Former Beverly Hills Deputy Fire Chief Arrested for Alleged Stalking

A former Beverly Hills Fire Department employee was arrested following multiple vandalism incidents on Sept. 21.

Detectives identified 63-year-old Alfred Poirier as a suspect. He was arrested on suspicion of stalking and vandalism.

Poirier is scheduled to appear Nov. 22 at the Los Angeles County Superior Court's Airport Courthouse. He was released on $150,000 bond.

Preliminary information indicates that computer-generated images were posted at several city facilities on multiple occasions, according to BHPD.

Coy Middlebrook Named Artistic Director of The Wallis

Coy Middlebrook has been named artistic director of the Wallis.

Middlebrook will oversee artistic planning and programming.

Jean Davidson, Executive Director and CEO, said, "This is an exciting moment for The Wallis as we look ahead to our next chapter and think expansively about what a performing arts center can mean to the people and communities it serves."

Coy Middlebrook

Middlebrook has been involved with The Wallis since its inaugural season. "The opportunity before us is to think about the audience experience in a much broader way," said Middlebrook. "A performance can be a beginning rather than an endpoint—a way to open a door to a new artist, a newly discovered impulse to learn a new form of expression. Bringing artistic planning and education together gives us another powerful way to create those connections."

Beverly Hills Adopts New Ordinance to Implement Lower Speed Limits

Following changes to state law, the City will begin implementing a new ordinance that establishes lower speed limits on several streets, which will go into effect Oct. 1.

Previously, cities were allowed to set limits based on the speed at which most drivers were traveling. In 2022, Assembly Bill 43 gave cities more flexibility to consider criteria such as crash history and land use.

"Reducing our speed limits in key corridors throughout Beverly Hills will

"Twenty-one years ago, I had the privilege of hiring Ellen at Hawthorne School, and I still remember the energy, intelligence, and enthusiasm she brought to our team," said Alex Cherniss, BHUSD Superintendent. NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

The Council of the City of Beverly Hills, at its regular meeting to be held on Tuesday, October 20, 2026, at 7:00 p.m., or as soon thereafter as the matter may be heard, in the Council Chamber of the City Hall, 455 N. Rexford Drive, Beverly Hills, CA 90210, will hold a public hearing to consider:

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS AMENDING THE ONE BEVERLY HILLS OVERLAY SPECIFIC PLAN AND AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS AMENDING THE DEVELOPMENT AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE CITY OF BEVERLY HILLS AND BH LUXURY RESIDENCES AND OASIS WEST REALTY LLC

A request has been made for amendments to the One Beverly Hills Overlay Specific Plan to allow medical and ambulatory surgical care (outpatient only) uses in the Promenade (Amenity Area) and allow those uses to be open to the public; and to create a Residences Rental Program that would allow a minimum stay of one night for up to 44 residential units in the project. On August 27, 2026, the Planning Commission adopted a resolution recommending approval of the amendments to allow medical and ambulatory surgical care (outpatient only) uses, however they did not make a recommendation on the Residences Rental Program due to a lack of consensus. Additionally, amendments are proposed to the development agreement associated with the project related to the developer’s public benefit and fine art obligations.

ENVIRONMENTAL REVIEW

The project was assessed in accordance with the authority and criteria contained in the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), the State CEQA Guidelines, and the environmental regulations of the City. Pursuant to §15164 of the CEQA Guidelines an Addendum was prepared to the previously certified One Beverly Hills Overlay Specific Plan Final Supplemental Environmental Impact Report (SCH No. 2020090048), which concludes that the proposed Amendments do not result in any new or greater environmental impacts than were previously analyzed, disclosed, and mitigated. None of the conditions in §15164 of the CEQA Guidelines are present and no additional environmental review is required. As a result, staff recommends the City Council adopt the Addendum in its consideration of the Amendments.

Europe 2026

This is a report on our recent trip to Europe which exemplifies Anne's principle of "If I haven't been there, I want to go." For me, the trip was "only" 3 ½ weeks; Anne spent an additional ten days traveling with her sister. Anne would be the first to tell you that traveling with sis is a lot less stressful than traveling with me.

I will give you the overview and then some of the highlights. I will refrain from burdening you with fotos. One of my least favorite activities is looking at other people's vacation pictures.

The Overview

Landed at Paris' Charles de Gaulle Airport and endured the challenge of picking up a rental car. After an hour in line, the rental car operation from which we had reserved a car informed us that they had no cars but if we waited for six hours they could likely accommodate us. Anne solved that one in short order and we took off for Chantilly, en route to Normandy. There we visited Mont Saint Michel.

Then, in order, Warsaw, Poland, Krakow, Poland, a hiking trip that took us from Krakow through Poland and northern Slovakia and back to Krakow and a flite from there via Amsterdam to Ljubljana, Slovenia for a biking trip through Croatia and back to Ljubljana and home.

Just reciting that makes me so exhausted that I need a vacation.

Some Highlights

Chantilly is a beautiful castle just outside of Paris that is well worth a day trip when you are in Paris. Mont Saint Michel, the 15th Century abbey/fortress on a tidal island surrounded by water part of the time is very impressive to look at but the interior tour is lengthy and boring. The best part of this visit was a stay in the port/beach city of Dinard. Beautiful hotel overlooking the port, lots of interesting restaurants and a huge Saturday market where I acquired a red and white striped sweater that makes me look like a dashing gondolier (in my dreams).

Warsaw, Krakow and Poland itself were the true finds of the trip. Warsaw was entirely destroyed during World War II mostly due to the uprisings in the Jewish Ghetto and by Polish partisans and has been rebuilt complete with modern towering office buildings, condos, subways and great restaurants. The tour of the Jewish Ghetto from which nearly 500,000 Jews were deported to death camps if they could survive the conditions in the Ghetto was sobering. The last stop on this tour was 18 Mila Street where the last survivors were massacred by German soldiers. I immediately downloaded Leon Uris' "Mila 18", a novel about life and death in the Ghetto. A perfect read to learn about conditions in Ghetto. I also downloaded James Michener's "Poland" but did not get to it. I find that reading books set in places that I am visiting generally enhances the experience.

We took a train from Warsaw to Krakow, a completely different situation from Warsaw. While Warsaw is a brand new city, Krakow is a magnificently well preserved city that is several hundred years old. From there we took a day trip to visit Auschwitz, the notorious Nazi death camp. Auschwitz is well preserved and gives a sense of the magnitude of the extermination of Jews and others with its stacks of abandoned shoes and clothing and bales of human hair. In Krakow, the Jewish Museum of Galicia gives a sense of the thoroughness of the extermination of Jews that was carried on by the Nazis. Prior to the invasion of Poland by the Nazis there were over 3,500,000 Jews in Poland, over 10% of the total population. Almost all were killed. Today, there are an estimated 1000 to 2000 Jews in Poland. By way of contrast, prior to the Nazi takeover, there were approximately 1,000,000 Jews in Germany. Most were sent to the death camps. But, unlike Poland, post-war, many Jews have returned so that today there are approximately 100,000 Jews living in Germany. Poland is almost 100% Polish although approximately 100,000 Ukrainians have emigrated to Poland as a consequence of the Russian invasion.

We spent a few days hiking in Poland and its southern neighbor Slovakia in the Tatra Mountains. While both Poland and Slovakia are members of the European Union, Poland uses its own currency, the Zloty, and Slovakia uses the Euro. For whatever reason, prices in Poland are very reasonable while prices in Slovakia are much higher. Both are very prosperous, crime free with excellent food and wine and lots of interesting places to visit.

We returned to Krakow and flew to Ljubljana, the capital of Slovenia, the home of Laker star Luka Doncic. Slovenia is one of six very small countries that have emerged from the former Socialist Republic of Yugoslavia (others are Serbia, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia, North Macedonia and Montenegro) and the most prosperous. Ljubljana is a beautiful and very well preserved city and Slovenia is a beautiful, mountainous country. One of our guides, Tomaz Policar, told me that Slovenia is the most prosperous of the six. But Tomaz is a Slovene so we must take this with a grain of Slovenian truffles. If you are in need of an English-Slovenian interpreter, Tomaz is your guy. (Tomaz.Policar@gmail.com)

Slovenia is where we started our biking trip. Two days in and five falls later, from which I escaped with two bruised knees, one bloody elbow, a severely damaged ego and several reminders of why I was wearing a helmet, I decided that my mountain biking days are over. I think that this decision was likely a life-saving one. Like Sandy Koufax, I knew when to quit.

But the trip continued into Croatia and was nonetheless outstanding including wine tasting (great fun), olive oil and vinegar tasting (not so much fun) and pasta making.

The situation in former Yugoslavia where the residents have formed six countries out of one based on ethnicities or religion or history caused me to reflect on how different this is from the US where people from all over the world generally live together in harmony and do not consider breaking apart based on national origin or otherwise. The situation in former Czechoslovakia is similar. That country split into two, the Czech Republic and Slovakia. But then there is Switzerland that has French, German and Italian sections which apparently have concluded that they are better together than apart.

What to conclude? The world is complicated and sometimes, the more we know, the less we understand.

As you can tell from the above, I have been away from the Beverly Hills bubble for a while and am still catching up on developments in the race for two open seats on the Beverly Hills Board of Education. One of the seats is open because Rachelle Marcus, a long time teacher and highly respected member of our community, has decided not to seek re-election.

Over the next two weeks or so, I will be writing about what is happening in this all-important race. I shall include both the facts about the candidates and, perhaps, an opinion or two.

Stay tuned. If you are still undecided, I may be able to further your understanding, analysis and conclusions.

will benefit our students and take BHUSD learning and innovation to the next level."

The work will focus on curriculum, literacy, ethical use, prompting, evaluation of information, practical applications of AI, and more.

"AI changes everything," said Stuart. "We cannot take a system built 150 years ago, add artificial intelligence to it, and call that progress. Our children are going to inherit a world none of us can fully predict. Our job is to make sure they are ready to lead it. That means giving them the tools to think, create, question, adapt, and build what comes next. We should not be asking how AI fits into the old model of education; we should be asking what education needs to become now that AI exists. Our students deserve nothing less."

REMEMBERING JUDIE FENTON

Judie Fenton, a leading figure in Beverly Hills politics and philanthropy over the last 50 years, passed away last Tuesday evening. She was laid to rest on Sept. 28. See issue #1408 for her complete obituary.

NOELLE BATISTA HEALTH AND HUMAN RELATIONS COMMISSIONER

"My favorite memory of Judie Fenton was one of our many meetings in her back home office. She pulled out her collection of City Council campaign buttons and, one by one, shared a story about every candidate she had worked with over the years. Each person had their own personality, their own strengths, their own challenges, and their own story, and Judie remembered them all.

What stayed with me was not simply how much Beverly Hills history she carried with her, but how personally she carried it. To Judie, politics was never just about campaigns or elections. It was about people, relationships, and believing in someone enough to help them step forward. That afternoon taught me something I have carried with me ever since: a true legacy is not just what you accomplish yourself, but the people you encourage, mentor, and help find their own place in serving a community. Judie did that for generations of leaders, and I feel incredibly lucky to have been one of the people she believed in."

MERLE BAUER RETIRED BEVERLY VISTA ENGLISH TEACHER

"Shortly after arriving in the USA in 1977, I was fortunate to meet the dynamic Judie Fenton. It did not take me long to discover what an inspirational person she truly was. Her passion, intelligence and motivational skills certainly enriched my life and the lives of many others. The breadth of Judie's successful contributions not only affected positive change in our schools and city, but they also left an indelible imprint on our hearts. Her legacy of remarkable accomplishments deserves to be honored, admired and recognized."

JAN AND ALAN BLOCK

"Judie was a very good friend who exemplified community spirit and was a longtime leader in our community. We were honored to share being co-honored with her by Temple Emanuel. Her passing represents a tremendous loss to not only her family and friends, but the entire Beverly Hills community."

TONI CORWIN

"The Corwin-Fenton friendship began in Beverly Hills Little League, our husbands coaching rival teams—but through the major league of life, we were on the same team. My life will be greatly depleted by the loss of my dear friend."

LESTER FRIEDMAN BEVERLY HILLS COUNCILMEMBER

"Judie has been a dynamic force in Beverly Hills for so many years. Simone and I have been so fortunate to have had a close personal relationship with Frank and Miles. We first met Judie through her involvement at Horace Mann Elementary School which started a lifelong friendship. Her concern, conviction and dedication to our city was unequaled. We will miss her very much in so many ways. Our condolences to Miles, Jenny, Steven, Gary, Mindy and their entire families. Her life was a blessing to all that knew her."

JULIAN GOLD FORMER MAYOR

"Much will be written about Judie Fenton, and deservedly so. She was a remarkable woman, a Beverly Hills icon, and someone whose warmth, generosity, and influence touched countless lives. Whether through her work at BHEF, fundraising for the Fire and Police associations, or the many people—including me—she recruited, mentored, and supported on their path to greater public service, she will be remembered. Her influence is immeasurable.

For me, Judie was a dear friend—or, as she said, my sister. She loved handbags and shoes and had many. She loved to play poker and was good at it. She loved to laugh, deep from the belly, with tears running down her cheeks. That is the Judie I remember.

Sister, rest in peace, and may your memory be a blessing."

JOSH GROSS BEVERLY HILLS WEEKLY PUBLISHER

"Judie and I had a very inauspicious first meeting.

I was a junior at Beverly Hills High School, and had just gotten my driver's license the month before, when I was part of a rowdy group of teachers and students picketing the various Board of Education member's houses during the Oct. 1989 BHUSD teacher's strike. That day, Frank's South Wetherly Drive home was the target. We were hollering and carrying on outside on her lawn, with some insulting picket signs, as one might expect from a protest of this kind.

Judie snarled at us from her front door, turning the sprinklers on the picketers, which only riled up the angry mob even more! (The strike was later settled after 13 days, with no real winners).

Fast forward 10 years later, I founded Beverly Hills Weekly. Since I was only 26 at the time, many in the Beverly Hills establishment thought I would lose my shirt, get crushed by the Courier, and be out of business in six months. Of course, if you're reading this right now, it didn't quite work out that way. Gradually, I became friends with Judie and Frank, and later Steven.

Judie could be fiercely competitive on behalf of her candidates, but she could also be kind and generous. Her charity events were second-to-none in terms of their attendance and their fun. Indeed, since she had been ill in the last year or two, the Beverly Hills social scene has never really rebounded.

Judie's unprecedented record of being the most winning campaign manager in Beverly Hills history is likely to stand for many decades to come. Big J, you will be missed."

MYRA LURIE FORMER BOARD OF EDUCATION MEMBER

"Among the many treasured memories of our lunches, hard-fought campaigns, and, more recently, singing karaoke together, my favorite memories of Judie are the times she offered her sage and timeless advice about running for office. Develop a thick skin and wear red. Rest in peace, my beautiful friend. Your friendship, wisdom and dedication to our community will always be a blessing and inspiration to me."

JEANNE MARKS

"I worked for Judie at FTA for six years. She had a huge heart! We were very busy with clients and we were asked to do pro bono work for another organization. I asked her how we could take them on when we were so busy and she said, 'it is a great group and a needed service and they deserve it. (It was Our House, a grief counseling organization). We will reap the benefit sometime in some fashion, and if we don't, it is still the right thing to do!' Do the right thing, even when it isn't convenient!"

KATHY MELAMED

"Our beautiful City has lost a true gem. Judie Fenton was truly one of a kind. My earliest memory of Judie was at Beverly Hills Sports Camp, which she and Frank ran together.

Later on, my mom Soraya, who was on the Board of the BHPD Black and White gala, BHFD Fire gala and PACT, would take me along to their events and meetings as an extra set of hands to help. Eventually I put two and two together and realized that the wonderful Judie running the show was the same Judie from camp! There was never a dull moment with her. She worked tirelessly to bring the community together and taught us all so much. My sister Michelle and I were lucky to find some of our closest friends because of those efforts. I always enjoyed the nights before the galas. We would gather to stuff envelopes, make gift bags and roll up posters with our firefighters and police officers, truly giving all of us a sense of community. No one could organize and mobilize like Judie. She was a force and she will be missed dearly.”

SHARONA NAZARIAN
BEVERLY HILLS
COUNCILMEMBER

“I had the pleasure of knowing Judie for over 25 years. With Judie, you never had to wonder what she was thinking. She was direct, strong, and unmistakably herself, which was one of the many things I loved about her.

One of my favorite memories was at the end of my term as President of the Rotary Club of Beverly Hills as we were coming out of COVID. Judie, whom I always thought of as the original queen of Beverly Hills, placed a crown on my head and, with that wonderful Judie wit, let me be queen for the day.

That was Judie. Strong, spirited, and always bringing people together. I will miss her greatly and will always treasure her friendship.”

BERNIE NEBENZAHL

“Judie Fenton—a remarkable person. Her talent and vision were the strength behind the creation and services of the Beverly Hills Firemen’s Association and Police Officers Association. Judie’s energy and skills were fundamental to the development of Beverly Hills community leaders and important community service programs. A truly special person who will be missed.”

DERRICK ONTIVEROS

“A few weeks after we met, Judie started signing her texts to me ‘CM’ and made me guess what it stood for. ‘California Mom.’ Nobody asked me, and she never gave up the title.

Before I’d done anything but volunteer on Julian’s campaign, she had me in Rotary and on my first development project. The hardest problems I had, I took to her, and somehow, between her advice and the universe bending to her will, they always worked out. When my dad died and I had no idea what to do, she told me, step by step. She’d done it all before for Frank.

I also have Judie to thank for my wife. When Jessica asked her how to get involved in the city, Judie sent her to Next Beverly Hills, and that’s how we met. Her last email to me before her stroke said how happy she was to see us ‘finally as a couple.’ She lived to see us married.”

TOM PEASE
RELATIONS

“I met Judie during the Montage debate. What struck me about her was that despite being on different sides, she was never less than welcoming and truly nice, realizing that people can disagree on policy but still be friendly. So much so that she became close friends with another couple who had been against the project. I’ll also always remember and treasure her online chats during the Pandemic, which were a wonderful way to get and keep a sense of community during a very tough (and pretty surreal) time. That was Judie: find a way to make it work and welcome everyone in. She will be truly missed.”

MARK SCOTT
FORMER CITY MANAGER

“I’m sure I’ll never know another Judie Fenton. Because of her representational work, I often found myself “across the table” from Judie when I worked for the City. But even when she prevailed (which she usually did), she never let me feel like I’d lost. She was skilled, caring, loyal and fun. And a bunch of mischievous!”

AMIE SHERRY
FORMER RECREATION AND PARKS COMMISSIONER

“Judie had always been one of my parents’ closest friends and a woman I looked up to as a true pillar of our community. When Judie called on you to join her on a mission, you didn’t have much choice in the matter—you simply rolled up your sleeves and got to work.

As a child, I watched my parents and their group of friends devote themselves to the City of Beverly Hills and our schools throughout the 1980s and beyond. It wasn’t until about eight years ago that my time came. All it took was one phone call from Judie saying, “It’s your time to step up. You can do this.” And the rest is history.

Over the years, our relationship evolved from family friends to colleagues on the Recreation and Parks Commission, fellow Rotarians, and partners in raising funds for our Beverly Hills firefighters. Judie always believed in my ability to be a leader, and in doing so, gave me the confidence to grow into that role.

She also instilled in me a responsibility to pay forward the many benefits our community enjoys because of the hard work and dedication of people like Judie Fenton. She was a one-of-a-kind powerhouse who loved this city to its core.

We will miss her dearly. I will always be grateful for her friendship, her faith in me, and her example—and I promise to honor her legacy through a lifetime of service to the community she loved so deeply.”

“My favorite memory of Judie is ‘Sundays with Judie.’ During the COVID-19 shutdown, when so many people were isolated and feeling disconnected, Judie created a space for community, conversation, and information. She brought people together when we needed it most, and it remains a meaningful part of how I remember her and the way she cared for our community. Judie touched many lives, including mine, and I feel lucky to have known her.”

Beverly High Hosts
NormanAid Support Fair

Beverly High hosted its NormanAid Support Fair Sept. 26. Students learned about mental health, wellness and support resources.

La La Land Cafe provided matcha and lemonade. The cafe’s founder and CEO, Francois Reihani, who attended Beverly High, also spoke with students about his career.

“At Beverly Hills Unified, supporting the whole child means creating schools where students know they are seen, valued, and surrounded by people who care about their success and well-being,” said Board of Education President Judy Manouchehri. “The NormanAid Support Fair reflects something very special about Beverly Hills. Our schools, alumni, businesses, and community partners continue to come together around our students in meaningful ways. Having La La Land Cafe bring its message of kindness directly to our campus is another example of what can happen when a community truly invests in its young

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (855) 313-3319 or visit this Internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 148047-CA. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: Effective January 1, 2021, you may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 148047-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that Caryl Noble be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code.

Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250.
