er, CEO of ICAN: Israeli-American Civic Action Network.

According to her recently filed financial disclosures, this continued role includes the period following the October 7, 2023, Hamas attacks on Israel that left over 1,200 people dead, including American citizens.

Byers' association with Beautiful Trouble has been a point of controversy since her 2022 campaign for West Hollywood City Council. At the time, a group of 16 activists issued a letter insisting that the race should focus on local issues rather than her stance on the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, according to Hosier. Despite the concerns, Byers was elected.

On December 16, 2023, the City Council voted to appoint Byers as mayor, and she was officially sworn in on January 13, 2024. Shortly before taking office, she removed references to Beautiful Trouble from her official city biography.

Beautiful Trouble, which lost its IRS nonprofit status, according to Hosier, remains active in funding and supporting protests related to "Palestinian liberation," including university encampments. The organization has promoted materials critical of Israeli policy and Jewish feminist movements in Israel, accusing them of ignoring Palestinian rights.

Byers, originally from Flagstaff, Arizona, has lived in West Hollywood since 2021. Her activism began in college, where she founded a chapter of Students for Justice in Palestine at Northern Arizona University. She has also worked with CodePink and the ANSWER Coalition—groups that have staged protests against Israeli policies. Over the years, she has taken part in demonstrations including a disruption of the 2011 AIPAC policy conference and a 2018 protest at the Israeli Consulate in Los Angeles where chants included, "Intifada, intifada, long live the intifada, from the river to the sea, Palestine will be free."

Chelsea Byers

Byers' social media history includes multiple statements critical of Israel, such as: "No complicity with Israeli apartheid #BlockTheFactory #FreePalestine," and "US funding Israeli war crimes is shameful, and only perpetuates the violence further."

Byers has announced plans to run for reelection in 2026.

"Mayor Byers' continued employment after October 7 with a radical anti-Israel and anti-American organization is bad enough. But her role in directing grants and crafting messaging that echoed Hamas's talking points—and supported unlawful protests—is disqualifying. For the good of the city and the safety of its residents, she should resign immediately," Hosier said.

A message sent to her city email was not returned by deadline.

Pickleball Court Conversion Plans Advance

At its Tuesday meeting, the Recreation and Parks Commission reviewed official measurements, noise impacts, and revised rules related to the city's pickleball pilot program, as planning continues for the permanent conversion of certain tennis courts into pickleball courts.

The developments follow direction given by the City Council Liaison on February 27, instructing staff to confirm tennis court measurements, finalize program rules, and evaluate sound impacts associated with relocating the courts to different parts of the facility.

During the April 22 commission meet-

Four tennis courts—courts 7, 8, 11, and 12—were measured to determine suitability for conversion. Courts 8 and 12 had the largest surface areas at 6,883 and 6,893 square feet, respectively, while court 11

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Council of the City of Beverly Hills, at its regular meeting to be held on Tuesday, June 17, 2025, at 7:00 p.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, in the Council Chamber of the City Hall, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210, will hold a public hearing to consider:

EXTENSION OF AN URGENCY ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS AMENDING SINGLE-FAMILY RESIDENTIAL DEVELOPMENT REGULATIONS AND OBJECTIVE STANDARDS FOR TWO-PRIMARY UNIT PROJECTS AND URBAN LOT SPLITS

On May 6, 2025, the City Council adopted Ordinance No. 25-O-2913, an interim urgency ordinance pursuant to Government Code §65858. This ordinance is effective for an initial 45-day period and will expire on June 20, 2025. The City Council will consider adoption of an ordinance to extend the effective period of this ordinance for an additional 10 months and 15 days, for a total effective period of one year. This extension is necessary to provide additional time for the research and preparation of a permanent set of regulations to address the issues discussed in the interim ordinance. Staff recommends that the City Council waive the full reading of the draft ordinance, introduce it by title only, and conduct a public hearing for the adoption of the ordinance.

As required per Government Code §65858, a written report of findings describing the measures taken to alleviate the condition that led to the adoption of the ordinance will be available for review during normal business hours at the Office of the City Clerk Office located at City Hall, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Second Floor, Beverly Hills, CA 90210 at least ten days before the City Council will consider adoption of the ordinance.

ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW

This project has been assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City. The Amendments were assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City. The ordinance is not considered a project under CEQA pursuant to Government Code Sections 65852.21(j) and 66411.7(n) which provide that ordinances that implement Government Code Sections 65852.21 and 66411.7, respectively, shall not be considered projects under CEQA. Staff recommends that the City Council consider finding the project exempt from CEQA for the reasons set forth above.

was the smallest at 6,709 square feet.

A sound study was also conducted to assess potential noise impacts on nearby residences and neighboring courts. According to the study, converting courts 7, 8, and 12 to pickleball would not result in a significant noise impact to residents. A second configuration—converting courts 7, 11, and 12—would produce slightly more audible noise for nearby residents but still fall within acceptable thresholds, according to the staff report. However, that configuration was found to generate a more intense sound impact on adjacent tennis courts, particularly because it would move pickleball activity closer to courts 10 and 15 and surround court 8.

This item will be presented to the City Council at a future meeting.

A World of Archipelagos

As summer vacations approach, in case you are thinking about where to go, I want to tell you about three trips Anne and I took earlier this year to visit some of the archipelagos in the Pacific, Indian and Atlantic Oceans.

An archipelago is a group or chain of islands clustered together in a body of water. For a familiar example, the Hawaiian Islands are an archipelago.

This is a tale of ten archipelagos.

The South Pacific Archipelago Collection.

This trip included:

The Solomon Islands, a country consisting of six major islands and around one thousand islands. It was a British colony until achieving independence in 1976 (one of several archipelago countries younger than me). These islands have been settled more than 30,000 years ago and examples of ancient indigenous culture are everywhere. The main island is Guadalcanal which was the site of a ferocious land and sea battle in WWII and there is an excellent museum commemorating that battle.

The Republic of Vanuatu, an independent country since 1980, previously known as New Hebrides, named by Captain Cook because it reminded him of the western coast of Scotland (he obviously overlooked the differences in weather). Vanuatu consists of a Y-shaped group of more than 80 islands. The island of Ambryn offered a rough ride in the back of pick up trucks, seemingly without shock absorbers, to a huge desert caldera. a bowl-shaped volcanic depression that forms when a volcano erupts and the interior collapses leaving the bowl. The islands of Moso and Tanna offered spectacular snorkeling and diving.

The Republic of Fiji, also an independent country since 1980, consists of around 330 islands, with a population of around 1,000,000, divided 60/40 between indigenous Fijians and Indo-Fijians whose ancestors came as indentured servants to work in the sugar fields starting in the late 19th Century. We visited Beqa, Taveuni, Kadavu and Vita Levu islands for swimming, snorkeling and the indigenous culture.

Territory of Wallis & Fortuna is a

French “collectivity” consisting of two island groups that are around 150 miles apart with a total population of only 11,000; no wonder you’ve never heard of it. We hiked and snorkeled in the Wallis group. And I am the only guy in my neighborhood with a Wallis & Fortuna t-shirt.

Indian Ocean Collection

This trip included:

Zanzibar in the United Republic of Tanzania. The country of Tanzania was formed in 1964 and the name is a contraction between Tanganyika and Zanzibar. Zanzibar is a semi-autonomous Tanzanian archipelago consisting of two large islands and a large number of small ones. The population is mostly Muslim. The central attraction is Stone Town, the old part of Zanzibar city. Stone Town was a central hub of the East African slave trade during the 19th century. It consists of old stone buildings on very narrow streets. I found exploration challenging because the streets are either not named or named only in Arabic.

Kilwa Kisiwani is part of the Tanzanian archipelago and the home of a UNESCO World Heritage site on Kilwa Island. This is the location of the archaeological remains of the Kilwa Sultanate’s Swahili City State which flourished from the 13th Century through the 15th Century.

Then, a number of stops in the Republic of Seychelles, an island country of 155 islands that obtained independence from the UK in 1976. The Seychelles is a remarkably successful country with the highest per capita GDP and highest Human Development of any African nation.

Aldabra Atoll – part of the outer islands of the Seychelles, approximately 700 miles from the capital of the Seychelles. An atoll is a ring-shaped coral reef, island, or series of islets that encircle a central lagoon initially formed by the eruption and subsidence of a volcano. This is the world’s second largest atoll at 21 miles by 8 miles. We explored the interior with its very diverse wildlife, principally birds, by zodiac.

Astove Island – an outer Seychelles island. Spectacular snorkeling around an undersea cliff with an enormous dropoff. Best if you can swim.

Cosmoledo Atoll – a 10 mile by 6 mile uninhabited island with 17 feet at its highest point. Nice swimming.

Farquhar Atoll – the southernmost of the Seychelles atolls; huge (65 square mile) lagoon; lots of sea turtles.

Remire Island – home of giant turtles but not much else – it is only 1/3 of a square mile.

Aride Island – this is a nature reserve managed by the Island Conservation Society of the Seychelles. It is home to huge nesting seabird colonies and can be visited only by Zodiac.

Mahe Island – this is the main island of the Seychelles and we spent a few nights at the new Cheval Blanc resort. It is beautiful and another reminder of what Beverly Hills missed thanks to the referendum sponsored and financed by an outside union. A word to those W.C. Fields disciples who believe that any man who hates kids and dogs can’t be all bad – Cheval Blanc caters to families with young children. But it is located on the most spectacular beach I have ever seen.

The Atlantic Ocean Collection

This trip started and ended in wonderful Lisbon, Portugal (more on that shortly) and a flight to Praia, the capital of the West African archipelago country of Cabo Verde. Cabo Verde was a Portuguese colony until it became independent in 1975. I didn’t see much because shortly after arriving, I tested positive for COVID and was quarantined for 24 hours. A minor case and I don’t think I missed much except for lunch in Praia that appeared eminently missable.

The trip included three major European archipelagos, the Canary Islands, Madeira and the Azores. All were very beautiful, prosperous and very European. The Canary Islands are an “Autonomous Community of Spain.” With 2.25M inhabitants, these islands are the most populous overseas territory of the European Union. We visited three of the seven main islands, La Palma, La Gomera and Tenerife. These are major tourist destinations, drawing over 14 million visitors annually. It is easy to see why they are so attractive. They have beautiful beaches, great Spanish food and spectacular volcanic mountains. Lots of attractive hillside housing spilling down to the sea.

The Autonomous Region of Madeira is a region of Portugal. This was likely my favorite of all the archipelagos. Perhaps this was because our visit included a Foodie walking tour that included stops for a pork in wine and garlic sandwich, “Espada” a local fish, grilled tuna, Portuguese sausage, great bread, Madeira wine, local beer and Madeira honey cake.

The Autonomous Region of the Azores consists of nine major volcanic islands which have had this autonomous status since 1976. The island of Sao Miguel is like a miniature Yellowstone with active volcanoes and hot springs. We visited Furnas Lake where our lunch, a form of Portuguese stew was cooked in clay pots buried in the hot sand. The stew was ok but the accompanying Portuguese beer was the best.

This trip ended with three great days in Lisbon with our friends Maxine and Eliot Finkel. Anne, Maxine and I took a cooking class and I took a long walk to Livraria Bertrand, the world’s oldest bookstore established in 1732. It’s English language collection was ok but its location was great – right next to a really good gelato shop.

I hope that this brief discussion of archipelagos inspires you. Let me know if you want more details.

On Friday May 23, I was excited to attend the playoff baseball game between BHHS and Pioneer High School of Whittier. For the first time in several years, the team made it to the third round of the CIF Playoffs. I went in part because, as you may know, I am a high school sports junkie but mostly to see first hand what the recent BHUSD sports uniform kerfluffle is all about. I can now report from first hand experience that the Beverly uniforms were beautiful, far nicer than the Pioneer High outfits, and our team looked very handsome and professional.

I note that no members of the Board of Education were in attendance. I am hopeful that this was because they were doing their job and devoting their attention to improving academics (their only job), not being distracted by micromanaging the way our sports teams are outfitted.

Fortunately, there is no connection between academic greatness and success in athletics. While it is possible that some students who participate in sports are better students than those who do not participate, that doesn’t mean that such participation causes academic success.

With only 1100 students and no appetite for allowing for the recruitment of 50 to 100 athletes on permits from around Los Angeles County, there is little possibility that BHHS will ever be an athletic powerhouse in sports such as football, basketball or baseball.

Any minute that our District administration spends in pursuit of that impossible and academically irrelevant dream is a wasted minute that could and should have been spent pursuing attainable goals of improving the education of our students.

Mayor Sharona Nazarian and Akil Davis, Assistant Director in Charge of the FBI’s Los Angeles Field Office.

“We are pleased to welcome our guest speakers, and expect to have an informative discussion on matters of importance to the Beverly Hills community, along with an opportunity for audience questions.” said Thomas White, Chair of the Municipal League.

Founded in 1962, the Municipal League of Beverly Hills is a nonprofit, citywide residents’ association focused on promoting good government, residential quality of life, and strong public schools.

The League’s membership will also elect its Board of Governors during the meeting.

The event is free and open to all residents and members of the public. Refreshments will be served.

BHUSD Launches Video Series Highlighting Educators and Staff

The BHUSD has launched a new video series titled Mrs. Marcus Meets, an initiative led by Board of Education President Rachelle Marcus. The series is designed to spotlight the work of educators and staff who support the district’s mission.

In each episode, Marcus visits a BHU-

SD campus to meet with teachers and other staff members who contribute to student success. The series aims to highlight the individuals who embody BHUSD’s core values: Excellence, Integrity, Wellness, Inclusion, Safety, and Community.

The first episode premiered at the BHUSD Board of Education meeting on May 27 and features Dr. Fred Pinto, the Mu-

PUBLIC RAISES CONCERNS OVER NIKE CONTRACT DURING BOARD MEETING

By Danielle Berjikian

Concerns over BHUSD's five-year agreement with Nike and its distributor BSN Sports resurfaced at its Tuesday Board of Education meeting, as public speakers raised issues with how the deal was initially approved and how it could affect school athletics.

The contract, which was previously passed in a 3-0-2 vote with Board President Rachelle Marcus and Board Member Mandy Stern abstaining, would provide Nike-branded uniforms, footwear, and equipment for athletics beginning July 1. The agreement includes promotional incentives based on spending thresholds but does not mandate a minimum purchase amount. Although the item was approved earlier this month, it was embedded in the latest draft of the Joint Use Agreements.

Concerns have been previously raised about the process and timing of the approval, particularly over the contract's placement on the consent calendar—a section usually reserved for routine items.

Public speakers at Tuesday's meeting voiced dissatisfaction with both the process by which the contract was approved and its potential impact.

Beverly Hills resident Robbie Curtis criticized the placement of the original vote on the consent calendar.

"I've never seen an item flagged to be pulled from the consent calendar, get ignored and steamrolled until May 13," he said. "That wasn't a mistake—that was a message."

Curtis went on to characterize the contract as neither a true sponsorship nor a partnership, and said the approval was lacking in public engagement. He also questioned the need for brand alignment, arguing that educational priorities such as reading proficiency should take precedence over uniform consistency.

Curtis also went on to say the vote was rushed and approved because of an "artificial deadline."

"It's been my experience that when a deadline is imposed to apply pressure, something's not right," he said. "Do you honestly believe BSN wouldn't have given us the same deal if we voted on it tonight? They're a business and no one is going to turn away a guaranteed contract."

Curtis called the handling of the BSN vote "a continuation of the Bregy administration's pattern: ignore the process, silence the dissent, and consolidate control," claiming it reflects a broader push to control "what students wear, what they design, what they hang on the walls."

David Corwin, president of the Beverly Hills Athletic Alumni Association (BHAAA), expressed surprise that the organization—which has funded nearly all high school athletic uniforms for 18 years—was not consulted before the agreement was approved.

"Proper due diligence should have been done to understand how such an arrangement could impact the primary uniform funding source," he said, referring to BHAAA.

He outlined several logistical concerns with the agreement, including Nike's reported supply chain delays, restrictions on custom uniforms counting toward the agreement's benefits, and the annual spending threshold of $225,000, which he said far exceeds BHAAA's historical contributions. He also noted that BSN already offers schools sizable discounts and rebates even without a brand partnership.

Corwin urged the Board to consider whether the agreement is truly beneficial, and to include stakeholders such as coaches, the athletic department, and BHAAA in future discussions. He also emphasized that the agreement can be terminated with 10 days' notice.

"I think this gives you a great opportunity to go about your analysis the right way—to gather historical spending data, to bring the stakeholders into the discussion—so you can better understand the needs of the athletic department, and the impact of a brand partnership, since this was not done previously. You can then determine what's truly beneficial and renegotiate with Nike and/or BSN and either redo the deal or terminate it," Corwin said.

BHAAA has donated $947,180 to the district and has paid for nearly all high school athletic uniforms over the past 18 years. They also award four scholarships annually to graduating athletes.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call 800-280-2832 or visit this internet website www.ndscorp.com/ sales, using the file number assigned to this case 24-20197-SP-CA. If you are a "representative of all eligible tenant buyers" you may be able to purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction.
