Commission Recommends Denying Traffic Restrictions on Linden Drive

The Traffic and Parking Commission recommended that the City Council reject a proposal to restrict left turns from eastbound Olympic Boulevard onto northbound South Linden Drive. The City Council discussed the matter at its Tuesday Study Session and was in agreement with the commission's recommendation.

The proposed restrictions would have applied weekdays from 7 to 10 a.m. and 3 to 7 p.m.

"There is no question in my mind that it would reduce traffic on Linden. I also believe that there is no question that it will increase traffic that was on Linden to the adjacent streets, and that is not something that I think is appropriate or can be done," Councilmember Les Friedman said.

City Council Liaisons Rebecca Pynoos and Friedman previously agreed with the recommendation to deny the turn restriction because it could shift traffic onto other streets. They instead suggested looking into other solutions, such as more enforcement and potentially adding speed humps or reduced speed limits. The City Council agreed a more holistic approach was appropriate.

City traffic counts found that 239 vehicles made the turn during morning hours, and over 500 in the afternoon.

The commission recommended against the restriction after receiving 43 public comments. Twelve supported the proposal, and 31 opposed it.

Tryfman, Ross Election Tightens

Donna Tryfman

The race for the Judge of the Superior Court Office No. 131 has majorly tightened since the original statement of votes was cast on Nov. 3. As of press time, Beverly Hills resident Donna Tryfman led with 1,204,691 votes. David Ross followed with 1,199,087 votes.

"I'm grateful to every single voter who supported me. While the margin has narrowed as additional ballots are counted, I remain hopeful and respectful of the counting process. We'll continue watching the updates and let the final results speak for themselves," Tryfman said.

This race was one of the closest races in the county.

Beverly Hills Seeks Continued Funding for Metro D Line Security

The City Council agreed there was a need for additional funding to maintain public safety following the opening of the Metro D Line station, at its Tuesday meeting.

The City Council agreed to continue the current strategy while monitoring homelessness and staffing needs. The City Council also discussed planning for increased activity during the summer and preparations for the Olympics.

"The results have been far better than even anticipated," Vice Mayor Mary Wells said.

Once the Metro D Line Wilshire/La Cienega Station opened on May 8, the City was established as the temporary end-of-line station. This will be the case until service extends farther west. Subsequently, the City implemented a response strategy designed to address potential public safety, homelessness, and concerns associated with increased activity from public transit.

The City Council was in consensus that there is a need for funding to maintain current public safety staffing levels, including overnight, for the remainder of the fiscal year.

As part of the approach, the City deployed an overnight security. City staff indicated that this has been critical to address emerging concerns near the station.

The staff report also indicates that without this level of engagement, the City risks shifting from a preventative approach to a more reactive response model.

City staff is expected to return to the City Council with an appropriation in the amount of $490,000 to maintain the current level of service.

BHPD Awarded $79,000 Grant for Speeding and Reckless Driving Program

BHPD received a grant from the California Office of Traffic Safety (OTS) to help reduce the number of injuries and deaths on roads.

"We are grateful to receive this grant, which will strengthen our traffic enforcement efforts and improve road safety," Beverly Hills Police Chief Max Subin said. "Through a combination of education and enforcement efforts, our goal is to reduce dangerous driving behaviors, prevent crashes, and make our roads safer for everyone."

The grant will provide additional programs:

- DUI checkpoints
- High-visibility distracted driving enforcement operations
- Enforcement focused on the most dangerous driver behaviors
- Enforcement focused on driving violations that cause crashes
- Community presentations on traffic safety issues

"Traffic safety begins with everyday decisions," OTS Director Stephanie Dougherty said. "When we address the risky driving behaviors that put everyone on the road in danger, including speeding, distraction, and impairment, we can prevent crashes and save lives. By supporting enforcement efforts and educating communities, we're helping to build a safety culture where looking out for others and safe travel behaviors are the norm."

The grant program runs through September 2027.

Beverly Hills Postpones Approval of Regional Affordable Housing Trust

The City Council postponed the approval of joining the Westside Cities Affordable Housing Trust, at its meeting, as it was unable to discuss the matter at Tuesday's Study Session.

Culver City, Santa Monica, and West Hollywood have each adopted a Joint Exercise of Powers Agreement to form the Westside Cities Affordable Housing Trust. The purpose is to fund affordable projects within the Cities. The source of the revenue would be funds from Measure A.

"The purpose of the JPA is to establish a mechanism by which Measure A funds may be deployed across the Westside. Measure A funds do not directly flow to Beverly Hills. It is anticipated that affordable housing developers would apply to various financing opportunities announced by the Trust," according to the staff report.

Horvath Announces Run for Los Angeles County CEO Position

Los Angeles County Supervisor Lindsey Horvath announced her candidacy for the county's elected CEO position. This makes her the first candidate to enter the race.

The position will replace the board-appointed Chief Executive Officer.

Los Angeles County Supervisor Kathryn Barger has criticized the "rushed" process, and pledged that she will not run for the position.

Lindsey Horvath

"With a $54 billion budget, more than 110,000 employees, no term limits, and no professional credentials required, the elected County Executive will be one of the most powerful and most highly paid politicians in the entire state of California and perhaps the nation," Supervisor Barger stated.

She also accused the Task Force of accelerating the launch to October, which is more than a year ahead of the timeline in Measure G.

"The Board adopting the recommendations today is essentially signing a blank check," Supervisor Barger said. "That is neither a responsible nor transparent way to govern."

Beverly Hills Planning Commission to Consider Permanent SB 9 Housing Rules

The Planning Commission is expected to discuss a proposed ordinance Thursday that would make permanent the city's existing regulations governing housing developments and lot splits under California's Senate Bill 9.

The proposed rules would maintain the requirements without introducing additional substantive changes.

SB 9 requires governments to ministerially approve certain developments, including up to two primary units per lot and urban lot splits that allow the creation of two parcels. These provisions allow up to four units on a single-family zoned lot.

The city adopted regulations and the proposed ordinance would incorporate those provisions permanently.

Fall Doldrums

The results on Election Day, 2026 were almost perfect. The best that I can say about the divisive election of members of the Board of Education is that it is over. Some, like me, are disappointed but many others are pleased. Some will say that Trumpism is over but that Beverly Hills has not yet read the memo. Whatever.

Now, we must move ahead. While some have pointed out that there have been some recent improvements in state proficiency exam scores and otherwise, no one has suggested that we can rest on our laurels. There remain serious academic challenges as reflected in the rankings that compare our schools to neighboring school districts and others with similar demographic composition. While recent results may improve our comparative standing from the most recent rankings of BHHS (174th in the Los Angeles area, 357th in California and 2,184th in the US), no one would argue that we are where we want to be or that the improvement to date would materially raise any of these rankings.

The results of the election are not the end of efforts to improve but only the beginning.

Now our Board of Education and District administration must address challenging questions:

Why is the academic standing so disappointing?

What can be done to improve it?

Can we end the culture of permissiveness and no consequences for bad behavior at least to the extent that this culture invades our school campuses?

Why is there so much litigation? Why is so much of that litigation an apparent result of how we treat each other? What can be done to reduce if not eliminate the divisions that exist?

Real improvement will require a comprehensive inquiry into and understanding of these issues. This cannot occur unless we candidly admit, now that the campaign is over, that there are problems and address them objectively and intensely.

Material and substantial change is undeniably needed and needed fast.

At a minimum, we need a task force composed of two members of the Board of Education, representatives of administration and educators from Beverly Hills AND people with a record of real achievement in improving public schools. Otherwise our leaders will continue to claim that the published rankings are based on the past but "you should see us now."

Welcome or not, I do intend to continue to lend my voice to these efforts.

California law provides for the ultimate penalty – the death penalty– for some of the most serious crimes.

In my view, this is a false death penalty. No one has been executed by reason of the California death penalty in over twenty years since 2006. Between the resumption of the death penalty in California in 1978 and 2006, only thirteen people, one every two or three years, were executed. In 2019, Governor Gavin Newsom imposed a moratorium on executions. Governor-elect Xavier Becerra has pledged to continue the moratorium.

There are 548 people on "death row" ostensibly waiting for an execution that, as a practical matter, will never come. Yet we spend multi-millions of taxpayer $ on lawyers who must navigate the substantial procedural hurdles that properly exist to ensure that no one is improperly finally sentenced to pay the ultimate price.

Governor Gavin Newsom announced on November 5, 2026, that he intends to commute the death sentences of all 548 California death-row prisoners to life without possibility of parole. If fully implemented, his action would constitute the largest mass commutation of death sentences in American history.

As an aside, it should be noted that the instrumentalities for execution have been dismantled and the "death row" inmates are not segregated but part of the general populations of the prisons based on their personal circumstances, not their sentence.

Notably, Newsom has not abolished California's death penalty, and he cannot complete all 548 commutations without the California Supreme Court's cooperation. And without further legislation, accused criminals will continue to be sentenced to the death penalty.

There really is no death row. This is obviously in recognition that, as a practical matter, there is no foreseeable prospect that any executions will occur.

Lest we be unduly concerned, no prisoner will be released merely because of the commutation, underlying convictions remain intact, the prisoners will be serving sentences without possibility of parole and prosecutors can in future murder prosecutions pursue a death penalty.

There are many arguments on both sides of the issue of whether the death penalty should be administered. I do not presume to take a position on that.

But I strongly believe that Governor Newsom's position is a correct one and the commutation is appropriate. I also believe that California should completely abolish laws prescribing the death penalty

This is for the simple reason that there is in reality no likelihood that any one in California will be executed by the state and the expenditure of substantial funds and emotional energy dedicated to imposing sentences that will not be carried out is an enormous waste. No further time, energy or resources should be expended on a fiction.

Now that the World Series is done and the exciting interlude of the elections is also done, the following from former Baseball Commissioner Bart Giamatti captures my mood about our Beverly Hills bubble, baseball in general and the Dodgers in particular:

"It breaks your heart. It is designed to break your heart.

The game begins in spring, when everything else begins again, and it blossoms in the summer, filling the afternoons and evenings, and then as soon as the chill rains come, it stops and leaves you to face the fall alone.

You count on it, rely on it to buffer the passage of time, to keep the memory of sunshine and high skies alive, and then just when the days are all twilight, when you need it most, it stops."

Read it and weep and wait 'til next year.

BOARD OF EDUCATION MULLS UPDATED FACILITY RENTAL POLICY

But Should Alcohol be Allowed on School Grounds?

By Danielle Berjikian

The Board of Education postponed an approval of an updated facility rental pricing package, at its Tuesday meeting. The Board of Education voted 4-0 against the proposed policy.

The proposal changes rental costs in the district, with pricing for market value rentals. For example, the rate for the K.L. Peters Auditorium would be $4,692 for the full day, labeled as "fair rental value" under the proposal.

"These are amazing facilities that we want to make full use of and not just sit in the dark, but we just have to do it wisely," Board member Amanda Stern said.

The board of education discussed eligibility, fees, insurance, security and the use of alcohol at events. The district has never allowed alcohol on school grounds in the past.

"We have the ability to compete for things that can make us a premier city-wide destination when it comes to events and entertainment that our kids can be involved in, our pathways can be involved in, and our community can be involved in, all while bringing in much-needed revenue in our school district," Stuart said.

The proposal is expected to return at a future meeting.

He was sentenced to more than 16 months for making or passing a fictitious check, grand theft of access card, conspiracy to commit crime, possess/alter access card equipment, forgery, kidnapping, robbery and extortion," according to the press release.

OBITUARIES

Randall England

1951-2026

Randall England, an actor, model, and writer who lived on South Bedford Drive for more than forty years, died September 25, 2026, surrounded by family.

An Oklahoma native and University of Oklahoma graduate, England's modeling career took him around the world before he settled in Beverly Hills. His acting credits included Dallas, General Hospital, and Baywatch. He also shared a Drama-Logue ensemble award for his part in the stage production of The Three Sisters.

Known for his charm, kindness, and signature cowboy boots, England loved the arts, mentoring young actors, and cruising Beverly Hills in his vintage BMW. Above all, he cherished being a father and "Pappaw."

He is survived by daughter Micaela Reed (Sam); grandchildren Katherine and Julian; mother Catherine Burgess; sister Linda Baker; and extended family.

Memorial donations may be made to the Esophageal Cancer Action Network (ECAN).

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT (AVISO AL DEMANDADO): MERYL JEHAN TARICA, an individual; and DOES 1 through 100, inclusive; YOU ARE BEING SUED BY PLAINTIFF (LO ESTÁ DEMANDANDO EL DEMANDANTE): MASSOUD AROOZI, an individual;

NOTICE! You have been sued. The court may decide against you without your being heard unless you respond within 30 days. Read the information below.

You have 30 CALENDAR DAYS after this summons and legal papers are served on you to file a written response at this court and have a copy served on the plaintiff. A letter or phone call will not protect you. Your written response must be in proper legal form if you want the court to hear your case. There may be a court form that you can use for your response. You can find these court forms and more information at the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), your county law library, or the courthouse nearest you. If you cannot pay the filing fee, ask the court clerk for a fee waiver form. If you do not file your response on time, you may lose the case by default, and your wages, money, and property may be taken without further warning from the court.

There are other legal requirements. You may want to call an attorney right away. If you do not know an attorney, you may want to call an attorney referral service. If you cannot afford an attorney, you may be eligible for free legal services from a nonprofit legal services program. You can locate these nonprofit groups at the California Legal Services Web site (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), the California Courts Online Self-Help Center (www.courtinfo.ca.gov/selfhelp), or by contacting your local court or county bar association. NOTE: The court has a statutory lien for waived fees and costs on any settlement or arbitration award of $10,000 or more in a civil case. The court's lien must be paid before the court will dismiss the case.

¡AVISO! Lo han demandado. Si no responde dentro de 30 días, la corte puede decidir en su contra sin escuchar su versión. Lea la información a continuación.

Tiene 30 DÍAS DE CALENDARIO después de que le entreguen esta citación y papeles legales para presentar una respuesta por escrito en esta corte y hacer que se entregue una copia al demandante. Una carta o una llamada telefónica no lo protegen. Su respuesta por escrito tiene que estar en formato legal correcto si desea que procesen su caso en la corte. Es posible que haya un formulario que usted pueda usar para su respuesta. Puede encontrar estos formularios de la corte y más información en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California (www.sucorte.ca.gov), en la biblioteca de leyes de su condado o en la corte que le quede más cerca. Si no puede pagar la cuota de presentación, pida al secretario de la corte que le dé un formulario de exención de pago de cuotas. Si no presenta su respuesta a tiempo, puede perder el caso por incumplimiento y la corte le podrá quitar su sueldo, dinero y bienes sin más advertencia.

Hay otros requisitos legales. Es recomendable que llame a un abogado inmediatamente. Si no conoce a un abogado, puede llamar a un servicio de remisión a abogados. Si no puede pagar a un abogado, es posible que cumpla con los requisitos para obtener servicios legales gratuitos de un programa de servicios legales sin fines de lucro. Puede encontrar estos grupos sin fines de lucro en el sitio web de California Legal Services, (www.lawhelpcalifornia.org), en el Centro de Ayuda de las Cortes de California, (www.sucorte.ca.gov) o poniéndose en contacto con la corte o el colegio de abogados locales. AVISO: Por ley, la corte tiene derecho a reclamar las cuotas y los costos exentos por imponer un gravamen sobre cualquier recuperación de $10,000 ó más de valor recibida mediante un acuerdo o una concesión de arbitraje en un caso de derecho civil. Tiene que pagar el gravamen de la corte antes de que la corte pueda desechar el caso.

NOTICE TO POTENTIAL BIDDERS: If you are considering bidding on this property lien, you should understand that there are risks involved in bidding at a trustee auction. You will be bidding on a lien, not on the property itself. Placing the highest bid at a trustee auction does not automatically entitle you to free and clear ownership of the property. You should also be aware that the lien being auctioned off may be a junior lien. If you are the highest bidder at the auction, you are or may be responsible for paying off all liens senior to the lien being auctioned off, before you can receive clear title to the property. You are encouraged to investigate the existence, priority, and size of outstanding liens that may exist on this property by contacting the county recorder's office or a title insurance company, either of which may charge you a fee for this information. If you consult either of these resources, you should be aware that the same lender may hold more than one mortgage or deed of trust on the property. All checks payable to Prestige Default Services, LLC.
NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNER: The sale date shown on this notice of sale may be postponed one or more times by the mortgagee, beneficiary, trustee, or a court, pursuant to Section 2924g of the California Civil Code. The law requires that information about trustee sale postponements be made available to you and to the public, as a courtesy to those not present at the sale. If you wish to learn whether your sale date has been postponed, and, if applicable, the rescheduled time and date for the sale of this property, you may call (949) 776-4697 or visit this Internet Website https://prestigepostandpub.com, using the file number assigned to this case 26-19375. Information about postponements that are very short in duration or that occur close in time to the scheduled sale may not immediately be reflected in the telephone information or on the Internet Web site. The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale.
NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant buyer," you can purchase the property if you match the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. If you are an "eligible bidder," you may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (949) 776-4697, or visit this internet website https://prestigepostandpub.com, using the file number assigned to this case 26-19375 to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant buyer" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase.

The best way to verify postponement information is to attend the scheduled sale. NOTICE TO TENANT: You may have a right to purchase this property after the trustee auction pursuant to Section 2924m of the California Civil Code. If you are an "eligible tenant bidder." You may be able to purchase the property if you exceed the last and highest bid placed at the trustee auction. There are three steps to exercising this right of purchase. First, 48 hours after the date of the trustee sale, you can call (855) 313-3319, or visit this internet website www.clearreconcorp.com, using the file number assigned to this case 151273-CA to find the date on which the trustee's sale was held, the amount of the last and highest bid, and the address of the trustee. Second, you must send a written notice of intent to place a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 15 days after the trustee's sale. Third, you must submit a bid so that the trustee receives it no more than 45 days after the trustee's sale. If you think you may qualify as an "eligible tenant bidder" or "eligible bidder," you should consider contacting an attorney or appropriate real estate professional immediately for advice regarding this potential right to purchase. Client Testimonial

"I have worked with Jennifer on a couple of properties (rentals and home purchases) for over 10 years. I cannot say enough good things about Jennifer. She is professional, super responsive, and always goes above and beyond. The most important thing I can say; Jennifer is great about looking out for her client's best interest, even when not to her advantage - that right there is why she is the best. She puts her client's best interest at the top of the priority list and has the patience to step back and give the right advice when needed. Purchasing is an emotional process so having someone pragmatic and professional in your corner is so important. I have met a lot of fly by night and quite frankly terrible realtors. Go with Jennifer, period."-Bradley G.
