"One Beverly Hills"

The developer of One Beverly is asking the City to approve a new "Residences Rental Program."

One Beverly projects that it will generate more than $1.4 billion for them, over ten years.

To allow this, the City Council must approve an amendment to the 2021 Development Agreement.

That Development Agreement provided for many "community benefits" to the City, in the form of hundreds of millions of dollars..

City bureaucrats have purportedly been meeting with the Councilmembers behind closed doors insisting they must approve because the City needs the tax money.

That is not the truth.

The City's own official projections show the budget will be balanced once One Beverly comes on line ... without the new "Residential Rental Program.

The real problem is that the Council has failed to ask how much "community benefit" that One Beverly must pay for the right to earn that $1.4 billion.

Should the "community benefit" be $25 million, $50 million, or $100 million?

How much is One Beverly offering? Nothing. Nada. Zilch.

Why?

The city bureaucrats "forgot" to call the law firm who negotiated "the most lucrative and richest direct public benefit package in favor of any city in the state of California and probably the country."

It's time for the City Council to ask Greenberg Glusker, the original architect of the 2021 deal, to help the city earn what it is entitled.

Beverly Hills Plans Roadway Striping Changes at Six Locations

The Traffic and Parking Commission was expected to review six planned roadway striping projects aimed at improving traffic and safety, at its Thursday meeting.

At Robertson Boulevard and Clifton Way, the city plans to add a dedicated northbound left-turn lane to reduce congestion.

"The left turn pocket will give left-turning drivers a designated space to queue without impeding through traffic. The centerline will also be shifted to help direct drivers into the through/right lane and reinforce the intended lane assignments," according to Thursday's staff report.

On the 700 block of Whittier Drive, the city plans to remove the second northbound lane and arrows and add parking space markings along the curb. On South Santa Monica Boulevard and North Crescent Drive, the city plans to install markings and signage to reinforce the right turn requirement.

On North Santa Monica Boulevard and Oakhurst Drive, the city also plans to replace the bike lane weave with a shortened lane directly from the median island to the curb.

"This will allow bicyclists to more quickly cross the path of merging vehicles. The changes will be supported by new pavement markings and 'Yield to Bicyclists' signs within the slip lane departure at Oakhurst Drive," according to the report.

Other improvements include installing new pavement markings to shift the bike lane to the curb farther upstream from the intersection at North Doheny Drive and Burton Way, and install a tough curb with delineators within the median to restrict the left turn movements at Doheny Drive and Wilshire Boulevard.

The commission was expected to provide input for potential future improvements.

Metro Continues Wilshire Boulevard Work as Beverly Drive Station Takes Shape

Metro is continuing its work near the Wilshire/La Cienega station and on the future Beverly Drive station, according to an informational update on the Traffic and Parking Commission's Thursday agenda report.

Paving of Wilshire Boulevard between Stanley Drive and San Vicente Boulevard, including nearby segments of La Cienega Boulevard, Hamilton Drive, Gale Drive, and Tower Drive was completed in Sept.

At the Beverly Drive station, crews are working on interior finishes, escalators, elevators, electrical work and other improvements.

Lane reductions and closures will continue. The next community update is scheduled for Nov. 18.

The Beverly Drive station is expected to open in the spring of 2027.

Public Works Commission to Review Proposed Water Rate Increases

At its Friday meeting, the Public Works Commission is expected to discuss proposed water rate increases that would raise charges by $0.36 per hundred cubic feet in 2027 and $0.60 in 2028.

The proposed adjustments stem from increases approved by the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California, which is aimed "at sustaining safe water supplies in Southern California amid challenges posed by climate change and inflation," according to a city staff report.

The first increase is expected to take effect around Feb. 1, 2027, following required notifications. The second is scheduled to begin Jan. 1, 2028.

The item is expected to go before the City Council next month.

Superior Court of Los Angeles County Launches Electronic Citations Program with BHPD

The Superior Court of Los Angeles County launched an electronic citation (eCitations) program in partnership with the Beverly Hills Police Department (BHPD) to allow agencies to electronically transmit traffic citations directly to the Court.

"The launch of eCitations marks a meaningful step forward in how citation information moves from law enforcement to the Court," said Presiding Judge Sergio C. Tapia II. "By connecting the Beverly Hills Police Department's records system directly with the Court's case management system, we eliminate much of the manual data entry and scanning that once slowed this work, shorten processing times, and give defendants faster access to information about their cases. We are grateful to the Beverly Hills Police Department for its partnership in bringing this program to life, and we will continue to seek out ways that technology can help us serve the public more effectively."

Beginning Monday, Sept. 28, the Court began receiving citations electronically. In the former system, it could have taken up to one month for officers to file the citations. With eCitations, the Court receives the citation within 48 hours.

"The Beverly Hills Police Department has appreciated its continued partnership with the Superior Court of Los Angeles County in providing an electronic platform that improves citation efficiency and reduces costs," said Chief Max Subin of the Beverly Hills Police Department.

Colonel James Burnley

Colonel James ("Jim") Burnley, the Solid Waste Manager for the City, is one of the many heroes who makes the Beverly Hills bubble the special place that it is. It is, therefore, that you know a bit about him and fully appreciate what he and his staff do for us.

First, "Colonel" is his first name, not his rank. And his full name is Colonel James Burnley, Junior. His great-grandfather was in the US Army and his grand-father named his son, Jim's father, Colonel James Burnley (the first). Jim's son is Colonel James Burnley, III.

As Solid Waste Manager, Jim is responsible for all solid waste residential trash collection, street sweeping operations and environmental maintenance services (making tagging and graffiti disappear almost instantly among other things). He also manages the companies that remove commercial waste and has a staff of more than thirty full time employees.

He provides strategic leadership, ensures regulatory compliance, and directs essential municipal functions that uphold the cleanliness, sustainability, and overall appearance of the community.

Colonel Burnley's tenure with the city began in 1995, when he joined the Solid Waste Division as an operator responsible for collecting waste across both residential and commercial routes. He soon developed comprehensive operational expertise, becoming proficient with all equipment used within the division, including street sweepers and semi-tractor trailers. His dedication and technical capability led to his promotion to Supervisor in 1998.

His story is an inspiration. He was raised, for the most part by his grandmother in the now demolished Aliso Village project in East Los Angeles. He did not want to become a victim of his environment and seized the opportunity to be bussed to Paul Revere Junior High School and Palisades High School, riding a bus to school for more than an hour each way for six years.

Shortly after his high school graduation, Jim became a father at age 18 and providing for a young family required that he go to work rather than pursue higher education. Getting a bit ahead of ourselves, today Jim has three children and six grandchildren. (I forgot to ask whether one of the grandkids is Colonel James Burnley IV.)

So he took various jobs, working for CalTrans and acting as a security guard until he was able to land a temporary position as a solid waste helper with the City of Burbank. This involved manual loading of trash into the collection trucks and getting a commercial license so he could drive the trucks. Jim says that he was then lean and mean because he physically lifted 12 to 16 tons a day. Today, he is still lean in his mid-fifties but I have detected no mean streak.

After two years in Burbank, he applied for a permanent position with the City of Culver City and was hired. A solid waste supervisor from Beverly Hills was a member of the panel who had interviewed Jim for the Culver City job and was impressed and persuaded him to come to Beverly Hills. That was in 1995 when he began as a solid waste equipment operator. By then the City had automated the trash pickup operation so the physical demands were sharply diminished. In 1997 he was promoted to senior equipment operator, in 1998 he was promoted to supervisor and in 2012 he was promoted to his current position of Solid Waste Manager.

From the outset, Jim has viewed his department as a close knit work family. He was very impressed when, shortly after he joined the City, then- City Manager Mark Scott had a policy of meeting every new City employee. Not long after, Jim was commuting from his home in the San Fernando Valley over Coldwater Canyon when his old Chevy Nova broke down and was blocking traffic. Some fellow commuters helped push his car out of the traffic lane. Coincidentally, one was Mark Scott who then loaned Jim his cell phone to call for a tow. Jim knew right away that he was not just a number and had come to the right place. More than thirty years later he is still here.

Jim's responsibilities include being up to date on ever-changing regulations. In the near future, it is likely that our residential trash collection will transition from the current use of the green bins for organic waste and black bins for waste and recyclables to a three stream operation involving green bins for organic waste, black bins for waste and blue bins for recyclables. I have always felt that we should separate the waste and recyclables and am pleased about this prospective new process.

Colonel James Burnley epitomizes the saying that if you love what you do, you will never work a day in your life. He loves what he does and it shows. His objective is to advance the City's commitment to sustainability, operational excellence, and high standards of community maintenance. His attitude is that he will do whatever he can whether or not it his responsibility to provide Beverly Hills residents with the highest and best service possible.

Jim and others like him make the Beverly Hills bubble special.

Note from San Francisco after a recent week's visit. The streets are cleaner, there are far fewer visible unhoused persons, and businesses appear to be flourishing. Nothing like a competent City administration that concentrates on running a city rather than an emphasis on social engineering. This doesn't appear to be on the near term horizon for the City of Los Angeles.

Last week I encouraged our City leaders to employ the leverage that it enjoys by reason of Cain's request for discretionary action to allow short term rentals at One Beverly Hills (OBH) to obtain more information on a highly confidential basis about the project's financial situation.

It is useful to attempt to quantify the extent of that leverage by asking the question: What is the short term rental request worth to Cain?

Cain proposes that the City will be paid an occupancy tax of 19%. Cain's says that its expert analysis from CBRE shows that will yield the City $10M to $20M annually. That means that Cain will receive additional revenues of $52.6M to $105.3M every year from the short term rental program.

With that amount of revenue at stake, the City has a lot of leverage with which to demand more transparency into the status of the OBH project and where it is going.

With that information, the City will be able to protect its interests and enhance the prospects that the project will be built as planned.

MANOUCHEHRI, CIENFUEGOS WIN BOARD OF EDUCATION RACE

By Danielle Berjikian

Judy Manouchehri

The semi-final Nov. 3 election results for the Beverly Hills Board of Education election have been announced for the two open seats. As of press time, incumbent Judy Manouchehri came in first place with 5,425 votes.

"I'm thrilled by these early results and couldn't be prouder of the campaign we ran. We told the truth and stood on our record. Promises made. Promises kept. Our early lead tells me that voters recognize the undeniable progress of the past several years. The BHUSD turnaround is here, and our community wants to continue on this trajectory of excellence. However you voted, let's remember we are one Beverly Hills community and build on that progress for every student," Manouchehri said.

David Cienfuegos came in second place, with 4,752 votes. He did respond to a request for comment by press time.

Candidate Jackie Kruger came in third place with 3,302 votes.

"The voters have spoken, and I respect their decision. I congratulate the winning candidates. I take great strength from our supporters. For every false accusation lobbed by our opponents, we saw a new surge of grassroots support. I faced false accusations and threats of violence for two months. Our esteemed board member, Dr. Amanda Stern, has endured this kind of abuse on the dais for two years, and I want to use my remarks to thank her for her strength and her ability to withstand it. Thank you as well to our amazing supporters, who make it all worth it.

David Cienfuegos

To the students watching: justice and democracy work through the people. When your cause is just and worthy, you keep putting one foot in front of the other, and you persevere, even in defeat," Kruger said.

Jackie Kruger

Kimberly Lifschitz followed in fourth place with 2,772 votes.

"I am so proud of the campaign I ran, and I'm so proud to have earned each and every vote I received. I'm even more proud that I did not have to lie to the public, intimidate and abuse community members, harass public officials, weaponize Judaism, or target children to secure a single one of those votes.

The tactics used in this race, by the candidates as well as their supporters and sitting board members, are reprehensible — but now the entire country knows it, and the community is watching. I will continue to be a voice and an advocate for those this district has ignored, as those voices will become even more vital now.

Kimberly Lifschitz

I genuinely hope Ms. Manouchehri and Mr. Cienfuegos will govern as the versions of themselves they've presented to the public, and not as what they've shown themselves to be in private," Lifschitz said.

Jared Gonzales came in fifth place with 997 votes.

"I want to first thank everyone who voted for me and offered their support throughout this important election. It was a true pleasure meeting so many residents across our beautiful city. Running for the Board of Education was an incredibly rewarding experience, and I look forward to continuing to stay active and engaged in our school community and city.

Jared Gonzales

I also want to congratulate Judy and David, who appear to be the winners in our race. I wish them and the entire Board of Education all the best moving forward," Gonzales said.

For Judge Of The Superior Court Office No. 131, Beverly Hills resident Donna Tryfman defeated David Ross with 859,327 votes. Ross received 777,801 votes.

"I am very grateful to the voters of LA County and my hometown of Beverly Hills for this early confidence in my candidacy. I realize ballots are still being counted and I have full confidence in the democratic process. My campaign, like my 30 years of public service, has always been about experience, integrity, independence, and the belief that justice must never be dictated by politics or ideology. I am proud to have run a campaign grounded in my record, my values, and my unwavering commitment to the rule of law," Tryfman said.

For State Senator for the 24th District, Brian Goldsmith defeated John Erickson with 142,968 votes. Erickson received 103,611 votes.

NOTICE OF PETITION TO ADMINISTER ESTATE OF:
ANDRE E. JAMES
CASE NO. 26STPB02908

To all heirs, beneficiaries, creditors, contingent creditors, and persons who may otherwise be interested in the WILL or estate, or both of ANDRE E. JAMES.

A PETITION FOR PROBATE has been filed by KRISTINA R. JAMES in the Superior Court of California, County of LOS ANGELES.

THE PETITION FOR PROBATE requests that KRISTINA R. JAMES be appointed as personal representative to administer the estate of the decedent.

THE PETITION requests authority to administer the estate under the Independent Administration of Estates Act with limited authority. (This authority will allow the personal representative to take many actions without obtaining court approval. Before taking certain very important actions, however, the personal representative will be required to give notice to interested persons unless they have waived notice or consented to the proposed action.) The independent administration authority will be granted unless an interested person files an objection to the petition and shows good cause why the court should not grant the authority.

A HEARING on the petition will be held in this court as follows: 11/18/26 at 8:30AM in Dept. 236 located at 111 N. HILL ST., LOS ANGELES, CA 90012

IF YOU OBJECT to the granting of the petition, you should appear at the hearing and state your objections or file written objections with the court before the hearing. Your appearance may be in person or by your attorney.

IF YOU ARE A CREDITOR or a contingent creditor of the decedent, you must file your claim with the court and mail a copy to the personal representative appointed by the court within the later of either (1) four months from the date of first issuance of letters to a general personal representative, as defined in section 58(b) of the California Probate Code, or (2) 60 days from the date of mailing or personal delivery to you of a notice under section 9052 of the California Probate Code. Other California statutes and legal authority may affect your rights as a creditor. You may want to consult with an attorney knowledgeable in California law.

YOU MAY EXAMINE the file kept by the court. If you are a person interested in the estate, you may file with the court a Request for Special Notice (form DE-154) of the filing of an inventory and appraisal of estate assets or of any petition or account as provided in Probate Code section 1250. A Request for Special Notice form is available from the court clerk.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. All checks payable to Prestige Default Services, LLC.
NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (949) 776-4697 or visit this Internet Website https://prestigepostandpub.com, using the file number assigned to this case 26-19375. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale.
NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (949) 776-4697, or visit this internet website https://prestigepostandpub.com, using the file number assigned to this case 26-19375 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.

Client Testimonial

"I have worked with Jennifer on a couple of properties (rentals and home purchases) for over 10 years. I cannot say enough good things about Jennifer. She is professional, super responsive, and always goes above and beyond. The most important thing I can say; Jennifer is great about looking out for her client's best interest, even when not to her advantage - that right there is why she is the best. She puts her client's best interest at the top of the priority list and has the patience to step back and give the right advice when needed. Purchasing is an emotional process so having someone pragmatic and professional in your corner is so important. I have met a lot of fly by night and quite frankly terrible realtors. Go with Jennifer, period."-Bradley G.
