought of it, and I am certain that I thought of it. But when I said it out loud, I loved it.

It's meant to evoke a bloc of people who have different interests, different strengths, but are there for the same purpose. It's always maddening when authors say during an event, "there's no such thing as writers block." I have been known to stand up and shout, 'YES THERE IS!' "

The programs are generally held in nearby venues such as the Writers Guild Theatre, the Music Hall Theatre, the Wilshire-Ebell Theatre and the Skirball Cultural Center. Ms. Grossman's standard for selecting a featured author (or, in some instances, political figures) is a simple one: "Is this a person for whom I will get in my car and deal with Los Angeles traffic to see?"

This standard has served remarkably well. It is upheld by what Ms. Grossman calls the "Sesame Street approach" of ensuring that each program is excellent.

Part of the Mission Statement of Writers Bloc Presents, a non-profit, is to "Create and foster opportunities for dialogue and interaction between the general public and writers, thinkers, public figures or others about reading, writing, literature, the literary process, the role and relationship of literature to music, film and other media, and the relevance and impact of literature on modern society."

The featured authors are a virtual

Hall of Fame. In addition to Joan Didion, early guests included Philip Roth, Elmore Leonard and John Le Carre. More recently, they have included Stacey Abrams, Joan Baez, Tom Hanks, Maggie Haberman, Steve Lopez and Sandra Tsing-Loh. Political figures are also often featured including Senator Adam Schiff, Rep.

Hakeem Jeffries and Senator Amy Klobuchar and U.S. Supreme Court Justices Ketanji Brown Jackson and Sonya Sotomayor. Presidential candidates VP Kamala Harris, and Senators Cory Booker, Bernie Sanders and Elizabeth Warren have appeared. A recent highlight was an interview of Rep. Nancy Pelosi.

Upcoming events include Maureen Dowd, Ezra Klein and Lawrence Wright.

The events are very reasonably priced, generally around $25.

Andrea Grossman is justifiably proud of what she has accomplished. Writers Bloc is a wonderful contribution to our cultural life.

This Sunday at 4:00 p.m., Writers Bloc will present Vanity Fair editor Graydon Carter, moderated by Monica Lewinsky, at the Writers Guild Theater.

The Beverly Hills City Council is considering an adjustment to its procedures relating to what action can be appropriately taken by the Council in its afternoon "Study Sessions."

The alternatives include: (1) providing that anything that could be done at a regular meeting can be done at a study session; (2) providing that no action whatsoever can be taken at a study session; or

(3) something in between such as allowing only very minor matters to be acted on.

The debate has, to some degree, been hijacked by distracting arguments about what may have been done fifteen years ago or whether the Council secretly has an irresponsible pro-growth agenda that is somehow fostered by study sessions. These arguments are irrelevant and baseless.

The only legitimate issue is: what is good policy?

My conclusion is that, while ordinarily action should only be taken at formal City Council meetings, the Council should have the flexibility to take action during Study Sessions.

Far too often I find that our bureaucracy stands in the way or at least delays taking appropriate action and I see no virtue in unduly tying the hands of our elected Council.

I hear that the Board of Education has decided to forego a search for the best possible candidate for Superintendent and has selected a former BHUSD principal and Asst Superintendent. My guess is that the Board has been so overwhelmed with distracting issues, mostly self-inflicted, that it doesn't have the bandwidth to handle a time-consuming search and selection process. So, for better or worse, it is going with the devil it knows. We expect and should demand better. I am not being critical of the person who I believe has been selected. Rather, I advocate that, before making a final decision, the Board engage in a comprehensive unhurried process that will enhance the prospect that the person selected is the right person, all things considered.

Limited Time Remaining to See Here There Are Blueberries at The Wallis

With only a few days left in its run, Here There Are Blueberries continues its performances at The Wallis Annenberg Center for the Performing Arts.

The production, presented by Tectonic Theater Project, runs through March 30.

The play, written by Moisés Kaufman and Amanda Gronich, and conceived and directed by Kaufman, explores the discovery of a Nazi-era photo album that arrived at the desk of United States Holocaust Memorial Museum archivist Rebecca Erbelding. As historians examine the images, the album's significance grows, sparking discussions beyond the museum's walls. The production is based on real events.

Described by the Los Angeles Times' Charles McNulty as "the greatest detective story ever written," the play examines the historical and ethical questions raised by the photographs and their connection to the Holocaust.

Here There Are Blueberries is produced by Tectonic Theater Project, Brian & Dayna Lee, and Sonia Friedman Productions.

LA CIENEGA PARK PLAYGROUND SET FOR REDESIGN

By Danielle Berjikian

The Beverly Hills Recreation and Parks Commission reviewed a conceptual design proposal to renovate the playground at La Cienega Park, replacing the existing 12,400-square-foot play area.

This playground is the last in the city with a sand surface.

The preliminary design, shaped by community feedback from a 2024 survey, introduces a playscape inspired by natural landscapes. The plan includes rubberized mound “hills” integrating active and passive play zones tailored for different age groups. The proposed design features play equipment manufactured by Kompan, the same company that supplied equipment for Roxbury Park’s playground.

The redesigned space will consist of two primary play areas: one for younger children (ages 2-5) featuring a small play structure, nature-themed springers, and parent-child swings; and another for older children (ages 5-12) that includes a larger play structure, traditional swings, and rotating swivel play platforms.

A central “river bed” element, made of oversized concrete pebbles, will serve as a physical and visual divider between play areas. These pebbles, along with vertical post groupings meant to resemble a forest, are also intended to deter skateboarding. Additional features include a small stage for storytime and performances, seating areas with shade from trees and spherical canopy structures, and fully enclosed fencing with three ADA-accessible entry points. The ground surface will be composed of poured-in-place rubber with color and elevation changes for visual distinction.

There are currently no cost estimates, as the project is still in the conceptual design phase, according to Communications & Marketing Coordinator Dana Beesen.

The Commission provided feedback on the proposal and it will move forward for review by the Council Liaison in spring 2025.

The Wilshire/La Cienega Station, which is part of the D Line Extension Project, is currently under construction and is scheduled to open in late 2025.

Beverly Hills scored twice in the fifth. Jayden Ibarra singled in Shah, who walked and Rendon, who doubled.

RFQUAL #25-350-26 CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT 345 FOOTHILL ROAD BEVERLY HILLS, CALIFORNIA 90210 REQUEST FOR PREQUALIFICATION OF BIDDERS AND PREQUALIFICATION INSTRUCTIONS FOR: NOTICE OF THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A QUALIFIED ELECTRICAL CONTRACTORS LIST FOR AUTOMATIC TRANSFER SWITCH REPLACEMENT PROJECTS AT VARIOUS CITY FACILITIES

Notice is hereby given that the City of Beverly Hills ("CITY") has determined that all bidders for Notice of the Establishment of a Qualified Electrical Contractors List for Automatic Transfer Switch Replacement Projects at Various City Facilities ("Project") must be pre-qualified prior to submitting a bid. It is mandatory that all Contractors who intend to submit a bid, fully complete the prequalification questionnaire, provide all materials requested herein, and be approved by the CITY to be on the final qualified Bidders list.

No bid will be accepted from a Contractor that has failed to comply with these requirements. If two or more business entities submit a bid as part of a Joint Venture, or expect to submit a bid as part of a Joint Venture, each entity within the Joint Venture must be separately qualified to bid. The last date to submit a fully completed questionnaire is 5:00 PM Tuesday, April 15, 2025.

Contractors must register as a vendor at the following website in order to download the prequalification package, and to receive clarifications and notifications when issued.

The Prequalification package may be viewed on, and downloaded from the City's PlanetBids portal:

<https://pbsystem.planetbids.com/portal/39493/bo/bo-detail/104883>

This item is listed as: Notice of the Establishment of a Qualified Electrical Contractors List for Automatic Transfer Switch Replacement Projects at Various City Facilities. Answers to questions contained in the questionnaire are required. The CITY will use these documents as the basis of rating Contractors with respect to whether each Contractor is qualified to bid on the Project, and reserves the right to check other sources available. The CITY's decision will be based on objective evaluation criteria.

The CITY reserves the right to adjust, increase, limit, suspend or rescind the prequalification rating based on subsequently learned information. Contractors whose rating changes sufficiently to disqualify them will be notified, and given an opportunity for a hearing consistent with the hearing procedures described below for appealing a prequalification rating.

While it is the intent of the prequalification questionnaire and documents required therewith to assist the CITY in determining bidder responsibility prior to bid and to aid the CITY in selecting the lowest responsible bidder, neither the fact of prequalification, nor any prequalification rating, will preclude the CITY from a post-bid consideration and determination of whether a bidder has the quality, fitness, capacity and experience to satisfactorily perform the proposed work, and has demonstrated the requisite trustworthiness.

All qualification submittals are required to be submitted electronically via PlanetBids. The electronic submittal system will close exactly at the date and time set forth in this request for qualifications.

Any questions regarding the questionnaire and qualification package should be submitted via PlanetBids by 5:00PM, April 7, 2025. Questions sent via email or over the phone; with the exception of those related to accessing or using PlanetBids, will not be answered.

Contractors are responsible for submitting and having their documents accepted before the closing time set forth in the request for qualifications. NOTE: Pushing the submit button on the electronic submittal system may not be instantaneous; it may take time for the Contractor's documents to upload and transmit before the documents are accepted. It is the Contractor's sole responsibility to ensure their documents are uploaded, transmitted, and arrive in time electronically. The City of Beverly Hills will have no responsibility for documents that do not arrive in a timely manner, no matter what the reason.

The prequalification packages submitted by Contractors are not public records and are not open to public inspection. All information provided will be kept confidential to the extent permitted by law. However, the contents may be disclosed to third parties for purpose of verification, or investigation of substantial allegations, or in an appeal hearing. State law requires that the names of contractors applying for prequalification status shall be public records subject to disclosure, and the first page of the questionnaire will be used for that purpose.

Each questionnaire must be signed under penalty of perjury in the manner designated at the end of the form, by an individual who has the legal authority to bind the Contractor on whose behalf that person is signing. If any information provided by a Contractor becomes inaccurate, the Contractor must immediately notify the CITY and provide updated accurate information in writing, under penalty of perjury.

The CITY reserves the right to waive minor irregularities and omissions in the information contained in the prequalification application submitted, and to make all final determinations. The CITY may also determine at any time that the prequalification process will be suspended for the Project and the Project will be bid without prequalification.

Contractors may submit all qualification submittals electronically via Planet Bids. Contractors who submit a complete prequalification package will be notified of their qualification status no later than ten business days after submission of the information.

The CITY may refuse to grant prequalification where the requested information and materials are not provided by the due date indicated above. There is no appeal from a refusal for an incomplete or late application, but re-application for a later project is permitted. Neither the closing time for submitting prequalification packages for this Project will be changed in order to accommodate supplementation of incomplete submissions, or late submissions, unless requested by the CITY in its sole discretion.

In addition to a contractor's failure to be pre-qualified pursuant to the scoring system set forth in the prequalification package, a contractor may be found not prequalified for either omission of or falsification of, any requested information.

Where a timely and completed application results in a rating below that necessary to pre-qualify, an appeal can be made by the unsuccessful Contractor. An appeal is begun by the Contractor delivering notice to the CITY of its appeal of the decision with respect to its prequalification rating, no later than two business days following notification that it is not pre-qualified. The notice of appeal shall include an address where the Contractor wishes to receive notice of the appeal hearing. Without a timely appeal, the Contractor waives any and all rights to challenge the decision of the CITY, whether by administrative process, judicial process or any other legal process or proceeding.

If the Contractor gives the required notice of appeal, a hearing shall be conducted no earlier than five business days after the CITY's receipt of the notice of appeal and not later than five business days prior to the date of the Notice Inviting Bids for this Project. Prior to the hearing, the Contractor shall, in writing, be advised of the basis for the City's pre-qualification determination.

The hearing shall be conducted by a panel consisting of three members of the Public Works Department senior management staff (the "Appeals Panel"). The Appeals Panel shall consider any evidence presented by the Contractor, whether or not the evidence is presented in compliance with formal rules of evidence. The Contractor will be given the opportunity to present evidence, information and arguments as to why the Contractor believes it should be pre-qualified. Within one day after the conclusion of the hearing, the Appeals Panel will render a written determination as to whether the Contractor is pre-qualified. It is the intention of the CITY that the date for the submission and opening of bids will not be delayed or postponed to allow for completion of an appeal process.
