Soofer Charged With Federal Fraud in Alleged Misuse of Homelessness Funds

A 2002 Beverly Hills graduate and nonprofit executive was arrested Tuesday on a federal criminal complaint alleging he fraudulently obtained more than $23 million in public funds intended to address homelessness in Los Angeles and diverted a significant portion of the money for personal use.

Alexander Soofer is charged with one count of wire fraud, according to federal authorities.

Federal prosecutors allege that Soofer, through his role as executive director of Abundant Blessings, a Hyde Park-based nonprofit organization, secured multiple contracts to provide housing and supportive services for people experiencing homelessness or at risk of becoming homeless. The contracts were issued through the Los Angeles Homeless Services Authority (LAHSA) and a separate downtown Los Angeles nonprofit, Special Service for Groups Inc.

According to court documents, between 2018 and 2025 Soofer received more than $23 million in public funding for homeless services. Of that amount, more than $5 million allegedly came directly from LAHSA, while over $17 million was distributed through Special Service for Groups Inc. By mid-2023, Abundant Blessings had contracts to serve more than 600 individuals at multiple locations in South Los Angeles.

Prosecutors allege that Soofer misrepresented how the funds were used, falsely claiming the money was spent exclusively on housing and services for program participants. Instead, authorities contend he diverted at least $10 million to personal bank accounts and used the funds for expenses including a $7 million home in Westwood, home renovations, a luxury vehicle, private school tuition, private jet travel, and stays at high-end resorts. Investigators also allege that Soofer sent approximately $475,000 to a Greek property developer to purchase a vacation property.

The complaint further alleges that Soofer submitted false and misleading invoices to conceal the misuse of funds, at times using the names and logos of legitimate businesses without authorization. Authorities claim he also created the appearance that his nonprofit was leasing properties from third-party landlords at market rates, while in fact paying himself above-market rent.

Federal investigators additionally allege that Soofer failed to provide contracted services to homeless participants. Site visits conducted by city and county investigators reportedly found limited food options at some locations, including instant noodles and canned goods, despite contractual requirements to provide three nutritionally balanced meals per day.

According to the complaint, Soofer also falsely represented that Abundant Blessings had an active governing board overseeing its finances. Investigators later determined that some listed board members did not exist, while others had no knowledge of the organization.

The case is being investigated by the FBI, IRS Criminal Investigation, and the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development Office of Inspector General. The prosecution is being handled by the U.S. Attorney's Office for the Central District of California.

Soofer faces a potential maximum sentence of 20 years in federal prison if convicted.

"Soofer is charged with embezzling funds designated to provide services for homeless individuals – some of the most vulnerable, struggling members of our community," said Acting Special Agent in Charge Aaron McCullough with the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development Office of Inspector General (HUD-OIG). "HUD-OIG remains committed to working alongside our partners on the Homelessness Fraud and Corruption Task Force to aggressively pursue individuals who compromise the integrity of HUD programs and exploit communities in need."

City Reviews Relocation Options for Carol Bove Sculpture After Years of Maintenance Challenges

The City is considering relocating IO, a public sculpture by artist Carol Bove, following a decade of ongoing maintenance concerns and debates over its placement and presentation.

The stainless-steel sculpture was selected in 2014 through the then-Fine Art Commission's Priority Exercise and approved for installation in Beverly Gardens Park in September 2015. Located at the corner of Beverly Drive and Parkway, the painted glyph was mounted on a flat, six-inch cement plinth flush with the ground. The artwork was purchased for $200,000.

Shortly after installation, by October 2015, the sculpture began to show signs of public interaction, including scratches and black marks. City staff consulted with David Zwirner Gallery, which represented the artist at the time, as well as Standard Sculpture, the fabricator selected by the artist, to discuss the condition of the piece and possible solutions.

During a City Council meeting on September 19, 2017, officials were presented with the option of returning the sculpture to the gallery for a refund, minus a design fee, due to ongoing maintenance issues. The City Council, in agreement with the Fine Art Commission, opted instead to retain the artwork and explore modifications to its base to discourage public contact.

In 2019, IO was restored and reinstalled on a redesigned base consisting of six 12-inch pillars set within a bow tie-shaped planter surrounded by flowering ceanothus. Less than a month later, staff observed that the polyurethane gloss topcoat had begun to peel in several areas. The artist also expressed concerns that the new base did not align with her original artistic intent. She requested that a six-foot fence and privacy screen be installed to block public view until the sculpture could be returned to its original low-profile plinth.

On May 20, City staff presented a report to the City Council seeking direction on the future of the sculpture.

Council directed staff to identify alternative locations that would provide high visibility for public enjoyment while reducing the level of physical interaction associated with the original site in Beverly Gardens Park.

Staff compiled a list of potential locations and reviewed them with the City Architect to assess feasibility. Viable sites were then evaluated by the Arts and Culture Commission and the Recreation and Parks Commission before being shared with the artist's representative from Gagosian Gallery. Two locations were ultimately identified as meeting the project's goals: Maltz Mini Park at 9800 Sunset Boulevard and the Burton Way median at Foothill Road and Burton Way.

Liaisons preferred to install the artwork on Burton Way

City staff plan to return to the City Council to seek approval of a preferred site. If approved, Community Services staff will work with Public Works to determine final costs related to de-installation, restoration, reconstruction of the original base, transportation, and reinstallation.

Beverly Hills Theater Cancels Comedian's Show Amid Controversy

The Fine Arts Theatre in Beverly Hills canceled a scheduled performance by Israeli comedian Guy Hochman after allegations surfaced claiming he supported violence against Palestinian civilians.

The theater had rented its space to an event promoter for Hochman's show on Tuesday, January 27. According to a statement from Michael Hall, president of the theater's parent company, Screening Services Group, the venue did not request information about Hochman's political views before the booking.

Complaints regarding Hochman emerged the day after the performance, prompting the theater to investigate. Hall stated that the theater could not verify the allegations beyond the original accuser and offered Hochman the chance to publicly refute them. “He declined to do so. He is now banned from our facility,” Hall said in the statement. He emphasized that the theater does not take political positions and does not support genocide against any group.

The cancellation prompted a backlash from free speech advocates and members of the Jewish community. In response, the theater issued an apology, acknowledging it was inappropriate to require any artist to make political statements as a condition for appearing.

Speaking to The Hollywood Reporter, Hochman called the theater’s apology insincere, suggesting it was motivated by outside pressure rather than principle.

After the apology, Hall reportedly reached out to Hochman’s representatives to reopen discussions about the performance, but the comedian declined.

“I don’t want to perform there because he subjected me to a test,” he said, according to The Hollywood Reporter. “It was a loyalty test. I prefer my people above my career. And I will never say untrue things about my people — say we rape and starve and commit genocide. This is not the story. I don’t believe it. And it’s cynical.”

Progress on the project was temporarily paused as staff prioritized other Work Plan initiatives, including the Pickleball Pilot Program and improvements at La Cienega Park, such as playground and restroom upgrades.

Commissioners expressed support for simplified, consistent signage that uses clear visuals and straightforward messaging. While QR codes were initially considered as part of the signage design, they were ultimately removed due to concerns about potential tampering.

Proposed updates to park rules included new restrictions on drone use, expanded smoking definitions to include vaping and cannabis, and clearer guidance regarding e-bike and e-scooter use. ## School District Shame/Letter from Oz

From January 4 to 19, my son Nick Ostroff and I visited Sydney and Melbourne, Australia (Oz). Melbourne was the scene of my numerous misadventures in 1968 when I taught tort and contract law at Monash University (still the only university named for a Jewish General of the Australian armed forces). In case you were wondering, both Sydney and Melbourne were named for British politicians.

This was a bit of a sports trip to watch the England v. Australia Cricket Test Match (news flash — Australia retained the Ashes trophy), the Australia Sports Hall of Fame at the Melbourne Cricket Ground and the Australian Open Tennis tournament.

I have a number of impressions based on this visit and other visits over the last 50+ years.

But before I get to that, I want to tell you about Daniel Lifschitz, a BHUSD concerned parent and talented young lawyer at the Century City firm of Gipson, Hoffman & Pancione.

Mr. Lifschitz, like many others in the community, has been increasingly appalled by the behavior of a majority of the members of the Board of Education since the election of two new members. When he observed the recent election of officers that disregarded express ByLaws of the District and any norms of decency and proposals by the Board to try to paper over their unlawful conduct, he decided to take action.

Specifically, earlier this week he went into Superior Court seeking immediate injunctive relief that would, among other things, preclude after the fact amendment of by laws and require compliance with the rules in effect at the time of the organizational meeting and install Dr. Stern as Vice President and President Elect. The lawsuit was filed under Mr. Lifschitz's own name, not in the name of his law firm.

The Superior Court judge who heard the matter on Tuesday morning January 27, declined to issue an emergency order prohibiting the after the fact amendment. The court did not rule on the merits of the application and did not address whether the Board had acted lawfully. Rather, the court found that a full hearing on the issue in the near future would be needed and that any action that the board might now take could be undone if the court was persuaded that the board's actions were unlawful or otherwise inappropriate.

Astonishingly, the District's offices, without any apparent effort to seek approval by the Board as a whole, issued a statement gloating that the court was: "thus reaffirming that the Board conducts its business lawfully, transparently, and in full compliance with applicable law."

The court did no such thing and I am certain that the judge would be as astonished as I am that the District would make such a statement.

While members of the board may claim a victory of sorts, any victory lap would be decidedly premature. On the contrary, the proposed amendment to the bylaws itself is undeniably a clear admission by the majority that their election of Ms. Sabag violated the bylaws then in effect.

To make matters even worse, someone at the Board of Education, I can only speculate as to who it was, directed a district employee to send a copy of the totally false press release to every lawyer in the law firm that employs Mr. Lifschitz. This causes me to wonder why the District would see fit to publish a false report and then, having done so, attempt to undermine the employment relationship of a young lawyer. Is this what we want our school district leaders to be doing? Does this vindictive conduct somehow improve District academics? I will leave it to you to reach your own conclusions and decide what can and should be done about it.

Mr. Lifschitz's courage and willingness to invest substantial amounts of his time and energy should serve as an example for all of us who care about the direction of the School District.

Now, I shall turn to Australia, a country that shares many of the issues with the U.S. including a rise in anti-semitism, increasing attention to diversity and a love of sport.

Let's start with anti-semitism. Australia has a Jewish population of only around 120,000 out of a total population of around 28 million or .4%; the U.S. has a Jewish population of around 7.5 million out of a population of around 350 million or between 2% and 3% of the total. The Jewish population of Australia is concentrated in Sydney and Melbourne. In those cities, there is increasing concern about anti-semitism.

This concern has accelerated after the attack that killed 15 people at a Chanukah celebration at Bondi Beach, Sydney. Notably, a prominent Australian said it's not a gun problem, it's an antisemitism problem. The brother of a non-Jewish policeman who was killed said: "why can't it be two things at once? ... an antisemite without a gun is just a hate filled person; an antisemite with a gun is a killer." I believe this reasoning applies also to those gun advocates who argue: guns don't kill people; people kill people. In all fairness, people with guns kill people.

On January 8, the Prime Minister of Australia formed a Royal Commission on antisemitism to investigate the prevalence of antisemitism in Australia, help law enforcement tackle antisemitism, examine the circumstances surrounding the Bondi Beach terrorist attack that killed 15 and injured more than 100 persons and make recommendations that could strengthen social cohesion and counter the spread of extremism. A final report is due by the end of 2026. The Commission will be conducted by Virginia Bell, a retired Justice of the High Court of Australia (Australia's highest court), who was the first openly gay person to serve on the court.

One could argue that the need for such an examination is even more acute in the U.S. But this is far too much to expect from a government led by a Divider in Chief and his imitators who believe that cohesion is appropriate only to the extent it supports their views.

An Australian commentator, Michael Koziol, the North American correspondent for the Sydney Morning Herald, put it this way when reporting on the ICE agent killing of Renee Good in Minneapolis on January 7: "You would think serious responsible people would want an investigation before they jump to conclusions. But that is not a feature of today's America, where it is more important to prosecute the politics than nail the facts, and imperative to play the politics as hard as possible."

In Melbourne, I had an experience that underscores the fact that print newspapers are dying everywhere. On my first morning I went to the hotel front desk and asked "Where can I get a copy of 'The Age' (Melbourne's world famous daily newspaper)?"

Concierge: "What's that?"

Me: "The Age daily newspaper."

Concierge: "Let me check" as he went into a back office. He returned after a minute or two.

Concierge: "Try the 7-11 on the next block."

I did, with success, but what a message about print media!

And even 8,000 miles away from Los Angeles, there is no escape from housing affordability issues. It seems that Australia, like California and other places perceived as desirable to live, has a housing affordability issue. In order to meet the National Housing Accord target of 377,000 new homes in the State of New South Wales (population nearly 9 million) of which Sydney (population nearly 6 million in the metro area) is the capital, the state government has enacted low rise and mid rise planning reforms that override local controls.

These reforms are not unfamiliar to those knowledgeable about California's feckless and unsuccessful efforts to deal with housing unaffordability issues. For example, the state has mandated in residential neighborhoods of one and two story homes, within 800 meters (slightly more than ½ mile) of a transport hub or town center (typically a small shopping center or shopping street), residential buildings, and apartment buildings of up to six stories are now permitted. And a 20 to 30 % increase in floor space and building height is allowed as an "uplift" bonus if 10% of the gross floor area is dedicated to affordable housing for 15 years.

The reaction has been mixed. Many residents of the beautiful single family neighborhoods on the many bays along the magnificent Sydney harbor express outrage at the destruction of their way of life. However, in a harbinger of what could occur in the wake of SB79 and the like, homeowners of adjoining properties are combining their properties to capitalize on huge increases in the values of their land triggered by the rezoning changes. Councilmember John Mirisch will not be surprised as he has often characterized such incentives as FSD- Free Stuff for Developers (except that Mr. Mirisch does not use the word "stuff.")

All in all a great trip with Nick who, through it all, listened politely to most of my stories. I will discuss the sports aspects in a future column

An update on the Mirisch efforts to proceed with a re-election campaign.

In 2021, the City Council put an initiative on the ballot proposing a three term limit for members of the City Council and proposing that terms served and completed prior to the effective date of the initiative would count towards that three term limit. The state law that allows general law cities such as Beverly Hills to impose term limits specifically provides that term limit enactments be "prospective only." Nonetheless, the City's term limit enactment provides that terms served prior to the enactment count and the City has refused to accept nomination papers from Mr. Mirisch.

Now, Mr. Mirisch is challenging that refusal in a lawsuit brought by Eric George (BHHS Class of 1986). A hearing that should resolve the issue will likely be scheduled for the week of February 23.

TRO AGAINST BHUSD DENIED

BHUSD Board Approves Changes to Officer Election Bylaws

By Danielle Berjikian

A legal complaint filed this week has added a new dimension to an ongoing dispute within the BHUSD Board of Education, as the board approved changes to its bylaws governing the election of officers and re-elected Sigalie Sabag as vice president in a 3–2 vote, with Amanda Stern and Rachelle Marcus voting against the decision, at its Tuesday meeting.

The complaint, filed by district parent Daniel Lifschitz, sought a temporary restraining order and preliminary injunction to prevent the board from amending Board Bylaw 9100 or holding a new vote for vice president. The request for a temporary restraining order was denied by the court.

The filing comes amid continued controversy over the board's December 2025 organizational meeting, when board members voted not to appoint Amanda Stern as vice president despite her having received the highest number of votes in the Nov. 2024 election.

"While the Court declined to issue a temporary restraining order against the Board, I remain optimistic. Without passing judgment on the merits of the case, Judge Chalfant reasoned that because Ms. Sabag's election to the vice presidency can always be later undone should the lawsuit prove successful, there isn't enough irreparable harm threatened by permitting the election to proceed for now to justify immediate injunctive relief. I look forward to continuing the lawsuit in its normal course and am committed to holding the Board accountable," Lifschitz said.

Under the previous version of Bylaw 9100, the vice presidency is determined by rotation based on length of service during the current term. When board members have equal tenure, the bylaw specifies that the position should go to the member who received the most votes in the most recent election. Lifschitz's complaint argues that this language made Stern's election to the vice presidency mandatory and that the board lacked discretion to select another member.

Instead, the board elected Sigalie Sabag to the position. Supporters of Stern have argued that the decision violated the board's own rules.

According to the court filing, the petitioner contends that the board majority — Judy Manouchehri, Sigalie Sabag, and Russell Stuart — acted unlawfully by disregarding the existing bylaw and now intends to retroactively change the rules to justify the outcome. The complaint sought to prevent a proposed "redo" of the vice president election scheduled for the evening of January 27, following a planned amendment to Bylaw 9100.

The bylaw revision, approved by the board at Tuesday's meeting, removes all language specifying a rotation system or vote-based order for selecting the vice president. Under the revised language, the board would simply elect a president, vice president, and clerk during its annual organizational meeting, without prescribed criteria for how those officers are chosen.

The complaint argues that any bylaw amendment adopted after the December organizational meeting cannot be applied retroactively and that state law requires officer elections to take place in December. It further contends that changing the rules after the fact undermines the integrity of the board's governance process and voter expectations.

Although the court declined to issue immediate injunctive relief, the lawsuit remains pending.

Pickleball Pilot Program Transitions to Permanent Operations Following Council Approval

The City has formally transitioned the Pickleball Pilot Program into permanent operations following a series of approvals by City Council and the completion of court conversions and resurfacing at two major recreation facilities.

According to an update at the Recreation and Parks Commission meeting, as part of the program's rollout, the Playbypoint reservation system began beta testing in January. A group of 20 community members was selected to participate in the initial testing phase, including 10 tennis players and 10 pickleball players. The cohort includes 15 Beverly Hills residents and five non-residents, representing a range of skill levels and technical experience, from users familiar with the Playbypoint platform to individuals with limited technological background.

At the August 5, 2025 Study Session, City Council approved a recommendation from the Recreation and Parks City Council Liaisons to move forward with finalizing the program, including the implementation of a new reservation software system. During the subsequent Council meeting, the Council approved court conversion plans at both the La Cienega and Roxbury facilities.

Court conversion and resurfacing work at both locations was completed on October 31, 2025. With City Council's approval of the final court configurations and program rules, the Pickleball Pilot Program officially transitioned from a pilot phase into permanent operations.

Community feedback has been shared with the city particularly regarding the proposed per-person fee structure, recent fee increases, and ongoing concerns about disruptive large groups using the courts.

City staff are currently evaluating the feedback and preparing a new recommendation for the City Council. The proposal is expected to address fee-related concerns and include a new rule that would prohibit the use of pickleball and tennis courts for organized meet-up groups.

Horace Mann Hosts Winter Wonderland Community Event

Horace Mann Elementary School held a Winter Wonderland event on Tuesday, January 13, bringing together students, families, and staff for an evening of school-based activities on campus.

The City of Beverly Hills' Community Services Department kicked off its Music in the Mansion chamber concert series at the historic Greystone Mansion & Gardens on January 25. The first of two concerts featured pianist Dominik Yoder to a sold-out audience, followed by Duo Charbonneau and Arisa Makita for the second performance. Activities included artificial snowfall, music, winter-themed crafts, and cookie decorating. Food offerings were available for purchase and included hot cocoa, pizza, and cotton candy. Students participated in hands-on activities while parents and school staff attended and supervised throughout the evening.

"What made this night so special wasn't just the snow or the sweets, it was the joy of seeing our community come together," said Principal Steven Suttle. "Events like this reflect the heart of Horace Mann. You could feel the sense of connection, tradition, and Husky pride in every moment."

The game followed Beverly Hills’ Friday night matchup against Santa Monica High School and drew a large crowd, with more than 700 spectators in attendance. Students, families, alumni, and community members filled the gym, in-

The Normans are led by head coach Adam Verdi, who is in his first season as varsity head coach.

“This was more than a win,” said Principal Loan Sriruksa. “It was a reflection of who we are becoming as a school community; resilient, united, and deeply invested in one another’s success.”

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (949) 776-4697 or visit this internet website https://prestigepostandpub.com, using the file number assigned to this case 25-15902. this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. No. 010037-CA APN: 4336-021-003 NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE IMPORTANT NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: YOU ARE IN DEFAULT UNDER A DEED OF TRUST, DATED 11/7/2006. UNLESS YOU TAKE ACTION TO PROTECT YOUR PROPERTY, IT MAY BE SOLD AT A PUBLIC SALE. IF YOU NEED AN EXPLANATION OF THE NATURE OF THE PROCEEDING AGAINST YOU, YOU SHOULD CONTACT A LAWYER On 2/18/2026 at 10:30 AM, CLEAR RECON CORP., as duly appointed trustee under and pursuant to Deed of Trust recorded 11/22/2006 as Instrument No. 20062598709 in Book N/A Page N/A of Official Records in the office of the County Recorder of Los Angeles County, State of CALIFORNIA executed by: BODOKI ROZALINA, TRUSTEE OF THE SF. ANTON DE PADUVA TRUST DATED OCTOBER 26, 2006 WILL SELL AT PUBLIC AUCTION TO HIGHEST BIDDER FOR CASH, CASHIER'S CHECK DRAWN ON A STATE OR NATIONAL BANK, A CHECK DRAWN BY A STATE OR FEDERAL CREDIT UNION, OR A CHECK DRAWN BY A STATE OR FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION, SAVINGS ASSOCIATION, OR SAVINGS BANK SPECIFIED IN SECTION 5102 OF THE FINANCIAL CODE AND AUTHORIZED TO DO BUSINESS IN THIS STATE; BEHIND THE FOUNTAIN LOCATED IN CIVIC CENTER PLAZA, 400 CIVIC CENTER PLAZA, POMONA, CA 91766 all right, title and interest conveyed to and now held by it under said Deed of Trust in the property situated in said County and State described as: AS MORE FULLY DESCRIBED IN SAID DEED OF TRUST The street address and other common designation, if any, of the real property described above is purported to be: 9038 ASHCROFT AVENUE, WEST HOLLYWOOD, CA 90048-1705 The undersigned Trustee disclaims any liability for any incorrectness of the street address and other common designation, if any, shown herein. Said sale will be held, but without covenant or warranty, express or implied, regarding title, possession, condition, or encumbrances, including fees, charges and expenses of the Trustee and of the trusts created by said Deed of Trust, to pay the remaining principal sums of the note(s) secured by said Deed of Trust. The total amount of the unpaid balance of the obligation secured by the property to be sold and reasonable estimated costs, expenses and advances at the time of the initial publication of the Notice of Sale is: $1,754,026.02 If the Trustee is unable to convey title for any reason, the successful bidder's sole and exclusive remedy shall be the return of monies paid to the Trustee, and the successful bidder shall have no further recourse. The beneficiary under said Deed of Trust heretofore executed and delivered to the undersigned a written Declaration of Default and Demand for Sale, and a written Notice of Default and Election to Sell. The undersigned or its predecessor caused said Notice of Default and Election to Sell to be recorded in the county where the real property is located. NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (855) 313-3319 or visit this Internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 010037-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 010037-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.
